WIFE WAS WORRIED

The Case Of The Empty Drum: A Belvedere Mixup

A Belvedere woman who worried about the safety of her house, her husband who didn't tell her what he was planning, a policeman who wanted to help, and a city councilman who owns a boat, all became unwitting figures in a two-act farce yesterday.

According to police, the curtain opened with the unidentified woman, who lives on West Shore Road, calling police to tell them a huge 750-gallon steel drum had washed up underneath her house, which is built on stilts over Richardson Bay.

She was worried the drum would be driven against the house's underpinnings by waves and wind, so officer Duffy L. Midyett and Councilman Allan Steinau, who owns a powerboat, went to the house and towed the drum away.

The second act unfolded a few hours later when the husband returned from work, disappeared below the house and then came back to ask his wife, "Where's my drum?"

Police said he had hired a boat to have the tank hauled from Sausalito that morning and had intended to use it in a construction project. Officers said they didn't know if the man managed to recover his drum.

Red China's Envoy To U.N. Brings Greetings

Pays Courtesy Call; Travel Is Restricted

UNITED NATIONS (UPI)— Peking's smiling chief envoy gave the United Nations the regards of 800 million mainland Chinese today in a short and snappy courtesy call, and his delegation got word their travel in America would be restricted in the same treatment given Soviet Russia.

Deputy Foreign Minister Chiao Kuan-hua, leader of the Communist Chinese delegation, paid the half-hour protocol visit to Adam Malik of Indonesia, president of the U.N. General Assembly. The full delegation takes over the U.N. China seat in its diplomatic debut Monday.

The United Nations announced that the State Department had decided —although Washington and Peking do not have diplomatic relations — "to extend travel restrictions to members of the mission of the People's Republic of China comparable to those applied to the Soviet mission."

It said a diplomatic note covering the restrictions had been delivered to the Chinese mission. The regulations require 48-hour notification of travel outside a 25-mile radius of New York City and, as is the case with the Soviet Union and some other countries, various areas in the country are closed to travel.

The note said the regulations apply to the delegates and to "others who may apply to enter this country in connection with United Nations affairs."

Chiao made a half-hour protocol call on Malik in the latter's 38th floor suite in the gleaming secretariat building overlooking the East River in midtown Manhattan.

He was accompanied to the meeting by Huang Hua, China's permanent representative to the U.N., and Hsiung Hsianghui, a representative in the delegation. Huang Hua stayed behind in the U.N. complex to talk to Constantin Stavrouplis, secretary-general for U.N. affairs.

Chiao returned to the delegation's quarters in the Roosevelt Hotel with Wang Hai-jung, who is believed to be the niece of Chairman Mao Tse-tung and who was one of six delegates accompanying him. She returned the waves of reporters and photographers.

They drove through heavy traffic. Their limousine took them through Hammarskjold Plaza, a few blocks from the U.N. main entrance, where about 75 Japanese Christians who regard Jerusalem as their spiritual home were singing Hebrew spirituals in a demonstration urging U.N. aid to Middle East security.

Both Chiao and Miss Wang were relaxed and smiling as photographers snapped them in the lobby.

A real estate agent visited the Chinese temporary mission on the Roosevelt's 14th floor and reported they expected to move into a permanent mission in about four weeks. The agent, Patrick Simone, said one of the several properties they were thinking about was the mansion of the late showman Billy Rose, up for $1.5 million sale.

It now is the Algerian delegation home. But Simone said he got the idea the Chinese wanted something less ornate: "I don't think their ideology agrees with an elaborate building."

The Chinese, who take their seat in the United Nations at expense of the ousted Nationalist regime of President Chiang Kai-shek, will make their debut in the U.N. General Assembly on Monday when Chiao and Huang may speak and listen to addresses of welcome from their admirers.

Guards at the U.N. building began checking all credentials long before the Chinese drove up from their $2,000 a day quarters on the 14th floor of the Roosevelt Hotel only a few blocks away. They had smiled and waved at the hotel as they entered their cars.

"I have to go," Chiao smiled to newsmen who tried to question him at the hotel. In the crush of newsmen and the momentary confusion Chiao's car bumped lightly into Huang's car but no damage was done.

Wang Hai-jung, a woman member of the Communist delegation and said to be a niece of Chinese Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung, was one of the six members of the delegation who went to U.N. headquarters.

At the door to the 39-story secretariat building, a towering slab of glass and white marble, U.N. security guards began routing all other arrivals to a side entrance to the left of the one used by the Chinese.

Chiao and Huan arrived first, at 9:59 a.m. EST, and stepped out of the car still smiling. They posed for television cameramen outside the main building and were taken immediately to the 38th floor.

Both were wearing the peasant's peaked caps and gray-blue costume made famous by Mao Tse-tung. Chiao wore a red muffler and a double breasted overcoat.

Price Coup To Corner Grocer

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The corner grocer can do something Sunday that General Motors, General Foods and other corporate giants cannot —raise his prices.

And within that anomaly lies a central fact in the administration's post-freeze economic planning: The big companies not only have more economic impact, they may be the only ones on which any practical control can be exerted.

The corner store vs. giant corporation situation arises from the latest decisions putting together the machinery which will attempt to control the economy when the wage-price-rent freeze ends at midnight Saturday.

The Price Commission Thursday announced that firms doing more than $100 million in sales every year will have to notify the government 30 days in advance if they want to raise prices, and then put them into effect only if the price panel does not object.

Firms with less than $100 million in annual sales —all the way from sizeable manufacturers to local merchants —can hike their prices as of Sunday, provided they post a list of prices that prevailed during the freeze. Those with sales between $50 million and $100 million, as previously announced, will have to submit price change reports every three months but the others will be subject only to random spot checks.

The only price increase guideline the government laid down Thursday was a general one: It wants to hold average price increases across the economy to a rate of no more than 2.5 per cent per year. How this will show up in the price of shoe polish or furniture remains to be seen, since the whole economy is lumped together in the standard.

And it said that cost increases —not hopes for increased profits —must be the motive for price-hikes. The profit limit beyond which sellers will not be allowed to go will be based on the two best profit years during the three year period immediately preceeding the start of the freeze Aug. 15.

But more significant perhaps than the price standard or the cost-proof justifications for price rises is the fact that the biggest firms are the prime target of the new controls. The $100 million plus sales companies include the 1,300 biggest firms which together have about 45 per cent of the American sales market.

Because their price increase requests must be submitted 30 days in advance it appeared likely that they would undergo more scrutiny than smaller businesses. The 2.5 per cent standard will be applied with more exactness in the sense that it will have a larger immediate impact than if it were applied individually to scores of smaller businesses.

By singling out the biggest firms for the closest monitoring, the government was both recognizing the multiplier effect that changes in these industries have down through the economy and realizing that close control of a few big firms was more practical than attempting a company-by-company examination all up and down the line.

This is true also on the wage end where only firms with the largest blocks of employes — 5,000 or more —will have to get advance government approval for wage increases.

Another significant development out of Thursday's decisions was that rents on houses and apartments —except for new units —will remain frozen until a new rent board can determine guidelines for rent hikes.

$200,000 Share In 2 Trials?

Legislation to reimburse Marin for expenses related to the Angela Davis and Ruchell Magee cases will relieve the county of any additional expense occasioned by changes of venue, but will leave Marin heavily obligated for security precautions at the Civic Center.

According to Michael Mitchell, county auditor-controller, pending legislation in the Senate could make the county elibible for a $206,000 reimbursement from the state.

That, he said, would be the state's share of overall Civic Center security expenses and Davis-Magee trial costs through September, totaling about $850,000. Only $206,000 can be directly attributed to the trials, he said.

NOT LIABLE

Under the bill, Mitchell said, Marin County would not be liable for additional expenses once the Davis case is moved out of the county. Marin County is responsible for the $600,000 in security costs not directly connected to the case, and any other county getting the case would be responsible for its own security costs.

(Last week, the Davis case was ordered to Santa Clara County. Defense attorneys, however, are fighting the change of venue to San Jose, instead urging the case be moved to San Francisco.)

Mitchell said that while county taxpayers may get some relief, security costs will remain high at Civic Center.

"REAL RELIEF"

"Based on the passage of AB-644 and a change of venue, I can project real relief for the taxpayers of Marin County — particularly for the future," he said. "However, in the present climate, with San Quentin being here, your board of supervisors will be faced with continued financial problems."

Mitchell said a study is now under way by the sheriff's office, the district attorney's office and his own to determine if a reduction in the Civic Center security force is feasible as a result of the expected move of the Davis trial.

"It's not likely there will be any extreme cuts," he added.

He said he was releasing the figures because some have misinterpreted the Bagley bill as proposing total reimbursement of security costs.

Ford, Chrysler Will Seek Price Increases

DETROIT (UPI) —Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. say they will seek government approval to raise car and truck prices during Phase II of President Nixon's program. General Motors and American Motors are expected to follow suit.

Ford announced its intention Thursday to ask for an increase on 1972 models, and a Chrysler spokesman said today it, too, will ask for permission.

"We will file such a request when we find out in what form the request should be submitted," a Chrysler spokesman said.

Neither Chrysler nor Ford would say how much of an increase they wanted. Both said they wanted more information from the government.

"As soon as we have enough information to proceed, we will be seeking approval for appropriate increases," Ford Board Chairman Henry Ford II said shortly after the newly established Price Commission issued new guidelines on price increases Thursday.

GM and AMC also are known to be anxious to increase prices but spokesmen would only say that federal directives were being studied.

Ford and Chrysler cited increasing costs of materials and declining profits as the justification for price boosts. GM and AMC officials also have complained about rising costs in the past.

Ford said the higher costs had been built-in to the production

10 Killed In Crash Of Jet

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)— A C130 cargo plane loaded with 20 tons of jet fuel crashed on takeoff at Little Rock Air Force Base today and burst into flames, killing 10 of the 11 crew members and student airmen aboard.

"Ten were killed and there is one in the hospital," a base spokesman said. The survivor was in critical condition.

The C-130, carrying a full fuel load of 40,000 pounds, lifted off the runway, then suddenly nosed back down and crashed on the concrete.

Jumper Still Critical —Is 6th To Survive

I-J Special Report

Henry Harrington of Pacifica, whose wife said he was depressed over his job, became the sixth person known to have survived a jump from the span.

Harrington was pulled from a 90-foot-deep moat around the south tower of the bridge yesterday. He was still conscious after the leap, and managed to stay afloat by holding onto debris in the water until help arrived.

"He gave me his age, his home address and telephone number," said Officer Steve Ellis of the California Highway Patrol. "Not only that, he told me where his car was parked and its license number. He said he had left a note for his wife."

Harrington was taken aboard a Coast Guard cutter with the help of bridge workers, and later transferred to Mission Emergency Hospital, where he underwent four hours of surgery to remove a ruptured spleen. Harrington, who also suffered chest and liver damage, remains hospitalized.

Harrington's wife, Freda, said her husband worked for IRS in San Francisco and was being transferred to Fresno.

She said he had been depressed over his work, which included the closing of businesses, but believed the transfer would solve his problems. She said the family, including an 11-year-old daughter and 4-year-old son, was packed and ready to move from its Peninsula apartment.

Highway patrolman Ellis said he didn't ask Harrington why he had made the leap. "I didn't want to tax him any more. He was just great."

Eight persons actually have survived jumps from the Golden Gate, although two subsequently died of their injuries.

The highway patrol said Harrington parked his car in a lot near the Roundhouse restaurant at the toll plaza shortly after 10:30 a.m. then walked out to the south tower.

A bridge television camera monitoring traffic caught Harrington as he climbed the guard rail of the east sidewalk and slipped over the side into the mist.

"A pedestrian shouted at him, but the next thing he saw he was gone," said James Schulze, a highway patrol officer.

Mariner 9 Zeroes In On Mars Icecap

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — With Mars looming larger and larger ahead, Mariner 9 aimed its cameras at the planet's south polar cap of dry ice today to observe the one area on the Martian surface not clouded by a great dust storm.

The bright polar cap was the only Mars feature clearly visible in most of 30 pictures radioed back to earth Thursday night. The spacecraft was taking a second 24-hour sequence today as it zeroed in on Mars' southern hemisphere.

Mariner 9, working flawlessly on the last leg of its 248-million mile journey from Cape Kennedy, is scheduled to fire a small rocket motor at 7:17 p.m. PST Saturday for 15 minutes to become the first spacecraft to orbit another planet.

Mars will be 160,000 miles away at 10 p.m. EST when today's picture taking will end. A third and final session of approach photography is set for Saturday morning.

In addition to showing Mars as it appeared from between 535,000 and 355,000 miles out Thursday, Mariner's cameras photographed one of Mars' minimoons, Deimos, for the first time from a spacecraft.

Deimos is only five miles in diameter and appeared as a

Nixon Will Brief Nation On Indochina

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon soon will explain his plans on Indochina to the nation. He must consider the overwhelming sentiment of Congress for an early and total withdrawal of U.S. forces.

The White House has not said when Nixon will make his announcement on his troop withdrawal policy for the period following Dec. 15 in Vietnam, but it could come within the next few days.

Coming to the end of another year of struggle with the President over the war, Congress sent Nixon a $21 billion military procurement bill Thursday night declaring it "the policy of the United States" to completely withdraw subject to only one condition: the release of American prisoners of war by North Vietnam and the Viet Cong.

The bill, while serving notice to the President that congressional support for the war and its costs in lives is ending, still leaves the President with a free hand on the timing and conditions of the American exit.

But many members consider the statement the last warning shot Congress will fire before members use their ultimate authority to end the war by cutting off funds.

Neither House has been willing to use the appropriations power to end the war. That reluctance emerged again in the Senate Thursday in a series of close, roll-call votes on the foreign aid bill.

That bill contains what many war critics believe to be the seeds of future American involvement in Indochina —an involvement that would continue the war indefinitely not with American manpower, but with American money and air power in support of U.S. directed armies in Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam. Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., and other opponents of Nixon's policies were unable to convince a majority

U.S. Jets Hit North Target; Thieu To Devalue The Piaster

SAIGON (UPI) — American jets struck inside North Vietnam today for the fifth time in a week in an attack against a Communist missile radar site. American helicopters killed eight South Vietnamese troops and wounded 21 others in an accidental attack on South Vietnam's central coast.

In Saigon, progovernment newspapers reported today that President Nguyen Van Thieu will devalue the piaster by 35 per cent Monday in announcing severe belt-tightening measures to bolster the nation's sagging economy.

The U.S. command announced the new air strike north of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) as it reported a Viet Cong ambush on a U.S. truck convoy today killing one American and wounding two others. The envoy was attacked between Phan Rang Air Base and the resort of Da Lat 145 miles northeast of Saigon.

The latest of what the U.S. command calls "protective reaction" strikes involved a U.S. F105 Wild Weasel fighter-bomber flying protective cover for B52s bombing near Mu Gis Pass on the Laotian border. The F105s electronic equipment recorded a "lock-on" indicating the North Vietnamese radar had taken a sight on the U.S. bombers and a missile was going to be fired.

The U.S. command had no word on whether the rocket which hit the radar site was destroyed. It was located northwest of Dong Hoi and 29 miles inside North Vietnam.

In neighboring Cambodia, North Vietnamese artillerymen fired more than 60 rockets into a Cambodian radio transmitting station near Phnom Penh today. One Cambodian soldier was killed and 11 other injured.

Mitchell Named In Dellums Rights Suit

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Rep. Ronald V. Dellums, D-Calif., filed suit in U.S. District Court charging Attorney General John N. Mitchell and the District of Columbia government with conspiring to violate his constitutional rights during a May 5 antiwar demonstration on the House steps.

Dellums said he was trying to talk with his constituents and the arrests violated his constitutional rights as a member of Congress. Nine other plaintiffs, who were among 1,500 arrested at the rally, joined Dellums in the suit which demands that the records of those arrested be cleared.

Bill Would Allow Kennedy Indecision

BOSTON (UPI)) —A bill enacted by the Massachusetts Legislature Wednesday would let Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., postpone a decision on whether to seek the Democratic presidential nomination until next summer's convention.

The legislation, passed Wednesday before adjournment, would eliminate the present requirement that all delegates to a national nominating convention be bound to the candidate winning the most votes in the Massachusetts primary.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Housing Plea

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., urged the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) today to insist on low-to-moderate income housing near suburban businesses and industries or face the possibility the government will "step in and make these decisions for you."

Ribicoff said blacks were largely being kept out of the suburbs, where industrial development has shifted from the cities, due to inadequate public transportation facilities and prohibitive local zoning.

"Although the number of blacks in the suburbs has increased substantially over the last decade, they remain a small minority" in the suburbs, he said.

In 1969 nearly 96 per cent of the suburban population was white, he said.

Fishing Fine

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — The largest illegal fishing fine in Alaska history was levied against a Japanese skipper and his boat's owners after previous penalties showed "the practice has been worth the risk."

The two were fined $115,000 Thursday for illegally fishing within the 12-mile U.S. limit off Baranof Island near Sitka, Alaska.

U.S. Attorney G. Kent Edwards said a $30,000 fine against skipper Maszao Kitada was imposed by U.S. District Judge Raymond E. Plummer for a criminal charge. The Japan Whaling Co., Ltd., was fined $85,000 on a related civil charge.

No. 1 Problem

ANAHEIM, Calif. (UPI) — Hypertension — abnormally high blood pressure — is the No. 1 health problem of blacks in America, a panel of medical experts told the American Heart Association's 44th annual scientific session Thursday.

Dr. John B. Johnson, professor of medicine at Howard University in Washington, D.C., said that hypertension was "enormously higher" in all age groups of blacks than whites.

Citing statistics, Johnson said hypertension was 17 times more common among black females aged 25-44 than white females in the same age bracket while it was 15.5 times greater among black men in the same age category than white men.

Flu Epidemic Sweeps Europe

GENEVA (UPI)—The World Health Organization (WHO) said today a large-scale influenza epidemic if sweeping through Eastern Europe and heading west.

"Clinically, however, it is not severe and no deaths have been reported," WHO spokesmen said.

Clark Gable's First Wife Dies

GLENDALE (UPI) — Josephine Dillon, who coached Clark Gable in acting when he was an unknown and then became the first of his five wives, is dead at the age of 87.

Miss Dillon

Miss Dillon died in a sanitarium following a long illness. Funeral services will be held tomorrow in Pasadena.

She married Gable when he was 20 and she was 36. They were divorced after 10 years, in 1930, but she was never bitter about the parting.

"It is a difficult thing for a poor boy to have the world's riches thrust upon him and still be able to keep his balance and ideals," she said several years ago. "Clark was strong that way."

They met in a little theater in the Midwest when Gable was an obscure young actor.

Formal Sentence

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Charles (Tex) Watson, convicted leader of the bloody forays resulting in the Tate-Labianca slayings, was formally sentenced to death yesterday.

Watson is the fifth member of the Manson cult to face the gas chamber for the Tate killings. The others already convicted and sentenced to die are Manson, Leslie van Houten, Susan Atkins, and Patricia Krenwinkel.

Trim Welfare

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The states trimmed their welfare rolls by 84,000 persons in July for the third straight monthly cutback, the Health, Education and Welfare Department (HEW) said today.

Hardest hit were welfare families headed by women, and old folks.

The spokesman said the needy family cutback was sharpest in New Jersey, which dropped 108,000 women and children. California dropped 8,600 persons.

Border Clash

NEW DELHI (UPI) — The government-run All-India Radio said today Pakistani gunners shelled two areas of West Dinajpur district in India's West Bengal state over the past two days with heavy artillery.

Indian border forces returned the fire, the radio said. The number of casualties was not immediately known.

The report coincided with reports over Radio Pakistan of clashes along the border in Dinajpur, located on the opposite side of East Pakistan, about 250 miles northwest of Belonia where internal fighting was believed going on between Pakistani forces and rebel troops.

For the second time in two days, Pakistani planes reportedly strafed rebel guerrillas in territory facing Belonia, inflicting an undetermined number of casualties, communiques reaching here today said.

Full Blame

TOKYO (UPI) — Wataru Hiraizumi, director of an anti-landslide experiment which ended in disaster that buried 15 persons alive, today took full responsibility and handed in his resignation to Prime Minister Eisaki Sato.

Sato declined to immediately accept Hiraizumi's resignation, a government spokesman said.

Kanagawa police said 15 persons were killed. They were among the 25 persons who had gathered at the scene of the experiment when a hillside collapsed outside the city of Kawasaki. Ten persons were injured.

Eastland Hits Rehnquist Foes

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said today that two witnesses opposed to the Supreme Court nomination of William H. Rehnquist were guilty of character assassination.

Eastland, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, leveled the charge at Joseph Rauh, spokesman for the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, and Clarence Mitchell, representative of the NAACP.

The two quoted rumors of possible connections between Rehnquist and the John Birch Society at Rehnquist's confirmation hearing earlier this week.

"When presented with the personal affidavit of Rehnquist, categorically denying that he was ever a member of the John Birch Society, Rauh and Mitchell insinuated that Rehnquist should not be believed and that his unequivocal denial could suggest that he had some connection with the group," Eastland said in a lengthy rebuttal of several statements the two made in opposing Rehnquist.

"It seems clear that the testimony of Rauh and Mitchell concerning Rehnquist's association with the John Birch Society was purely hypothetical and not intended to enlighten the committee, but instead was an exercise of the crassest type of character assassination," Eastland said.

The senator also said Rauh and Mitchell made unsubstantiated charges that Rehnquist improperly interferred with voting in black precincts in Phoenix, Ariz., and that he used abusive language to Negroes who were demonstrating for a civil rights bill then pending in the Arizona Legislature.

Eastland said Rauh and Mitchell misrepresented Rehnquist's position on government surveillance of citizens, qualified martial law during antiwar demonstrations, freedom of speech rights of federal employes, and school desegregation.

"I believe that statements made by the witnesses were highly misleading and unfairly prejudicial to Rehnquist," Eastland said.

"As of now I don't think anybody has laid a glove on either nominee," Scott said.

The nominations themselves still were in the Judiciary Committee.

'Negotiated' Creek Plans Draw Nod

The Ross Town council last night approved landscaping plans for the completed portion of the Corte Madera Creek Project, but not without some negotiation with a disgruntled citizen.

The landscaping, including trees, shrubs and vines, is to be done on the newly cemented portion of the creek as far as the city's post office on Ross Commons. The Environmental Planning Department of the Army Corps of Engineers is directing the landscaping, scheduled to begin this fall.

Plans include the planting of several poplar trees which shed their leaves in the fall. One resident asked if it was "absolutely necessary to have these poplar trees" or if the citizens would have a say. One of the planners suggested that if every citizen had his choice "you would lose continuity" in the landscaping.

Feeling her question had been skirted the resident said she would "chop down a poplar tree" if it were near her yard.

Developers then assured the council that their plan was flexible enough to allow some rearrangement of trees if citizens strongly objected.

The Ross Town Council also:

INFORMAL SUBDIVISION — Tabled for the time being at the request of the applicant, A. Boyajian, a proposal to divide a 5.4-acre parcel of land on Winding Way into three parcels to be sold separately.

VARIANCE — Denied request by Roy Claxton of 1 Shady Lane that he be allowed to build his home at a 32-foot height rather than 30 feet, the maximum set by the city. Council agreed that Claxton's one acre of land was sufficient to allow redesign of the building and that his was not a hardship case.

STOP SIGN — Approved a stop sign at corner of Skyland Way and Laurel Grove Avenue.

DETOUR — Approved the construction of a two-lane temporary street next to the old Lagunitas Road Bridge, to be used as a detour during the construction of the new bridge.

BART Cleared In Test Crash

OAKLAND (UPI) —The Bay Area Rapid Transit District's computerized safety system has been absolved of blame for the Nov. 2 collision of a BART test train with a parked train in Oakland's Coliseum Station.

A board of inquiry reported Thursday that it was "human error" on the part of the test train's operator, Donald Aguilar, which led to the accident.

BART directors, however, ordered further inquiry into the case to dispel fears about the reliability of the safety system.

Both trains suffered serious damage and Aguilar, 42, was seriously hurt.

Artists Displaying At Redwood Bank

The paintings of Marin artists Ruth L. Schwartz and Selma G. Maas are on display through the rest of this month at Redwood Bank in San Rafael.

Mrs. Schwartz has had several one-man shows and won a prize for an oil at the Novato Oldtown Festival this year. Mrs. Maas, a former Arkansas resident, won several prizes at the Arkansas Art Festival, and exhibited recently at the Marin County Fair.

Mideast Settlement Door Is Open: Sadat

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Egyptian President Anwar Sadat has been in touch with President Nixon and has left the door open for further U.S. initiatives in the Middle East, political sources said today in Cairo.

Sadat, in a speech Thursday night, threatened to halt all diplomatic contacts for a Mideast settlement unless Israel pledged to withdraw completely from occupied Arab land.

Diplomatic sources in Cairo said Sadat was still willing to talk peace, however. And in Jerusalem the Israeli press called the speech a part of Egypt's plan for a major diplomatic offensive against Israel.

UPI correspondent Maurice Guindi reported from Cairo that Sadat held two meetings in October with Donald Bmergus, the chief U.S. diplomatic representative in Cairo, and received at least one communication from Nixon.

The diplomatic sources did not disclose the content of the message but said Sadat made it clear he remained willing to continue a Middle East dialogue with Washington.

In this connection, they said Minister of State Murad Ghaleb would be available for contact with the Americans when he goes to New York late in November to lead his delegation to the United Nations.

New Recruiter For Air Force

T/Sgt. Raymond R. Sidhu of Novato has taken over the duties of the Marin County Air Force recruiter in the San Rafael Mission Post Office at 901 D Street.

Sidhu has served 18 years with the Air Force and was previously a law enforcement investigator assigned to Grand Forks Air Force Base, N.D.

He and his wife, Irene, and their three children, Michael, Shelley and Racquel, reside at 13 Nave Court.

Red-Meat Production Won't Rise In 1972

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Despite bumper supplies of feed grains and low grain prices, total production of red meat is not likely to rise in 1972, an Agriculture Department report said today.

The report said producers can expect "steady to strong" prices for beef cattle from now into winter. It predicted hog prices through December would run well above last year's low levels, with further increases in the first half of 1972 because of reduced supplies.

Bridge Unit Sets Midday Bus Runs

Golden Gate Bridge District directors today unanimously set Dec. 13 for start of intra-county bus service for midday Marin County riders.

The service will replace that now provided by the private Marin Transit Systems Inc. under a subsidized contract with the bridge district that expires Dec. 10. The bridge district will provide 20 buses to shuttle through Marin County from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., the slack hours between commute rushes. The district also will continue the present schedule to the Tiburon ferry.

The bridge district board today also unanimously voted to begin proceedings to acquire all Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way in Marin County. The railroad has received state and federal permission to abandon the line from San Rafael south on Nov. 24. Assembly bill 919 sent to the governor's desk today gives the bridge district the right to condemn the railroad property if necessary.

The bridge directors also instructed district staff to prepare applications for a federal grant of unspecified amount to buy the property.

Bridge director Michael Wornum explained that some rail line property will revert to proper owners when abandoned. This may require extensive negotiation and would make acquisition cost uncertain

Angela Prosecutor Discusses Racism

By MARY LEYDECKER

The prosecutor in the Angela Davis case today contended there have been more incidents contributing to racial polarization in San Francisco than in Santa Clara.

Prosecutor Albert W. Harris Jr. made the claim during a hearing in which Miss Davis's attorneys are seeking to have her trial switched from Santa Clara, where it was ordered sent last week. They have claimed she can get a fair trial only in San Francisco.

Also during today's court session, a leader in the black community in San Jose, Aaron Harris, told Judge Richard E. Arnason that the killing of a young black man by a San Jose police officer in September has polarized the city.

"The climate of the community has changed considerably since this incident," Aaron Harris said.

He claimed the death of John Henry Smith for which a white police officer has been indicted on a manslaughter charge, would prevent Miss Davis from getting a fair trial in Santa Clara County.

Prosecutor Harris then drew the court's attention to the recent slaying of a young black man by a white policeman at Hunter's point in San Francisco, a slaying declared justifiable homicide.

Harris also mentioned problems over school integration in San Francisco and incidents at San Francisco State College.

Miss Davis is awaiting trial on charges of murder, conspiracy and kidnapping stemming from the shoot-out at the Marin Civic Center in August 1970. Her pretrial hearings are being held in Marin Superior Court.

Yesterday a black fund raiser from Stanford University said he runs into a "cool reception" when asking for money for black students in Santa Clara County.

Henry Organ said the attitude seems to be "as long as niggers are raising hell on college campuses," people won't give money.

Organ, who said he himself has run into racial discrimination when looking for housing in Santa Clara County, answered "indeed not," to the question of whether Miss Davis could get a fair trial in that county.

He said he based his opinion on letters to the editor appearing in newspapers there, as well as on housing discrimination.

Yesterday's court session was marked by a ruling by Judge Arnason that Miss Davis's attorney receive the same treatment from now on as do members of the attorney general's staff in regard to personal searches.

His order came after Howard Moore Jr., Miss Davis's chief counsel, complained that he had to go through two public searches and that he had never seen the attorney general's staff searched.

The judge ordered that the defense attorneys be searched in a private corridor, the same as the prosecution.

"It's no secret that we must have price increases to meet the very substantial new labor, manufacturing and produce improvement costs that already have been baked into our long-term cost structure," he said.

"But it is not immediately clear to us how much of these costs we will be permitted to recover."

Prior to the wage-price freeze that ends at midnight Saturday, all the major auto makers had announced tentative price increases of 4 to 5 per cent on 1972 models but were forced to roll back to 1971 level prices for the 90-day period.

The price commission decree Thursday placed a national ceiling of 2.5 per cent a year on price increases but said individual increases could be higher or lower.

The commission also has ruled that firms doing $100 million or more in annual sales will have to submit price increases to the commission for review.

All the auto companies gross far in excess of that amount and would be covered by this provision. Until they submit formal requests for price increases, cars will remain frozen at 1971 prices.

Sewer-Testing Alert Issued

The Richardson Bay Sanitary District is alerting homeowners in the Ricardo Road-Richardson Drive-Reed Boulevard area that it will begin conducting smoke tests of sewer lines on Tuesday.

The testing will be done in all areas of the district during the next several months and letters will be sent to each property owner as crews move into his area.

The tests consist of forcing smoke into sewer lines to detect possible leaks. Breaks on district mains will be repaired by the district and leaks on private laterals must be fixed by property owners.

Such leaks are said to be the prime cause of storm water infiltration of sewer lines, which causes the Richardson Bay plant and others in Marin to bypass untreated sewage directly into the bay during winter months.

MARINER

The immense dust storm that started on Mars in September masked all but a few hints of the features on the Martian surface that normally would be seen from that distance.

"The fact that the features of Mars are obscured by the dust cloud is, of course, a disappointment if you want to view the early features, but it also has its scientific interest," said Dr. Albert R. Hibbs, staff scientist at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory Control Center here.

"The dust cloud is itself a curiosity of Mars and it would be a very good idea if we can get close to it while it's still there," Hibbs said.

It is summer in the planet's southern hemisphere and the carbon dioxide snow making up the polar cap is evaporating. The effects of this seasonal change could be seen in the pictures.

Scientists said the dust storm apparently is the result of strong winds swirling over desert-like regions on Mars. Dust particles are being blown up several miles high where they remain until settling back to the surface.

Double Blow To Collision Victim

A Tiburon man was injured last night when his auto struck a parked heavy-construction trailer on Lovell Avenue in San Rafael.

Treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut forehead was Charles D. Tunnard, 50, of 44 Hilarita Drive. Tunnard was then arrested for drunken driving and booked into Marin County Jail by police.

Youth Back In Trouble Once Again

An 18-year-old youth, bailed out of jail less than 24 hours before, was arrested last night on suspicion of burglary.

Back in Marin County Jail today was Dennis K. Smith of 1034 Las Pavadas Avenue, San Rafael, whose previous booking was on suspicion of attempted rape and subsequently resisting arrest.

The new booking involved the alleged theft of a circular skill saw from the garage of Elizabeth E. Graff of 7 Gall Way in San Rafael at 11:14 p.m. yesterday.

Police, acting on a tip, arrested Smith within a few minutes after stopping a car occupied by him and four companions. The four, all minors, were not arrested.

Smith was booked into jail at 1:42 a.m. today and held to appear in municipal court this afternoon.

Yesterday he had pleaded innocent to an attempted rape and resisting arrest alleged to have happened on Tuesday. The attempted rape charge was dropped and Smith was to appear for a pretrial conference on Nov. 24 in Marin Municipal Court on misdemeanor charges of assault and battery and resisting arrest in Marin Municipal Court.

Arraignment In Drugs Count

Jeffery George Kingry, 27, of Arcadia, Los Angeles County, has been arraigned in Marin Municipal Court on charges of possessing marijuana, cocaine, barbiturates and amphetamine.

He was to plead to the charges, as well as to a misdemeanor count of driving under the combined influence of alcohol and drugs today.

Kingry was arrested Nov. 3 on a warrant stemming from his arrest Aug. 23, 1970, on the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge and his failure to appear on the charges in Municipal Court in October 1970.

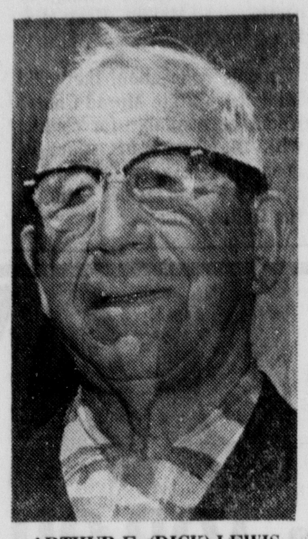
Arthur E. Lewis Succumbs At 90



ARTHUR E. (DICK) LEWIS

Funeral for Arthur E. (Dick) Lewis, a major developer of the Sausalito waterfront, will be Monday at Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo. Burial will follow at Woodlawn Memorial Park in Colma.

Lewis, a partner in Madden and Lewis Co. which built the Sausalito Yacht Harbor beginning in 1940, died in a Vallejo hospital Wednesday after a long illness. He was 90.

Lewis moved to Vallejo in 1966 when illness forced him to retire, ending a boat building and sailing career of more than 70 years.

At 14, he went to work as an apprentice boatbuilder in San Francisco. However, he didn't call it work. "It is an interesting game. It becomes a hobby. Going to work is not 'going to work' for me," he told the Independent-Journal in a 1960 interview.

Lewis left boatbuilding for a time at 20 and shipped out for the Far East. "A boat is a good deal like a human being. It has got to be built to take the sea," he said. "I figured that by going to sea I would get a pretty good insight into the boatbuilding game."

He spent a year aboard ship, then went to Guatemala to take charge of cargo operations for a steamship company.

He returned to the Bay Area in 1906 and worked as an assistant engineer at Stanford University in Palo Alto before setting in Sausalito in 1920. He lived at 25 Glen Court.

He went into partnership with Herbert Madden Sr. and Katherine Bassford, Madden's sister, in 1921.

The boat works built vessels until the end of World War II, then restricted itself to repairs.

Lewis was the first commodore of the Sausalito Yacht Club and a member of the Sausalito Cruising Club. He was also a member of the Corinthian Yacht Club and past president of the San Rafael Yacht Club.

He founded the Sausalito Sea Scouts and was a member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, Flotilla 14.

He also belonged to Palo Alto Lodge 346 of the Masons; Hayden Consistory 4 Scottish Rite, Olympia, Wash.; Scottish Rite Foundation of Washington; Mill Valley Chapter of Royal Arch Masons; California Council 2 Royal and Select Masters; San Francisco Commandery 41 Knights Templar; Islam Temple of the Shrine; Palo Alto Shrine Club; and Seapoint Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West. He was a past president of the Marin Shrine Club.

He founded the Sausalito Sea Scouts and was a member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary. He was also a Shriner who served as president of the Marin County Shrine Club in 1946.

He is survived by a daughter, Frances Clifford of Vallejo; a sister, Esther Blade of San Rafael; a brother, Jack Lewis of Rio Oso, Sutter County; two grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

The family asked that memorial gifts be made to the Shriner's Hospital for crippled children in San Francisco.

MRS. ROLLINS

Dolores F. Rollins, 62, of Petaluma, died yesterday at a Santa Rosa hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Rollins was born in Sebastopol but spent most of her life in Petaluma where she worked briefly for Petaluma Poultry Producers. She married her husband, Fred, a retired employee of Kresky Manufacturing, in 1934.

She also is survived by a son, George Rollins of Rohnert Park; two brothers, Louis Abraio and William Abraio of Petaluma; and two grandchildren.

Requiem Mass will be offered Monday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Vincent de Paul Church, Petaluma, followed by burial at Calvary Cemetery. Recitation of the Rosary will be at 8 p.m. Sunday at Sorensen Funeral Home.

VERNA BURCH

Funeral for Verna N. Burch, mother of Austa Glynn of San Rafael, was held today in Menlo Park, followed by inurnment in Alta Mesa Memorial Park, Palo Alto.

Mrs. Burch, a native of Bradyville, Iowa, died Wednesday in Sunnyvale. She was 85.

She also is survived by another daughter, Nadine Bradford of Union City; two sons, Joseph Earl Burch Jr. of San Francisco and Louis Christian Burch of San Jose, 11 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

LOUISE J. SALA

Louise J. Sala, 92, a native Californian and a longtime Marin resident, died yesterday in a Walnut Creek convalescent hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Sala, who lived at 23 Ancho Vista Avenue, San Anselmo, had been confined to a convalescent home for about three weeks.

She was born in San Francisco and lived for 51 years in Marin, most of that time at 1348 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo.

Survivors are a daughter, Irene Jackson of Lafayette; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, with entombment at Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Recitation of the Rosary will be at 8 p.m. today at the mortuary.

R. R. SEBASTIAN

Sebastian was born and reared in Elvins, Mo., and moved to Petaluma in 1947 after serving in the occupation force in Japan in World War II. He operated Marin Tree Service for 12 years.

Sebastian later worked for Barlas Feed Co. and had been a millwright for Santa Rosa Feed Corp. in Petaluma for three years.

He is survived by his wife, Bertha; two daughters, Carolyn Baker and Barbara Barano of Santa Rosa; a son, William Sebastian of Petaluma; his parents, Thomas and Elsie Newland of Petaluma; and a brother, Lee Sebastian of Petaluma.

Funeral will be held Monday at 11 a.m. at Parent Funeral Chapel, Petaluma, followed by burial at Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

J. H. BARRY II

Memorial service for James H. Barry II of Atherton, brother of William H. Barry of Kentfield, will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Church of the Nativity in Menlo Park.

Barry, 57, president of the James H. Barry printing company in San Francisco, died Nov. 4 in a Santa Clara County hospital following a short illness.

Barry was a native San Franciscan.

Survivors, besides his brother are his wife, Barbara; three daughters, Nancy Atkinson and Kathleen Andres, both of Sunnyvale, and Cynthia Barry of Atherton, and five grandchildren.

The family prefers donations to the Northern California Diabetes Association, 255 Hugo Street, San Francisco.

MRS. MOREHEAD

Private funeral has been held in San Mateo for Marlys Morehead, mother of Robert C. Morehead of Tiburon.

Mrs. Morehead, 62, died Wednesday in Castro Valley. She was a native of Fargo, N.D.

She also is survived by another son, Lawrence A. Morehead of San Mateo; a brother, Hilton H. Huff of Pasadena; a sister, Gertrude H. Stair of San Marino, Los Angeles County, and two grandchildren.

Inurnment was in Woodlawn Memorial Park, Colma.

that this involvement should be stopped along with the involvement of American ground combat troops.

By a vote of 46 to 42, the Senate added another $318 million for military assistance, swelling the military aid bill to $1.5 million. This was $480 million less than the administration wanted, but it will enable it to continue its growing program of assistance to the Cambodian army without major change, Fulbright said.

The most the Senate would accept was a $341 million ceiling on aid to Cambodia — which was what the administration was planning to spend anyway. An effort by Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., to cut the ceiling to $263.5 million failed 46 to 43.

PG&E Outlines Developments

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Pacific Gas & Electric Co. today reported an electric operations research and development program totaling $29.534 million in 1971-72, including $1 million commitment toward a jointly-supported industry research on a fast breeder nuclear reactor.

The nuclear research commitment would be part of a $10 million industry-wide research program.

In addition to the proposed budget for research and development, the company said it expected to spend an estimated $24.4 million in 1971 for esthetic improvements, including improvements on stations, overhead power lines and research for undergrounding power lines.

Weather Will Clear In Marin

The end of the first major rain storm of the winer came today with the Weather Bureau forecasting clear skies.

The storm which began before dawn yesterday dumped 1.81 inches on San Rafael prior to noon today. Petaluma reported 1.21 inches of rain from the start of the deluge to 8 a.m. today.

Of the San Rafael total .81 inches fell in the 24 hours prior to noon. Rainfall in other Marin areas prior to 8 a.m. today were .78 inches in Tamalpais Valley, .65 inches in Mill Valley, .53 inches in Novato and .52 inches in Sausalito.

Bridge Path Plan Approved

Plans for a curving path and street lights leading to Novato Creek Bridge behind the Novato branch library were approved last night by the Novato Creek Committee.

Le Roy A. Gerner, manager of the Novato Creek project, had planned an aggregate path weaving between trees parallel to the creek. Richard Schadt, landscape architect for the library, had plans for a similar path from the library to the bridge, according to secretary Shaula Webster.

Both plans were altered slightly to accommodate the two paths and match path lights to those in the library.

A WHALE OF A SHIP NOW

No, it is not a whale, but a new covering designed for inactive ships. Getting the new treatment is the USS Betelgeuse at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard. The cover is plastic. It is air inflated and reduces the amount of work that is normally necessary to preserve all the equipment installed above the main deck. (UPI Telephoto)

Assembly To Support Remap Plan

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — The Assembly reapportionment chairman today said the Assembly will not change a Senate plan which lumps deserts and beaches, farms and suburbia into odd-shaped districts for the benefit of incumbent legislators.

Chairman Henry A. Waxman, D-Los Angeles also predicted the Assembly will vote next week on its own plan regardless of whether feuding Republicans and Democrats reach a compromise.

Republican senators Peter H. Behr of San Rafael, and Milton Marks of San Francisco voted for the Senate reapportionment which puts them into the same district: all of Marin, a western portion of San Francisco and part of San Mateo County. Only one of them ultimately can survive, either as the result of an election or the withdrawal of one from the fight.

(A United Press International story in yesterday's Independent-Journal erred in saying "most of" Marin is in the new 10th district. The county remains intact within the district.)

A Bird Sanctuary

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—The Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel, which spans the mouth of the bay near the Atlantic Ocean, is a favorite route for bird watchers. Last fall, spotters counted two peregrines, 30 pigeon hawks, 487 sparrow hawks and 540 kingbirds in the kiptopeke area near the bridge-tunnel's northern end.

School Elimination Study Put In Motion

The Larkspur School District board last night named a committee of 25 to study sending all seventh and eighth-graders to one school.

Supt. Milton S. Cohen said the committee was named to study the feasibility of eliminating one junior high school because enrollment in the district has declined.

The Larkspur School District Board Also:

GOALS — Approved in principle a long list of educational goals that have been sent to parents for comments.

FEDERAL FUNDS — Learned that a $12,338 federal grant under the National Defense Educational Act has been approved for purchasing audiovisual and reading materials.

NEW TEACHER — Hired Elizabeth Massey at $10,000 a year to teach slow learners in an after-school program. Her salary will be paid by a federal grant, Cohen said.

ADJOURNED — Adjourned to Dec. 16 at 8 p.m.

Two Injured In Fairfax Collision

A motorcycle and an auto collided in Fairfax Tuesday afternoon, injuring two persons on the motorcycle.

Police said an auto driven by Willa Lea Douglas, 33, of 45 Arroyo Road, Fairfax, pulled from a stop sign on Oak Manor Drive into Sir Francis Drake Boulevard where the auto was hit by the motorcycle, operated by Arthur Bokan, 24, of Berkeley.

Bokan and his passenger, Michael Burke, 20, also of Berkeley, were tossed from the motorcycle. They were treated for scrapes and bruises at Marin General Hospital.

The mishap occurred at 2:05 p.m.

POWs Can Have Yule Presents

TOKYO (UPI)—North Vietnam announced today that captured U.S. pilots will be allowed to receive Christmas gifts and Christmas cards this holiday season.

In a broadcast from Hanoi, the Vietnam News Agency (VNA) said North Vietnam will permit American pilots to receive Christmas packages weighing up to 11 pounds, about 50 per cent more than the usual monthly weight limitation.

Packages are to be mailed via Moscow. Christmas cards can be sent direct to Hanoi or in care of the New York-based Committee of Liaison with Families of Servicemen Detained in Vietnam.

FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

TODAY:

1:00 a.m., Fairfax — Heater fire at 54 Bosque Avenue; responded to by Marin County fire department; no damage reported.

5:30 a.m., San Rafael — Wet weather caused malfunction in fire alarm system at the Dominican College of San Rafael, 1520 Grand Avenue; no damage; alarm system shut off until serviced.

7:13 a.m., San Rafael — Bathroom fire at 815 Fourth Street did $250 damage to walls and floor; caused by sleeping vagrant Millird Whitlock, according to fire department.

'Dirty Dozen' Wins Yell Leading Role

Tom McEntee, dean of student activities, reported that the new song leaders are: Tina Bogenrief, Jean Ehrhart, Marie Good, Karen Kilty, Melinda Loane, Karen Moffat, and Katie Stranzel.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Senate Defeats Adulthood At 18

SACRAMENTO (UPI) —Sen. Arlen Gregorio, D-San Mateo, says he is confident the Senate will reverse its vote temporarily rejecting legislation lowering the legal age of adulthood from 21 to 18.

The Senate defeated the measure yesterday on a 19-9 vote with at least 10 members absent but quickly agreed to reconsider it.

Gregorio, upper house floor manager, predicted the outcome would be reversed when the full Senate membership is present to vote on the bill by Assemblyman Paul Priolo, R-Pacific Palisades.

In opening debate, Gregorio argued that since 18-year-olds can vote they should also be extended other adult privileges, such as signing contracts, serving on juries, becoming policemen and marrying without parental consent in the case of young men.

Opposition to the bill was led by Sen. Clark L. Bradley, R-San Jose, who urged colleagues to "search your consciences in making 18-year-olds full-fledged adults." He said they were too immature to perform the functions now reserved for persons 21 and over.

Sen. H. L. Richardson, R-Arcadia, also opposed the bill contending his teen-age children have indicated to him they are incapable of assuming full adulthood at 18.

"I'm not willing to admit that all 18-year-olds are capable of meeting all responsibilities of adulthood," he said.

An Assembly-passed proposed constitutional amendment lowering the drinking age to 18 is also pending in the Senate. If approved, it would be submitted for voter ratification or rejection next year.

SPAN RIGHT

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill designed to give the Golden Gate Bridge District the right to condemn land for transit and other projects was passed by a 22-3 vote in the California Senate yesterday and sent back to the Assembly for action on Senate amendments.

Sen. Peter H. Behr, R-Tiburon, said the bill was necessary to enable the bridge district to ease traffic on the Golden Gate Bridge by providing alternatives to auto transportation.

Cotati Planners Approve Permit

The Cotati Planning Commission last night approved a variance and use permit for duplexes.

The commission granted the request of Dewayne Strawther to reduce rear yard setback for his planned duplexes on two lots at Sierra and Valparaiso avenues.

In other action, the commission recommended that the city council appoint Alan Stansbury to fill the commission vacancy created by the resignation of chairman Robert J. Frazier.

LONGEVITY

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The 1971 Legislature set an all-time record for longevity today, its 313th calendar day in session.

It surpassed the previous record of 312 days established by the 1940 Legislature.

The current Legislature already had set a record for the longest continuous single session. The 1940 Legislature's longevity was spread over several special sessions.

The 1971 Legislature convened in January, took a week recess for Easter, another three weeks in August and hopes to adjourn by Thanksgiving. Or at least Christmas.

RECYCLED

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill requiring state and local agencies to use recycled paper was signed yesterday by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The measure by Sen. Anthony Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, requires the use of recycled paper if it is of the same quality and costs no more than regular paper.

Reagan also signed a bill by Assemblyman John Vasconcellos, D-San Jose, requiring a paper recycling plan for all state waste paper be developed.

DEFEATED

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An Assembly-passed bill which would have virtually eliminated special mid-term elections to fill vacancies on school boards has been defeated by the Senate.

The measure by Assemblyman Carlos Bee, D-Hayward, was rejected on a 10-25 vote yesterday after opponents warned that it violated the democratic process.

Sen. Peter H. Behr, R-San Rafael, opposed the bill on grounds that "once you start chipping away at the right to vote ... you're chipping away at the very bedrock of our government."

The measure would have permitted a school board to appoint a replacement when one of its members leave. Under current law, the vacancy must be filled by a special election.

Citation Leads To More Trouble

A 23-year-old Novato man was arrested by Corte Madera police yesterday on suspicion of possessing marijuana and dangerous drugs after he was stopped for a traffic violation.

Police said they stopped a truck driven by Frank E. Jordan of 1037 First Street, Novato, at 10:30 p.m. on Paradise Drive. While they talked with Jordan, police said, he pulled a cigarette from a package and four small pills spilled onto the road.

A small jar believed to contain marijuana was also in Jordan's possession, police said. He was booked into Marin County Jail and held to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

STANDARDS

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill aimed at bringing rental housing up to state fire safety standards was signed yesterday by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Reagan said the bill by Assemblyman Ken Meade, D-Oakland, would allow cities and counties to bring their local ordinances up to the safety standards required by the state.

The bill was introduced at the request of the California State Firemen's Association and the California Fire Chiefs and Fire Prevention Engineers associations.

EXEMPTED

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Legislation exempting pets from property taxation and given the moniker "moo-moo and bow wow" by a supporter was signed yesterday by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The measure by Assemblyman Bob Wood, R-Greenfield, also exempts up to three cows and 25 sheep if they are raised for nonprofit youth organizations such as 4-H Clubs.

Sen. James Wedworth, D-Hawthorne, gave the bill its nickname recently when he urged colleagues to approve it before local assessors "go after the cats and the dogs and the birds."

TRAIN PLAN

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An Assembly committee has amended legislation to block construction of a proposed high-speed train line between Los Angeles International Airport and the San Fernando Valley.

The Assembly Transportation Committee yesterday sent the measure to the full Assembly after changing it to give the Legislature veto power over actual construction of the multi-million dollar line.

Driver Hurt In Accident

Daniel R. McGuffin, 21, of 13 Aztec Avenue, Forest Knolls, was injured at 3:24 p.m. yesterday when his car tumbled down a 50-foot embankment in Forest Knolls.

He was treated at Marin General Hospital for muscle strain of both legs.

The California Highway Patrol said McGuffin was attempting to turn his small foreign car around in a driveway at 41 Aztec Avenue when the vehicle's wheels went off the roadway and the car plunged end-over-end down an embankment, coming to rest right side up.

PRESS BILL

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An Assembly-approved bill that would prohibit a newsman from being held in contempt of court for refusing to disclose the source of information gathered but not used has been rejected by the Senate.

The bill was defeated Thursday on a 10-12 vote with only a bare quorum of Senators present, but Sen. Alfred Song, D-Monterey Park, received permission to try for passage again later.

Song said the measure by Assemblyman Alan Sieroty, D-Beverly Hills, has the support of the California Newspaper Publishers Association and the California Broadcasters Association and there was "no known opposition to the bill."

Woman Attacked On Mount Tam

A 29-year-old San Francisco woman practicing long distance running on Mount Tamalpais was attacked by a man Tuesday but managed to escape, the Marin City sheriff's substation reported Wednesday.

Deputies said the woman, Roberta Welch, told them she was running on a fire trail near Bootjack Camp about 11 a.m. when a man grabbed her by the arm and hair. She struggled briefly with him and them fled to Panoramic Highway, where she was given a ride to her car by a passing motorist.

Officers said she suffered minor scrapes in a fall to the highway and was treated by her husband, a medical student.

Warrant Is Issued In Case

A warrant has been issued in Marin Municipal Court for Ronald Gregory Wiggins, 24, of Foster City, who failed to appear in court Tuesday.

Judge Robert A. Smallman set bail on the warrant at $1,500.

Wiggins is charged with a misdemeanor count of possessing LSD, stemming from his arrest Oct. 21 when Larkspur police found suspected drugs in his car when they stopped it on a routine traffic matter.

Wiggins originally was booked on suspicion of possessing speed, heroin and methamphetamine, as well as the LSD, but the district attorney's office said the other suspected items turned out not to be narcotics.

SURVIVES BRIDGE JUMP

Henry Harrington, 36, of Pacifica, is wheeled into Mission Emergency Hospital after jumping from the Golden Gate Bridge. Harrington, who yesterday dropped 246 feet to a moat encircling the bottom of the span's south tower, became the sixth known person to have survived a jump from the bridge. (See story, page 1.)

Civic Center Arrest For Gun-Toting Man

Sheriff's deputy Dwight D. Johnson stopped Jeffrey Alexander Worrall, 26, at the main entrance to the administration wing about 1 p.m. when a metal detector buzzer sounded. The gun, in Worrall's front pocket, was loaded with two rounds.

Deputy Sheriff E. D. Brannon said he could not determine why Worrall carried the weapon because Worrall asked for an attorney before answering any questions.

Worrall was booked on suspicion of carrying a concealed weapon and held in jail in lieu of $625 bail. He was to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

Guilty Plea To Trespass Charge

William Frederick O'Brien, 22, of New Orleans, has pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court to a charge the he slept on private property on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley without permission.

He was sentenced Wednesday to time served in jail since his arrest on Nov. 2.

A second charge of misdemeanor possession of marijuana was dismissed by Judge Robert A. Smallman on the recommenation of the district attorney.

Chill Wills's Wife Is Dead

ENCINO, Calif. (UPI)—Betty Wills, wife of gravel-voiced actor Chill Wills for 43 years, died of a heart attack Thursday at the age of 64.

She married Wills in 1928 in Kansas City, Mo., and their marriage endured while Wills, now 70, appeared in 130 movies.

Foil Meter Thiefs

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Taking no chances on further thefts, local authorities have had all the lock combinations on the city's 6,100 new parking meters changed to foil the thieves. They said someone apparently obtained a master key from the Chicago-area firm which manufactures the meters.

Meadowsweet Topic Again

The controversial Meadowsweet Station development will be the subject of another public hearing before the Corte Madera Planning Commission Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m., according to commission secretary Elizabeth Long.

The proposed 540-unit townhouse development south of the Koch luggage plant has been strongly opposed at previous hearings by homeowners in the area.

Another public hearing — this one on the town's housing element — has been postponed from Thursday to Nov. 29 at 7:30 p.m., the secretary said.

Closed Orr Hearing Ruled Out By Judge

A move to have a court hearing on a petition by fired Fairfax Police Chief James R. Orr closed to the public was rejected today by Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court.

But the judge put off until Monday a decision on whether or not there will be a court hearing at all.

Orr's attorney, Leonard Shaw, has requested the hearing to seek a permanent court order to prevent certain information from being presented to the city's board of review when it reviews Orr's firing.

Shaw contends that the charges against Orr which were the basis for his Sept. 30 firing were too vague and general for the chief to respond.

On Oct. 21, the council presented Orr with an "amended and supplemental statement" which, Shaw said, added new charges.

He is requesting Judge Gardiner to prohibit the board of review from considering the new charges on the grounds they were not before the council when it originally acted to fire Orr.

Shaw and Fairfax City Atty. Wallace S. Myers met with Gardiner in his chambers today to consider Shaw's request that a hearing on his petition be closed to the public so as to keep confidential the new allegations by the city.

Myers opposed the move, saying if there is to be a court hearing it should be open. But he also charged that Shaw has not shown legally sufficient cause for a court hearing to be held at all.

Following the conference in chambers, Gardiner returned to the bench where he ruled that since the case involved a public official, it would be "inappropriate" for any hearing to be closed.

He said he would decide Monday if Shaw has presented legal grounds for a court hearing and if he has, when the hearing will be held.

If the judge turns down the request for a court hearing, it is expected that the board of review will hear Orr's case at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Fairfax Women's Club.

If the judge grants the court hearing, the board of review meeting will be postponed.

The original allegations against Orr included broad charges of incompetency, inefficiency, neglect of duty and "failure of good behavior," as well as several specific accusations of misconduct.

Reapportionment Hearing Is Set

SACRAMENTO — A public hearing on reapportionment of California congressional districts will be held next Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the state capitol, state Sen. Mervyn M. Dymally, chairman of the Senate Committee on Elections and Reapportionment, announced today.

Redrafting of lines for the First and Sixth districts, each of which now includes a part of Marin County, will be among the matters up for discussion.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Want A Satisfying Chinese Dinner? Then You'll Want To Try Lin Fa

There is an old Oriental saying that he who eats cautiously with his friends may not be trusted; he who eats more than his friends is greedy; but he whose rice dish is shared with everyone will have more friends than enemies.

Not all westerners enjoy eating Chinese food day after day — we still crave our own type of fare. But there comes a time for many of us when it seems that the only thing that will satisfy is a Chinese dinner.

When that occurs, a most satisfying place to indulge yourself is Lin Fa Gardens at Northgate, where the tables are often crowded with others like you as well as dishes of fried rice, chow yuk, pork spare ribs, lobster Cantonese, won ton and other celestial delicacies.

If you are there any night Wednesday through Saturday, be sure to stop off in the lounge to hear organist Hal Landall at the Baldwin 210-D, which has almost as many variations as Ethel Barrie's menu. This is Baldwin's latest "hot organ" from which Hal manages to produce a most realistic violin solo, Sugar Blues trumpet or even a harpsichord along with sundry other instrumental effects.

They will be open as usual on Thanksgiving Day, serving a complete turkey dinner with all the trimmings at $4.50 and half price for youngsters under 12. (No price increase — it was the same figure last year). The regular menu will also be served.

Reservations will be helpful, though probably not imperative if you don't mind waiting at peak hours.

The proportion of restaurants in Marin open and closed on Thanksgiving each year is about 50-50. And each year some of those open on the previous Thanksgiving decide to close and vice versa. If you will be dining out this year check ahead now with your favorite place to find out its plans.

ANDRE MARQUER, partner and chef at the Normandie on the San Rafael Miracle Mile, may have decided to give up Marin County — but not the restaurant business. He has been in it too long.

You'll now find him and his wife Diane in St. Helena in the Napa Valley, where on Sunday they are opening their new French restaurant A la Toque. Dinner hours are from 4:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Location is 587-B Highway 29 — next to the Tripoli Market.

NEW GROUP playing at Gatsby's in Sausalito (or rather, the return of an old one) is the Don McCarroll Trio. It will be there Sunday afternoons and on Tuesday evenings.

Co-owner Pete Sheehan reports that his wandering partner Charlie Peet and crew were last heard from in Auckland, N.Z. At this rate Charlie's round-the-world cruise is not likely to break any records — unless it's for long duration.

LATEST REPORT from Niki Franchini is that Franchini's Chateau at Lucas Valley Road and the 101 Highway will start its Friday night crab cioppino dinners a week from tonight. This presumes that the seas won't be too rough for the fishermen, crabs will be available and prices won't be too rough for the restaurants who want to serve them.

THE LIND FAMILY will celebrate its second anniversary at Shipwreck Pete's in the Sportsman's Lodge, Novato next Wednesday. And of course there will be a big party. Roast pig, ribs, chicken, raw oysters, cioppino and many varieties of fish will be featured.

There will be dancing to the music of the Gene Fannucchi Trio, with Terry Ryan doing the vocals. This affair starts at 7 p.m. — and for this occasion, leave the youngsters at home. This is strictly an adult affair. Take them there another night.

A new everyday offering at Pete's is a 14-ounce top sirloin steak served with a tossed green salad, special potatoes and garlic bread at $3.95.

THE SAN FRANCISCO DINERS OUT CLUB has opened new offices in San Rafael in Suite 106, 1330 Lincoln Avenue and is promoting its dining coupon books. I understand that an effort has been made to eliminate restrictions, with the result that 90 per cent of the coupons are now said to be valid on weekends and for a choice of entrees.

There are 12 Marin restaurants participating, the newest additions being J.T.'s on Bridgeway in Sausalito and Tio Mario's Mexican restaurant on Valley Street, Sausalito. Outside of Marin there are some 65 restaurants under contract.

First-time purchases are $9 for the coupon book. Each year after that the price for continuing subscribers is $5.

CHAMPAGNE not only has become a popular drink for weddings, receptions, cocktail parties, open houses and grand openings, its consumption is increasing at the bar and at the tables in restaurants. It is not unusual there for it to be served either plain or as a champagne cocktail by the glass.

Now comes a new, 20-gallon, electrically powered champagne "fountain" to the market, which dispenses champagne and other sparkling wines by the glass without the required cork popping for just about every other refill. Its contents are said to be continually as fresh as the first glass taken from a bottle, according to Huntington and Rice Co. of Mountain View, marketing agent for Weibel Champagne Vineyards which is supplying the bubbly.

Government agencies are reported to have approved it. You may soon find it at your favorite champagne dispensary.

Motorist Is Facing A Murder

OAKLAND (UPI)—An Oakland motorist today faced murder charges for assertedly ramming another car in such a manner as to cause a fatal accident.

James Loveland, 35, appeared in municipal court Thursday on charges of murder and felony drunken driving. He had surrendered to authorities after police contacted him after a three-week investigation.

Police said Loveland was driving Oct. 23 when overtaken by a car driven by Arthur Hill, 36, Oakland.

Loveland caught up with the Hill car, police said, and smashed it repeatedly. He finally slammed into the Hill car, according to police, and accelerated to more than 60 mph, forcing Hill to lose control and crash into a telegraph pole.

New Water Line For Bolinas

The Bolinas Community Public Utility District board has agreed to lay a new water line to the Coast Guard search and rescue station on Mesa Road in Bolinas.

Board clerk Jane Boyer said directors Wednesday signed a contract with the Coast Guard agreeing to build the new line at a cost of $6,000, which the Coast Guard will pay.

The board also accepted its annual audit and announced a copy is available in the district office for examination.

The board adjourned to 11 a.m. Nov. 26 when four new board members — William A. Niman, Gregory Hewlett, Marguerite K. Harris and Orville H. Schell — will be seated.

Mrs. Boyer said the new board members attended Wednesday's meeting but there was no discussion of the Nov. 2 election, in which two incumbents were recalled and two others defeated.

More Syphilis

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Social Health Association said today the reported cases of syphilis in the fiscal year 1971 increased by 15.6 per cent and reported cases of gonorrhea increased 8.99 per cent.

"We've got a happy bar . . ."

"During my twelve years in this business, I've seen that different bars have distinctly different personalities. Take our Chez Pierre Lounge, for example. We've got a happy bar here. How do I know? Well, for one thing, Wally, Don, John, Gene, Marge Pat and the others enjoy coming to work. They like the customers, and the customers like them. It's that simple. And it's that nice. Drop by and see for yourself.

Banquet Room For Special Parties

Enjoy Dominic's smoke-filled rooms.

With everyone quitting smoking these days, it's really hard to find a good smoke-filled room any more. Well, we'd like to point out that we not only have more (we think) and better (we know) meeting and banquet rooms than anyone else in Marin, but also now offer a unique and heretofore unobtainable service. We will pre-fill your meeting room with smoke, in advance. Prices vary with the service, from economy (Mexican cigarette) to deluxe (imported Havana cigar). At least 24 hours notice, please.

Women Warned Off Mountain If Alone

Marin City sheriff's deputies said today they believe the same man who attempted to rape a San Francisco woman on Mount Tamalpais Tuesday but was foiled was responsible for the rape of a Mill Valley woman the next day.

Officers said they are checking with other departments which may have reported similar cases recently to see if there is any connection and are also investigating other leads.

The man remained at large today and deputies warned women not to go onto the mountain alone.

They said the assailant, described as a thin, clean-shaven black man about 29 years old with short hair, is suspected of raping a Mill Valley woman about 1 p.m. Wednesday and then robbing her of $40 cash and a camera.

Deputies said the 29-year-old victim told them she was photographing cloud formations on a knoll near Panoramic Road when a man approached her, pulled her out of sight of the road and attacked her.

He then took her car keys, unlocked the vehicle and stole $40 from her purse and a camera, lens and case valued at $100 before fleeing, deputies said the woman told them.

On Tuesday a man matching the same general description attempted to rape a 29-year-old San Francisco woman, who was practicing her long-distance running on a fire road near Bootjack Camp, but she managed to escape, deputies reported.

Reserve Chief Schedules Talk

Maj. Gen. Homer I. Lewis, chief of the Air Force Reserve, will address the Air Force Sergeants Association at a luncheon tomorrow at the noncommissioned officers club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

"The role of the noncommissioned officer in today's air force" is the topic of his address.

After the luncheon, Lewis will confer with reserve commanders at the base. He will then be guest of honor at a dinner of the 349th Military Airlift Wing (reserve) at Travis Air Force Base.

Accident Treatment

Elva Peterson, 19, of 2213 Magnolia Avenue, Petaluma, was treated at Hillcrest Hospital for chest pains suffered in an accident at 9 a.m. yesterday at Stony Point Road and Petaluma Boulevard North, Petaluma. Police had no details of the accident.

Group Is Seeking Permit For Pier

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Hold International Shares At A Risk

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I bought 200 shares International Industries at $11 in March. I have lost half my investment. Should I sell? — L. J. Q. We have 200 International Industries which cost 12⅜. Is it worth holding? — R.E.

A. Management has recently announced that losses for the year ended Aug. 29, 1971 would be about $63 million. Discontinued operations contributed about $3 million of the 9-month deficit while operating losses amounted to $6.8 million. Extraordinary charges and nonrecurring write-off were responsible for the bulk of the loss.

This fast food franchiser has reached agreement with a lenders group to restructure its $89 million of debt. Some $32.2 million will be exchanged for a new preference stock. Company anticipates resumed profitability by next year. Hold only in high risk accounts.

Q. I have begun high school and would like to invest my summer earnings in a high yield, high grade short-term bond. Is this advisable? — L.Z.

A. Presumably you are interested in a 3-to-4 year investment to help with college expenses. Ford Motor Co. 8¼s of 1974, rated AAA, fit your specifications. However, this note is trading at a 5½-point premium and would cost $1,055 per bond, entailing a small capital loss at maturity. Yield to maturity would be less than 6 per cent and in addition there is a commission charge to pay. Other debt issues which fit your requirements also sell at similar premiums. A bank certificate of deposit would be a better investment for your purpose.

Q. Where is Envirotech listed? What is its business? Could you give the highs and lows and other facts? — F.E.

A. Although incorporated in 1969, this OTC company went public this September. Shares have traded between 35⅝ and 28 and are 14 per cent held by North American Rockwell. Envirotech designs and manufacturers equipment for liquid and solid waste treatment. Sales for the first six months ended Sept. 30, were up 37% to $63.7 million. A corresponding increase placed earnings at 55 cents a share.

"As the year progressed, several minor adjustments were made in our initial sales forecast."

DuPont Firm Is Making Public Offer

NEW YORK (BW) — An underwriting syndicate managed by DuPont, Glore Forgan Inc. is publicly offering $20 million of realty income trust 8 per cent convertible subordinated debentures due 1991 priced at 100 per cent.

The debentures are initially convertible into common shares at $16.50 per share. The debentures are subject to optional redemption at any time and, commencing 1978, will be subject to redemption through a sinking fund.

Early-Hour Prices Take A Tumble

Prices on the American Stock Exchange also were in a slide, with 453 declines and 196 advances among the 908 issues traded. Among the active issues were Bradford Computer, off 2 to 20 3-4 on 55,900 shares, and Rath Packing, off 1 to 11 7-8 on 17,300 shares.

Topping the active list on the Big Board was Kimberly Clark, off a fraction on more than 153,000 shares traded.

Weak spots popped up in most major categories. In the motors, Ford gave up 1 3-8, General Motors 1. Chrysler dipped 3-8.

Electronics dropped, led by IBM which gave up 3 1-4. Burroughs and Honeywell lost from 1 to 2 points. Xerox fell 1 3-4; American Telephone 1-8. Steels, chemicals, rails and aircrafts also weakened.

Travel Award To President Of Firm

SYDNEY (BW) — The travel industry's highest honor has been awarded to Chicago's Thomas J. Donovan. It came at the Travel Agents (ASTA) Convention.

Donovan, president of Cartan Travel, a worldwide tour operator and a division of Carte Blanche Corp., received the Joseph W. Rosenbluth Award "for his contribution to the travel industry and the professionalism of the travel agent."

POWERED BY GAS TURBINE ENGINES

This is an artist's sketch of the Navy's new Spruance-class destroyer which will use gas-turbine powered engines. Thirty of the vessels have been ordered and are to become operational with the fleet by 1975. Honeywell's Marine Systems Center at West Covina is providing antisubmarine warfare systems engineering under a contract with a potential of $36 million, largest of its kind in the firm's history.

WEEK IN BUSINESS

Paint Firm Reaches New Highs

New record highs in both sales and earnings were recorded for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30 by Standard Brands Paint Co. of Torrance, which will open a new retail store in the Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael, sometime after the first of the year.

Sales for fiscal 1971, which is said to have been the most successful year in the company's 31-year history, were $57.1 million, compared with $47.2 million a year ago. Earnings after taxes were $4.4 million or $1.74 per share compared with last year's $3.4 million or $1.36 per share.

Standard Brands manufactures and retails paints in its own stores and also markets a line of home decorator products. The company purchased the building formerly occupied by Purity Stores.

HOSPITAL CORP. OF AMERICA, parent company of Marin County's Ross Medical Corp. reported record operating revenues of $82.5 million for the nine months ended Sept. 30 — up 55 per cent over the $53.3 for the preceding year. Net income of $4.8 million compared with $3.4 million in 1970. The company has officially consummated its acquisition of Los Robles Medical Center Hospital in Southern California and has an agreement to acquire the McMinneville General Hospital in Oregon.

AMERICAN EXPRESS CO. has announced the formation of a new venture capital company in New York to be known as Amexco Venture Associates. It is initially capitalized at $16 million under a partnership agreement entered into by American Express subsidiaries Fireman's Fund American Insurance Companies and Rexport. American Express Investment Management Co. of San Francisco will be Amexco's investment advisor.

LEVERAGE FUNDINGS SYSTEMS, INC. of Oakland, principal owner and manager of the Howard Johnson motel complex in Southern Marin, has been granted a permit for a $500,000 debenture offering by the California corporation commissioner. Debentures will be made available to Leverage clients not to exceed $2,000 for each individual. Warrants will allow the purchase of Leverage common stock during the next three years.

CALIFORNIA FINANCIAL CORP of San Francisco will sell its title insurance operations to U.S. Financial Corp. for an undisclosed amount of cash and subject to existing underwriting agreements. The sale includes all of the stock of Marin Title Guaranty Co. and that of Financial Title Co. of Contra Costa County and 89.4 per cent of Pacific Land Title Co. of Alameda County. U. S. Financial is an integrated shelter company with title operations in 18 states.

WESTERN AIRLINES has been granted exemption authority by the Civil Aeronautics Board to provide scheduled service from San Francisco to the ski gateway cities of Twin Falls, Idaho and Grand Junction, Colo. The board approved a tour basing round trip fare of $99 including tax to Grand Junction and Western is seeking a round trip tour basing fare of $82 including tax between the Bay Area and Twin Falls. "Skibird" specials will be operated every Saturday during the ski season. No exact date for starting service has been announced.

BANK OF AMERICA will open a new international banking subsidiary in Houston next February or March. The bank, with initial capitalization of $2 million, will be known as Bank of America International of Texas.

ALLIS-CHALMERS is purchasing a minority interest in the Swedish firm of Svedala-Arbra, a leading European manufacturer of crushing and screening equipment for ore, stone and gravel. The transaction needs the approval of the Swedish government.

Insurance Companies Finding Campuses Big Sales Avenue

By LEROY POPE

NEW YORK (UPI)—People who worry about radicalism and bizarre life styles on college campuses can take comfort from the experience of life insurance companies with students.

Many life companies have special organizations to sell policies to students. Often a full-time professional agent runs an office on campus and uses students as part time agents. These companies rather uniformly have a favorable impression of today's undergraduates, according to the Institute of Life Insurance. On the basis of a recent survey, says the Institute, "It's not true that traditionalism has gone the way of the dinosaur on the campus."

Northwestern Mutual of Milwaukee has one of the largest college sales departments with offices on 66 campuses. College Life Insurance Co. of Indianapolis started in business selling policies to students. Equitable Life Assurance, Home Life of New York, Mutual of New York, Provident Mutual and Fidelity Mutual, both of Philadelphia, American National of Galveston and many others are active on the campuses.

David Reeder, the 32-year old head of Northwestern Mutual's college sales organization, says undergraduates haven't really changed tremendously since his student days. "Most of them will admit that, in the long run, they look forward to settling down to a conventional life style with a wife and kids," Roeder said. "They aren't too much interested in the main function of life insurance— protection right now—but they are sufficiently interested in setting up something for the future so that our company sold them $25 million worth of policies last year."

It's a fine market, Roeder said, because there now are eight million youngsters on the nation's campuses.

Roeder said his agents usually don't look on the longhaired hippy type undergraduates as good prospects, "but you never can tell. One such unlikely looking character recently bought a $100,000 policy."

Roeder said a campus life insurance manager has to be sensitive to changing moods. "A college campus can go from conservative to liberal and back again to conservative within a couple of years," he said. "Also the average middle sized campus — 7,500 to 15,000 students—is far from homogeneous. It has enclaves of all shades of political opinions and life styles."

While few students see life insurance agents as representatives of "The Establishment," says Roeder, agents will experience prejudice if they adopt high pressure tactics. He says today's students don't like sales gimmicks or fancy approaches. They prefer straight professionalism in an agent.

An Offer For El Paso Gas

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Western Sunset Transmission Co. has offered to purchase an El Paso Natural Gas Co. division which the Supreme Court has ordered sold.

Western Sunset Transmission, which offered Monday to buy El Paso's northwest division, is a combine formed by U.S. Natural Resources Inc., ACF Industries, Ralph M. Parsons Co. and Robert E. Maloney and Associates.

Maloney, who is chief executive officer, said the participants have combined resources of more than $600 million.

Terms of the offer were not made public.

TRANQUIL FLEET

As gulls soar above, fishing boats near the Army Corps of Engineers' dock in Sausalito rest at their berths. Fishing activity slackened yesterday in the face of the Bay Area's first major storm of the year. Crab fishermen have opened the season on a glum note, reporting minor catches. In some cases, crab boats haven't ventured from port because of rough seas. (Independent-Journal photo)

Huge Wheat Surplus Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Agriculture Department economists Wednesday predicted this year's record wheat crop, coupled with a drop in sales, will produce a substantial increase in surplus wheat stocks.

The U.S. surplus carryover stood at 731 million bushels in July of this year and may jump by nearly 250 million bushels by July of 1972, economists said in a report.

As a result of the big 1971 crop, the report said farm prices have been below year-ago levels since August and season average prices for the current 11-72 marketing year will average below last year's $1.34 per bushel, the report said.

Arraigned On Felony Fraud

Herbert Cosme, 22, of 2130 Redwood Highway, a trailer court in Greenbrae, has been arraigned on a charge of felony fraud for allegedly getting $747 in welfare overpayment.

Cosme is to plead in Marin Municipal Court next Tuesday.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said Cosme, his wife Gail, and one child have been getting welfare aid, but Cosme failed to report his wife's earnings between January and May of this year. During that time, Mrs. Cosme worked for the telephone company in San Francisco, Bales said.

Story Of Disloyalty 'Irrelevant' Today?

Those of us who have been around a long time recall Edward Everett Hale's story, "The Man Without a Country." It was written during the Civil War, to promote loyalty to the United States. But it became a schoolroom classic, used in the public schools for at least three-quarters of a century and becoming part of what historian Henry Steele Commager has called Americans' no-longer-existent "common body of allusion."

Hale pulled out the stops skillfully in his story of Philip Nolan, an imaginary artillery lieutenant who became a follower of Aaron Burr in "Great Conspiracy" and was court-martialed as a result. On trial in New Orleans, young Nolan burst out:

"Damn the United States! I wish I may never hear of the United States again!"

AND THAT BECAME his sentence: to serve out his life aboard U.S. Navy ships, never setting foot on his native soil, and to be allowed to hear no mention of the United States — a "man without a country."

The rest of Hale's story traces the growth of Nolan's remorse as he served his unusual sentence for the remaining 57 years of his life, and of his unfulfilled longing to return to the country he had renounced. It closes with the finding in his Bible of a slip asking that someone "set up a stone for my memory" with the legend: "He loved his country as no other man has loved her; but no man deserved less at her hands."

"THE MAN WITHOUT a Country" is no longer read in the public schools. It has been squeezed out to make room for more "relevant" literature, such as "Siddartha" and "Catcher in the Rye."

But this week, the U.S. Supreme Court refused to overturn a lower court decision that Thomas G. Jolley, 27, of Tallahassee, Fla., is a "man without a country."

Jolley, like many other young men opposed to the Vietnam War, renounced his U.S. citizenship and fled to Canada to escape being drafted after Selective Service refused to classify him as a conscientious objector.

When he re-entered the U.S., he was arrested for illegal entry and ordered deported. He fought the order, but the federal court held his renunciation of citizenship was binding and he is illegally in the United States.

BY REFUSING to overturn this ruling, the Supreme Court made "men without a country" of all others who are in similar situation.

Young Jolley, when informed of the high court's action, said, "I guess it's up to the immigration authorities to place me somewhere, presumably Canada since that's the last country I was in."

Canada, however, might not want him. It is doubtful that he would be put aboard ship under sentence never to hear of the U.S. again. But his position is not unlike that of the fictional Philip Nolan.

Hale wrote "The Man Without a Country" because, during the Civil War, many young men found their loyalties confused by the internecine struggle and could not see why they should be true to a nation that had plunged them into such a war.

Maybe it is not so "irrelevant" today after all.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Lays Bond Defeat To Senior Citizens

Headlines of your paper were, "College Bond Loses," and in reading the article by David Dietz we find that this was the second time in a year this bond proposal has been defeated, the first try almost received the needed two thirds vote with 62 per cent.

How simple it would have been to have won this with a little effort directed in the right places!

Instead of trying to squeeze the last dime out of some senior citizen who has already done more than his share, how about a bit of lobbying to help the pensioner on a limited income to get off the taxpaying rolls?

With very little effort you will find that every little old man and lady faithfully goes to the polls to vote against bond issues or any other proposal that will nibble away at their already too small and limited incomes!

The 4 per cent lacking to pass this bond issue could very well have been the votes controlled by the senior citizens. (Worth considering isn't it?)

What Use Freeze With Labor Attitude?

I would like to know what good it can do to put a "freeze" on everything, and try to stabilize the country, when organized labor simply waits, chomping at the bit, to — start new strikes, and disruption tactics, the same as before.

Garbage Separation Would Aid Recycling

I fear that many people are unaware that our country is threatened to be overrun by garbage. Every day we are faced with the ever-increasing problem of what should be done with the literally hundreds of tons of refuse.

I am aware that scientists have found a limited number of fairly good ways to use some of it, such as in land fill, for artificial fertilizers, etc. These methods are helping to solve the problem, but I believe that by recycling all the waste paper, glass and metals, we could eliminate the problem of dumping almost completely.

The garbage disposal companies should require people to separate their refuse for recycling before it is collected. And in the meantime individuals should be recycling their refuse at recycling centers.

Many Banks Likely Proud Of Tellers

For some time I have watched the ad over the television, sponsored by a responsible bank claiming that they have the best tellers in town. From my experience the best tellers in many towns in California are those of the World's Largest Bank. I have been employed for nearly 40 years in that bank and I am sure that they have the best tellers. I am now retired and would like to pay tribute to those wonderful tellers in my bank.

Advantages Told, But Measure Lost

Please accept our thanks, on behalf of the Citizens' Committee for Proposition A, for your editorial support. We appreciate the fact that you understood and helped us to carry our message —that of the advantages of bond financing and of the great need for college facilities — to your readers.

Although not having received the necessary 66⅔ per cent affirmative vote is naturally a disappointment, we are gratified by the extensive community support we received during the campaign.

Government Credibility Falsely Damaged In Tet Offensive Reports

WASHINGTON — The one thing a democratic nation cannot long survive is a widely held conviction that the government cannot be trusted to tell the truth.

The credibility of government has been seriously eroded in recent years.

Why? How? When did lack of credibility manifest itself in one of its most acute forms?

I think back to the sudden, massive, fierce Tet Offensive which the North Vietnamese Army and the Viet Cong launched against Saigon and a dozen other South Vietnamese cities in early 1968. It was a bold, daring, go-for-broke attack.

The morning after the onslaught which broke through the defenses of the American Embassy, Gen. William C. Westmoreland met the incredulous members of the press and calmly gave them this appraisal of what had happened: "The enemy's well-laid plans went afoul."

IN DESCRIBING this incident in his book, "Tet — the Story of the Battle and Its Historic Aftermath," just published by Doubleday, Don Oberdorfer, talented Washington Post reporter, writes:

"The reporters could hardly believe their ears. Westmoreland was standing in the ruins and saying everything was great."

S.L.A. Marshall, a leading writer on military affairs, in his review of "Tet" for the Book World notes that Oberdorfer "simply leaves the implication dangling, his reader thus getting the impression that Westmoreland was a dolt of a general and the newsmen were the realists."

But he doesn't leave it dangling for long. His firsthand study of the facts reverses this judgment.

HIS FINDINGS substantiate the conclusion that it was General Westmoreland who was telling the truth realistically. It was the U.S. press in Saigon which failed to discern the truth and instead spread a mushrooming myth.

History is beginning to correct one of the crucial falsities in the reporting of the Vietnamese war.

In order to measure the magnitude of this reverse-of-the-truth reporting of the Tet offensive and the consequences in the United States, let me cite Marshall's careful words:

"Out of desperation, due to dwindling resources, the Communists switched strategy and made their massive try. They were beaten in detail and their shock losses were compounded by the refusal of the South Vietnamese to rally to their side.

"What came of it? The correspondents almost unanimously held with the theme of a terrible American defeat. Retired Marine Gen. David Shoup told a committee of Congress that anyone who regarded Tet as a military victory was a fit candidate for a lunatic asylum.

"More than six months later, the New York Times acknowledged that the view of Tet as a military disaster had been all wrong. By then it was too late. The fever of panic, shaking the highest levels, had made of Tet an irreversible psychological defeat."

THE UNREALISTIC American correspondents in Saigon — or most of them — canceled out the realistic judgments of General Westmoreland, and instead reported their own opposite conclusions. Thus the American people were persuaded that the U.S. military leaders on the spot were not credible.

They should have been. Oberdorfer puts it this way in his book:

"The irony of the Tet offensive is that the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong suffered a battlefield setback in the war zone, but still won the political victory in the United States."

Why did the American people come to believe the opposite of what really happened during this pivotal battle of the Vietnamese war? Oberdorfer cites the inherent distortion of television reporting and refers to the "tower of modern electronics, which transmits experiences and emotions instantaneously and transmits perspective poorly."

One thing is clear: The American government was telling the truth. The military were telling the truth. But the American people were not getting the truth because TV and the press were not reporting the true picture.

BY NO MEANS NEUTRAL

Gov. George Wallace: Creature Of The Media

By ERNEST B. FURGURSON

ATLANTA, Ga. — It is well known by now that the "creatures" of the media are those people with hair and obscene placards who used to break up political rallies attended by law-abiding citizens. One of the personalities who helped instruct us in how to recognize this genus is George Wallace, who always has a tongue-tip a colorful glossary of terms to be used in their identification and classification, and is expert in directing camera crews what to photograph and reporters what to write in their notebooks as he and the creatures of the media compete for attention in public.

What Governor Wallace does not usually acknowledge in public is the fact that, despite his pointless head and comparably recent haircut, he himself is a creature of the media and always has been — ever since he got himself photographed standing in the schoolhouse door. It was never more obvious than here at the Southern Governors Conference, as he warmed up his reflexes again for the political months ahead.

AS AT MOST SUCH conferences, the formal business sessions were not exciting stuff. Clark Kerr, chairman of the Carnegie Commission on the Future of Higher Education, started by delivering a meaty talk about matters of high priority to all governors, not just those in the South. But nobody's attention span is unlimited. Soon one governor here and another there strayed away from the discussion. Yet Wallace sat through it all, slumped down in his chair, smoking long cigars in a conspicuous holder, doing his constitutional duty. Then when the chairman announced a coffee break, a high percentage of the assembled press converged on Wallace in a desperate effort to squeeze some kind of colorful footage, some kind of afternoon lead out of the day's schedule.

Wallace waved them away modestly at first, noting that he intended to talk at the Press Club the next day, but they would not go. So he shrugged, and they rushed happily into the next room to set up their lights and microphones and hold an instant press conference.

He stood before them looking, for the first time in my experience, middle-aged. He also was a little shaggy, a little overdue at the barber's. He played the same game he and they had played together for so many years, the cat-and-mouse exercise about will you run and if so in what states, and he enjoyed it as always. He shifted back and forth from "the party," meaning the Democrats to "our party," meaning the Wallace-oriented American Independent Party, as if he owned a substantial share in each — crossing party lines in conversation almost as conveniently as in campaigning.

WALLACE CLENCHED his left fist and groped at the air for the cameras, and each time he did he showed them his Masonic ring and his wedding ring together on the third finger. He zapped the Los Angeles Times reporter for daring to ask about the indictment of one of his aides in Montgomery. He talked about "sending a few shock waves and rattling some eyeteeth" in "the party" by winning some primaries, and refrained from saying anything nice about Wilbur Mills as a candidate on the grounds that doing so might do the gentleman some harm "in certain quarters" — which, of course, it would.

Somebody used the word "moderate" in a question, and that set Wallace off on a mini-tirade about the "so-called moderates" who have become governors in the south lately. He himself never said anything they had not said in their careers, he maintained. And if they are so different from him, he insisted, just go ask them if they want to criticize George Wallace.

With that the press conference tapered off and the reporters and cameramen trailed back into the main meeting room, where a series of gubernatorial reports on executive management and fiscal affairs was being presented.

In odd hours and in the corridors while the formal reports continued, the press game then was to brace the mostly tall and well-tailored new governors Wallace considers the "so-called moderates" and to see if they would indeed criticize him in their careful estimates of next year's presidential outlook. And to a man, from the head of Chesapeake Bay to the Mississippi Delta, they turned down the opportunity. For, as the Alabamian knew when he said it, all of them can envision Wallace in their own back yards next year, excoriating them with snappy 1972 variations on his theme — and with the media panting in attendance.

By RUS WALTON:

Medical Board Sabotages Physician Assistant Law

SACRAMENTO — Anyone who has sat in a doctor's waiting room reading last year's Field and Stream for three hours knows there is a shortage of physicians. Doctors are overworked. Their schedules are overloaded.

And the situation gets no better.

Each year this state loses more physicians to death than it gains through new graduates from our medical schools. In 1970, 611 physicians passed away; only 346 MDs were graduated from the eight schools within the state.

In recent years California counted on "importing" physicians from other states. Approximately 65 per cent of our annual supply of new doctors came from other nations and states. Now that is diminishing as other areas offer greater opportunities and better facilities.

The shortage is not only one of physicians. It is a shortage of the health care services physicians perform — services which physicians acknowledge could be performed by well-trained and supervised assistants.

WELL, THE ASSISTANTS are there, ready and waiting. Each year some 30,000 medical corpsmen are released from the military. Many have had years of experience and training and a large number of them live in California. They could help ease the shortage of health care services. But they are not permitted to assist.

Thus, a large reservoir of medical manpower is being wasted at a time when it is sorely needed.

In 1970, through the efforts of Assemblymen Gordon Duffy, Bill Campbell, Ken Stacey and others, California enacted the Physicians Assistants Law (AB 2109). It established a program of certification for physicians' assistants under guidance and supervision of the state Board of Medical Examiners.

The intent of the act was to establish a new field of training for the healing arts and to make it possible for the thousands of released medical corpsmen to put their skills to work under the supervision of certified physicians and surgeons. The California Medical and California Hospital Associations supported the measure.

AB 2109 BECAME law in November, 1970 and the program was to have been in operation by July, 1971. An advisory Committee on Manpower Innovation was appointed and helped establish guidelines These were referred to the Board of Medical Examiners for approval.

The board has been dragging its feet. A revised draft of guidelines and criteria for "health care assistants" (not physicians' assistants) was finally approved on Oct. 16, and may be adopted on Nov. 20.

If those guidelines are adopted as drafted, it will virtually eliminate most of the veteran corpsmen from the so-called mainstream of medicine. To participate in the program many of them would first have to go back to school. While their skills and training gathered rust, they would be required to wrestle with such subjects as cultural anthropology and sociology. Some, with 15-20 years of experience under military doctors, would be required to return to high school for their diplomas. Once that was done they could then begin courses in how to be a physician's assistant.

FURTHERMORE, IF THE guidelines are approved as drafted, students who have been studying to become physicians' assistants at such institutes as the UCLA-affiliated Charles Drew School would be out of luck. The guidelines would disqualify most of their studies just as they are about to graduate.

The embryonic physicians' assistant school at Stanford University would also be thrown out of kilter.

At last report, the Public Health Department had the names of 750 corpsmen who wanted to do something with their skills. There was no place to send them. And there won't be, until the Board of Medical Examiners implements the law.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Are Marin Sanitary Districts Going To Bust In A Barrow?

The song is ended but the malady lingers on — this "I'm going to run the county" thing. The chief satellite of the throne room out at Brasilia is proving daily my belief that he will make Alan Bruce look like an amateur. One would think that he wrote the Parkinson Law. Just have a listen for a bit.

That deep dread that folks will become aware that there isn't enough work involved to warrant the salaries and other expenses of the operation has him scrambling, even to the extent of going clear outside of his sphere of authority.

He is still pushing consolidation of the sanitary districts. He first wanted to have the two larger water districts take over the operations. The North Marin group said nix. Now his latest is to have all the sanitary districts form one big one to be governed by the mayors of each city and the board of supervisors.

He doesn't explain how he would untangle the obligations of all the districts involved. This is the maneuvering the taxpayers are pungling up over a third of a million bucks for.

BONNIE BARD, the gal who runs the I-J Petaluma bureau, wrote a darn good "I-J Reporter's Notebook" the other day. As it was headed "Petaluma Citizen Committees Not Cowed By Professionals," it's likely the folks down here may have not read it. Here are a few excerpts:

"Professional planners are lurking again in Petaluma, but perhaps this time the study will result in a 'people's plan'. Six study committees with as many as 10 members each are threshing out various sections of the proposed environmental design plan prepared by professional planners . . . instead of simply rubber stamping ideas presented by the professionals, the citizens appear to be doing some independent thinking and planning . . .

"Like some educators, planners can sometimes overwhelm ordinary citizens with fancy planning words and 10-word phrases that could be easily simplified. The self-confidence of planners has been known to buffalo citizen groups, but reports indicate the study committees have been thorough about looking at the planners recommendations and are not shy about criticism."

Miss Bard's column went on to describe the action that was being taken by the several groups of citizens involved. She finished with the following:

"If citizens can do enough original thinking and get through the plan they honestly want, the fancy document might do more for the city than simply gather dust on a shelf."

I wonder if they had spent $1,724,570 (net) in six years principally on study after study like we have down here? I'll just be they haven't.

Oregon Visit Warms Muskie

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (UPI) —Sen. Edmund Muskie, buoyed by responsive crowds and a visit with labor leaders, said Wednesday he was "tremendously warmed" by his Oregon reception.

The Maine Democrat made his comment as he relaxed on his plane before his return trip to Washington, D.C. The acknowledged front-runner for the Democratic presidential nomination said he would return to Oregon after the first of the year.

Muskie made a two day trip through Oregon to gauge voter response and line up possible support.

Price Fixing Charge Denied

NEW YORK (UPI)—The president of Chock Full O' Nuts Corp. denied Thursday charges by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) that the company illegally fixed prices charged by its franchised restaurants.

William Black, the company president, said where prices differ between the company owned stores and the 38 franchised restaurants in New York and New Jersey, the franchises charge higher prices.

Black said the FTC claim that Chock Full O' Nuts illegally restrained competition by requiring franchises to buy food from the parent firm was false.

Prison Library Financing Idea

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) —State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger says attorneys could help finance expanded prison law libraries by paying a fee to use them.

Younger made the suggestion Thursday in connection with the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling that California must provide more extensive legal libraries for convicts.

"They used to play baseball in prison for recreation," Younger said. "Now they file lawsuits."

MAMO'S A SURPRISE

This Baby Porpoise Isn't Suppose To Be

By RUTH YOUNGBLOOD

HONOLULU (UPI) —A baby porpoise named Mamo is the animal scientists said couldn't happen.

The baby, frolicking around in his tank, is a cross between two porpoises that are not of the same species, genus or even the same family.

Dr. Kenneth Norris, director of research for the Makapuu Oceanic Institute and a leading authority on porpoises, said the baby porpoise is as surprising as "cross-breeding a deer and a sheep and getting a living offspring."

"The mother and father porpoises are the most remote set of parents known to produce living young," Norris said. "Just like sheep and deer, they are two separate families which are right next to each other."

"As far as I know," Norris said, "no breeding of animals in different families in the animal kingdom has ever resulted in viable young before."

Norris said Mamo's genealogy ranks as a "near miracle." The father, an Atlantic bottlenose, is genus "tursiops," species "truncatus," and family "delphinidae." The mother, a rough-toothed porpoise, is genus "steno," species "bredanensis," and family "stenidae."

Since scientists at the Institute for the Advancement of Research and Education and Marine Sciences didn't try to mate the parents and didn't even know the mother was pregnant, the birth was a double surprise. In spite of the mother's weight gain and irregular appetite, trainers discounted the possibility of pregnancy since she had not mated with any porpoises of her own species. The only male mammal she had mated with was the Atlantic bottlenose.

Then, on Oct. 4, a worker preparing to feed the animals in the mother's tank noticed an extra small porpoise. Officials were notified and discovered the baby had portions of the umbilical cord still attached, indicating very recent birth.

"I was astounded and delighted," Norris said. "There is no doubt in my mind that Mamo is the result of porpoises who are of different species, different genus and different families. The baby is a perfect intermediate."

Mamo, who spends his days playing, feeding and growing in the large tank with his mother, shows all signs of being a healthy male porpoise. His antics delight scientists and visitors at Sea Life Park, the commercial arm of the Oceanic Institute.

"He has his father's snout and his mother's rounded stomach and dorsal fin," Norris said. "Since crosses can produce qualities in the offspring that are not in the parents, Mamo may be full of surprises."

The rough-toothed porpoise generally works hard, is very intelligent, inventive and is tops for training purposes, Norris said. The Atlantic bottlenose is also intelligent and easy to get along with, so scientists at the institute are hoping Mamo will turn out to be "a highly intelligent animal with a good disposition."

Norris is anxious to prove to other scientists that Mamo's rare geneology is genuine and said blood tests will be taken when he's older.

"What happened here has never been observed to happen before in history," Norris said, "and is not supposed to be possible."

He said it will be particularly interesting to see what kind of offspring stem from Mamo, if he is able to reproduce, "since the genetic mechanism may be so tangled up as to render him sterile."

"This whole incident has raised questions about what is possible and what isn't in genetics," Norris said.

Another problem bothering scientists at the Institute is what kind of scientific designation to give Mamo, an animal that supposedly couldn't be born.

Convicts Claim Bias Treatment

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) —Sixteen convicts at Folsom Prison filed a Superior Court suit Wednesday charging they were placed in segregation units because of their race and beliefs.

The suit said the prisoners — 15 blacks and one Chicano — were removed from the prison's general population on charges ranging from "conspiring to take over the institution" to being a Black Panther and associating with known radicals.

The prisoners' attorneys said the 16 have not had the usual prison disciplinary hearing and are kept in their cells 23 to 24 hours a day without regular prison privileges or programs.

Plane Search Is Extended

JAKARTA (UPI) — The search for an Indonesian Merpati Lusantara Airlines plane missing with 62 persons aboard was extended today to Sibertu Island off the West Sumatra coast.

Bad weather hampered the rescue operation of the four-engine Viscount that left Jakarta Wednesday morning on the first leg of flight to Kuala Lumpur in Malaysia.

No Light Shed On Complaint Letter

Two trustees of the San Anselmo School District reported yesterday that a three-hour session with teachers has shed no light on an ambiguous letter of complaint by teachers.

Trustees Eugene E. Jacks and Mary H. Olive said the specific gripes hinted at in the letter — given the district board in October — are still hidden. However, they may emerge when the trustees consider the matter Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Red Hill School library.

Jacks and Mrs. Olive were appointed to meet with teachers when the letter to trustees surfaced at the Nov. 2 trustee meeting, and did so without public notice.

The board took the position that the two could meet privately and without public notice with teachers under provisions of the Winton Act and were supported by Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino.

(The state Legislature's counsel, George H. Murphy, in October gave the opinion that committes of less than a quorum of a governing board remain subject to the Ralph M. Brown Act provisions requiring public notice of special meetings.)

At the closed meeting, Jacks said, the teachers did not say what specifically prompted the letter or what trustees it is aimed at.

However, Mrs. Olive said she believes she is a target. She said, "The staff felt not all my votes supported the superintendent and that requests for information from the district office affected the superintendent's morale adversely."

The letter, dated Oct. 18, claims Supt. W. Kenneth Lowry had talked of resigning because "some members of the board evidence lack of faith in his recommendations."

It further states, "We feel that there may be greater potential for growth in our district when the stresses that seem to exist between some members of the board and the superintendent are resolved, so that education in the district can move forward." It is signed by the Certificated Employees of the San Anselmo School District.

Lowry is praised for pushing through new programs which in the past were adopted, "then forgotten, perhaps because of lack of consistent interest on the part of the board." The letter does not specify the programs.

Mrs. Olive said the letter may have sprouted from confustion in the district about the relationship of Lowry to the board. Jacks said the teachers "know there are unhappy people around for one reason or another."

Wife Beating Count Dropped

A misdemeanor charge of wife beating against Lucien B. Vincilione, 63, of Forest Knolls, has been dismissed in Marin Municipal Court.

The district attorney's office said the charge was dismissed at the request of Vincilione's wife, the alleged victim in the case.

He was arrested June 20 on suspicion of a felony count of the same charge after his wife told Marin County sheriff's deputies that he had hit her about the head and face for no apparent reason.

Panel Is Selected For Parolee Study

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Att. Gen. Evelle J. Younger today appointed a commission to investigate whether dangerous convicts are being released on probation and parole too early.

He said the 10-member task force would seek to learn "whether probationers and parolees are, by virtue of being out of prison when they would have been incarcerated a decade ago, posing an excessive threat of criminal activity to society."

Younger told a news conference that the recent slaying of a Los Angeles police officer by an inmate released on a 27-hour pre-parole pass has "properly raised questions about the administration of our parole and probation programs."

He said the special commission would analyze existing statistical data and probably complete its report in three to six months.

Members of the task force include Los Angeles Chief of Police Edward Davis, who has been bitterly critical of the existing parole and probation system, and Herb Ellingwood, legal affairs secretary to Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The governor recently strongly defended the 27-hour pre-parole pass system in the wake of the shooting. He said it was the first of its type and that thousands of convicts had been issued such passes without incident.

Other members include California Youth Authority chairman Allen Breed; Associate Justice Lynn D. Campton of the state District Court of Appeal at Los Angeles; James Geary, Santa Clara County sheriff; Henry Kerr, state Adult Authority chairman; Raymond Procunier, state director of corrections; James Solomon, president of the California Probation Officers Association; District Attorney Edward Miller of San Diego County, and Robert Houghton of the state Department of Justice.

At a newsman's suggestion, Younger also agreed to appoint a public defender to the task force.

MRS. WILLIAM McDOUGAL of Sausalito, when she was the former Padmini Jayawardena of Ceylon, was greeted at a state dinner in Peking by the wife of communist China's premier, Chou En-lai. She was one of a group of women from seven countries invited on an individual basis to visit the People's Republic of China.

A POPULAR HOSTESS

Her Background Is International

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mrs. William McDougal of Sausalito is well known as an international hostess who entertains constantly at luncheons, dinners and other events for which she prepares foods of many nations.

One of these is the gala "International Food and Drink Festival" she is having at her home tomorrow for the League of Women Voters of Southern Marin, of which she is a member.

Less well known is the international background in which she developed her talents.

Born and educated in Colomba, the capital of Ceylon, the former Padmini Jayawardena, was married in 1963 to William McDougal, a Scotsman who was in Ceylon with the Asia Foundation. He is now in the San Francisco office of the foundation working with its program development, but before they came to Sausalito in 1968, the McDougals also lived in Korea and East Pakistan.

Even before she was married, Padmini had spent considerable time in Red China, Japan, the United States and Canada in connection with her interests and social work.

AT HER HOME in Sausalito, where Padmini does her gourmet cooking and works on ceramics at her potter's wheel, she spoke of her life in Ceylon and other countries.

"I graduated from the Visakha Vidyalaya private girls' school," she said. "It was operated on the British system, where one goes straight through from kindergarten through high school. Then I attended a school of agriculture for girls two years and received a diploma.

"This school was started by the first prime minister for city girls so that they would be interested in the country and stay there because some had been leaving their husbands in the country to come to the city. I had to get used to milking, but I found it fun," she said.

It turned out that this training was very helpful in the social work the young Ceylonese woman did on a volunteer basis for a number of years in the field of community development with rural people.

Padmini explained that she was able to do all of her work on a volunteer basis because the parents of educated girls in Ceylon expect to support them until they are married.

"WOMEN ARE as free as men in Ceylon," she said proudly, "and they have always been so in our society. We have had the franchise since 1931, and women are active politically and socially. But we don't need the kind of liberation you want in this country," she added.

Attributing the status of women in her country in part to Buddhism, Padmini noted, "When Buddha accepted women as nuns over 2,000 years ago, women became equal with men."

In 1957 Padmini was one of the women from seven countries that recognized communist China who were invited on an individual basis to visit China.

"We visited nurseries, libraries, factories, old age homes and youth groups with their youth palaces for extracurriclar activities. Everywhere we found women in all fields. I was present at the opening of a bridge, and the engineer in charge was a woman.

"IN PRESENT Chinese society, though salaries are low, men and women are paid equally according to the work they do.

"When you remember in the old China women were treated like animals and sold like horses if they didn't bear children, you find it amazing how a nation can change like this. I don't go with their politics, but I admire a nation where women are fully recognized."

It was at this time that Padmini met the famed Mme. Sun Yat Sen during a visit to her home in Peking and the wife of Chou En-lai at a state dinner given for the visiting women.

The young Ceylonese social worker also spent six months in Japan, where she took a course in case and group work offered by the World Assembly of Youth in Tokyo, and at the same time took lessons in flower arranging.

PADMINI FIRST visited the United States in 1955, when she received a scholarship from the World Assembly of Youth to visit U.S. homemakers' clubs and other groups like 4 H.

From there she went to Canada, where she was very much impressed with what women had accomplished.

"The first Women's Institute was started at Stony Castle in Ontario in 1897," she said, "and now there is a Federation of Women's Institutes in Canada which is associated with the international organization called Country Women of the World with headquarters in London. Organizations in the United States are associated with it too," she pointed out, "such as the farm home makers' clubs."

There is a rural training center for women in Ceylon today, she said, and at one time she was its honorary director.

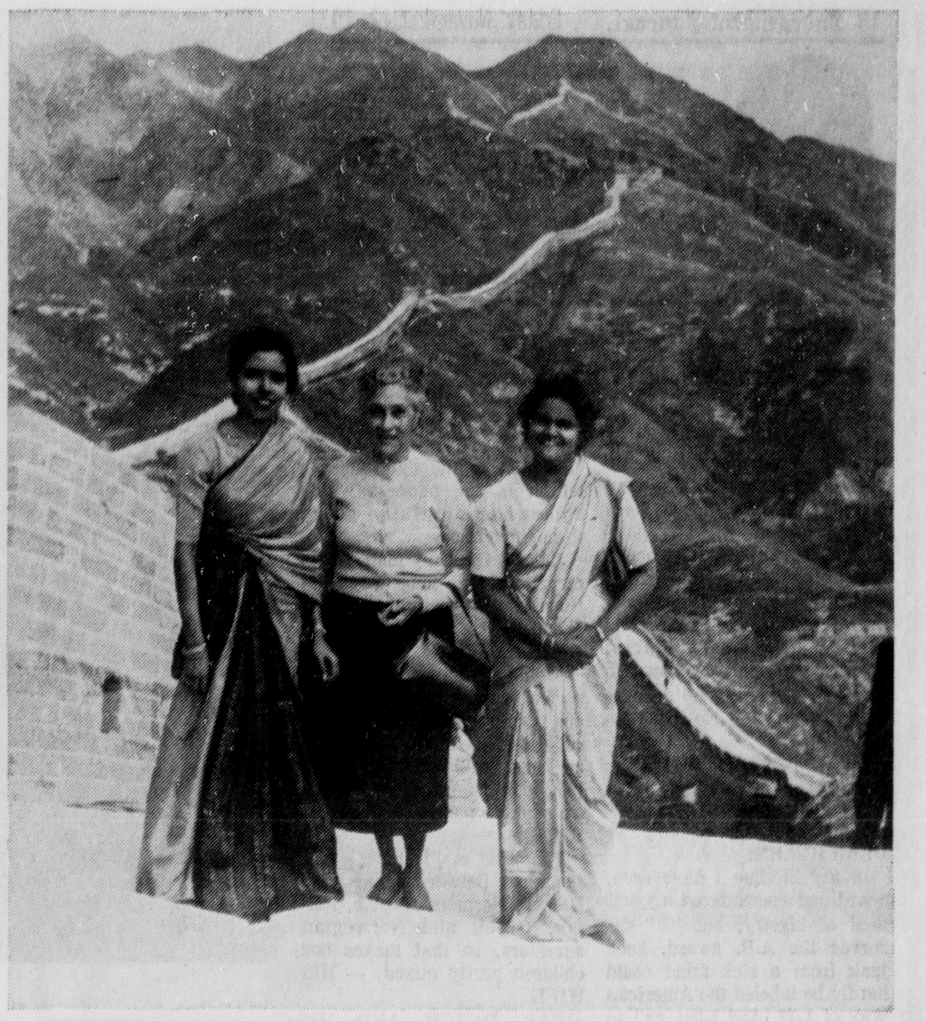
Padmini continued to observe the status of women in other countries after she was married and while she and her husband were living in Korea and East Pakistan.

"IN KOREA," she said, "I felt that women are the country's most untapped resource — they lack confidence. In East Pakistan the situation is even worse. Except for a few upper class women, they are still backward and stay within their homes so that few are even seen on the streets."

When the McDougals were living in Korea from 1963 to 1965, Padmini, who had heard in Ceylon of League of Women Voters in the United States, wrote the League's office in Washington, D.C., asking if she could become a member.

She became a "member-at-large," and on coming to Sausalito in 1968 she immediately joined the Southern Marin unit.

The McDougals belong to the International Hospitality Center in San Francisco and entertain foreign visitors frequently in their home. They are also members of the Mill Valley Scottish Dance Club, which meets at the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley.



SEEING the Great Wall of China was a high point for Mrs. William McDougal during her visit to China in 1957 as a specially invited guest. With Mrs. McDougal (left), are two other prominent women from Ceylon, Mrs. Deraniyagala (center), a lawyer who was president of the International Alliance of Women, and Miss Muttukumuru, famous in her country as a gourmet cook who catered parties.

POWs Being Remembered On 2 Fronts

By LIZ LAGUE

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — As the holidays approach, California is remembering the nationa's hundreds of prisoners of war and missing men in Vietnam with practical as well as symbolic measures.

On the practical side, Sen. Clair W. Burgener, R-Rancho Santa Fe, and Assemblyman John Stull, R-Leucadia, have introduced a senate concurrent resolution aimed at allowing the dependent children of the POWs and missing to attend the University of California or state colleges tuition free.

They have announced they will introduce legislation to this effect when the senate and assembly reconvene in January.

Their proposal was backed by the National League of Families of American Prisoners and missing. The league hopes similar laws will be passed by the other 49 states.

WHILE CALIFORNIA has the largest contingent of men in the POW-missing categories, the bill will, so far, affect only about 300 children over the next 15 years or so — on an average less than 20 annually.

And while this relief measure is being planned inside the State Capitol Building, the nation's 317 known-by-name prisoners of war will be remembered on the park-like capitol grounds, thanks to the efforts to the league's northern California members.

A giant spruce tree will be decorated with 317 stars, and red, white and blue lights as well, reminding Californians of their sons and brothers who will be absent for at least one more Christmas.

"WE'RE DOING this to show that Californians care about all American servicemen and their families, and give their moral support and prayers for their safe return," says Mrs. Robert C. Fox, a Sacramentan who helped arrange the tree lighting ceremony.

"Four of us" Northern California members of the National League of Families of American Prisoners "attended the POW conference in Washington D.C. Two of the others thought of having a tree. We presented the idea to local league members and they liked it," she explains. There are eight on the committee who arranged use of the tree with state officials and organized the ceremony.

"We're very excited because Sonny and Cher Bono are attending," said Mrs. Fox. "They're going to talk and will be presented with a plaque for their POW work in California."

Mrs. Ronald Reagan will switch the tree lights on in evening ceremonies Dec. 6.

At Conference

Mrs. Faydelle Starkey, headmistress of Alpha Schools in San Rafael, is attending the Western Division Conference of the Private Nursery School Association, which is being held through Sunday in Palo Alto.

Klein's New Design Fuller Than Skinny

Tired of the skinny shapes, fashion designer Calvin Klein has come up with the topper tent, fuller than the skinny look but still very narrow through the shoulders and bosom.

Peking, Rome Plan Reciprocal Shows

China will hold its first overseas trade and fashion show next year in Italy, according to Women's Wear Daily, and Italy will reciprocate in 1973 with a show in Peking.

The ready-to-wear trade newspaper says the Peking show is expected to be held in April at the Milan International Sample Fair.

Infant Development Program Set Monday

A public program on early infant development will be presented Monday at 8 p.m. at the Marin Montessori School in Corte Madera.

The program will include a discussion and demonstration of sensory-motor work with infants, including techniques for stimulating visual and auditory perception. Emphasis will be placed on how parents may encourage perception and learning in their own children, and appropriate materials and toys will also be presented.

Speaker will be Mary Ann Newcomb, who developed the concept of the Atypical Infant Development Program for the Marin County Mental Health Service, and is now in charge of programs for blind and deaf children in Northern California. She holds a master of arts degree in special education and has lectured at San Francisco State College and the University of California on early child development.

An "Infant Kit" is also available through the school and contains material presented in previous discussions, workshops, and demonstrations.

Fur Manufacturers Will Counter Conservationists

The Associated Fur Manufacturers are planning to launch a broad educational and promotional campaign to offset the antifur campaign of recent years by conservationists and other groups.

Women's Wear Daily reports that the fur manufacturers have approved a self-taxing plan to raise some $500,000 the first year of the pro-fur campaign. The furriers expect to be joined by other manufacturers, jobbers and buyers to produce a million dollars to promote furs.

Furriers on the West Coast have organized the Fur Conservation Institute of California to fight against emotional campaigns that "threaten the whole fur industry", according to the women's apparel trade paper. The California group also has focused immediate attention on the new California law barring the use of seal fur.

Bay Area Skiers Party Set Dec. 1

"The Bay Area Skiers' Party" will be held Dec. 1 by the San Francisco Annex and the Far West Ski Association as a benefit for the United States Ski Team development program, prior to the Winter Olympics in February at Sapporo, Japan.

The party will be held at 2 Kansas Street in San Francisco, beginning at 7 p.m. It will feature ski stars, guests in apres ski wear, a fashion show of ski and after-ski clothes and a buffet dinner.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Racist Writer Heads The List For Responses During October

DEAR READERS:

If you'd like to know which letter inspired most reader replies last month — we've got an all time winner ("loser" is a better word) in "D," who spouted vitriol about "half-breed mongrels," and proclaimed he was for "God, my Country and the American Way of Life, and if God had meant blacks, browns, reds and yellows to mingle with us, He'd have made them all one color — white!"

"D" might stand for "Depressed," if he could read my mail, which was 100 per cent against him. Here are samples:

DEAR HELEN:

In my lifetime I have seen, heard and encountered a great deal of bigotry, but "D" deserves the A.B. award. Such junk from a sick mind could hardly be labeled the American Way of Life. And what gall to mention God in such a corrupt display of words! God's love does not come in race, creed or color, for it is divine love.

Poor "D" must be miserable harboring such ugly feelings. I won't try to change him as I learned when a child that ignorant turns a deaf ear to reason. I'll only say that since I am black and my husband is white, I pray all the "Ds" will look the other way when our "half-breed mongrels" are born. — TINA

DEAR HELEN:

My husband is Mexican. I am white. We have two lovely children who, as do many others of mixed marriages, will learn what it is like in both worlds and, hopefully, will grow up to end the hate between races. Perhaps in our next generation, there will be no "Ds" left. — MIXED MARRIAGE

DEAR HELEN:

This is for that bigoted "D" who is probably a male supremist also:

A man "died" and was brought back to life on the operating table. In those few moments, he told friends, he went to Heaven and remembered what he saw.

I even met God," he said. "And you know something? — SHE's black! — HAP

DEAR HELEN:

Why can't the "Ds" of this world grow up? What has the color of the skin to do with the person?

The sky is blue, the grass is green. Would the sky, if it were green, and the grass, if it were blue, be any less beautiful. Or would we feel threatened by them? — K.B.

DEAR K:

. . .Not when we became accustomed to the difference — which is the process we're somewhat painfully going through right now.

Judging from my mail, we've come a long, long way, but there's still a bumpy road ahead. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

An old saying goes, "Birds of a feather flock together." I don't approve of "D" and his rabid prejudice but, on the other hand, wild animals, birds, fish, don't interbreed. Maybe we weren't meant to either. — DUTCH

P.S. This is "Dutch's" wife speaking: Between us, we have French, German, English, Italian, Greek and Norwegian ancestors, so that makes our children pretty mixed! — HIS WIFE

DEAR DUTCH AND HIS WIFE:

Apropos of nothing at all (and I'm not trying to prove anything: let's leave that to the anthropologists), but a question just popped into my mind: Why is it wild animals don't crossbreed, but almost all domesticated animals — cats, dogs, cattle, horses, etc. —do? A Pekinese and an Airedale, for example, can cohabit and reproduce, though they certainly haven't as much in common as a coyote and a wolf. Or have they?

(Dear Margaret Mead: Have I asked a dumb question?) —

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Couple Will Be Married In St. Louis

The future bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cole of St. Louis, and the future bridegroom's parents are Col. (ret.) and Mrs. Matthew C. Harrison of San Anselmo.

Judith is the sister of Sally Cole of Los Angeles, Ronald L. Cole of Eugene, Ore., Dennis M. Cole of Bozeman, Mont., and David A. Cole of St. Louis. She was graduated from high school and Washington University, both in St. Louis. The future bride is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Former editor of "ETC.", an airline travel club magazine, she is a freelance writer in Washington, D.C.

Matthew is the brother of Vicki L., Anne L., Philip D. and Robert G. Harrison. He was graduated from high school in Arlington, Va. and from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. He is studying at the American University in Washington, D.C., and following the receipt of a master's degree in international relations in January will be stationed with the Army at Fort Belvoir, Va.

Murray Narell Reception Set

Murray Narell, new director of the Marin Jewish Community Center, is being honored at a reception Nov. 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the center.

Roast beef and turkey buffet suppers will be served, and entertainment will be provided by a musical group and a folk singer.

Reservations can be made through the center.

A BURNING ISSUE

The flammability of children's nightwear has been under study by consumer groups, the U.S. government and now the American Trial Lawyers Association, who are campaigning for legislation requiring all nightwear sold in the U.S. to be flame resistant. Here at a New York news conference a child's 100 per cent cotton gown ignited by attorney Herman B. Glaser (left) is totally consumed by flames while cotton pajamas treated to retard flammability show only a scorched surface when subjected to blow torch flame by Prof. James M. Church of Columbia University. The nightwear manufacturers, on the other hand, say new flammability standards are too stringent. (UPI Telephoto)

Labor Dept. Aide Will Talk At Redwood Tuesday

Pat Baker, public relations director for the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor, will present a lecture, "Women and Work in the '70s and '80s — Fact and Myth," Tuesday at 12:40 p.m. in the Little Theater at Redwood High School.

The program is the second in a series of public career-oriented presentations sponsored by Women on the Move, an organization of student, faculty and community men and women concerned with the woman's movement.

WOM members plan monthly talks on subjects relating to careers and the woman's movement.

Adults Need Milk

Adults require fewer calories as they grow older, but they never outgrow their need for milk, every day. Adults need two or more glasses of milk per day, say Dairy Council of California nutrition consultants.

Marin Couples Will Attend Benefit Ball

By MOLLY MARIN

A number of Marin couples will be on hand tomorrow night for the Autumn Carousel dance of the San Francisco Auxiliary to the Florence Crittenton Home. The benefit ball will be held at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel's Garden Court.

Prior to the dance Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dahlgren of Mill Valley will entertain friends at a cocktail party. Mrs. Dahlgren is chairman of the Autumn Carousel.

Other Marinites who will be guests at the dance are Mr. and Mrs. John G. Eliot of Mill Valley (she is auxiliary president), Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kim of Belvedere, Messrs. and Mmes. Julian Apley, Jorgen With-Seidelin and Frederick J. Moller, all of Mill Valley; C. Vincent de Nevers of Greenbrae; Joseph C. Barton of Ross; Lee O. Snyder, Douglas Moore, Willis Silverthorne, Richard W. Canady and Gerald Elbert Jr., all of Tiburon, and William Van Horne of Kentfield.

LEAVING THIS week for Haiti is Mrs. Eleanor Snare of Novato. She plans to live with her daughter, Eleanor Snare, who is a school teacher there. Mrs. Snare, who has lived in Novato for the past 10 years, has been active there in senior citizens activities and St. Francis Episcopal Church.

SOME 250 guests are expected tomorrow night at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon for the 21st annual Tiburon Volunteer Firemen's Ball. Louis Baker is chairman. The guests will begin a social hour at 8 p.m. and dancing will follow at 9 p.m.

First Meeting Tomorrow Of Equity Action League

The first regular meeting of the California Chapter of the Women's Equity Action League will be held tomorrow in Los Angeles at the Airport Marina Hotel.

On the board of the new chapter is attorney Jettie Pierce Selvig of Mill Valley. Its state president is Doris Seward of Whittier, and national advisory board member is Ruth Church Gupta, San Francisco attorney and prominent member of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of California.

WEAL was formed nationally to promote greater economic progress on the part of American women and to work toward legal and economic equality for women.

Ruth Church Gupta will present a summary of problems and progress in the legal area at the meeting.

Fat Can Sub For Butter

In some recipes that call for butter, other fats may be substituted. For each cup of butter allow one cup margarine or 7/8 to one cup hydrogenated fat or lard plus ½ teaspoon salt.

To measure butter, press it firmly into a measuring cup or onto spoon and level with the straight edge of a spatula. Butter equivalents are one pound to two cups and four sticks to 32 tablespoons.

Blanching Is Preheating

Blanching is the process of preheating vegetables in boiling water or steam to inactivate enzymes for canning, freezing or drying. Fruits should be blanched (or pre-cooked) in boiling fruit juice, syrup, water or steam.

The process of removing skins from nuts, fruits and some vegetables is also known as blanching.

Center At St. Paul's Is Expanding

The Creative Living Center, which began last year at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael, has expanded its program to include an encounter group and folk dancing, according to Mrs. Joyce Barnett, historian for the center and director of the expanded arts and crafts program.

The center continues on Mondays from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. in San Rafael and a similar program at the Novato Methodist Church on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. has been added, according to the coordinator, Doris Clark of the Community Mental Health Center, which sponsors the program.

The number of volunteers and participants has increased significantly, says Mrs. Clark, the only professional member of the volunteer staff.

"We are realizing our intent to create a grass roots program within the community," she says, "and are reaching persons who have a need for establishing relationships.

"People need people to further their self awareness and potential and for personal growth, positive growth, enrichment and friendship."

Some Hints On Butter Storage

To store butter, leave it in its original package and keep in the refrigerator or freezer. Place partially used portions of butter in a covered dish, refrigerate and use up within a few days.

Butter can be frozen for several months if it is wrapped in a moisture-vaporproof packaging material.

A New Babysitting Realm—The Groceries

By SANDRA HAGGERTY

"But I wasn't gone more than 10 minutes. And my turkey, too!" The woman was obviously exasperated as she talked to the police officer.

That 10 minutes was just long enough for two men to drive up to her car, break in and swiftly transfer the eight huge bagsful of groceries that the carry-out boy had placed on the back seat of her car minutes before, to their car and drive away in full view of several passing shoppers.

It was later discovered that this is a common MO (method of operation) for egg-men, food rip-off artists. They have increased in number and are particularly active in shopping areas where a shopper might browse around in other stores after placing his groceries in his car.

THE EGG-MEN do most of their work around the first of the month — considering your payday their payday. But the holidays are upon us and, of course, the rip-off season runs concurrent with Thanksgiving and Christmas.

While people in high crime rate areas are used to parting with their color television sets, small appliances and even their purses, the stealing of food is initially viewed with mixed emotions.

Compassion might be one's first reaction. After all, if a person is hungry and must resort to stealing food in order to eat, then he should have the food. No one should be forced to go hungry.

HOWEVER, IT'S a whole new ball game when one discovers that the stealing of groceries has increased in the inner city simply because rip-off artists have reassessed their market —that is, hot eggs (poached, fried or stolen) are selling more readily than hot television sets.

On a given corner, one can purchase — sight unseen —five bags of recently purchased groceries for $5. Or one can shop on an a la carte basis —a $5 pot roast for $1.50. And, would you believe, that's a crowded corner?

AND, LET'S face it, it's a lot harder for the egg-men to be caught red-handed carrying a bag of groceries than a color television set.

The thing to be remembered is that while a hot dozen of eggs, on one end of the "stick," is a bargain, one can also expect to be on the opposite end of that same stick. And purchasing groceries that never make it to your home is not a happy situation.

So rip-off season for Mr. and Mrs. Cleotis P. Jones, average, struggling shoppers, is a time for extra caution. Lock your groceries in the trunk of your car. Conceivably, it takes more time and greater elbow grease to crowbar open your trunk than to break your window.

Try to do all your shopping in one swoop. Or let one person remain in the car. It seems a shame to have to baby-sit your groceries, but it's one solution —especially if you've just purchased a month's supply of food.

Marinite Is Taking Part In Career Program

Linda LaVere, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. La Vere of San Rafael, is taking part in the secondary education careers program at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa.

She is one of 56 students who has begun the professional program, teaching away from campus for two months in preparation for a teaching career after graduation.

Linda is in Rochester, Minn., observing classrooms and doing some teaching. Her teaching responsibilities will increase as she continues the program before returning to her studies on campus on Dec. 10.

Scholarship For Barbara Caswell

Barbara E. Caswell, daughter of Mrs. Arthur B. Caswell of Ignacio and the late Mr. Caswell, is the recipient of a Beneficial Finance Scholarship for the 1971-72 term. She attends San Francisco State College and is a graduate of College of Marin.

Mr. Caswell was a manager with the Beneficial Finance System, which awards scholarships to children of employees based on the student's contributions to school and community, academic performance, economic requirements and chances for future success.

'AMUSEMENT PARK' — Aurelia Mullen (left), as the Busy Body, and Terri Ewell, as the Gentleman, are garbed in 1890 costume for a scene from "The Amusement Park," to be performed at Dominican College on Nov. 29 and Dec. 1, 3 and 4.

'Amusement Park' Ballet Dates Set

The School of Classic Ballet will perform "The Amusement Park," a two-act children's ballet by Paul F. Page, on Nov. 29 and Dec. 1, 3 and 4 in Angelico Hall on the Dominican College campus, San Rafael.

The ballet, featuring hero and villain scenes, will be danced by 77 girls. Joan Edgerton Gabert is director and Mark Jordan, set designer.

Performance times are 1:30 p.m. Nov. 29 and Dec. 1, 10:30 a.m. Dec. 3 and 8 p.m. Dec. 4. Tickets are available through the college or Mrs. Royale Radke of Larkspur.

No Reinecke Probe Planned

SACRAMENTO (UPI) —State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger says he has no plans to investigate a charge that Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke has spent thousands of taxpayer dollars to wage an election campaign for governor.

"If anybody presented any evidence to us that public funds were being misused by any public employe we would respond appropriately," Younger said Thursday, "but that has not been done."

The charge was made Wednesday by Hal D. Steward, a former Reinecke aide, who claimed the lieutenant governor was prosecuting a long-range election campaign and spending public funds to do so.

FAMILY

"On Any Sunday" — The variety of motorcycle competitions across 100,000 miles of track around the world is presented in a documentary style with frequent touches of humor. Great photography.

"Soul to Soul" — A group of black American musicians help Ghana in this year's Independence celebration. This documentary is more than soul music, it is the interaction of the two cultures beautifully captured.

ADULTS AND TEENS

"Custer of the West" — The story of Gen. George Custer and his 226 soldiers and their battle in the Little Big Horn.

"Dr. Zhivago" — Lives of a handful of people in Russia before the war and after the revolution. Superb photography, acting and music.

"Hellstrom Chronicle" — Fascinating and incredibly detailed study of the insect world. It conveys a new awareness of the world we inhabit.

"Mad Dogs and Englishmen" — An artsy documentary of Joe Cocker, a hoarse-voiced hard rock English star. No depth of character revealed but rather a visual record album with cursing and nudity.

"Murphy's War" — British merchant seaman is obsessed with getting revenge against the submarine responsible for the loss of his shipmates. Well done.

"The Organization" — In this sequel, Sidney Poitier returns as Lt. Virgil Tibbs, a detective in San Francisco in search of a murderer after a $4 million heroin robbery. Fast moving thriller. (Boxoffice Magazine)

"The Reivers" — Warm, nostalgic, bawdy film about a 12-year-old boy's schooling in the facts of life during one week-end. Good human values presented but much of the action is in a brothel making it unsuitable for young children.

"Tokoloske, The Evil Spirit" — A rather amateurish South African made melodrama about a small black boy, marked for death by a witch doctor is sent away from home by his mother. After a long journey he is befriended by a blind white man.

"2001: Space Odyssey" — An astounding science fiction tale about space travelers and the computer that causes a struggle for survival. Highly imaginative production.

BORDERLINE

(Most sources say Adults Only)

"Little Big Man" — A tragic-comic history of Indian-white relations as recalled by a 121-year-old gunfighter. Much violence and bloody fighting and some impudent sex scenes.

"Man Called Horse" — Accurate tribal rituals of Sioux Indians. Film dwells mainly on the violent rather than peaceful traditions. An English aristocrat captured by Sioux and brutally treated is determined to prove his manhood by their standards.

"Summer of '42" — Three 15-year-old boys wander through an island beach summer, obsessed with sex and its mysteries. Their explorations of the subject and their coming of age is frankly presented.

"They Shoot Horses, Don't They" — A powerful but depressing and unusual drama about a dance marathon in 1932 that functions as a parable of American life. Uniformly excellent cast. The ending is macabre and shocking.

ADULTS ONLY

"Carnal Knowledge" — The sex lives of two men from college days to middle age done in a two-dimensional, cynical, satirical style which becomes tiresome. Fine performances from cast. Language and sex are explicit.

"Goodbye Gemini" — Murder, gore and sexual perversion form the basis of this sordid film. When a man tries to come between twin sisters they unite to slaughter him in an exceeding bloody fashion. A tasteless film with nothing to recommend. Sex and nudity.

"No Blade of Grass" — British ecology drama contrived, nightmarish science fiction. A nasty portrait of people under panic conditions including a birth scene with nothing omitted. Pity it is a farce when an important statement might have been made.

"Shaft" — A tough black detective outwits white police and the Mafia in rescuing the daughter of an underworld gangster. Excessive use of violence, brutality, cursing, sex and nudity.

"The Stewardesses" — The crew of a Honolulu to L.A. flight find various sex diversions on their off time. Vignettes designed solely to undress everyone in the shortest possible time. Filmed in 3-D. (Boxoffice Magazine)

Conference Set In Pot Case

Morgan McVicker, 27, of Kentfield, has pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court to misdemeanor charges of possessing marijuana and reckless driving.

Pretrial conference was set Wednesday for Nov. 24.

McVicker was arrested last Friday after Larkspur police said they saw him speeding through the parking lot of the Bon Air Shopping Center and then chased the car at 65 to 70 miles an hour to Ash Avenue in Kentfield.

The suspected marijuana was found in the car police said.

Prison Libraries Plan By Younger

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Attorney General Evelle J. Younger believes that attorneys could help finance larger prison law libraries by paying a fee to use them.

Younger made the suggestion Thursday in connection with the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling that California must provide more extensive legal libraries for convicts.

"They used to play baseball in prison for recreation," he said. "Now they file lawsuits."

"The prison libraries now are already better than many lawyers can afford, so maybe we can figure out a way of allowing lawyers to use prison libraries and charge a fee for it," he said.

Festival General Meeting Is Monday

Marin Shakespeare Festival annual general meeting will be held Monday at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dahl in San Rafael, the festival board has announced.

Plans for the 1972 Marin Shakespeare Festival season will be discussed, new directors named, and officers for the coming year elected.

'College Night' At Drake High

Sir Francis Drake High School will hold its annual "college night" at 7:30 p.m. in the school's Little Theater.

Representatives of four colleges will be present. Irwin P. Diamond, College of Marin dean of students, will speak on community colleges; Lynda Nystrom of the University of California, Berkeley, will discuss the UC campuses; Terry Cole of Stanford University will talk about private colleges, and Ferd Reddell, San Francisco State College, will represent the state college system and serve as keynote speaker.

Berkeley Bach Choir Will Sing

A twilight concert by the Berkeley Bach Choir will be presented at 5 p.m. Sunday in the Community Congregational Church of Tiburon, 145 Rock Hill Drive.

The program will include the "Requiem", as well as other works by French composer Gabriel Faure. Admission will be charged, and refreshments are included.

Sheriff Wants Ex-Missile Site For A Prison Farm

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

The former Nike missile site in Santa Venetia is being considered for an honor farm adjunct to the Marin County Jail.

If obtained, the site would be used for "a combination honor farm-work furlough center," according to Michael A. Chrystal, senior administrative analyst in the county administrator's office. Its primary purpose would be to eliminate "farming out" prisoners to Sonoma County as result of crowding of the 109-bed jail atop the Hall of Justice.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos said he thinks the site would be "just about ideal." He said the tight county jail security is not needed for prisoners on the work furlough program who report at the jail each evening after work, nor for those sentenced to serve weekends in jail.

The facility would be operated by the probation department, Mountanos said. James B. Soetart, chief deputy probation officer, is participating in the site study and expressed general agreement with the sheriff.

Chrystal said the property was quit-claimed back to the Mary Silveira family when the Army closed the Nike installation. Barracks and kitchen are mostly intact.

He said study is being made of the cost of converting the former military installation at the end of Smith Ranch Road into an honor farm. Whether its acquisition by the county is recommended will be based largely on how those costs compare with the amounts paid annually to Sonoma County for housing Marin's jail population surplus, he said.

Chrystal said he hoped to have a report for the county board of supervisors "late in December."

Need for an honor farm was emphasized recently when Marin "farmed out" 60 prisoners to Sonoma County. The number since has been reduced about half.

Mountanos has been urging an honor farm since before the jail was moved to the Hall of Justice. He said, however, that Lt. Newall B. Snyder, who is in charge of the jail, "didn't mean it" when he told a reporter recently that the Hall of Justice jail had never been intended "to house sentenced prisoners."

"What he meant was prisoners sentenced to serve weekends or on work furlough," Mountanos said. "We have prisoners in the jail under sentence for all the way from one day to one year, and we will continue to have them there regardless of whether we get an honor farm."

Mountanos said the honor farm proposal has been delayed because it was felt the new jail would have so much capacity it could handle all prisoners — which proved not to be true soon after it opened.

He cited a memorandum to him from County Administrator John F. Barrows (then assistant county administrator) on Feb. 16, 1970, saying:

"Your submittal (for inclusion in the 1970-71 capital improvements program) included a jail honor camp very simlar to a proposal submitted by your department in the 1969 program. Since the administrator recommended against this matter during the life of the six-year program and since the board of supervisors took no issue with the administrator's recommendation, we believe it would be of no value to reopen the issue in the 1970 capital program. Therefore, there will be no reference to the jail honor camp in the 1970 submittal from the administrator."

Defense Rests In Murder Case

WASHINGTON, Pa. (UPI)— The defense rested its case today in the murder trial of Aubran W. "Buddy" Martin after the defendant denied he told a former prison cellmate he killed three members of the Yablonski family.

Martin was the last witness called by defense Attorney Mark J. Goldberg to rebut the testimony of Charles Guyer, who said Thursday Martin admitted he had killed the Yablonskis while the two were being held in the Greensburg state prison.

When Goldberg asked Martin if he told Guyer he killed the Yablonskis, Martin said, "No sir, I did not, but I told him that this was what Claude Vealey said I did." Vealey, 27, has confessed to the murders.

Bus Fare Schedule On To Bridge Board

A bus fare structure giving both the commuter and the casual patron a cheaper ride than Greyhound was unanimously recommended yesterday by two committees of the Golden Gate Bridge District.

If the full board approves the proposed fares and other policies at its Nov. 23 meeting, the new rates will take effect when the district's Golden Gate Corridor bus fleet begins operation, hopefully in January.

A Petaluma commuter, under the proposed fare schedule, would pay $2 for a daily round trip. The occasional rider's round-trip fare would be $2.50. Greyhound presently charges the commuter $1.92 and the casual rider $2.40, but has been granted a 6.5 per cent rate increase effective with the end of the wage-price freeze, according to Dale W. Luehring, bridge district general manager.

Novato commuters would pay $1.50 daily, and occasional riders $2 for a round trip. The round-trip fare for the nonregular Novato rider is $2.30 on Greyhound, $1.68 for a commuter.

The Novato fare would apply to all Marin County riders from the Tiburon Wye north; south of that point, the commute fare would be $1 daily and the casual round trip $1.50.

The bridge district's transportation committee and finance-audit committee endorsed the fares recommended by district staff. Endorsement came only after a worried look at long range budget predictions that Luehring and the staff said were the result of hours of computing, but nonetheless were only estimates.

Over a full year's operation, the bus passengers should pay $3,565,656, according to the estimates of Robert D. Tough, deputy district auditor-controller. But the riders still will leave the bus fleet slightly more than $3 million in the red, to be made up by Golden Gate Bridge toll surpluses and payments by Marin Transit District for intracounty bus service by the bridge bus fleet.

The district buses will take over Marin feeder line service from Marin Transit System, Inc., on Dec. 13, Luehring announced yesterday. The private, Marin City-based bus firm's contract with the county will expire Dec. 10.

The two bridge board committees, chaired by director Michael Wornum of Mill Valley, yesterday also endorsed a five-zone fare plan in contrast to Greyhound's nine zones between San Francisco and Santa Rosa; favored an exact-fare plan in which drivers will reduce robbery risks by carrying no change, and approved the idea of "Golden Gate Currency."

Under the latter plan, the district would sell books of tickets, each worth 25 cents. A bus rider could drop as many of them as needed into the hopper to get where he wanted; a motorist could use two of the tickets for bridge fare, and a ferryboat passenger also could pay with two tickets. Luehring said the tickets initially would be printed in books of 20 to sell for $5.

At Wornum's suggestion, a request from the City of Tiburon that midday Sausalito Ferry runs make two extra stops at Tiburon was referred to the district staff for recommendations.

Golden Gate Bridge District Director Stephan C. Leonoudakis is yesterday unsuccessfully seized on Marin's apparent rejection of further population growth, to demand a halt in spending up to $2 million on plans for rapid transit across the Golden Gate.

He moved to strike $800,000 for a start on the planning, from next year's budget. He cited Marin voters' resounding defeat of the Sonoma-Marin aqueduct on Nov. 2 as an indication of the county's anti-growth philosophy.

At Wornum's suggestion, the committees shelved Leonoudakis's budget cut proposal for future discussion.

Petaluma Zone Plea Approved

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — The Sonoma County Board of Zoning Adjustments yesterday approved a trailer and boat storage operation for the Petaluma area.

Ray R. and Margaret Ainsworth were granted a permit for the storage operation at 4000 Petaluma Boulevard North. The permit also allows some repair work, signs and a home for the operator's living quarters.

The board considered four mobile home requests for Petaluma, denying the request of Nydia Brown to place a mobile home at 461 Corona Road, because the lot size was too small, and denying the request of Herbert Jay Ball for a mobile home at 2890 Middle Two Rock Road after neighbors protested.

The board also ordered Andy Rossen Jr. to abate his mobile home at 1111 Gossage Avenue because of continuing violations of ordinances and set a hearing for Nov. 24 for the request of Alvin Baldwin for a mobile home at 1565 I Street Extension.

Roth To Head Muskie Group

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — William Matson Roth of Ross, a University of California regent and a former U.S. ambassador, has been named Northern California chairman of Citizens for Muskie.

Extension Of School Year Eyed

The Rohnert Park Homeowners Association heard reports last night on a study to extend the school year and plans to annex land to Rohnert Park.

Association president James Steinberg said Harold Heth, a teacher and association director, reviewed several plans being considered to extend the school year.

Heth said most persons already understand the 45-15 plan in which students would be in class for 45 days followed by 15 days vacation on a year-round basis, but he noted that several other plans are also getting serious consideration by the Petaluma school district study committee.

MOST SUPPORT

Willing most support from the group was the plan for a normal 38-week school year followed by a voluntary 12-week summer session in which slow students can make up lost credits and bright students can do advanced work and accumulate credits to graduate early.

Heth said the committee was also studying a quarter session plan in which students would be divided into four groups with each spending three of four quarters in class.

Steinberg said representatives of the study committee would be invited next month after the study makes more progress.

ANNEX PLAN

Steinberg said Paul Golis and William White of Land Investors Research Inc. also presented plans to annex 75 acres near Sonoma State College to the city. Plans include housing for students and faculty homes in the $25,000 to $30,000 price range.

Golis told the group that a portion of the land would be dedicated to the college for expansion of the botanical gardens. He said plans also include a new roadway on the north side of the campus to relieve traffic problems on East Cotati Avenue.

Steinberg said the plan met with general approval from the association. The Rohnert Park City Council will consider the annexation request at its meeting Monday at 7 p.m.

Bomb Device Found In School

An unexploded pipe bomb was found yesterday in San Jose Junior High School in Novato, police reported.

A student, Joseph A. Kitchens, 15, of 137 East Kelly Drive, found the bomb on a window ledge in a boy's restroom at 2 p.m. He then told Roy Damas, dean of boys, who removed the bomb.

The bomb had a twisted paper fuse with black powder on it. The fuse had been lit, but had gone out, police reported. The bomb was cut open in a school shop and found to be filled with black powder, police said.

Session Does Not Violate Brown Act

The Marin County District attorney's office said yesterday that investigation of an unannounced meeting of the Marin County Housing Authority board found "no intent" to violate the state's law against secret meetings.

Under the law, the Ralph M. Brown Act, criminal violation exists only when "intent" to exclude the public from a meeting can be proven, according to Asst. Dist. Atty. Gary W. Thomas, who said his office's investigation could find no such intent in the early morning meeting Aug. 7 attended by a quorum of the housing authority board.

(Under the law, local agencies must give 24 hours public notice of special meetings. The Independent-Journal received no such notice)

The meeting was called by Executive Director Wallace K. Shepherd to brief board members on the status of negotiations to regain control of Marin City's undeveloped ridgelands.

The meeting followed a July meeting of the housing authority and redevelopment agency boards which mapped strategy for regaining control of the ridgelands.

At that meeting, an I-J reporter was asked not to publish portions of the discussion. The request was refused.

The unannounced August session was attended by directors Philip S. Ehrlich Jr., James G. McDonald and Arthur Miller Jr., as well as Keith Kelly, assistant to Shepherd, and Robert Pitts, a director of the Marin County Redevelopment Agency.

At the time of the meeting, director Norman Campbell told the I-J that he had refused to attend the meeting because he knew no public notice had been given.

The fifth director, Irving Perlman, said he hadn't been informed of the meeting, though the law requires notification of board members.

He later told a district attorney's investigator that he didn't expect to be told of such meeting since they were for members of the board's negotiating team. However, two of the three directors attending the meeting weren't members of the negotiating team.

The meeting brought an outcry from Marin City residents and the following week they picketed the housing authority's office in Marin City with signs reading "no more secret meetings."

Hearing Set Tonight On Bel Marin Keys Bond

The Bel Marin Keys Community Service District board will hold a public hearing at 8:30 p.m., today in the community center on its $700,000 bond issue.

The proposed bond issue, if approved by the voters at a special election Jan. 11, would finance a lock to the lagoon to prevent future silting, said board chairman James L. Zoeller.

In addition to the board, there will be a representative of the engineering firm of Blum and Associates of San Francisco who made the preliminary study and design of the lock and probably representatives from the county counsel's office and bond officials, Zoeller said.

Burglars Hit Larkspur Firm

Larkspur police today reported a business burglary and two thefts from construction projects in the city.

Police said they were told yesterday that a nailing gun, compressor and air hose valued at $686 were taken prior to Monday from a construction project of the James Menke Co. of Corte Madera on Via Holon.

A $400 post hole auger was reported stolen from a landscaping project on Skylark Drive in the week preceeding Wednesday, police said.

Burglars took $296 in jewelry equipment from the shop of Frederick F. Dowden ao 552½ Magnolia Avenue between Nov. 1 and Nov. 4, police said.

Board In Sausalito Slates Vote

The Sausalito School District board last night set a special election Feb. 1 to choose two replacements for board members who have resigned.

The board postponed a scheduled Jan. 11 election to fill the seat of Nathaniel Johnson in order to combine that election with one to replace Robert H. Thompson, who resigned Tuesday.

Supt. Lawrence A. Lindberg said the board accepted Thompson's resignation last night and named Warren Hansen vice president of the board, a post formerly filled by Thompson.

In other action, Lindberg said, the board approved a lease with the Sausalito Art Center, which occupies a portion of the old Bayside School, and sent the document to the federal government for its approval.

The board on Monday said it would evict the center Nov. 22 unless lease negotiations bear fruit by then.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Careful Attention Should Always Be Paid To The Opponents' Cards

If you pay careful attention to the cards played by the opponents, you will be a winner in the long run. Occasionally, an artful opponent will try to deceive you with a falsecard; and even if you are very shrewd you may be taken in. One way to avoid this fate is to discourage the falsecard. To be specific, let's examine a hand from a recent team match.

South dealer
North-South vulnerable

Opening lead — ♣ 10

SAME PLAY

The contract and the opening lead were the same at both tables. East took the ace of clubs and returned a club to the king. Now the two declarers parted company.

At the first table South led the king of spades. East casually played the nine of spades, and South paused for thought. There was no problem if the five missing trumps broke 3-2, but there might be a problem if they broke 4-1.

The fall of the nine made it appear that East might have been dealt either the J-9 or the singleton nine. To take care of both of these possibilities, South continued with the queen of spades.

This was just what East had hoped for. Now his jack of trumps was sure to win the setting trick. His falsecard had trapped South into the losing trump continuation.

DIFFERENT DIRECTION

At the second table South led the first round of trumps from a different direction. After taking the king of clubs, South led a diamond to dummy's king and returned the deuce of trumps from dummy.

East was afraid to put up the nine of spades since this might cost a sure trump trick if his partner had the singleton ten.

NO CHOICE

When East played the normal four of spades, South had no choice but to lead to dummy's ace for the second round of trumps.

West showed out, of course, and declarer led a trump from dummy to take the proven finesse through East's J-9.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one no-trump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ - J 9 6 4
♥ - 9 7 5
♦ - 9 5
♣ - A J 4 2.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass.

Even if partner has maximum value, the combined count will be only 24 points, which is not enough for game.

Peking Expert Assesses Role

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —A former U.S. intelligence expert on China predicts the Chinese delegation to the United Nations will practice traditional diplomacy.

"There will be no shoe banging on the podium with the Chinese," Ben Cashman said in a lecture at the University of San Francisco.

He said, however, that the Chinese probably will be impossible to budge on certain issues and that they may insist on full scale debate over the U.S. role in Vietnam.

When we say Park Terrace is in Mill Valley, we mean it's IN Mill Valley.

Park Terrace is Mill Valley's newest residential area. Mill Valley, not overlooking Mill Valley or near Mill Valley. Location is such a big factor in a home that you can scarcely expect to find an older home, let alone a new home, in Mill Valley for anything under $35,000. YET PARK TERRACE TOWNHOUSES START AT $33,900 for 2 bedrooms, 1¾ baths, luxury features, & room to expand. If you're in the market for a new home, you've got to see what Park Terrace has for you & how living IN Mill Valley can make life a whole lot easier for you and your family.

Exceptional Value

An unusually well maintained 3-bedroom, 2-bath home recently redecorated very attractively. W/w carpeting in living room and hall. Spacious kitchen and dining area with access to covered patio. Additional features include a fireplace, double attached garage and excellent corner location with off-street parking for boat or trailer. $21,500.

Lovely Setting

This quaint home has so much to offer to the buyer with imagination. Two bedrooms, 1½ baths, plus a den which can be used as guest room or third bedroom. Used brick fireplaces in living room and family room. The patio adjoins tree-shaded garden, and a huge deck provides recreational area with beautiful view. Choice West Side location. $28,000.

Country Charm

Not a run-of-the mill house, this 2 or 3 bedroom home situated on 14½ acres near Sebastopol is located in a beautiful secluded area with many old trees and a sweeping view of Mt. St. Helena. This section of the country is in the "Banana Belt" zone and has an extremely mild climate. Excellent water supply from 2 wells. Several outbuildings in good condition. Easements on 2 sides of property will allow possible future lot splits. Realistically priced at $56,500.

Cars we've given the 16-Point Inspection.
Cars we guarantee 100% for the repair or replacement of every major working part* for 30 days or 1000 miles. Whichever comes first.
No, there aren't many ads like this. But there aren't many guarantees like this, either.
* engine • transmission • rear axle • front axle assemblies • brake system • electrical system.

Are You An Intelligent Buyer

Do you buy snow skis in April? Swim suits in October? Christmas cards in January?
If so, then you know the best time to buy a sports car is at the end of summer.
So here it is! Our "End of Summer" Sale. We have the LARGEST selection of roadsters and sports coupes in Marin Co. Quality and prices you can't believe.

In fact, we'll show you what "Kelley Blue Book" prices are and you can come in and make us an offer. You may be surprised at what we will take. Try us.

'66 Porsche 912 Coupe — Blue Book $3020 Make offer

American Motors Buyer Protection Plan

If anything goes wrong with one of our '72's and it's our fault, we'll fix it FREE
yes! . . . Anything!

A STRONG GUARANTEE IN PLAIN ENGLISH

HERE IT IS!

When you buy a new 1972 car from an American Motors dealer, American Motors Corporation guarantees to you that, except for tires, it will pay for the repair or replacement of any part it supplies that is defective in material of workmanship.

This guarantee is good for 12 months from the date the car is first used or 12,000 miles, whichever comes first.

All we require is that the car be properly maintained and cared for under normal use and service in the fifty United States or Canada and that guaranteed repairs or replacements be made by an American Motors dealer.

see Bianco's Marin American — who will do more for you after you buy a car than any other dealer in town.

CHARTER ORDINANCE NO. 1041

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE ZONING MAP OF THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, ADOPTED BY REFERENCE BY SECTION 14.15.020 OF THE MUNICIPAL CODE OF SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, SO AS TO RECLASSIFY CERTAIN REAL PROPERTY FROM M-H (HEAVY COMMERCIAL & MANUFACTURING WITH PARKING REQUIREMENTS) DISTRICT TO PUD-MHP (PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT — MOBILE HOME PARK) DISTRICT.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

DIVISION 1: The Zoning Map of the City of San Rafael, California, adopted by reference by Section 14.15.020 of the Municipal Code, is amended by reclassifying the following described real property from M-H (Heavy Commrcial & Manufacturing with parking requirements) District to PUD-MHP (Planned Unit Development — Mobile Home Park) District. Said property so reclassified is County Assessor's Parcels 155-110-17 and 18, located south of Smith Ranch Road and North Fork Gallinas Creek and containing approximately 61 acres.

DIVISION 2: Any development of the property shall be subject to the conditions pertaining thereto which were included as part of the Zoning (Z71-13b) action by the Planning Commission on September 28, 1971.

DIVISION 3: This Ordinance shall be published once in full before its final passage, in the INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL, a newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in the City of San Rafael, and shall be in full force and effect thirty days after its final passage.

/s/ C. PAUL BETTINI

NOTICE OF IMPROVEMENT
HAWTHORNE LANE
ASSESSMENT DISTRICT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 19th day of April, 1971, the Town Council of the Town of Corte Madera, California, adopted its Resolution of Intention No. 1242, as subsequently amended, wherein it did declare that in its opinion the public interest, convenience and necessity required, and that it was the intention of said Council to order the following acquisitions and improvements in and for said Town:

(a) The improvement of Hawthorne Lane from Meadowsweet Drive a distance of 700 feet, more or less, by grading and the installation of required subbase, base and pavement, the installation of Portland cement concrete curbs and gutters on the upslope side, redwood header on the downslope side, and the construction and installation of storm drainage pipes, culverts and catchbasin as may be required.

(b) The acquisition of rights of service and use in water distribution works and related facilities of the Marin Municipal Water District.

(c) The doing of all work and acquisition of all lands and easements necessary and rights auxiliary to the above and/or necessary to complete the same.

All of said work and improvements are to be constructed at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes, dimensions and materials, and at the lines, grades and elevations shown and delineated on the plans, profiles and specifications preliminarily approved therefor by the Council of said Town and on file for public inspection in the office of the Town Clerk.

Notice is hereby given of the fact that in many cases said work and improvements will bring the finished surface of the ground to a grade different from the surface as it now exists, and that to said extent said grades will be changed and that said work will be done to said changed grades.

Notice is hereby given that to the extent shown in the Engineer's Report it is the intention of the legislative body to enter into agreements with public agencies or public utilities, or both, relating to ownership, management and control of improvements subject to their jurisdiction.

Said contemplated acquisitions and improvements, in the opinion of said Council, are of more than local or ordinary public benefit, and the costs and expenses thereof are made chargeable upon an assessment district, the exterior boundaries of which district are the composite and consolidated area as more particularly shown on a map thereof on file in the office of the Town Clerk, to which reference is hereby made for further particulars. Said map indicates by a boundary line the extent of the territory included in the proposed district and shall govern for all details as to the extent of the assessment district.

The estimated cost of said project is $17,437, of which the Town will contribute the estimated amount of $4,473, leaving an estimated balance of $12,964 to be assessed.

Notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments and bear interest at the rate of not to exceed seven percent (7%) per annum, will be issued hereunder in the manner provided in the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 of the Streets and Highways Code), the last installment of which bonds shall mature not to exceed fourteen (14) years from the second day of July next succeeding ten months from their date.

The descriptions of the acquisitions and improvements and the termini of the work contained in the Resolution of Intention, as amended, are general in nature. All items of work do not necessarily extend for the full length of the description thereof. The plans and profiles of the work, and maps and descriptions, as contained in the Engineer's report, shall be controlling as to the correct and detailed description thereof.

Except as herein otherwise provided for the issuance of bonds, said work shall be done pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913.

Reference is hereby made to proceedings had pursuant to Division 4 of the Streets and Highways Code, all on file in the office of the Town Clerk.

Notice is further given that the Town Engineer pursuant to said Act and said Resolution of Intention, as amended, adopted pursuant thereto, did on the 1st day of November, 1971, file with the Town Clerk of said Town, his report in writing on said acquisitions and improvements, consisting of plans, profiles, specifications, estimate of costs and incidental expenses, diagram and assessment, maps and descriptions, and said Council did on said date consider and examine said report and by resolution preliminarily approved and confirmed same and ordered that said report shall stand as the report for the purposes of all subsequent proceedings had pursuant to said Resolution of Intention, as amended.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that Monday, the 6th day of December, 1971, at the hour of 7:30 o'clock P.M. of said day, in the regular meeting place of said Council, Council Chambers, Town Hall, Corte Madera, California, are the time and place appointed and fixed by said Council when and where it will consider and determine whether the public interest, convenience and necessity require said acquisitions and improvements, and when it will consider and determine whether the owners of a majority of the area of the property in the proposed assessment district have protested against said acquisitions and improvements or any portion thereof, and when and where it will consider and finally act upon the Engineer's report filed pursuant to said Resolution of Intention, as amended, and when and where it will hear all protests in relation to said proposed acquisitions and improvements, or to the grades at which said work will be done, or the extent of the assessment district, or to the Engineer's estimate of the costs and expenses thereof, or to the proposed diagram and assessment, or to the maps and descriptions, and that any person interested may file a written protest with the Clerk at or before the time set for the hearing referred to herein.

Reference is hereby made to said Resolution of intention, as amended, and said report, including plans, profiles, specifications, estimate of costs, diagram and assessment, and maps and descriptions for a more particular description of said acquisitions and improvements to be had and done, and for further particulars, all on file in the office of the Town Clerk.

NOTICE INVITING SEALED PROPOSALS OR BIDS
HAWTHORNE LANE ASSESSMENT DISTRICT

Pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 and the resolution directing this notice adopted on November 1, 1971 by the Town Council of the Town of Corte Madera, said Council invites sealed proposals or bids for the grading and construction of pavement, curbs, gutters, storm drainage facilities and appurtenances as more particularly described in Resolution of Intention No. 1242 adopted by said Council on April 19, 1971, as subsequently amended, which resolutions are on file in the office of the Clerk and to which reference is hereby expressly made for a more particular description of the work to be done.

All of said work is to be done at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes and dimensions and of the materials, and to the lines and grades and at the elevations as shown and delineated upon the plans, profiles and specifications made therefor and preliminarily approved by said Council on November 1, 1971.

Payments will be made in cash by said Town to the contractor in accordance with the provisions of the specifications and on itemized estimates duly certified and approved by the Town Engineer submitted in accordance therewith, based on labor and materials incorporated into said work during the preceding month by the contractor. However, notice is given that a period of 30 days is given to the property owners in which to pay their assessments, and if cash collections are insufficient to meet such monthly estimates, there will be a delay in making such payments until money is received from the sale of bonds issued upon the unpaid assessments.

Notice is hereby given that on November 1, 1971, the Council adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages to be paid to the various craftsmen and laborers required to construct said improvements, a copy of which wage sacle is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and also contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for further particulars.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by cash, cashier's or certified check payable to the order of the Town Clerk, amounting to ten percent (10%) of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to said Clerk signed by the bidder and a corporate surety, or by the bidder and two sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount and over and above all statutory exemptions. The amount so posted shall be forfeited to said Town in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within 15 days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the Town.

Contractor shall furnish to Town a faithful performance bond and labor and material bond as required in said specifications.

Said sealed proposals shall be delivered to the Town Clerk of said Town on or before 10:00 o'clock A.M. of the 3rd day of December, 1971, Town Hall, Corte Madera, California, said time being at least fourteen days from the time of first publication and posting of this notice. Bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on said day and hour, and referred to and considered by the Council at its meeting at 7:30 o'clock P.M. on December 6, 1971.

A copy of the plans and specifications may be obtained from the Town Engineer, Town Hall, Corte Madera, California, upon deposit therefor of $5.00, none of which will be refunded.

Dated: November 1, 1971.

SECTION A
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bid No. 347
(Advertisement)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the San Rafael School District of Marin County will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of Additions and Alterations to Santa Venetia Middle School

Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Richard C. Marshall, Chester Bowles, Jr., Architects, A.I.A., 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California where the same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after bids are opened.

Each bid shall be made on a form to be supplied by the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of 10% of the total contract price made payable to the order of the San Rafael Clerk of the Board whose address will be Third and E Streets, San Rafael, California, prior to Dec. 2, 1971, 3:00 P.M. at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

The above mentioned check will be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be retained by the District as agreed and liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price in accordance with the contract documents.

Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District has ascertained the prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, which will be awarded to the successful bidder.

Eight hours shall constitute a work day unless otherwise specified on the union scale. The hourly wage rate prescribed is the per diem rate divided by the aforementioned number of hours constituting a work day.

The Board of Education of the San Rafael School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids or any alternate or unit price and/or waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received.

There shall be no discrimination because of race, color, creed or political affiliation in the employment of persons for work under the contract.

Holiday Stamp Folder Offered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Stamp collectors will be able to buy a souvenir folder this year containing first-day cancellations of the two 1971 Christmas postage stamps for one dollar, the Postal Service announced Thursday.

On the cover of the folder will be a full-color reproduction of artist Jamie Wyeth's "partridge in a pear tree" design for one of the eight-cent stamps. The other is a detail from Giorgione's "Adoration of the Shepherds."

Each eight-cent stamp inside is cancelled, "First day of issue, Washington, D.C., November 10, 1971."

Comedian Skelton Wants A Divorce

INDIO, Calif. (UPI)—Red Skelton, 54, filed a petition for divorce Thursday from his second wife, Georgia Davis Skelton. The petition cited "irreconcilable differences which have caused a breakdown in the marriage." They were married 27 years.

Economist Says Nixon Getting His Results

NEW YORK (UPI) —Economist Milton Friedman said Wednesday that the Nixon administration's new economic policies have slowed the economic expansion the administration sought.

"Paradoxically, this slowing of the expansion has done more to reduce inflationary forces than have any direct effects of the freeze," said Friedman.

In a speech before the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, Friedman said expansion was under way before Nixon announced his plans Aug. 15, and is likely to resume once the uncertainties are resolved.

Birth Pill Mixup Lawsuit Settled

DETROIT (UPI)—A woman who became pregnant with her eighth child because the birth control pills she was taking turned out to be tranquilizers, has won a $12,000 settlement in her suit against the druggist who made the mistake.

Dorothy Troppi and her husband, John, who also have one grandchild, reached the out-of-court settlement with lawyers for Dearborn druggist Frank Scarf Wednesday, but did not reveal the outcome until Thursday.

The Troppis, from Plymouth, filed the suit in September, 1965, a month after the birth of their son, Marty, now 6. They asked $250,000 in damages to cover medical expenses, the cost of raising the child, the salary Mrs. Troppi lost when she had to quit her job and the anxiety involved in the mixup.

Goodman Attack

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jazzman Benny Goodman, 62, was taken to New York University Hospital Thursday night for treatment of actue intestinal virus. He was reported in satisfactory condition today.

Cooper On Terra Linda Rec Board

Directors of the Terra Linda Recreation-Park District have named Hubert F. Cooper to a vacancy on the board until the district officially goes out of business on Jan. 1.

Cooper, a state Division of Highways engineer, was one of five men elected last Tuesday to a new community services district board that will assume Terra Linda's park and recreation function.

In addition to the appointment, the board also began legal and administrative steps preparatory to the district going out of business, according to Gen. Mgr. Zonwice Mulhaupt.

Smallman Sentences Six Drivers

Six drivers have been sentenced in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Sentenced Tuesday by Judge Robert A. Smallman were:

Robert Charles O'Meara, 49, of 29 Carmel Drive, Novato, arrested Oct. 13 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year, fined $302, and ordered to spend two and one-half days in jail.

Homer Keith Smith, 44, of San Francisco, arrested Oct. 24 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year and fined $240.

George Moslet Washington, 65, of 2000 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, arrested Oct. 19 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year and ordered to work for 10 days for the Marin County Parks and Recreation Department.

Bruce Everett Sisco, 19, of 64 Montego Key, Novato, arrested Aug. 28 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year and fined $240.

Eric John Jones, 42, of 10 Skylark Drive, Larkspur, arrested Nov. 3 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year and fined $250.

Neil Henry Silver, 27, of San Francisco, arrested Nov. 6 in Sausalito, placed on probation for one year and ordered to work 10 days for the Marin County Parks and Recreation Department.

An Open Hour

Terra Linda High School has again opened its lunch hour to speakers and music groups. Any organization interested in using this forum is welcomed to inquire at the school by asking for Barbara Nissen or Bob Fracchia. In the past, the school has hosted everything from speakers on the population explosion to rock bands, the two spokesmen said.

Management Under Fire

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A local longshore official said Thursday that management is to blame for any work delays caused by a lack of skilled heavy equipment operators on West Coast docks.

Robert Rohatch, president of Local 10 of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU), charged the Pacific Maritime Association has "repeatedly sat on" union requests for training programs, particularly those for crane operators.

A management spokesman said there are enough such skilled workers in Local 10, but that the union is assigning them to routine work rather than making them available for the heavy equipment work.

Rohatch denied the charge.

Report Says Slaying Was 'Excusable'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The District Attorney's office today studied an 800-page Police Department report that termed the controversial slaying of a black man by a police officer "excusable homicide."

Black leaders immediately criticized the police evaluation of the killing of Clarence Johnson, 32, by Patrolman Richard Lewis, 28, during a burglary investigation Oct. 5 in the Hunters Point area.

District Attorney John J. Ferdon must eventually decide if the report is accurate. He could order more investigations or take the matter to the Grand Jury.

Chief of Inspectors Charles Barca said the report, handed to Ferdon Thursday, included statements from 81 witnesses.

Officers said Lewis stopped a car believed to have been involved in a burglary. The original police version was that Lewis ordered Johnson to put his hands on the car roof and spread his legs.

Lewis said Johnson suddenly turned and when he tried to block the suspect's elbow the officer's gun went off.

Barca declined to go beyond the statement that the shooting had been determined to come within the Penal Code classification of "excusable homicide."

Alex Pitcher, chairman of a black group that has been conducting its own probe of the shooting, said he was "shocked and disgusted."

He called for "an impartial investigation by the State Attorney General's office."

Girl Says Abductor Wept Before Release

CONCORD (UPI) — Debbie Devore, the pretty 15-year-old held captive for 44 hours by an armed kidnaper, said the gunman wept before releasing her and surrendering to police.

The blonde high school sophomore was taken early Sunday from a bedroom in the Pleasant Hill home of her friend, Susan Whitlow, 15, and held in a rented house in Concord. Police talked him into releasing the girl and surrendering early Tuesday.

Marvin Joseph Hauber, 29, an ex-convict, has been charged with the kidnaping and 14 other counts, including attempted murder since he is charged with shooting and wounding her friend's parents. He is being held under $250,000 bail and his arraignment has been continued until next Tuesday.

The composed teen-ager declined to discuss details of her ordeal Thursday, but said when he finally gave up, he was crying.

"But before he surrendered," she said, "he sent me into the bedroom to get some marijuana he had there and he flushed it down the toilet." She said he also emptied his gun of bullets before throwing it downstairs to police.

It was believed that the man saw both girls at a carnival and followed them to the Whitlow home.

"The man knocked Susie out when she fought with him," Miss DeVore said. Police said both girls were treated for scalp wounds inflicted by a gun.

"I'm so glad he didn't take Susie," she went on, "because I don't know if she could have been as cool as I was."

Authorities were unanimous that the girl's self-evaluation was a correct one.

Through most of her ordeal, she said, her wrists and ankles were bound and during the four hours the abductor bargained with police and Miss DeVore's father, he held a revolver at her temple.

"I knew he wouldn't shoot me because he said so," Debbie said. "But he said he would shoot my father if he came up the stairs."

Debbie said she felt certain her captor was going to release her when her father called up "your mom's in an ambulance. She's going to the hospital ... "

That's when Hauber began to cry.

Vandals Break Into Terra Linda School

Vandals broke into Bernard Hoffman school in Terra Linda, ransacked the principal's office and scrawled "You lost mad hatter, ha! ha!" on the nurse's office wall, the Marin County sheriff's office reported yesterday.

Deputies had no estimate of damage done to the school, at 1111 Las Gallinas Avenue, Monday night.

Capture Of Tuna Boats Confirmed

QUITO, Ecuador (UPI) — Ecuador has confirmed the capture of five foreign tuna fishing boats, four of them American, and admitted that its warship fired shots across their bow to keep them from escaping.

Two of the tunaboats, the Denise Marie and Atlantic Patton, were released after their capture when it was determined they carried fishing permits, the Ecuadorean Navy said Thursday.

The American tunaboats, whose home port was San Diego, had been identified in Washington earlier as the Venturess, Blue Meridian, Denise Marie, City of Panama and Trinidad. The Atlantic Patton, presumed to be the Canadian vessel, had not earlier been mentioned.

Novato, San Rafael Meet For MCAL Crown

Tomorrow is title day in Novato.

The resident Hornets face San Rafael High School at 1 p.m. for the Marin County Athletic League football championship. A Novato win would give the host team undisputed honors; a San Rafael Bulldog triumph causes a tie between the two.

In regards to deadlocks, Novato coach Al Scott has asserted that "we won't be settling for a tie. We want the win."

"We're going to find out just how well they can run," Scott said, referring to the vaunted San Rafael rushing unit composed of Scott Duncan, Mark Farrar, Dave Urquhart and Dirk Gansloser.

"Most teams have found they had to put the ball in the air against us, and we expect them to throw, if only to keep us honest. We also expect them to run at us at first. But we're happy to see them run against us, because we're confident they'll really have to work for their scores."

Novato might have to labor for its point production, too, if the Hornet quarterback situation remains unclear. A bad back has kept All-League signal caller Marty Moroski out of practice earlier in the week. At game time, he was a probable starter.

If Moroski is not at peak physical efficiency, Scott will open with Tom Conklin in his place. The alternate field general is a sprintout quarterback with good speed and is an excellent ball handler.

"He's got good football sense," Scott continued, "and I would have full confidence in him if Moroski is unable to go."

Moroski has a host of excellent receivers, including Joe Powell, Joe Robinson, Greg Straw, Leo Magers, Charley Chung and Greg Lash. To prevent defensive concentration on any one man, Moroski utilizes all six.

He also spreads the load in running sequences, but halfback Leo Magers remains the ground gaining hub. The quick cutting rusher has proven to be devastating in clutch situations, scoring twice in an important win over Redwood last week.

San Rafael also has its own come-through runner in All-League halfback Duncan. The senior breakaway sensation, who has 38 career touchdowns to his credit, is the key to the Bulldogs' run-oriented attack. With linemen Bill Lechner, Kevin Henderson and Mark St. Gaudens opening holes, Duncan has proved to be almost unstoppable.

When defenses gear to contain Duncan, coach Bob Muster's flexible running game plan shifts the brunt of the load to Farrar, another long distance threat. Farrar has nifty open field moves to complement his effective inside thrusts.

Regarding this pair, San Rafael coach Bob Muster said he will again rely on the pair against Novato "because you've got to go with what got you there.

"We can't make changes now, and we've been able to move well." Although the emphasis is on the run, San Rafael is able to pass. "We're going to have to mix it up some on them. We can't let them put up an 11 man front. They're strong enough with their eight man front.

"He can rightly be proud of his defense, but we are proud of our running attack. However, if it is proven we can't run against them, we will throw."

San Rafael has the arsenal to unleash a steady aerial attack with Gansloser tossing short passes to end Duke Bessee or the backs.

Because of the offensive might both clubs seemingly possess, a high scoring affair is anticipated. If such is the case, field goal kicking could prove to be the difference. Each has a gifted booter. San Rafael trots out Rick Klarkowski, while Novato counters with Bob Cooper. Both have proven to be fine extra point kickers and solid field goal producers.

The lineups:

San Rafael (Offense): LE Duke Bessee, LT Bill Lechner, LG Kevin Henderson, C Mark St. Gaudens, RG Dirk Correnti, RT Larry Simmelink, RE Mike Sinclair, QB Dirk Gansloser, LHB Scott Duncan, RHB Dave Urquhart, FB Mark Farrar, (Defense) LE Bessee, LT Bill Lechner, LG Bob Brown, RG Sinclair, RT Chris Valentino, RE Mike Cook, MLB Correnti, LHB Jim Grigg, RHB Urquhart, LS Duncan, RS Jeff White.

SPORT NOTES

Great Prep Football Finale Set In Novato

By RALPH CHATOIAN

That game in Novato tomorrow between the resident Hornets and San Rafael Bulldogs should really be the capper to one of the closest races seen in the Marin County Athletic League.

Through most of the season four schools — San Rafael, Novato, Redwood and Terra Linda — had a shot at the crown, but now it's down to just two. Novato already has a share of the title assured, but a win tomorrow for San Rafael will give the Bulldogs a co-championship.

San Rafael has such a high scoring machine this year (averaging about 40 points a game) that I'll have to go with the Bulldogs in this one. Both teams have good defenses, but that powerful running game San Rafael has makes me pick Bulldogs over the Hornets by 3.

REDWOOD HIGH School basketball coach Dick Hart becomes a television star tomorrow. Maybe not a star, but he will be on TV. Hart, a member of the Pacific-8 officials corps the past eight years, will be the back judge in tomorrow's regionally televised (ABC) Pac-8 game between Washington State and Oregon State, at Corvallis, Ore. Game time is 1:30.

And that No. 90 for Oregon State who will be making all those tackles is defensive end Jim Sherbert, a senior who did his all-league football playing at Terra Linda High School. Also on the Oregon State roster is defensive tackle Phil Simon (No. 45) from Redood High.

TWO FORMER Redwood High School basketball stars of a couple of years back, John Boro and Jerry Piro, have survived final cuts for positions on their basketball teams. Boro will be playing for the University of San Francisco Dons and Piro for the Santa Clara Broncos. Both are sophomores, and were main reasons Redwood won MCAL championships in 1969 and '70.

LAST REPORT from the San Francisco 49ers had offensive tackle Len Rohde the luncheon speaker next Monday for the Marin Chapter, 49er Goal Rushers boosters group at Holiday Inn. And according to word out of the 49ers' front office, AWOL Jim Johnson, who failed to show up at last Monday's luncheon, will accompany Doug Cunningham to the Nov. 22 meeting.

BARRY MAC KAY of Ross, Mr. Tennis of the Bay Area, is chairman of a new tournament, the California Open Championships, planned to be an annual Memorial Day event at the Meadow Club at Bear Valley. The tournament will be to determine a champion among resident California tennis pros, including Bobby Lutz of Tiburon. In addition to chairing the new tourney, MacKay will be director of tennis at the Sierra resort.

WHEN KSFO disc jockey Jim Lange of Kentfield needs pinch hitters he really gets them. Starting Monday, five San Francisco Giants will sub for Lange on his 7 to 10 a.m. show. The Monday through Friday schedule calls for catcher Russ Gibson, third baseman Allan Gallagher, first baseman Willie McCovey, pitchers Jerry Johnson and Gaylord Perry, in that order. Doing the "umpiring" will be KSFO's Gene Nelson of Sausalito.

JACKIE NEWSOM, newly appointed sergeant-at-arms of the Marin County 600 Club, is bowler of the month for October, winning the honors with a 640 series at Nave Lanes. Congrats, Jackie.

I WAS SADDENED this morning by a wire story on the death last night of W. R. "Bill" Collins, 55-year-old executive sports editor of the Sacramento Bee. I'm a Sacramento boy and Bill was my boss for a short time while I was "stringing" for Sacramento Junior College sports in 1956.

Collins died at Sacramento Medical Center where he had been hospitalized since suffering a choking spell during dinner, Oct. 27.

Muhammad Ali Reveals New Punch For Mathis

HOUSTON (UPI)—Muhammad Ali says he has a new punch for Buster Mathis in the Astrodome next Wednesday night. He calls it his "linger on" punch.

Ali said it was the punch responsible for the knockout of Jimmy Ellis in the 12th round last July 26.

"I discovered it by chance against Ellis," Ali said. "Now I've tried it on a couple of sparring partners during training for this fight and have just named it.

"I call it the 'linger on' punch because it don't knock you out. It just makes you linger on.

"It is a twisting chopping right hand," Ali said. "It dazes a fighter and he kind of staggers around, you know, lingers on."

Trojans, Drake Go Tonight

A pair of vanquished Marin County Athletic League football crown candidates lock horns tonight at 8 o'clock in a season finale at San Rafael High School.

Terra Linda and Drake high schools hope to end the year on a high note after the champion Novato Hornets ended both teams' title dreams.

With all championship aspirations dashed, both squads approach the curtain closer feeling there is nothing to lose; an all out war can be expected.

The arsenal matches Terra Linda's passing against the Drake running. The Trojans have possibly the league's top quarterback in Kevin Donohoe. The Napa transfer can throw long or short with equal skill, particularly to flankerback John Buckley. The acrobatic pass catcher has awed crowds with some of his receptions.

Audiences have also raised their collective eyebrows when watching the Drake rushing array, featuring backs Mark Euless, Dave Segale, Rick Bozzio and Rick Herbert. All have basked in ground-producing glory this season and would like nothing better than ending the schedule by winning against the Trojans.

Both aggregations expect a typical, hard-hitting encounter, which will match the wits of inlaws Don Lucas and Carl Brown. Brown, the Drake athletic director, is Lucas's father-in-law. Lucas, the Terra Linda

49ers Vie With Rook Sensation

San Francisco 49ers' swift defensive ends Tommy Hart and Cedrick Hardman will have quite a chore stopping the New Orlean Saints' swift rollout quarterback Archie Manning.

The 49er flankmen anchor a defensive line which has sacked opposing signal callers more times than any other team this year in the National Football League. This type of aggressive defense enables the 49ers to lead the NFL in pass defense. Despite these impressive figures, the New Orlean's rookie field general is determined to unglue the tight 49er defense. It may prove to be a painful experience, so the Saints have added two new players to the taxi squad as final preparations get underway for Sunday's encounter with the San Francisco Forty Niners.

A team spokesman said Thursday the Saints had acquired 6-foot-2, 187-pound wide receiver Creston Whitaker as a free agent from the Los Angeles Rams.

The Saints also picked up former Tulane defensive end Mike Walker

Reagan Signs Hunt License Fee Measure

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Legislation requiring virtually everyone to buy a $4 hunting license before shooting any bird or mammal has been signed by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The bill, by Assemblyman William Ketchum, R-Paso Robles, was signed Thursday. It classifies a long list of formerly unprotected species as protected "nongame" creatures.

Among the newly protected animals and birds are crows, magpies, coyotes, weasels, English sparrows, jays, starlings, moles, rats, mice and gophers.

FACE ATLANTA TONIGHT

Warriors Smash Knicks For Third Straight Win

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Golden State Warriors are on a new kick — winning. They disposed of the New York Knicks last night, 112-103, and try for four victories in a row and nine of their last 10 against the Hawks here tonight.

Jeff Mullins scored 31 points and Nate Thurmond added 27 to help drop the Knicks into last place in the Atlanta Division of the National Basketball Association with a 6-9 record. The Warriors are 11-4 and half a game behind leader Los Angeles in the Pacific Division.

The Knicks closed to two points three times in the second half as Earl Monroe, obtained from Baltimore in a trade only hours earlier, clicked on three straight shots. But Thurmond and Mullins always seemed to reply with timely points.

"I was praying Monroe wouldn't get hot," said Warrior coach Al Attles. "When Monroe hit those three in a row, I got a little nervous because when he connects like that you're in trouble."

New York fought back from a seven-point deficit to tie the score at 48-48 with 3:50 remaining in the second quarter but Mullins then put the Warriors ahead for keeps with two foul shots and Golden State led 65-57 at the half.

Walt Frazier, who led New York with 30 points, hit on a three-point play at the halftime buzzer and then generated a Knick drive with five straight points in the third quarter.

Thurmond scored 11 of his points in the final period to blunt several New York drives. His two foul shots with two minutes remaining widened the Warriors' lead to 108-101.

Willis Reed, recovering from tendonitis, played the entire second half but did not score a point off Thurmond. Monroe, who did not start, played about half the game in his Knick debut.

SECTIONAL MEET NEXT

Redwood Harriers Romp

Redwood High School sloshed to victory in the Division III-cross-country meet yesterday in Vallejo and will look for new worlds to conquer next Wednesday in the North Coast Sectionals.

Novato's Don Hutton finished second and qualified for the sectionals as an individual. Freshman-sophomore teams from Redwood and San Rafael also qualified, as did individual Joey Biancalana of Tamalpais.

Redwood's varsity scored 29 points, a stunningly low figure. Petaluma was second at 54, Eureka third at 109 and Montgomery also qualified a team. San Rafael was 22nd. More than 80 runners started, and Redwood had five of the first eight finishers.

Jan-Erick Moller was third at 16:37, Ned Overend fifth at 16:39, Mike Killeen sixth at 16:40, Bryan Tracy seventh at 16:43 and Mike Sweeney eight at 16:44. That's five runners within seven seconds of each other, which in cross-country is known as "good grouping" and tends to make your opponents unhappy.

Hutton, who was upset by Moller and Killeen in Tuesday's Marin County Athletic League meet, gained his revenge. His 16:32 placed him second only to Petaluma's John Sisler, 16:26.

The times are not impressive for the three-mile distance because the grass course was wet and slick. "Killeen was making a move for the lead on one occasion," said Redwood coach Doug Basham, "and slipped and fell flat on his back. In fact, all our guys but one fell down at some point in the race."

The frosh-soph scores were more normal. Napa won it with 56 and Piner was second at 78. Redwood had 90 and San Rafael 109. Four teams qualify.

Biancalana finished fifth, which suits him fine since five individuals qualify. San Rafael placed a tight group right behind him, with Ray Green, Brian McCurdy and Tom Stibich finishing together in that order.

Redwood fell victim to another quirk of the course in the frosh-soph race. Kevin Glasner, who had won the MCAL, was inadvertently pushed into a pole, had the wind knocked out of him, and finished well back.

The North Coast Sectional will be held at 3:30 p.m. next Wednesday at Lake Elizabeth in Fremont. Antioch, which won the tough Division II handily, is the favorite.

NICKLAUS SAYS

'Cup Course Toughest'

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (UPI)—Jack Nicklaus, low scorer after the first round, says the 19th World Cup golf tournament is being played on the toughest course in the world.

"You can't find a longer, tougher course than this one anywhere," said the blond resident of nearby Lost Tree Village, whose 68 Thursday was offset by teammate Lee Trevino's 75.

The twg Americans finished three strokes behind South Africa's Gary Player and Harold Henning in team competition, along with Bob Charles and John Lister of New Zealand.

Normally not a man for kidding around—unlike his partner—Nicklaus was in a mood for wisecracks.

And referring to Player's stomach trouble, which interrupted his play six times Thursday, Nicklaus said, "I see that stuff I put in Gary's food is finally working."

Player nevertheless shot a 69 Thursday to go with Henning's 71 for a 140 total. Charles posted a 71 and Lister a 72 to tie the South African in second place.

Henning, out of action for several months because of an injury, feels Player will pull his team through.

"I know Gary will keep playing well," he said. "If I can keep up my game, we'll do all right."

Trevino, winner of the U.S., Canadian and British Opens this year, said he's been having trouble putting and getting accustomed to the smaller golf ball being used in this international tournament.

"But I'm getting used to it now," he said. "I'm getting it closer to the pin."

The two Americans were heavy favorites in the field of 92 golfers from 46 countries.

Argentina's Roberto de Vicenzo, defender of the international trophy presented the individual with the lowest score, also shot a 69 Thursday, as did Peter Oosterhuis of England.

But the other Britisher, Tony Jacklin, had a 75 to put the team in third place at even-par 144.

Esposito, Bailey Tally Twice In 5-2 Home Win

BOSTON (UPI)—There was no denying the Boston Bruins this time.

Phil Esposito and Garnet Bailey each tallied two goals to pace the Bruins to a 5-2 win over the California Golden Seals before the usual screaming sellout crowd of 14,995 in Boston Garden Thursday night. It was the first loss in four games on the road for the Seals this season.

A first-period goal by Stan Gilbertson propelled the Seals to a 1-0 lead. That gave rookie Seals goalie Gilles Meloche four consecutive scoreless periods against the Bruins including a 2-0 shutout Oct. 28.

But ole pro Esposito, the biggest single-season scorer in pro hockey, caught up to Meloche in the middle period. He scored his 10th goal of the season 2:15 into the period while the Bruins were shorthanded to tie it up.

Bailey tallied a minute and a half later to give Boston a 2-1 lead. But Walt McKechnie came back to score for California and knot it up until Esposito and Ken Hodge came at Meloche on a two-on-one rush climaxed by Esposito's game-winning 25-footer at an angle for the winner.

NFL ROUNDUP

Clean-Cut Eagles Revitalized Team

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

It's a good bet that Ed Khayat has never seen the rock musical, "Hair." In fact, you probably couldn't get him to see it even if you gave him free tickets.

The new head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles issued an "anti-hair" edict three weeks ago. His players —shorn of their moustaches and sideburns —have responded with their first two wins of the season — against the New York Giants and Denver and a 7-7 tie last week with powerful Washington.

The Eagles, losers of their first five games this season, will attempt to continue their trend from the ridiculous to the sublime Sunday when they travel to Dallas to face the Cowboys.

Dallas (5-3) has the weapons, however, to emphatically deflate the Eagles' ballooning hopes. The Cowboys have the league's most productive offense, one that has registered 220 points in eight games.

That fact makes the Philadelphia cause especially hazardous since the 187 points surrendered by the Eagles in eight games represents the fifth most porous defense in the NFL.

The Eagles match Dallas' offensive machine with a milquetoast attack that has manufactured all of 81 points, the fewest in the 26-team circuit.

The game appears to be a mismatch, with Dallas being installed as an 11-point favorite, but the Eagles are in an excellent position to spring a major upset.

The pressure will be on the Cowboys. They need the win to stay alive in the NFC East. With division-leading Washington facing the tough Chicago Bears, a Dallas victory and a Redskin loss would enable the Cowboys to pull within one-half game of the top. Washington is a four-point choice.

In other NFC contests, Minnesota is favored by seven over Green Bay, Detroit is seen as four better than Los Angeles, San Francisco is picked to romp by 17 over New Orleans and Atlanta is tabbed by seven over the Giants.

In the American Conference, the New York Jets, their four-linebacker defense leading to an upset of Kansas City last week, find themselves a 13-point underdog to Baltimore; the Chiefs spot Cleveland 13, New England is figured a touchdown better than Buffalo, Denver is a three-point choice over Cincinnati, Houston is down 14 to Oakland and Miami, leader of the AFC East, gets a 10-point nod over Pittsburgh.

The lone inter-conference game on the schedule finds St. Louis at San Diego in the nationally televised Monday night game that winds down the ninth week of the season. San Diego is a three-point pick.

The shorn players grumbled a lot, but the team has been jelling under the strict stewardship of the former first lieutenant in the Army Reserves.

The offense has perked up under veterans Pete Liske, quarter-back; Ronnie Bull, running back and wide receiver Ben Hawkins.

The defense, which has allowed only three touchdowns in the three-game unbeaten streak, has improved noticeably, especially at free safety where Bill Bradley has intercepted a conference-leading total of seven passes.

Curtis, Brumsey Await Suit Act

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Does the NCAA's 1.6 grade rule violate the 14th Amendment?

Isaac Curtis and Larry Brumsey of the University of California football team think it does and today they seek to find out for sure from a Federal Court judge.

The two were held in violation of the 1.6 rule by the NCAA and, when their school failed to make them ineligible for play on the football team, the NCAA slapped California with a probation.

The probation prohibits California from post-season competition such as the Rose Bowl and also deprives the school of future television dates.

The Curtis-Brumsey suit seeks to enjoin the NCAA from continuing enforcement of the 1.6 rule against them and to challenge the basis of the rule as a violation of the Due Process clause of the 14th Amendment.

Neither Curtis nor Brumsey was named specifically by the NCAA when it put California on probation but they are the only athletes remaining of six originally who were involved.

California was put on probation because it did not rule Curtis and Brumsey ineligible for not taking a scholastic aptitude test that would predict out a 1.6 grade at the specified time before they were admitted to the school.

Curtis currently is maintaining a 3.2 grade average and Brumsey has a 2.7 average.

The NCAA maintained right along that California could have escaped probation by making its "ineligible" players just that and then filing for their reinstatement.

Curtis and Brumsey maintain that the 1.6 rule as it applies now would leave them ineligible for an undetermined period with no appeal process from which they could seek reinstatement.

In their suit the two athletes contend the NCAA ruling is "purely arbitrary and capricious and designed especially to penalize" them.

Judge A. C. Wollenberg will hear the case in Federal Court and has the power to grant an injunction. If he does the move could in effect strip the NCAA of its governing power.

Curtis, Brumsey and California coach and acting Athletic Director Ray Willsey will be in court. In fact, Willsey has been subpenaed by Judge Wollenberg.

Fred Rosenfeld and J. Stanley Sanders will represent Curtis and Brumsey. It was not known who will represent the NCAA.

SPORTS SHORTS

Berkeley To Host Top Ice Skaters

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The 1972 Pacific Coast figure skating championships, featuring top ice skaters from seven western states, will be held at the Berkeley Iceland Dec. 9-11.

The 1972 competition has been moved up to December because of the approaching Winter Olympics, scheduled in February at Sapporo, Japan. Winners from the Pacific Coast championship will move on to the national championships in Long Beach in January, and compete for berths on the 1972 United States Olympic team.

Tickets may be obtained from the St. Moritz Ice Skating Club in Berkeley. Prices are $2.50, adults; children, $1.50.

Yachting

LONG BEACH — The fleet of 33 boats participating in the fourth biennial Long Beach-to-La Paz yacht race were within 200 miles of their destination today under good sailing conditions despite moderate winds. Ragtime and Counterpoint were the fleet leaders in the last roll call with Counterpoint holding the corrected time advantage and Ragpoint the elapsed time leader.

Cross-Country

LOS ANGELES — Oregon and Washington State are expected to battle for the team championship tomorrow when 56 runners from Pacific-8 schools compete in the conference cross country championships at UCLA.

Oregon's Steve Prefontaine is favored in the six-mile race but Washington State is expected to take the team championship.

Boxing

PHILADELPHIA — Joe Frazier may face Terry Daniels Jan. 15 in New Orleans for his first official bout since he won the heavyweight championship last March, his managers said yesterday.

NEWARK, N.J. — Veteran Newark promoter Willie Gilzenburg said yesterday he has been authorized to put up a $100,000 guarantee for a bout between light heavyweights Vicente Rondon of Venezuela and Bob Foster of Albuquerque, N.M. The winner would become undisputed world light heavyweight champion.

Baseball

EVANSVILLE, Ind. — The financially troubled Evansville Triplets of the American Association were sold yesterday to Don Labbruzzo of Buffalo, N.Y. The Triplets will not move, at least for next year, Labbruzzo said.

PORTLAND — Owner Bill Cutler of the Portland club in the Pacific Coast League announced that the parent Minnesota Twins have cancelled their player working agreement with the Beavers. He said the Twins will switch their Triple A farm team operation to Tacoma.

Football

DENVER — Denver Bronco coach Lou Saban says he is "terribly concerned" about the knee condition of starting defense end Rich Jackson. Saban said there was a "bone problem" in addition to the cartilage that was removed from the All-Conference player last week.

AT BAY MEADOWS

Shoemaker Shoots For Mark Of Most Stake Wins In Year

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UPI)— Bill Shoemaker shoots for one of racing's coveted records— most stakes victories in a year — Saturday when he makes his first start of the season at Bay Meadows in the $20,000 added Junipero Serra Stakes.

Shoemaker rode Cougar II to victory on the closing day of the recent Oak Tree meeting for his 43rd stakes victory and Saturday he rides JK Stable's Royal Owl in the Junipero Serra, a mile test for juveniles.

When Shoemaker won the Oak Tree Invitational he tied Bill Hartack with 43 stakes victories each in one year. Hartack set his mark in 1957.

The Oak Tree Invitational was Shoemaker's last start and pushed his career victory total to 6262, an all-time record to which he adds every time he hits the winner's circle.

Don Pierce and Bill Mahorney are two other Southland jockeys making their first start of 1971 at Bay Meadows. A total of 12 juveniles are in the Junipero Serra with Pierce, top jockey at the recent Pomona meeting, slated to ride Knightlander and Mahorney engaged to handle Master Ribot, winner of his most recent start at Santa Anita and second in a division of the rich Del Mar Futurity.

Under the allowance conditions of the Junipero Serra—a stepping stone to the $100,000 added California Juvenile Stakes on Dec. 18 — Royal Owl will carry 120 pounds. That's based on the horse's triumph in the $100,000 addd Hollywood Juvenile on July 24.

Bay Meadows got a good dousing Thursday in the first rain of the season and conditions for Saturday's race are a bit uncertain.

Shoemaker also rides two horses Saturday for trainer Johnny Longden, the man he succeeded as the world's top jockey in point of victories, to round out his day at Bay Meadows. He will be aboard Right On in the fourth and Diplomatic Agent in the seventh.

Shoemaker's career stakes victory total stands at 545. He needs nine more to tie the all-time record held by Eddie Arcaro. After Saturday it could be only eight.

Redwood Teams Host 2 Bowls In Pop Warner

The Redwood Junior Giants and Redwood Gremlins will host Pop Warner League post-season bowl games Saturday at 1 p.m. at College of Marin.

The Junior Giants, co-champions of the senior midgets division with a 4-0-2 record, entertain the Golden Saints from Paradise, Calif. The Gremlins, 3-2-1 in senior peewee competition, face the Black Olives from Corning, Calif.

This marks the first time Marin County Pop Warner teams have hosted post-season bowls.

Tam Girls Score Volleyball Upset

Tamalpais High School's girls volleyball team upset previously unbeaten Marin Catholic, 15-9, 15-12, yesterday in a Marin County Athletic League game at Tam. Marin Catholic had not lost in nine previous games this year.

NBA Board Ponders Cage Merger Plans

PHOENIX (UPI) —Proposed merger plans of the National and American basketball associations go before the NBA board of governors today in the final session of their two-day meeting.

NBA Commissioner Walter Kennedy will brief directors on progress of the merger talks between the two pro cage leagues. Kennedy noted that he and ABA Commissioner Jack Dolph are to testify next week in a second round of hearings before the U.S. Senate's Anti-trust Committee.

Also on today's agenda is a report of a committee of NBA owners and club officials regarding possible changes in the playoff system for post-season games. Directors will discuss recommendations on future playoffs.

In addition, governors will meet with Roone Arledge, president of the sports division of the American Broadcasting Co., to discuss television coverage of NBA games this season.

On Thursday, Kennedy ruled the Phoenix Suns won't have to surrender a player immediately to the Detroit Pistons for Otto Moore until the disputed trade is cleared up in court.

Phoenix was advised to expedite the court litigation in Tucson which involves a claim by the Virginia Squires of the ABA that Moore signed a contract with them before he was dealt from Detroit to Phoenix.

The Pistons were to receive an unnamed Phoenix player, believed to be center Mel Counts, in exchange for Moore. Counts still is on the Phoenix roster.

Kennedy ruled that no further movement of players be made until the case was cleared up in the courts.

The Suns and Pistons had agreed to submit the matter to Kennedy for settlement. Detroit originally wanted the case placed on the agenda for arbitration but withdrew that request when Phoenix agreed to abide by Kennedy's decision.

The commissioner ruled that three conditions stated in the contract that brought Moore to Phoenix last spring had not been fully implemented. One of them was the court litigation.

Kennedy also announced the 1975 NBA All Star game would be switched from Milwaukee to Phoenix. The 1972 mid-season contest will be in Los Angeles, 1973 in Chicago and 1974 in Seattle.

BIG NEW YORK TRADE

Knicks Acquire Earl Monroe For Dave Stallworth, Riordan

NEW YORK (UPI) —Did the need for another crowd-pleaser motivate the New York Knicks to trade for Earl Monroe?

The Knicks got rid of their last two super-subs of the 1970 National Basketball Association championship team Thursday when they traded Mike Riordan, a guard, and forward Dave Stallworth to the Baltimore Bullets for Monroe.

There was some cash going to Baltimore, too, in the deal that gave the Knicks an experienced third guard but left them without an experienced big man to stand-in for injured center Willis Reed.

"We needed a man with the ability to penetrate, someone who had good moves and a guy with a great shooting eye," Holzman said. "Monroe fit all three qualifications."

Holzman said the Knicks did not instigate the trade and that Baltimore called almost every team in the NBA asking if they were interested in a trade for Monroe.

"I'm sorry to see Riordan and Stallworth go," the Knick coach said wistfully, "but they're pros. I'm sure they weren't happy about leaving New York, especially Mike, who comes from around here. But maybe they'll get an opportunity to play more with Baltimore."

Walt Frazier said he was surprised about the Monroe trade and admitted it could cause some concern about the starting jobs he and Dick Barnett hold right now.

"Somebody has to lose," he philosophized, "that's the name of the game. One thing I'll tell you, I'd rather be playing with him than against him. He knocked us out of the playoffs last season. But maybe this is just the kind of change we need."

Monroe, who comes to New York with a salary estimated at $125,000, said he was home in Philadelphia Thursday morning when he was notified of the trade.

"I left for New York immediately, not knowing if I would even get into the game tonight," Monroe said. He played 20 minutes in Thursday night's 112-103 loss to the Golden State Warriors and scored nine points."

FISH AND GAME

Pheasant Prospects Rated Fair To Good

By AL GIDDINGS

According to the Department of Fish and Game, the pheasant season opening tomorrow should be from fair to good. The pheasant population is up 30 to 40 per cent in the Sacramento Valley; the San Joaquin population is down except in Stanislaus County where it is about equal to last year's population, and 19,500 pheasants will be planted in Southern California counties.

The Tule Lake and Honey Lake areas are reported as average. Last year, 253,800 hunters bagged an estimated 750,200 birds. If you get three, you're average.

No tags are needed, but the pheasant stamp is again required. Affix it to your hunting license. Hens are permitted in the bag limit in San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino, Inyo and Mono counties. Shooting hours are from 8 a.m. to sunset throughout the 23-day season.

STATE

Honey Lake, Lassen County, 4,100 acres, north edge of Honey Lake off Highway 395. Pheasant hunting allowed only on waterfowl shoot days (Saturday, Sundays, Wednesdays) during the pheasant season, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day or $15 per season, first-come, first-served basis. Hunter Quota, 225.

Gray Lodge, Butte County, 5,700 acres, 5 miles west and 3 miles south of Gridley. Pheasant hunting allowed on Nov. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 27, & 28; Dec. 1, 4, & 5, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day.

Grizzly Island, Solano County, one mile east and 11 miles south of Fairfield. Five-thousand acres open for both pheasant and waterfowl on Nov. 13, 14, 17, 20, 21, 24, 27, 28; Dec. 1, 4 & 5. The open area contains 1,000 acres of pond edge and levees which provides limited pheasant hunting. On Nov. 15, 16, 18, 19, 3,600 acres of unflooded land is open to pheasant hunting only. Shooting hours, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day.

Los Banos, Merced County, 2,700 acres, 4 miles north and ½ mile east of Los Banos. Pheasant hunting allowed on Nov. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 27, 28; Dec. 1, 4, & 5, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day. Hunter Quota, 100.

Mendota, Fresno County, 8,000 acres, 3 miles south of Mendota. Pheasant hunting allowed on Nov. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 27, 28; Dec. 1, 4, & 5, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day. Hunter Quota, 400.

NATIONAL

Pheasant hunting will be permitted 8 a.m. to sunset on Saturdays, Sundays, and Wednesdays, Nov. 13-Dec. 5, for those holding regular waterfowl hunting permits on the following areas:

Colusa, Colusa County, 1,230 acres, 5 miles east of Williams, Fee $3.50 per day; Delevan, Colusa County, 2,250 acres, 4 miles east of Maxwell, Fee $3.50 per day; Merced, Merced County, 1,160 acres, 6 miles south and 5 miles west of Merced, Fee $3.50 per day; Sutter, Sutter County, 1,100 acres, 12 miles southwest of Yuba City, Fee $3.50 per day; Sacramento, Glenn and Colusa Counties, 4,000 acres, 7 miles south of Willows on Highway 99W, Fee $3.50 per day.

Tule Lake and Lower Klamath National Wildlife Refuges will have certain areas open to pheasant hunting. Hunters should obtain details at the Tule Lake Refuge Headquarters located 7 miles west of the town of Tulelake.

Seattle Sonics Top Cleveland Cavaliers

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — The Seattle Sonics put down a third-quarter Cleveland surge and went on to top the Cavaliers 110-91 in a National Basketball Association game Thursday night.

Seattle led throughout the first half behind Don Kojis' 11 first-quarter points. At one point, Seattle had a 10-point second period lead, 33-23.

The Cavaliers trailed by only three at halftime, 53-50. Bingo Smith led Cleveland into its only lead midway in the third. He meshed nine points in that quarter and gave Cleveland its only lead in the game at 65-64 on a drive up the middle.

Then Seattle ripped off 14 points to Cleveland's five to lead 78-70 at the three-quarter mark.

For Seattle, Spencer Haywood tallied 20 and Don Smith 15.

Jim McDaniels Paces Carolina Cougars Win

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

McDaniels, the seven-foot All American from Western Kentucky, turned in one of his finest games of his rookie season Thursday night as he scored 39 points and took down 18 rebounds to lead the Cougars to a 127-109 victory over the Pittsburgh Condors.

McDaniels erupted for 22 points in the second half and sparked an 11-2 burst in the third quarter that lifted Carolina ahead to stay.

In the only other American Basketball Association game Thursday night, Willie Wise scored 34 points and Glen Combs added 26 as the Utah Stars beat the Denver Rockets 112-106. Combs scored a three-point field goal at the start of the last period to snap a tie and put the Stars ahead for good.

J.V. Grid Showdown In Novato

Officially, there is no junior varisty championship in Marin County Athletic League football, but don't tell that to the Novato and San Rafael powerhouses which will collide at Novato tomorrow at 10:45 a.m.

Each team has a 7-1 over-all record and a 5-0 league mark, and their comparative scores offer little clue as to who will win. Novato has scored 138 points against league foes and surrendered 32, posting three shutouts. San Rafael has scored 151, yielded 35 and shut out two foes. Neither has played a really close league game.

Both teams feature balanced offenses. For Novato, quarterback Chris Derecat will throw to end Chuck DePre or hand off to fullback Mark Lipe or setbacks Jeff Pond and Mark Magers. For San Rafael, the pitching of Craig Saunders and running of Mike McClean highlight the attack.

Defensive standouts for Novato include middle linebacker Scott Harrington, tackle Greg Zollner, safety Bruce Jervik and wingback Mike Martin. San Rafael boasts tackles Dick Paulson and Alan Garbarino and linebacker Kip Tonking. All three of those Bulldogs also anchor the offensive line. Top linemen for Novato are center Leonard Miller, guard Ron Dunlap, and tackles Ken McKenzie and Doug Goldsmith.

Tamalpais Hosts Redwood Giants

In what appears to be a Biblical recreation of the David and Goliath confrontation, Redwood's Giants invade Mill Valley tomorrow at 1 p.m. to face Tamalpais High School.

Coach Phil Roark's Larkspur products have smashed six of its eight rivals, while the green Mill Valley Indians have yet to taste sweet victory.

Hoping to swipe Tam's scalp, the Giants will march in with a talented hord of running backs, such as Mike Connor, Mark Asiano, Daryl Edralin and Jay Lehman. At first glance, it would appear the hosts could match this array with Don Parker, Craig Marshall, Alvin Price and Clifford Hall. However, the Giant quartet operates behind a seasoned front line anchored by center Bob Fulton and guard Dan Young.

If Tam has an edge, it is in the quantity of proven quarterbacks. The Indians start with scrambling Pat Locey. They often end up with Tim Nowell coming off the bench to uncoil a snappy aerial assault. Neither has produced a triumph, but both have kept Tamalpais competitive.

Defensively, Redwood again has the edge, particularly with such massive linemen as Bob Stubbs, Fulton, and Joel Johnson.

Tam has a few hard hitters, also. They include halfback Price and middle guard Herb Wade. The junior lineman was an All-League pick last year and has been reverting back to that form in recent outings after a slow start. Hall is another key defensive cog, working admirably against the pass.

The lineups:

COAST FOOTBALL

Still Some Titles To Be Determined

By RON SUPINSKI
U.P. INTERNATIONAL

While the battle for second place goes on in the Pacific-8 Conference, there are still football champions to be named in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association and Far Western Conference.

Long Beach State (4-1) can wrap up its second straight PCAA championship by beating San Diego State (2-2) Saturday night and earn a spot in the Dec. 18 Pasadena Bowl. Breathing on the 49ers necks are San Jose State and Fresno State who are tied for second with 3-1 marks. But the Spartans and Bulldogs have only one PCAA game remaining.

In the Far Western Conference, UC Davis (3-1), which eliminated Hayward State from contention last week by scoring 16 points in the final minute for a 30-29 upset, entertains Sacramento State (1-2-1) Saturday night. Chico State (4-1), which hosts USF (0-8) in a nonconference affair Saturday night, and the Aggies have the best shot at the FWC title.

In the Pacific-8, champion Stanford (7-2) is at home in a non-conference game with neighboring San Jose State (3-4-1); USC (1-2) travels to Washington (2-2), California is at Oregon (2-2) and Oregon State (1-2) hosts Washington State (2-2) in a regionally televised game. UCLA is idle.

Fresh from an upset win over Florida A&M, Santa Clara (5-3) plays its final home game of the season against Cal Poly of Pomona Saturday night.

Washington and USC each have three-game winning streaks going but the Huskies have been unable to beat the Trojans in their last six games. Washington quarterback Sonny Sixkiller saw limited action in last week's romp over California and slipped into second place behind Stanford's Don Bunce in passing.

"Defensively, you never want to let him know what you are going to do. You rush at times, lay off at others and change up. You don't shut him off completely, you just hope to slow him down."

USC leads the Pac-8 in pass interceptions with 21 and the Trojans own the conference's second best defense against the pass. The Huskies, meanwhile, have the best rushing defense, limiting opponents to 121 yards rushing a game.

Sam Cunningham, the No. 1 rusher for USC, is out for the season with a knee injury. Lou Harris, Manfred Moore and Ray Washmera will tote the mail for the Trojans.

California, having troubles on its offensive line with two straight losses, runs into a hot Oregon team which has won four of its last five games. Dan Fouts, the Oregon quarterback, may have Leland Glass, his premier receiver, back from a leg injury.

Marin Catholic In Finale

Marin Catholic High School climaxes its most successful season in an anti-climactic way when it entertains John O'Connell of San Francisco tomorrow at 2 p.m. at its Kentfield stadium.

A Marin Catholic victory would give the revitalized Wildcats a 7-2 season record under first-year head coach Bruno Banducci. A win is expected because O'Connell, decimated by graduation and transfers, has not won a game all year.

This season is the best within memory of anybody on the Marin Catholic scene. Nobody is quite sure — "we burned all the old records," jokes athletic director Gary Hughes — but the best previous season anyone can recall is five victories. The school is 22 years old.

Two-way starter Gino Pamilia is out with a broken left hand for Marin Catholic, so Randy Cheda will take over at offensive right guard and Tim huber at left linebacker. Other than that, the Wildcats are healthy, having had a bye last week.

Marin Catholic has a balanced attack. Quarterback Steve Sherry can throw, mainly to end John Shallich, and the running attack offers the outside-inside threat of Rick Cervisi and Mark Ferrua.

O'Connell is mainly a ground team, shifting from the I-formation to the wing-T. Its passing is not feared.

"The main problem is to prevent complacency on our team," said Banducci, "because any team can beat you if it gets a few early breaks and gets fired up."

Marin Catholic's lineups:

TIBURON NETTER

Bob Lutz Advances In Italy

BOLOGNA, ITALY (UPI) — Bob Lutz of Tiburon and Marty Riessen of Chicago Thursday moved into the quarter finals of the Bologna Open, the 20th and last World Championship Tennis qualifying tournament.

Riessen, seeded sixth, defeated Britain's Roger Taylor 6-3, 6-7, 6-4 in an exciting match.

Eight-seeding Lutz beat Australia's John Alexander 7-5, 7-5 in another quartar-final. Play went with service for the first 10 games in each set, then Lutz broke the opponent's serve in the 11th and took his own to win.

In a doubles quarter-final, Australians Ray Ruffels and Bob Carmichael defeated Denmark's Torben Ulrich and America's Roy Barth, 7-5, 7-6.

JACK HANLEY

Joe Amalfitano's Return To Giants

John Joseph Amalfitano was a bonus rookie with the Giants in 1954, their last world championship season when they beat the Cleveland Indians four straight in the World Series. Now Amalfitano is back with the Giants as their first base coach.

Wes Westrum, the man Amalfitano succeeds, has this to say about the Giants' new coach: "Joey is a class guy, always has been. He was a whiz kid out of San Pedro when he came up in 1954. We had to protect him from the baseball draft rules as they existed at that time. The only way to do it then was to make him a member of the roster."

A COUPLE of seasons later the Giants forgot to protect Amalfitano from the minor league draft after he had been sent down for experience. So Amalfitano was playing for Toronto in the International League in 1959 when the Giants sorely needed an infield utility glove, especially after Jim Davenport's knee crumpled in an August plate collision with Ed Bailey in Cincinnati.

"If we had Joe to fill in at third base after Davenport got hurt, we'd have won it," said Bill Rigney, then manager of the Giants, who vowed he never again would be caught short without a backup infield glove.

FIRST THING Rigney did in 1960 was to draft Amalfitano off the Toronto roster. The following year when a 1961 players pool was stocked by National League clubs for the 1962 expansion of the league, Houston made Amalfitano their No. 1 pick at $125,000. In 1963 the Giants reacquired him from Houston in a trade for Manny Mota. By this time Amalfitano was slowing up a bit and he finished the 1963 season at Tacoma, then the Pacific Coast League farm club of the Giants.

Amalfitano intended to join his brother in business in San Pedro in 1964 if a major league berth didn't open for him. Chub Feeney, then vice president of the Giants, made it possible for Amalfitano to find that berth. Feeney brought Amalfitano to the Giants' spring training camp in 1964, strictly for show case purposes.

THE CUBS liked the way Amalfitano still hustled. They signed him and he played 167 games for them over the 1964-65 seasons. When Leo Durocher became manager of the Cubs at the start of the '66 season, it was a foregone conclusion that Amalfitano would be one of The Lip's coaches.

Durocher was manager of the 1954 Giants and he liked Amalfitano right from the first day the young man from San Pedro reported to the Giants.

EVERYBODY ELSE in baseball calls Amalfitano Joe or Joey. Not Mays. Mays dubbed Amalfitano Louie first time he met him.

"If we had Louie in 1959 to play third after Peanut got hurt, we'd have won it," said Mays.

That's precisely what Rigney said.

Ex-San Jose State Star Fined By NFL

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Mel Tom, defensive end for the Philadelphia Eagles, former San Jose State star, has learned the high price of "too much aggressiveness in the National Football League.

Tom said Thursday that NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle fined him a "four figure sum" after Rozelle reviewed films of the Sept. 26 game in which Tom knocked Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach unconscious.

"I guess it has a little too much aggressiveness for Rozelle's thinking," Tom said. "It's more or less an unwritten law in the league that you're not supposed to hit the quarterback hard."

Staubach was hit hard. His attempted pass to tight end Mike Ditka was intercepted, and, as the flow of action changed, Tom grounded the Cowboys' passer with an elbow to the head. He denied it was a "cheap shot."

"The only thing Roger did wrong was just standing there," Tom said. "I just ran past him. . .and tried to block him out the best I could."

The commissioner indicated "I was being used as an example for the rest of the ballplayers in the league," and said the block was "pretty detrimental to the caliber of ballplaying in the league," Tom said.

Tom said he was fined a week after the game, which Dallas won, 42-7, but he asked Rozelle for a hearing. After a meeting this week, Rozelle told him to "mail him a check," Tom said.

Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL and a top Rozelle aide, denied the existence of an "unwritten law" about being easy on the quarterback.

"It doesn't make any difference if it's a quarterback or not," Kensil said. "It would have been the same thing if this happened to Tom.

Former Ike Aide Named To Agricultural Post

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Earl L. Butz, a Purdue University dean who served in the Eisenhower administration, has joined President Nixon's cabinet as agriculture secretary, a post made a political arena by record grain yields that have driven down farm prices.

Nixon announced Thursday the appointment of Butz, 62. Butz succeeded Clifford M. Hardin, who will join Ralston Purina Co. of St. Louis as vice chairman in charge of the company's research and development.

Nixon said Hardin had decided to leave because he had had an "exceptionally attractive offer" in private business. Ronald L. Ziegler, the White House press secretary, said the appointment did not signify any change in administration farm policy.

But Butz, who served as an assistant agriculture secretary under Ezra Taft Benson during the Eisenhower years, immediately came under fire from Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien. O'Brien said Butz was an architect of Benson's policies and would bring them back.

EARL L. BUTZ
To cabinet post

O'Brien described Butz as a "prominent consultant and board member of ... corporations that 'farm the farmers.'"

Rep. William Scherle, R-Iowa, a critic of Hardin's policies, said when told of Butz' appointment, "Oh, hell, not another professor."

"I was hoping we'd have a man of the soil, but I don't know about the man and am going to reserve judgment," Scherle said.

The chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, Rep. W.R. Poage, D-Tex., remembered working with Butz when Butz served under Benson in the 1950s.

"Obviously, we had many differences, but I respect him as an honorable and sincere man working for what he thinks to be best for agriculture," Poage said.

Butz, introduced by Nixon at a news conference, promised to seek help for hard-pressed farmers. Nixon predicted Butz would be a "vigorous advocate of the interests of farmers, just as Secretary Hardin was."

After serving in Benson's department, Butz returned to Purdue where he was dean of agriculture for 10 years. He has been Purdue's dean of continuing education since 1968.

Butz was known during his previous stint in federal service as an advocate of reduced government involvement in agriculture. An official who served with him during the Eisenhower years said Butz "never has been a strong proponent of big commodity programs."

Butz told reporters he felt "the price of corn is too low."

"I am delighted we will have the full support of the President and the White House staff in working on this problem," Butz said.

There have been demands for stronger action from the administration because of low grain prices this year.

Nixon also announced Thursday he had given up his plan to abolish the Agriculture Department as part of his government reorganization plan. He said he would submit a new plan which would provide for a scaled down version of the department concerning itself only with farm affairs.

A Good-Humored Castro Making Rounds In Chile

SANTIAGO (UPI) — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro flew today to northern Chile for talks with Chilean copper and salt mine workers whose support of President Salvadore Allende helped bring his Marxist government to power.

Castro flew aboard a Cuban airlines plane to Antofagasta today and planned to continue on later to Iquique in the extreme north of the country.

In a statement Thursday Castro said Cuba would not rejoin the Organization of American States (OAS) because "it doesn't interest" his government.

The Cuban premier, here on a wide ranging tour of Chile, said his country would not consider such a move—"neither by invitation nor by unanimous agreement of all the OAS members"—in spite of diplomatic overtures in that direction around the continent.

All OAS nations except Mexico broke off relations with Castro's regime in 1964, two years after it was suspended because of "incompatibility" between communism and the inter-American system.

Chile reestablished diplomatic relations with Cuba last November after the election of President Salvador Allende. Peru also has been quietly exploring Cuba's possible return to the hemispheric body.

The bearded revolutionary was in good humor Thursday as he wound up protocol chores that include two wreath-laying ceremonies, hosting a party for diplomats at the Cuban ambassador's residence and attending a reception in his honor at the presidential palace.

Berkeley's 'Sanctuary' Offer Is Called Academic

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—An assistant city manager says the city council's unprecedented resolution offering "sanctuary" to war resisters is "academic" because it provided no funds to house anyone seeking asylum.

Charles McCormack said any deserters from the Navy carrier Coral Sea, which leaves today for Vietnam, cannot "roll out sleeping bags" in city offices in spite of the council resolution.

The 63,000-ton carrier with a crew of 4,300 has been picketed by a small number of sailors the past few weeks. They said they represented a much larger proportion of the crew which opposes the war.

The council, by a vote of 6 to 1 Wednesday, adopted the asylum resolution offering city facilities and help for 10 Bay Area churches which earlier in the week opened their doors to war resisters.

"We want to dramatize our opposition to this war and our belief that the war has a direct adverse effect on all the cities of the country," said Councilman Edward E. Kallgren.

But McCormack said city facilities would not be available for now because the resolution carried no clause providing for the expenditure of space or money for anyone seeking asylum.

While not directly encouraging desertion, the sponsors of the church sanctuary program invited "anyone struggling with a decision of conscience" to move into the church.

Gilbert Wilkerson, 21, just transferred from the Coral Sea, said "It seems to me that to stay at this church would be a direct bust. The majority of people (who desert) will go underground—they will not come to this church."

The council resolution also banned city employes, including policemen, from helping in "any investigation, public or clandestine" of deserters or joining in their arrest.

But City Manager William Hanley said police are bound by their oath of office to uphold the laws and would be committing illegal acts if they refused to take part in arrests of AWOL sailors.

However, McCormack said city police rarely join federal authorities in the apprehension of deserters. "The federal government merely notifies the police department about arrests," he said.

In Sacramento, State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger said the federal government has plenty of "muscle" to require Berkeley police to serve federal court warrants if necessary.

Old Meters Back In Price Freeze

OLYMPIA, Wash. (UPI)—City officials have replaced a number of new nickel and dime parking meters with older models that take pennies — because of President Nixon's wage-price freeze.

City Supervisor Eldon Marshall was advised by the Internal Revenue Service that a complaint had been filed by an unnamed citizen, who noted the price of parking had jumped from 5 to 10 cents an hour on the new meters.

The old meters, put back in place Wednesday, give motorists the option of renting the space at the rate of 12 minutes for a penny.

WIFE WAS WORRIED

The Case Of The Empty Drum: A Belvedere Mixup

A Belvedere woman who worried about the safety of her house, her husband who didn't tell her what he was planning, a policeman who wanted to help, and a city councilman who owns a boat, all became unwitting figures in a two-act farce yesterday.

According to police, the curtain opened with the unidentified woman, who lives on West Shore Road, calling police to tell them a huge 750-gallon steel drum had washed up underneath her house, which is built on stilts over Richardson Bay.

She was worried the drum would be driven against the house's underpinnings by waves and wind, so officer Duffy L. Midyett and Councilman Allan Steinau, who owns a powerboat, went to the house and towed the drum away.

The second act unfolded a few hours later when the husband returned from work, disappeared below the house and then came back to ask his wife, "Where's my drum?"

Police said he had hired a boat to have the tank hauled from Sausalito that morning and had intended to use it in a construction project. Officers said they didn't know if the man managed to recover his drum.

Red China's Envoy To U.N. Brings Greetings

Pays Courtesy Call; Travel Is Restricted

UNITED NATIONS (UPI)— Peking's smiling chief envoy gave the United Nations the regards of 800 million mainland Chinese today in a short and snappy courtesy call, and his delegation got word their travel in America would be restricted in the same treatment given Soviet Russia.

Deputy Foreign Minister Chiao Kuan-hua, leader of the Communist Chinese delegation, paid the half-hour protocol visit to Adam Malik of Indonesia, president of the U.N. General Assembly. The full delegation takes over the U.N. China seat in its diplomatic debut Monday.

The United Nations announced that the State Department had decided —although Washington and Peking do not have diplomatic relations — "to extend travel restrictions to members of the mission of the People's Republic of China comparable to those applied to the Soviet mission."

It said a diplomatic note covering the restrictions had been delivered to the Chinese mission. The regulations require 48-hour notification of travel outside a 25-mile radius of New York City and, as is the case with the Soviet Union and some other countries, various areas in the country are closed to travel.

The note said the regulations apply to the delegates and to "others who may apply to enter this country in connection with United Nations affairs."

Chiao made a half-hour protocol call on Malik in the latter's 38th floor suite in the gleaming secretariat building overlooking the East River in midtown Manhattan.

He was accompanied to the meeting by Huang Hua, China's permanent representative to the U.N., and Hsiung Hsi-anghui, a representative in the delegation. Huang Hua stayed behind in the U.N. complex to talk to Constantin Stavrouplis, secretary-general for U.N. affairs.

Chiao returned to the delegation's quarters in the Roosevelt Hotel with Wang Hai-jung, who is believed to be the niece of Chairman Mao Tse-tung and who was one of six delegates accompanying him. She returned the waves of reporters and photographers.

They drove through heavy traffic. Their limousine took them through Hammarskjold Plaza, a few blocks from the U.N. main entrance, where about 75 Japanese Christians who regard Jerusalem as their spiritual home were singing Hebrew spirituals in a demonstration urging U.N. aid to Middle East security.

Both Chiao and Miss Wang were relaxed and smiling as photographers snapped them in the lobby.

A real estate agent visited the Chinese temporary mission on the Roosevelt's 14th floor and reported they expected to move into a permanent mission in about four weeks. The agent, Patrick Simone, said one of the several properties they were thinking about was the mansion of the late showman Billy Rose, up for $1.5 million sale.

It now is the Algerian delegation home. But Simone said he got the idea the Chinese wanted something less ornate: "I don't think their ideology agrees with an elaborate building."

The Chinese, who take their seat in the United Nations at expense of the ousted Nationalist regime of President Chiang Kai-shek, will make their debut in the U.N. General Assembly on Monday when Chiao and Huang may speak and listen to addresses of welcome from their admirers.

Guards at the U.N. building began checking all credentials long before the Chinese drove up from their $2,000 a day quarters on the 14th floor of the Roosevelt Hotel only a few blocks away. They had smiled and waved at the hotel as they entered their cars.

"I have to go," Chiao smiled to newsmen who tried to question him at the hotel. In the crush of newsmen and the momentary confusion Chiao's car bumped lightly into Huang's car but no damage was done.

Wang Hai-jung, a woman member of the Communist delegation and said to be a niece of Chinese Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung, was one of the six members of the delegation who went to U.N. headquarters.

At the door to the 39-story secretariat building, a towering slab of glass and white marble, U.N. security guards began routing all other arrivals to a side entrance to the left of the one used by the Chinese.

Chiao and Huan arrived first, at 9:59 a.m. EST, and stepped out of the car still smiling. They posed for television cameramen outside the main building and were taken immediately to the 38th floor.

Both were wearing the peasant's peaked caps and gray-blue costume made famous by Mao Tse-tung. Chiao wore a red muffler and a double breasted overcoat.

Price Coup To Corner Grocer

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The corner grocer can do something Sunday that General Motors, General Foods and other corporate giants cannot —raise his prices.

And within that anomaly lies a central fact in the administration's post-freeze economic planning: The big companies not only have more economic impact, they may be the only ones on which any practical control can be exerted.

The corner store vs. giant corporation situation arises from the latest decisions putting together the machinery which will attempt to control the economy when the wage-price-rent freeze ends at midnight Saturday.

The Price Commission Thursday announced that firms doing more than $100 million in sales every year will have to notify the government 30 days in advance if they want to raise prices, and then put them into effect only if the price panel does not object.

Firms with less than $100 million in annual sales —all the way from sizeable manufacturers to local merchants —can hike their prices as of Sunday, provided they post a list of prices that prevailed during the freeze. Those with sales between $50 million and $100 million, as previously announced, will have to submit price change reports every three months but the others will be subject only to random spot checks.

The only price increase guideline the government laid down Thursday was a general one: It wants to hold average price increases across the economy to a rate of no more than 2.5 per cent per year. How this will show up in the price of shoe polish or furniture remains to be seen, since the whole economy is lumped together in the standard.

And it said that cost increases —not hopes for increased profits —must be the motive for price-hikes. The profit limit beyond which sellers will not be allowed to go will be based on the two best profit years during the three year period immediately preceeding the start of the freeze Aug. 15.

But more significant perhaps than the price standard or the cost-proof justifications for price rises is the fact that the biggest firms are the prime target of the new controls. The $100 million plus sales companies include the 1,300 biggest firms which together have about 45 per cent of the American sales market.

Because their price increase requests must be submitted 30 days in advance it appeared likely that they would undergo more scrutiny than smaller businesses. The 2.5 per cent standard will be applied with more exactness in the sense that it will have a larger immediate impact than if it were applied individually to scores of smaller businesses.

By singling out the biggest firms for the closest monitoring, the government was both recognizing the multiplier effect that changes in these industries have down through the economy and realizing that close control of a few big firms was more practical than attempting a company-by-company examination all up and down the line.

This is true also on the wage end where only firms with the largest blocks of employes — 5,000 or more —will have to get advance government approval for wage increases.

Another significant development out of Thursday's decisions was that rents on houses and apartments —except for new units —will remain frozen until a new rent board can determine guidelines for rent hikes.

$200,000 Share In 2 Trials?

Legislation to reimburse Marin for expenses related to the Angela Davis and Ruchell Magee cases will relieve the county of any additional expense occasioned by changes of venue, but will leave Marin heavily obligated for security precautions at the Civic Center.

According to Michael Mitchell, county auditor-controller, pending legislation in the Senate could make the county elibible for a $206,000 reimbursement from the state.

That, he said, would be the state's share of overall Civic Center security expenses and Davis-Magee trial costs through September, totaling about $850,000. Only $206,000 can be directly attributed to the trials, he said.

NOT LIABLE

Under the bill, Mitchell said, Marin County would not be liable for additional expenses once the Davis case is moved out of the county. Marin County is responsible for the $600,000 in security costs not directly connected to the case, and any other county getting the case would be responsible for its own security costs.

(Last week, the Davis case was ordered to Santa Clara County. Defense attorneys, however, are fighting the change of venue to San Jose, instead urging the case be moved to San Francisco.)

Mitchell said that while county taxpayers may get some relief, security costs will remain high at Civic Center.

"REAL RELIEF"

"Based on the passage of AB-644 and a change of venue, I can project real relief for the taxpayers of Marin County — particularly for the future," he said. "However, in the present climate, with San Quentin being here, your board of supervisors will be faced with continued financial problems."

Mitchell said a study is now under way by the sheriff's office, the district attorney's office and his own to determine if a reduction in the Civic Center security force is feasible as a result of the expected move of the Davis trial.

"It's not likely there will be any extreme cuts," he added.

He said he was releasing the figures because some have misinterpreted the Bagley bill as proposing total reimbursement of security costs.

Ford, Chrysler Will Seek Price Increases

DETROIT (UPI) —Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. say they will seek government approval to raise car and truck prices during Phase II of President Nixon's program. General Motors and American Motors are expected to follow suit.

Ford announced its intention Thursday to ask for an increase on 1972 models, and a Chrysler spokesman said today it, too, will ask for permission.

"We will file such a request when we find out in what form the request should be submitted," a Chrysler spokesman said.

Neither Chrysler nor Ford would say how much of an increase they wanted. Both said they wanted more information from the government.

"As soon as we have enough information to proceed, we will be seeking approval for appropriate increases," Ford Board Chairman Henry Ford II said shortly after the newly established Price Commission issued new guidelines on price increases Thursday.

GM and AMC also are known to be anxious to increase prices but spokesmen would only say that federal directives were being studied.

GM, the largest of the Big Four automakers, is the traditional price-setter and the others normally adjust their prices to compete with GM models.

Ford and Chrysler cited increasing costs of materials and declining profits as the justification for price boosts. GM and AMC officials also have complained about rising costs in the past.

Ford said the higher costs had been built-in to the production

10 Killed In Crash Of Jet

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)— A C130 cargo plane loaded with 20 tons of jet fuel crashed on takeoff at Little Rock Air Force Base today and burst into flames, killing 10 of the 11 crew members and student airmen aboard.

"Ten were killed and there is one in the hospital," a base spokesman said. The survivor was in critical condition.

The C-130, carrying a full fuel load of 40,000 pounds, lifted off the runway, then suddenly nosed back down and crashed on the concrete.

Jumper Still Critical —Is 6th To Survive

I-J Special Report

Henry Harrington of Pacifica, whose wife said he was depressed over his job, became the sixth person known to have survived a jump from the span.

Harrington was pulled from a 90-foot-deep moat around the south tower of the bridge yesterday. He was still conscious after the leap, and managed to stay afloat by holding onto debris in the water until help arrived.

"He gave me his age, his home address and telephone number," said Officer Steve Ellis of the California Highway Patrol. "Not only that, he told me where his car was parked and its license number. He said he had left a note for his wife."

Harrington was taken aboard a Coast Guard cutter with the help of bridge workers, and later transferred to Mission Emergency Hospital, where he underwent four hours of surgery to remove a ruptured spleen. Harrington, who also suffered chest and liver damage, remains hospitalized.

Harrington's wife, Freda, said her husband worked for IRS in San Francisco and was being transferred to Fresno.

She said he had been depressed over his work, which included the closing of businesses, but believed the transfer would solve his problems. She said the family, including an 11-year-old daughter and 4-year-old son, was packed and ready to move from its Peninsula apartment.

Highway patrolman Ellis said he didn't ask Harrington why he had made the leap. "I didn't want to tax him any more. He was just great."

Eight persons actually have survived jumps from the Golden Gate, although two subsequently died of their injuries.

The highway patrol said Harrington parked his car in a lot near the Roundhouse restaurant at the toll plaza shortly after 10:30 a.m. then walked out to the south tower.

A bridge television camera monitoring traffic caught Harrington as he climbed the guard rail of the east sidewalk and slipped over the side into the mist.

"A pedestrian shouted at him, but the next thing he saw he was gone," said James Schulze, a highway patrol officer.

Mariner 9 Zeroes In On Mars Icecap

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — With Mars looming larger and larger ahead, Mariner 9 aimed its cameras at the planet's south polar cap of dry ice today to observe the one area on the Martian surface not clouded by a great dust storm.

The bright polar cap was the only Mars feature clearly visible in most of 30 pictures radioed back to earth Thursday night. The spacecraft was taking a second 24-hour sequence today as it zeroed in on Mars' southern hemisphere.

Mariner 9, working flawlessly on the last leg of its 248-million mile journey from Cape Kennedy, is scheduled to fire a small rocket motor at 7:17 p.m. PST Saturday for 15 minutes to become the first spacecraft to orbit another planet.

Mars will be 160,000 miles away at 10 p.m. EST when today's picture taking will end. A third and final session of approach photography is set for Saturday morning.

In addition to showing Mars as it appeared from between 535,000 and 355,000 miles out Thursday, Mariner's cameras photographed one of Mars' mini-moons, Deimos, for the first time from a spacecraft.

Deimos is only five miles in diameter and appeared as a

Nixon Will Brief Nation On Indochina

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon soon will explain his plans on Indochina to the nation. He must consider the overwhelming sentiment of Congress for an early and total withdrawal of U.S. forces.

The White House has not said when Nixon will make his announcement on his troop withdrawal policy for the period following Dec. 15 in Vietnam, but it could come within the next few days.

Coming to the end of another year of struggle with the President over the war, Congress sent Nixon a $21 billion military procurement bill Thursday night declaring it "the policy of the United States" to completely withdraw subject to only one condition: the release of American prisoners of war by North Vietnam and the Viet Cong.

The bill, while serving notice to the President that congressional support for the war and its costs in lives is ending, still leaves the President with a free hand on the timing and conditions of the American exit.

But many members consider the statement the last warning shot Congress will fire before members use their ultimate authority to end the war by cutting off funds.

Neither House has been willing to use the appropriations power to end the war. That reluctance emerged again in the Senate Thursday in a series of close, roll-call votes on the foreign aid bill.

That bill contains what many war critics believe to be the seeds of future American involvement in Indochina —an involvement that would continue the war indefinitely not with American manpower, but with American money and air power in support of U.S. directed armies in Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam. Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., and other opponents of Nixon's policies were unable to convince a majority

SAIGON (UPI) — American jets struck inside North Vietnam today for the fifth time in a week in an attack against a Communist missile radar site. American helicopters killed eight South Vietnamese troops and wounded 21 others in an accidental attack on South Vietnam's central coast.

In Saigon, progovernment newspapers reported today that President Nguyen Van Thieu will devalue the piaster by 35 per cent Monday in announcing severe belt-tightening measures to bolster the nation's sagging economy.

The U.S. command announced the new air strike north of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) as it reported a Viet Cong ambush on a U.S. truck convoy today killing one American and wounding two others. The envoy was attacked between Phan Rang Air Base and the resort of Da Lat 145 miles northeast of Saigon.

The latest of what the U.S. command calls "protective reaction" strikes involved a U.S. F105 Wild Weasel fighter-bomber flying protective cover for B52s bombing near Mu Gis Pass on the Laotian border. The F105s electronic equipment recorded a "lock-on" indicating the North Vietnamese radar had taken a sight on the U.S. bombers and a missile was going to be fired.

The U.S. command had no word on whether the rocket which hit the radar site was destroyed. It was located northwest of Dong Hoi and 29 miles inside North Vietnam.

In neighboring Cambodia, North Vietnamese artillerymen fired more than 60 rockets into a Cambodian radio transmitting station near Phnom Penh today. One Cambodian soldier was killed and 11 other injured.

Mitchell Named In Dellums Rights Suit

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Rep. Ronald V. Dellums, D-Calif., filed suit in U.S. District Court charging Attorney General John N. Mitchell and the District of Columbia government with conspiring to violate his constitutional rights during a May 5 antiwar demonstration on the House steps.

Dellums said he was trying to talk with his constituents and the arrests violated his constitutional rights as a member of Congress. Nine other plaintiffs, who were among 1,500 arrested at the rally, joined Dellums in the suit which demands that the records of those arrested be cleared.

Bill Would Allow Kennedy Indecision

BOSTON (UPI)) —A bill enacted by the Massachusetts Legislature Wednesday would let Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., postpone a decision on whether to seek the Democratic presidential nomination until next summer's convention.

The legislation, passed Wednesday before adjournment, would eliminate the present requirement that all delegates to a national nominating convention be bound to the candidate winning the most votes in the Massachusetts primary.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Housing Plea

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., urged the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) today to insist on low-to-moderate income housing near suburban businesses and industries or face the possibility the government will "step in and make these decisions for you."

Ribicoff said blacks were largely being kept out of the suburbs, where industrial development has shifted from the cities, due to inadequate public transportation facilities and prohibitive local zoning.

"Although the number of blacks in the suburbs has increased substantially over the last decade, they remain a small minority" in the suburbs, he said.

In 1969 nearly 96 per cent of the suburban population was white, he said.

Fishing Fine

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — The largest illegal fishing fine in Alaska history was levied against a Japanese skipper and his boat's owners after previous penalties showed "the practice has been worth the risk."

The two were fined $115,000 Thursday for illegally fishing within the 12-mile U.S. limit off Baranof Island near Sitka, Alaska.

U.S. Attorney G. Kent Edwards said a $30,000 fine against skipper Maszao Kitada was imposed by U.S. District Judge Raymond E. Plummer for a criminal charge. The Japan Whaling Co., Ltd., was fined $85,000 on a related civil charge.

No. 1 Problem

ANAHEIM, Calif. (UPI) — Hypertension — abnormally high blood pressure — is the No. 1 health problem of blacks in America, a panel of medical experts told the American Heart Association's 44th annual scientific session Thursday.

Dr. John B. Johnson, professor of medicine at Howard University in Washington, D.C., said that hypertension was "enormously higher" in all age groups of blacks than whites.

Citing statistics, Johnson said hypertension was 17 times more common among black females aged 25-44 than white females in the same age bracket while it was 15.5 times greater among black men in the same age category than white men.

Flu Epidemic Sweeps Europe

GENEVA (UPI)—The World Health Organization (WHO) said today a large-scale influenza epidemic if sweeping through Eastern Europe and heading west.

"Clinically, however, it is not severe and no deaths have been reported," WHO spokesmen said.

Clark Gable's First Wife Dies

GLENDALE (UPI) — Josephine Dillon, who coached Clark Gable in acting when he was an unknown and then became the first of his five wives, is dead at the age of 87.

Miss Dillon

Miss Dillon died in a sanitarium following a long illness. Funeral services will be held tomorrow in Pasadena.

She married Gable when he was 20 and she was 36. They were divorced after 10 years, in 1930, but she was never bitter about the parting.

"It is a difficult thing for a poor boy to have the world's riches thrust upon him and still be able to keep his balance and ideals," she said several years ago. "Clark was strong that way."

They met in a little theater in the Midwest when Gable was an obscure young actor.

Formal Sentence

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Charles (Tex) Watson, convicted leader of the bloody forays resulting in the Tate-Labianca slayings, was formally sentenced to death yesterday.

Watson is the fifth member of the Manson cult to face the gas chamber for the Tate killings. The others already convicted and sentenced to die are Manson, Leslie van Houten, Susan Atkins, and Patricia Krenwinkel.

Trim Welfare

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The states trimmed their welfare rolls by 84,000 persons in July for the third straight monthly cutback, the Health, Education and Welfare Department (HEW) said today.

Hardest hit were welfare families headed by women, and old folks.

The spokesman said the needy family cutback was sharpest in New Jersey, which dropped 108,000 women and children. California dropped 8,600 persons.

Border Clash

NEW DELHI (UPI) — The government-run All-India Radio said today Pakistani gunners shelled two areas of West Dinajpur district in India's West Bengal state over the past two days with heavy artillery.

Indian border forces returned the fire, the radio said. The number of casualties was not immediately known.

The report coincided with reports over Radio Pakistan of clashes along the border in Dinajpur, located on the opposite side of East Pakistan, about 250 miles northwest of Belonia where internal fighting was believed going on between Pakistani forces and rebel troops.

For the second time in two days, Pakistani planes reportedly strafed rebel guerrillas in territory facing Belonia, inflicting an undetermined number of casualties, communiques reaching here today said.

Full Blame

TOKYO (UPI) — Wataru Hiraizumi, director of an antilandslide experiment which ended in disaster that buried 15 persons alive, today took full responsibility and handed in his resignation to Prime Minister Eisaki Sato.

Kanagawa police said 15 persons were killed. They were among the 25 persons who had gathered at the scene of the experiment when a hillside collapsed outside the city of Kawasaki. Ten persons were injured.

Eastland Hits Rehnquist Foes

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said today that two witnesses opposed to the Supreme Court nomination of William H. Rehnquist were guilty of character assassination.

Eastland, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, leveled the charge at Joseph Rauh, spokesman for the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, and Clarence Mitchell, representative of the NAACP.

The two quoted rumors of possible connections between Rehnquist and the John Birch Society at Rehnquist's confirmation hearing earlier this week.

"When presented with the personal affidavit of Rehnquist, categorically denying that he was ever a member of the John Birch Society, Rauh and Mitchell insinuated that Rehnquist should not be believed and that his unequivocal denial could suggest that he had some connection with the group," Eastland said in a lengthy rebuttal of several statements the two made in opposing Rehnquist.

"It seems clear that the testimony of Rauh and Mitchell concerning Rehnquist's association with the John Birch Society was purely hypothetical and not intended to enlighten the committee, but instead was an exercise of the crassest type of character assassination," Eastland said.

The senator also said Rauh and Mitchell made unsubstantiated charges that Rehnquist improperly interferred with voting in black precincts in Phoenix, Ariz., and that he used abusive language to Negroes who were demonstrating for a civil rights bill then pending in the Arizona Legislature.

Eastland said Rauh and Mitchell misrepresented Rehnquist's position on government surveillance of citizens, qualified martial law during antiwar demonstrations, freedom of speech rights of federal employes, and school desegregation.

"I believe that statements made by the witnesses were highly misleading and unfairly prejudicial to Rehnquist," Eastland said.

"As of now I don't think anybody has laid a glove on either nominee," Scott said.

The nominations themselves still were in the Judiciary Committee.

Mideast Settlement Door Is Open: Sadat

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Egyptian President Anwar Sadat has been in touch with President Nixon and has left the door open for further U.S. initiatives in the Middle East, political sources said today in Cairo.

Sadat, in a speech Thursday night, threatened to halt all diplomatic contacts for a Mideast settlement unless Israel pledged to withdraw completely from occupied Arab land.

Diplomatic sources in Cairo said Sadat was still willing to talk peace, however. And in Jerusalem the Israeli press called the speech a part of Egypt's plan for a major diplomatic offensive against Israel.

UPI correspondent Maurice Guindi reported from Cairo that Sadat held two meetings in October with Donald Bmergus, the chief U.S. diplomatic representative in Cairo, and received at least one communication from Nixon.

The diplomatic sources did not disclose the content of the message but said Sadat made it clear he remained willing to continue a Middle East dialogue with Washington.

In this connection, they said Minister of State Murad Ghaleb would be available for contact with the Americans when he goes to New York late in November to lead his delegation to the United Nations.

New Recruiter For Air Force

T/Sgt. Raymond R. Sidhu of Novato has taken over the duties of the Marin County Air Force recruiter in the San Rafael Mission Post Office at 901 D Street.

He and his wife, Irene, and their three children, Michael, Shelley and Racquel, reside at 13 Nave Court.

Red-Meat Production Won't Rise In 1972

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Despite bumper supplies of feed grains and low grain prices, total production of red meat is not likely to rise in 1972, an Agriculture Department report said today.

The report said producers can expect "steady to strong" prices for beef cattle from now into winter. It predicted hog prices through December would run well above last year's low levels, with further increases in the first half of 1972 because of reduced supplies.

'Negotiated' Creek Plans Draw Nod

The Ross Town council last night approved landscaping plans for the completed portion of the Corte Madera Creek Project, but not without some negotiation with a disgruntled citizen.

The landscaping, including trees, shrubs and vines, is to be done on the newly cemented portion of the creek as far as the city's post office on Ross Commons. The Environmental Planning Department of the Army Corps of Engineers is directing the landscaping, scheduled to begin this fall.

Plans include the planting of several poplar trees which shed their leaves in the fall. One resident asked if it was "absolutely necessary to have these poplar trees" or if the citizens would have a say. One of the planners suggested that if every citizen had his choice "you would lose continuity" in the landscaping.

Feeling her question had been skirted the resident said she would "chop down a poplar tree" if it were near her yard.

Developers then assured the council that their plan was flexible enough to allow some rearrangement of trees if citizens strongly objected.

The Ross Town Council also:

INFORMAL SUBDIVISION — Tabled for the time being at the request of the applicant, A. Boyajian, a proposal to divide a 5.4-acre parcel of land on Winding Way into three parcels to be sold separately.

VARIANCE — Denied request by Roy Claxton of 1 Shady Lane that he be allowed to build his home at a 32-foot height rather than 30 feet, the maximum set by the city. Council agreed that Claxton's one acre of land was sufficient to allow redesign of the building and that his was not a hardship case.

STOP SIGN — Approved a stop sign at corner of Skyland Way and Laurel Grove Avenue.

DETOUR — Approved the construction of a two-lane temporary street next to the old Lagunitas Road Bridge, to be used as a detour during the construction of the new bridge.

BART Cleared In Test Crash

OAKLAND (UPI) —The Bay Area Rapid Transit District's computerized safety system has been absolved of blame for the Nov. 2 collision of a BART test train with a parked train in Oakland's Coliseum Station.

A board of inquiry reported Thursday that it was "human error" on the part of the test train's operator, Donald Aguilar, which led to the accident.

BART directors, however, ordered further inquiry into the case to dispel fears about the reliability of the safety system.

Both trains suffered serious damage and Aguilar, 42, was seriously hurt.

Artists Displaying At Redwood Bank

The paintings of Marin artists Ruth L. Schwartz and Selma G. Maas are on display through the rest of this month at Redwood Bank in San Rafael.

Mrs. Schwartz has had several one-man shows and won a prize for an oil at the Novato Oldtown Festival this year. Mrs. Maas, a former Arkansas resident, won several prizes at the Arkansas Art Festival, and exhibited recently at the Marin County Fair.

Bridge Unit Sets Midday Bus Runs

Golden Gate Bridge District directors today unanimously set Dec. 13 for start of intra-county bus service for midday Marin County riders.

The service will replace that now provided by the private Marin Transit Systems Inc. under a subsidized contract with the bridge district that expires Dec. 10. The bridge district will provide 20 buses to shuttle through Marin County from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., the slack hours between commute rushes. The district also will continue the present schedule to the Tiburon ferry.

The bridge district board today also unanimously voted to begin proceedings to acquire all Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way in Marin County. The railroad has received state and federal permission to abandon the line from San Rafael south on Nov. 24. Assembly bill 919 sent to the governor's desk today gives the bridge district the right to condemn the railroad property if necessary.

The bridge directors also instructed district staff to prepare applications for a federal grant of unspecified amount to buy the property.

Bridge director Michael Wornum explained that some rail line property will revert to proper owners when abandoned. This may require extensive negotiation and would make acquisition cost uncertain

Angela Prosecutor Discusses Racism

By MARY LEYDECKER

The prosecutor in the Angela Davis case today contended there have been more incidents contributing to racial polarization in San Francisco than in Santa Clara.

Prosecutor Albert W. Harris Jr. made the claim during a hearing in which Miss Davis's attorneys are seeking to have her trial switched from Santa Clara, where it was ordered sent last week. They have claimed she can get a fair trial only in San Francisco.

Also during today's court session, a leader in the black community in San Jose, Aaron Harris, told Judge Richard E. Arnason that the killing of a young black man by a San Jose police officer in September has polarized the city.

"The climate of the community has changed considerably since this incident," Aaron Harris said.

He claimed the death of John Henry Smith for which a white police officer has been indicted on a manslaughter charge, would prevent Miss Davis from getting a fair trial in Santa Clara County.

Prosecutor Harris then drew the court's attention to the recent slaying of a young black man by a white policeman at Hunter's point in San Francisco, a slaying declared justifiable homicide.

Harris also mentioned problems over school integration in San Francisco and incidents at San Francisco State College.

Miss Davis is awaiting trial on charges of murder, conspiracy and kidnapping stemming from the shoot-out at the Marin Civic Center in August 1970. Her pretrial hearings are being held in Marin Superior Court.

Yesterday a black fund raiser from Stanford University said he runs into a "cool reception" when asking for money for black students in Santa Clara County.

Henry Organ said the attitude seems to be "as long as niggers are raising hell on college campuses," people won't give money.

Organ, who said he himself has run into racial discrimination when looking for housing in Santa Clara County, answered "indeed not," to the question of whether Miss Davis could get a fair trial in that county.

He said he based his opinion on letters to the editor appearing in newspapers there, as well as on housing discrimination.

Yesterday's court session was marked by a ruling by Judge Arnason that Miss Davis's attorney receive the same treatment from now on as do members of the attorney general's staff in regard to personal searches.

His order came after Howard Moore Jr., Miss Davis's chief counsel, complained that he had to go through two public searches and that he had never seen the attorney general's staff searched.

The judge ordered that the defense attorneys be searched in a private corridor, the same as the prosecution.

"It's no secret that we must have price increases to meet the very substantial new labor, manufacturing and produce improvement costs that already have been baked into our long-term cost structure," he said.

"But it is not immediately clear to us how much of these costs we will be permitted to recover."

Prior to the wage-price freeze that ends at midnight Saturday, all the major auto makers had announced tentative price increases of 4 to 5 per cent on 1972 models but were forced to roll back to 1971 level prices for the 90-day period.

The price commission decree Thursday placed a national ceiling of 2.5 per cent a year on price increases but said individual increases could be higher or lower.

The commission also has ruled that firms doing $100 million or more in annual sales will have to submit price increases to the commission for review.

All the auto companies gross far in excess of that amount and would be covered by this provision. Until they submit formal requests for price increases, cars will remain frozen at 1971 prices.

Sewer-Testing Alert Issued

The Richardson Bay Sanitary District is alerting homeowners in the Ricardo Road-Richardson Drive-Reed Boulevard area that it will begin conducting smoke tests of sewer lines on Tuesday.

The testing will be done in all areas of the district during the next several months and letters will be sent to each property owner as crews move into his area.

The tests consist of forcing smoke into sewer lines to detect possible leaks. Breaks on district mains will be repaired by the district and leaks on private laterals must be fixed by property owners.

Such leaks are said to be the prime cause of storm water infiltration of sewer lines, which causes the Richardson Bay plant and others in Marin to bypass untreated sewage directly into the bay during winter months.

MARINER

The immense dust storm that started on Mars in September masked all but a few hints of the features on the Martian surface that normally would be seen from that distance.

"The fact that the features of Mars are obscured by the dust cloud is, of course, a disappointment if you want to view the early features, but it also has its scientific interest," said Dr. Albert R. Hibbs, staff scientist at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory Control Center here.

"The dust cloud is itself a curiosity of Mars and it would be a very good idea if we can get close to it while it's still there," Hibbs said.

It is summer in the planet's southern hemisphere and the carbon dioxide snow making up the polar cap is evaporating. The effects of this seasonal change could be seen in the pictures.

Scientists said the dust storm apparently is the result of strong winds swirling over desert-like regions on Mars. Dust particles are being blown up several miles high where they remain until settling back to the surface.

Double Blow To Collision Victim

A Tiburon man was injured last night when his auto struck a parked heavy-construction trailer on Lovell Avenue in San Rafael.

Treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut forehead was Charles D. Tunnard, 50, of 44 Hilarita Drive. Tunnard was then arrested for drunken driving and booked into Marin County Jail by police.

Youth Back In Trouble Once Again

An 18-year-old youth, bailed out of jail less than 24 hours before, was arrested last night on suspicion of burglary.

Back in Marin County Jail today was Dennis K. Smith of 1034 Las Pavadas Avenue, San Rafael, whose previous booking was on suspicion of attempted rape and subsequently resisting arrest.

The new booking involved the alleged theft of a circular skill saw from the garage of Elizabeth E. Graff of 7 Gall Way in San Rafael at 11:14 p.m. yesterday.

Police, acting on a tip, arrested Smith within a few minutes after stopping a car occupied by him and four companions. The four, all minors, were not arrested.

Smith was booked into jail at 1:42 a.m. today and held to appear in municipal court this afternoon.

Yesterday he had pleaded innocent to an attempted rape and resisting arrest alleged to have happened on Tuesday. The attempted rape charge was dropped and Smith was to appear for a pretrial conference on Nov. 24 in Marin Municipal Court on misdemeanor charges of assault and battery and resisting arrest in Marin Municipal Court.

Arraignment In Drugs Count

Jeffery George Kingry, 27, of Arcadia, Los Angeles County, has been arraigned in Marin Municipal Court on charges of possessing marijuana, cocaine, barbiturates and amphetamine.

He was to plead to the charges, as well as to a misdemeanor count of driving under the combined influence of alcohol and drugs today.

Kingry was arrested Nov. 3 on a warrant stemming from his arrest Aug. 23, 1970, on the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge and his failure to appear on the charges in Municipal Court in October 1970.

OBITUARIES

Arthur E. Lewis Succumbs At 90

Funeral for Arthur E. (Dick) Lewis, a major developer of the Sausalito waterfront, will be Monday at Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo. Burial will follow at Woodlawn Memorial Park in Colma.

Lewis, a partner in Madden and Lewis Co. which built the Sausalito Yacht Harbor beginning in 1940, died in a Vallejo hospital Wednesday after a long illness. He was 90.

Lewis moved to Vallejo in 1966 when illness forced him to retire, ending a boat building and sailing career of more than 70 years.

At 14, he went to work as an apprentice boatbuilder in San Francisco. However, he didn't call it work. "It is an interesting game. It becomes a hobby. Going to work is not 'going to work' for me," he told the Independent-Journal in a 1960 interview.

Lewis left boatbuilding for a time at 20 and shipped out for the Far East. "A boat is a good deal like a human being. It has got to be built to take the sea," he said. "I figured that by going to sea I would get a pretty good insight into the boatbuilding game."

He spent a year aboard ship, then went to Guatemala to take charge of cargo operations for a steamship company.

He returned to the Bay Area in 1906 and worked as an assistant engineer at Stanford University in Palo Alto before setting in Sausalito in 1920. He lived at 25 Glen Court.

He went into partnership with Herbert Madden Sr. and Katherine Bassford, Madden's sister, in 1921.

The boat works built vessels until the end of World War II, then restricted itself to repairs.

Lewis was the first commodore of the Sausalito Yacht Club and a member of the Sausalito Cruising Club. He was also a member of the Corinthian Yacht Club and past president of the San Rafael Yacht Club.

He founded the Sausalito Sea Scouts and was a member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, Flotilla 14.

LOUISE J. SALA

Louise J. Sala, 92, a native Californian and a longtime Marin resident, died yesterday in a Walnut Creek convalescent hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Sala, who lived at 23 Ancho Vista Avenue, San Anselmo, had been confined to a convalescent home for about three weeks.

She was born in San Francisco and lived for 51 years in Marin, most of that time at 1348 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo.

Survivors are a daughter, Irene Jackson of Lafayette; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, with entombment at Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Recitation of the Rosary will be at 8 p.m. today at the mortuary.

R. R. SEBASTIAN

Sebastian was born and reared in Elvins, Mo., and moved to Petaluma in 1947 after serving in the occupation force in Japan in World War II. He operated Marin Tree Service for 12 years.

Sebastian later worked for Barlas Feed Co. and had been a millwright for Santa Rosa Feed Corp. in Petaluma for three years.

He is survived by his wife, Bertha; two daughters, Carolyn Baker and Barbara Barano of Santa Rosa; a son, William Sebastian of Petaluma; his parents, Thomas and Elsie Newland of Petaluma; and a brother, Lee Sebastian of Petaluma.

Funeral will be held Monday at 11 a.m. at Parent Funeral Chapel, Petaluma, followed by burial at Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

J. H. BARRY II

Memorial service for James H. Barry II of Atherton, brother of William H. Barry of Kentfield, will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Church of the Nativity in Menlo Park.

Barry, 57, president of the James H. Barry printing company in San Francisco, died Nov. 4 in a Santa Clara County hospital following a short illness.

Barry was a native San Franciscan.

Survivors, besides his brother are his wife, Barbara; three daughters, Nancy Atkinson and Kathleen Andres, both of Sunnyvale, and Cynthia Barry of Atherton, and five grandchildren.

The family prefers donations to the Northern California Diabetes Association, 255 Hugo Street, San Francisco.

that this involvement should be stopped along with the involvement of American ground combat troops.

By a vote of 46 to 42, the Senate added another $318 million for military assistance, swelling the military aid bill to $1.5 million. This was $480 million less than the administration wanted, but it will enable it to continue its growing program of assistance to the Cambodian army without major change, Fulbright said.

The most the Senate would accept was a $341 million ceiling on aid to Cambodia — which was what the administration was planning to spend anyway. An effort by Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., to cut the ceiling to $263.5 million failed 46 to 43.

PG&E Outlines Developments

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Pacific Gas & Electric Co. today reported an electric operations research and development program totaling $29.534 million in 1971-72, including $1 million commitment toward a jointly-supported industry research on a fast breeder nuclear reactor.

The nuclear research commitment would be part of a $10 million industry-wide research program.

In addition to the proposed budget for research and development, the company said it expected to spend an estimated $24.4 million in 1971 for esthetic improvements, including improvements on stations, overhead power lines and research for undergrounding power lines.

Weather Will Clear In Marin

The end of the first major rain storm of the winer came today with the Weather Bureau forecasting clear skies.

The storm which began before dawn yesterday dumped 1.81 inches on San Rafael prior to noon today. Petaluma reported 1.21 inches of rain from the start of the deluge to 8 a.m. today.

Of the San Rafael total .81 inches fell in the 24 hours prior to noon. Rainfall in other Marin areas prior to 8 a.m. today were .78 inches in Tamalpais Valley, .65 inches in Mill Valley, .53 inches in Novato and .52 inches in Sausalito.

Bridge Path Plan Approved

Plans for a curving path and street lights leading to Novato Creek Bridge behind the Novato branch library were approved last night by the Novato Creek Committee.

Le Roy A. Gerner, manager of the Novato Creek project, had planned an aggregate path weaving between trees parallel to the creek. Richard Schadt, landscape architect for the library, had plans for a similar path from the library to the bridge, according to secretary Shaula Webster.

Both plans were altered slightly to accommodate the two paths and match path lights to those in the library.

A WHALE OF A SHIP NOW

No, it is not a whale, but a new covering designed for inactive ships. Getting the new treatment is the USS Betelgeuse at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard. The cover is plastic. It is air inflated and reduces the amount of work that is normally necessary to preserve all the equipment installed above the main deck. (UPI Telephoto)

Assembly To Support Remap Plan

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — The Assembly reapportionment chairman today said the Assembly will not change a Senate plan which lumps deserts and beaches, farms and suburbia into odd-shaped districts for the benefit of incumbent legislators.

Chairman Henry A. Waxman, D-Los Angeles also predicted the Assembly will vote next week on its own plan regardless of whether feuding Republicans and Democrats reach a compromise.

Republican senators Peter H. Behr of San Rafael, and Milton Marks of San Francisco voted for the Senate reapportionment which puts them into the same district: all of Marin, a western portion of San Francisco and part of San Mateo County. Only one of them ultimately can survive, either as the result of an election or the withdrawal of one from the fight.

(A United Press International story in yesterday's Independent-Journal erred in saying "most of" Marin is in the new 10th district. The county remains intact within the district.)

A Bird Sanctuary

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—The Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel, which spans the mouth of the bay near the Atlantic Ocean, is a favorite route for bird watchers. Last fall, spotters counted two peregrines, 30 pigeon hawks, 487 sparrow hawks and 540 kingbirds in the kiptopeke area near the bridge-tunnel's northern end.

School Elimination Study Put In Motion

The Larkspur School District board last night named a committee of 25 to study sending all seventh and eighth-graders to one school.

Supt. Milton S. Cohen said the committee was named to study the feasibility of eliminating one junior high school because enrollment in the district has declined.

The Larkspur School District Board Also:

GOALS — Approved in principle a long list of educational goals that have been sent to parents for comments.

FEDERAL FUNDS — Learned that a $12,338 federal grant under the National Defense Educational Act has been approved for purchasing audiovisual and reading materials.

NEW TEACHER — Hired Elizabeth Massey at $10,000 a year to teach slow learners in an after-school program. Her salary will be paid by a federal grant, Cohen said.

ADJOURNED — Adjourned to Dec. 16 at 8 p.m.

Two Injured In Fairfax Collision

A motorcycle and an auto collided in Fairfax Tuesday afternoon, injuring two persons on the motorcycle.

Police said an auto driven by Willa Lea Douglas, 33, of 45 Arroyo Road, Fairfax, pulled from a stop sign on Oak Manor Drive into Sir Francis Drake Boulevard where the auto was hit by the motorcycle, operated by Arthur Bokan, 24, of Berkeley.

Bokan and his passenger, Michael Burke, 20, also of Berkeley, were tossed from the motorcycle. They were treated for scrapes and bruises at Marin General Hospital.

The mishap occurred at 2:05 p.m.

POWs Can Have Yule Presents

TOKYO (UPI)—North Vietnam announced today that captured U.S. pilots will be allowed to receive Christmas gifts and Christmas cards this holiday season.

In a broadcast from Hanoi, the Vietnam News Agency (VNA) said North Vietnam will permit American pilots to receive Christmas packages weighing up to 11 pounds, about 50 per cent more than the usual monthly weight limitation.

Packages are to be mailed via Moscow. Christmas cards can be sent direct to Hanoi or in care of the New York-based Committee of Liaison with Families of Servicemen Detained in Vietnam.

TODAY:

1:00 a.m., Fairfax — Heater fire at 54 Bosque Avenue; responded to by Marin County fire department; no damage reported.

5:30 a.m., San Rafael — Wet weather caused malfunction in fire alarm system at the Dominican College of San Rafael, 1520 Grand Avenue; no damage; alarm system shut off until serviced.

7:13 a.m., San Rafael — Bathroom fire at 815 Fourth Street did $250 damage to walls and floor; caused by sleeping vagrant Millird Whitlock, according to fire department.

'Dirty Dozen' Wins Yell Leading Role

Tom McEntee, dean of student activities, reported that the new song leaders are: Tina Bogenrief, Jean Ehrhart, Marie Good, Karen Kilty, Melinda Loane, Karen Moffat, and Katie Stranzel.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Senate Defeats Adulthood At 18

SACRAMENTO (UPI) —Sen. Arlen Gregorio, D-San Mateo, says he is confident the Senate will reverse its vote temporarily rejecting legislation lowering the legal age of adulthood from 21 to 18.

The Senate defeated the measure yesterday on a 19-9 vote with at least 10 members absent but quickly agreed to reconsider it.

Gregorio, upper house floor manager, predicted the outcome would be reversed when the full Senate membership is present to vote on the bill by Assemblyman Paul Priolo, R-Pacific Palisades.

In opening debate, Gregorio argued that since 18-year-olds can vote they should also be extended other adult privileges, such as signing contracts, serving on juries, becoming policemen and marrying without parental consent in the case of young men.

Opposition to the bill was led by Sen. Clark L. Bradley, R-San Jose, who urged colleagues to "search your consciences in making 18-year-olds full-fledged adults." He said they were too immature to perform the functions now reserved for persons 21 and over.

Sen. H. L. Richardson, R-Arcadia, also opposed the bill contending his teen-age children have indicated to him they are incapable of assuming full adulthood at 18.

"I'm not willing to admit that all 18-year-olds are capable of meeting all responsibilities of adulthood," he said.

An Assembly-passed proposed constitutional amendment lowering the drinking age to 18 is also pending in the Senate. If approved, it would be submitted for voter ratification or rejection next year.

SPAN RIGHT

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill designed to give the Golden Gate Bridge District the right to condemn land for transit and other projects was passed by a 22-3 vote in the California Senate yesterday and sent back to the Assembly for action on Senate amendments.

Sen. Peter H. Behr, R-Tiburon, said the bill was necessary to enable the bridge district to ease traffic on the Golden Gate Bridge by providing alternatives to auto transportation.

LONGEVITY

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The 1971 Legislature set an all-time record for longevity today, its 313th calendar day in session.

It surpassed the previous record of 312 days established by the 1940 Legislature.

The current Legislature already had set a record for the longest continuous single session. The 1940 Legislature's longevity was spread over several special sessions.

The 1971 Legislature convened in January, took a week recess for Easter, another three weeks in August and hopes to adjourn by Thanksgiving. Or at least Christmas.

RECYCLED

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill requiring state and local agencies to use recycled paper was signed yesterday by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The measure by Sen. Anthony Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, requires the use of recycled paper if it is of the same quality and costs no more than regular paper.

Reagan also signed a bill by Assemblyman John Vasconcellos, D-San Jose, requiring a paper recycling plan for all state waste paper be developed.

DEFEATED

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An Assembly-passed bill which would have virtually eliminated special mid-term elections to fill vacancies on school boards has been defeated by the Senate.

The measure by Assemblyman Carlos Bee, D-Hayward, was rejected on a 10-25 vote yesterday after opponents warned that it violated the democratic process.

Sen. Peter H. Behr, R-San Rafael, opposed the bill on grounds that "once you start chipping away at the right to vote . . . you're chipping away at the very bedrock of our government."

The measure would have permitted a school board to appoint a replacement when one of its members leave. Under current law, the vacancy must be filled by a special election.

Cotati Planners Approve Permit

The Cotati Planning Commission last night approved a variance and use permit for duplexes.

The commission granted the request of Dewayne Strawther to reduce rear yard setback for his planned duplexes on two lots at Sierra and Valparaiso avenues.

In other action, the commission recommended that the city council appoint Alan Stansbury to fill the commission vacancy created by the resignation of chairman Robert J. Frazier.

Citation Leads To More Trouble

A 23-year-old Novato man was arrested by Corte Madera police yesterday on suspicion of possessing marijuana and dangerous drugs after he was stopped for a traffic violation.

Police said they stopped a truck driven by Frank E. Jordan of 1037 First Street, Novato, at 10:30 p.m. on Paradise Drive. While they talked with Jordan, police said, he pulled a cigarette from a package and four small pills spilled onto the road.

A small jar believed to contain marijuana was also in Jordan's possession, police said. He was booked into Marin County Jail and held to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

STANDARDS

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill aimed at bringing rental housing up to state fire safety standards was signed yesterday by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Reagan said the bill by Assemblyman Ken Meade, D-Oakland, would allow cities and counties to bring their local ordinances up to the safety standards required by the state.

The bill was introduced at the request of the California State Firemen's Association and the California Fire Chiefs and Fire Prevention Engineers associations.

EXEMPTED

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Legislation exempting pets from property taxation and given the moniker "moo-moo and bow wow" by a supporter was signed yesterday by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The measure by Assemblyman Bob Wood, R-Greenfield, also exempts up to three cows and 25 sheep if they are raised for nonprofit youth organizations such as 4-H Clubs.

Sen. James Wedworth, D-Hawthorne, gave the bill its nickname recently when he urged colleagues to approve it before local assessors "go after the cats and the dogs and the birds."

TRAIN PLAN

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An Assembly committee has amended legislation to block construction of a proposed high-speed train line between Los Angeles International Airport and the San Fernando Valley.

The Assembly Transportation Committee yesterday sent the measure to the full Assembly after changing it to give the Legislature veto power over actual construction of the multi-million dollar line.

PRESS BILL

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An Assembly-approved bill that would prohibit a newsman from being held in contempt of court for refusing to disclose the source of information gathered but not used has been rejected by the Senate.

The bill was defeated Thursday on a 10-12 vote with only a bare quorum of Senators present, but Sen. Alfred Song, D-Monterey Park, received permission to try for passage again later.

Song said the measure by Assemblyman Alan Sieroty, D-Beverly Hills, has the support of the California Newspaper Publishers Association and the California Broadcasters Association and there was "no known opposition to the bill."

Woman Attacked On Mount Tam

A 29-year-old San Francisco woman practicing long distance running on Mount Tamalpais was attacked by a man Tuesday but managed to escape, the Marin City sheriff's substation reported Wednesday.

Deputies said the woman, Roberta Welch, told them she was running on a fire trail near Bootjack Camp about 11 a.m. when a man grabbed her by the arm and hair. She struggled briefly with him and them fled to Panoramic Highway, where she was given a ride to her car by a passing motorist.

Officers said she suffered minor scrapes in a fall to the highway and was treated by her husband, a medical student.

Driver Hurt In Accident

Daniel R. McGuffin, 21, of 13 Aztec Avenue, Forest Knolls, was injured at 3:24 p.m. yesterday when his car tumbled down a 50-foot embankment in Forest Knolls.

He was treated at Marin General Hospital for muscle strain of both legs.

The California Highway Patrol said McGuffin was attempting to turn his small foreign car around in a driveway at 41 Aztec Avenue when the vehicle's wheels went off the roadway and the car plunged end-over-end down an embankment, coming to rest right side up.

Warrant Is Issued In Case

A warrant has been issued in Marin Municipal Court for Ronald Gregory Wiggins, 24, of Foster City, who failed to appear in court Tuesday.

Judge Robert A. Smallman set bail on the warrant at $1,500.

Wiggins is charged with a misdemeanor count of possessing LSD, stemming from his arrest Oct. 21 when Larkspur police found suspected drugs in his car when they stopped it on a routine traffic matter.

Wiggins originally was booked on suspicion of possessing speed, heroin and methamphetamine, as well as the LSD, but the district attorney's office said the other suspected items turned out not to be narcotics.

SURVIVES BRIDGE JUMP

Henry Harrington, 36, of Pacifica, is wheeled into Mission Emergency Hospital after jumping from the Golden Gate Bridge. Harrington, who yesterday dropped 246 feet to a moat encircling the bottom of the span's south tower, became the sixth known person to have survived a jump from the bridge. (See story, page 1.)

Civic Center Arrest For Gun-Toting Man

Sheriff's deputy Dwight D. Johnson stopped Jeffrey Alexander Worrall, 26, at the main entrance to the administration wing about 1 p.m. when a metal detector buzzer sounded. The gun, in Worrall's front pocket, was loaded with two rounds.

Deputy Sheriff E. D. Brannon said he could not determine why Worrall carried the weapon because Worrall asked for an attorney before answering any questions.

Worrall was booked on suspicion of carrying a concealed weapon and held in jail in lieu of $625 bail. He was to appear in Marin Municipal Court today.

Guilty Plea To Trespass Charge

William Frederick O'Brien, 22, of New Orleans, has pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court to a charge the he slept on private property on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley without permission.

He was sentenced Wednesday to time served in jail since his arrest on Nov. 2.

A second charge of misdemeanor possession of marijuana was dismissed by Judge Robert A. Smallman on the recommenation of the district attorney.

Chill Wills's Wife Is Dead

ENCINO, Calif. (UPI)—Betty Wills, wife of gravel-voiced actor Chill Wills for 43 years, died of a heart attack Thursday at the age of 64.

She married Wills in 1928 in Kansas City, Mo., and their marriage endured while Wills, now 70, appeared in 130 movies.

Foil Meter Thiefs

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Taking no chances on further thefts, local authorities have had all the lock combinations on the city's 6,100 new parking meters changed to foil the thieves. They said someone apparently obtained a master key from the Chicago-area firm which manufactures the meters.

Meadowsweet Topic Again

The controversial Meadowsweet Station development will be the subject of another public hearing before the Corte Madera Planning Commission Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m., according to commission secretary Elizabeth Long.

The proposed 540-unit townhouse development south of the Koch luggage plant has been strongly opposed at previous hearings by homeowners in the area.

Another public hearing — this one on the town's housing element — has been postponed from Thursday to Nov. 29 at 7:30 p.m., the secretary said.

Closed Orr Hearing Ruled Out By Judge

A move to have a court hearing on a petition by fired Fairfax Police Chief James R. Orr closed to the public was rejected today by Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court.

But the judge put off until Monday a decision on whether or not there will be a court hearing at all.

Orr's attorney, Leonard Shaw, has requested the hearing to seek a permanent court order to prevent certain information from being presented to the city's board of review when it reviews Orr's firing.

Shaw contends that the charges against Orr which were the basis for his Sept. 30 firing were too vague and general for the chief to respond.

On Oct. 21, the council presented Orr with an "amended and supplemental statement" which, Shaw said, added new charges.

He is requesting Judge Gardiner to prohibit the board of review from considering the new charges on the grounds they were not before the council when it originally acted to fire Orr.

Shaw and Fairfax City Atty. Wallace S. Myers met with Gardiner in his chambers today to consider Shaw's request that a hearing on his petition be closed to the public so as to keep confidential the new allegations by the city.

Myers opposed the move, saying if there is to be a court hearing it should be open. But he also charged that Shaw has not shown legally sufficient cause for a court hearing to be held at all.

Following the conference in chambers, Gardiner returned to the bench where he ruled that since the case involved a public official, it would be "inappropriate" for any hearing to be closed.

He said he would decide Monday if Shaw has presented legal grounds for a court hearing and if he has, when the hearing will be held.

If the judge turns down the request for a court hearing, it is expected that the board of review will hear Orr's case at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Fairfax Women's Club.

If the judge grants the court hearing, the board of review meeting will be postponed.

The original allegations against Orr included broad charges of incompetency, inefficiency, neglect of duty and "failure of good behavior," as well as several specific accusations of misconduct.

Reapportionment Hearing Is Set

SACRAMENTO — A public hearing on reapportionment of California congressional districts will be held next Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the state capitol, state Sen. Mervyn M. Dymally, chairman of the Senate Committee on Elections and Reapportionment, announced today.

Redrafting of lines for the First and Sixth districts, each of which now includes a part of Marin County, will be among the matters up for discussion.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Want A Satisfying Chinese Dinner? Then You'll Want To Try Lin Fa

There is an old Oriental saying that he who eats cautiously with his friends may not be trusted; he who eats more than his friends is greedy; but he whose rice dish is shared with everyone will have more friends than enemies.

Not all westerners enjoy eating Chinese food day after day — we still crave our own type of fare. But there comes a time for many of us when it seems that the only thing that will satisfy is a Chinese dinner.

When that occurs, a most satisfying place to indulge yourself is Lin Fa Gardens at Northgate, where the tables are often crowded with others like you as well as dishes of fried rice, chow yuk, pork spare ribs, lobster Cantonese, won ton and other celestial delicacies.

If you are there any night Wednesday through Saturday, be sure to stop off in the lounge to hear organist Hal Landall at the Baldwin 210-D, which has almost as many variations as Ethel Barrie's menu. This is Baldwin's latest "hot organ" from which Hal manages to produce a most realistic violin solo, Sugar Blues trumpet or even a harpsichord along with sundry other instrumental effects.

They will be open as usual on Thanksgiving Day, serving a complete turkey dinner with all the trimmings at $4.50 and half price for youngsters under 12. (No price increase — it was the same figure last year). The regular menu will also be served.

Reservations will be helpful, though probably not imperative if you don't mind waiting at peak hours.

The proportion of restaurants in Marin open and closed on Thanksgiving each year is about 50-50. And each year some of those open on the previous Thanksgiving decide to close and vice versa. If you will be dining out this year check ahead now with your favorite place to find out its plans.

ANDRE MARQUER, partner and chef at the Normandie on the San Rafael Miracle Mile, may have decided to give up Marin County — but not the restaurant business. He has been in it too long.

You'll now find him and his wife Diane in St. Helena in the Napa Valley, where on Sunday they are opening their new French restaurant A la Toque. Dinner hours are from 4:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Location is 587-B Highway 29 — next to the Tripoli Market.

NEW GROUP playing at Gatsby's in Sausalito (or rather, the return of an old one) is the Don McCarroll Trio. It will be there Sunday afternoons and on Tuesday evenings.

Co-owner Pete Sheehan reports that his wandering partner Charlie Peet and crew were last heard from in Auckland, N.Z. At this rate Charlie's round-the-world cruise is not likely to break any records — unless it's for long duration.

LATEST REPORT from Niki Franchini is that Franchini's Chateau at Lucas Valley Road and the 101 Highway will start its Friday night crab cioppino dinners a week from tonight. This presumes that the seas won't be too rough for the fishermen, crabs will be available and prices won't be too rough for the restaurants who want to serve them.

THE LIND FAMILY will celebrate its second anniversary at Shipwreck Pete's in the Sportsman's Lodge, Novato next Wednesday. And of course there will be a big party. Roast pig, ribs, chicken, raw oysters, cioppino and many varieties of fish will be featured.

There will be dancing to the music of the Gene Fannucchi Trio, with Terry Ryan doing the vocals. This affair starts at 7 p.m. — and for this occasion, leave the youngsters at home. This is strictly an adult affair. Take them there another night.

A new everyday offering at Pete's is a 14-ounce top sirloin steak served with a tossed green salad, special potatoes and garlic bread at $3.95.

THE SAN FRANCISCO DINERS OUT CLUB has opened new offices in San Rafael in Suite 106, 1330 Lincoln Avenue and is promoting its dining coupon books. I understand that an effort has been made to eliminate restrictions, with the result that 90 per cent of the coupons are now said to be valid on weekends and for a choice of entrees.

There are 12 Marin restaurants participating, the newest additions being J.T.'s on Bridgeway in Sausalito and Tio Mario's Mexican restaurant on Valley Street, Sausalito. Outside of Marin there are some 65 restaurants under contract.

First-time purchases are $9 for the coupon book. Each year after that the price for continuing subscribers is $5.

CHAMPAGNE not only has become a popular drink for weddings, receptions, cocktail parties, open houses and grand openings, its consumption is increasing at the bar and at the tables in restaurants. It is not unusual there for it to be served either plain or as a champagne cocktail by the glass.

Now comes a new, 20-gallon, electrically powered champagne "fountain" to the market, which dispenses champagne and other sparkling wines by the glass without the required cork popping for just about every other refill. Its contents are said to be continually as fresh as the first glass taken from a bottle, according to Huntington and Rice Co. of Mountain View, marketing agent for Weibel Champagne Vineyards which is supplying the bubbly.

Government agencies are reported to have approved it. You may soon find it at your favorite champagne dispensary.

Motorist Is Facing A Murder

OAKLAND (UPI)—An Oakland motorist today faced murder charges for assertedly ramming another car in such a manner as to cause a fatal accident.

James Loveland, 35, appeared in municipal court Thursday on charges of murder and felony drunken driving. He had surrendered to authorities after police contacted him after a three-week investigation.

Police said Loveland was driving Oct. 23 when overtaken by a car driven by Arthur Hill, 36, Oakland.

Loveland caught up with the Hill car, police said, and smashed it repeatedly. He finally slammed into the Hill car, according to police, and accelerated to more than 60 mph, forcing Hill to lose control and crash into a telegraph pole.

New Water Line For Bolinas

The Bolinas Community Public Utility District board has agreed to lay a new water line to the Coast Guard search and rescue station on Mesa Road in Bolinas.

Board clerk Jane Boyer said directors Wednesday signed a contract with the Coast Guard agreeing to build the new line at a cost of $6,000, which the Coast Guard will pay.

The board also accepted its annual audit and announced a copy is available in the district office for examination.

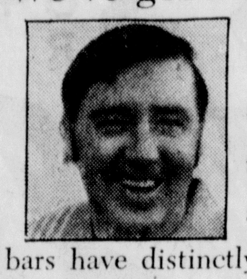
The board adjourned to 11 a.m. Nov. 26 when four new board members — William A. Niman, Gregory Hewlett, Marguerite K. Harris and Orville H. Schell — will be seated.

Mrs. Boyer said the new board members attended Wednesday's meeting but there was no discussion of the Nov. 2 election, in which two incumbents were recalled and two others defeated.

More Syphilis

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Social Health Association said today the reported cases of syphilis in the fiscal year 1971 increased by 15.6 per cent and reported cases of gonorrhea increased 8.99 per cent.

"We've got a happy bar . . ."



"During my twelve years in this business, I've seen that different bars have distinctly different personalities. Take our Chez Pierre Lounge, for example. We've got a happy bar here. How do I know? Well, for one thing, Wally, Don, John, Gene, Marge Pat and the others enjoy coming to work. They like the customers, and the customers like them. It's that simple. And it's that nice. Drop by and see for yourself.

Banquet Room For Special Parties

Enjoy Dominic's smoke-filled rooms.

With everyone quitting smoking these days, it's really hard to find a good smoke-filled room any more. Well, we'd like to point out that we not only have more (we think) and better (we know) meeting and banquet rooms than anyone else in Marin, but also now offer a unique and heretofore unobtainable service. We will pre-fill your meeting room with smoke, in advance. Prices vary with the service, from economy (Mexican cigarette) to deluxe (imported Havana cigar). At least 24 hours notice, please.

Women Warned Off Mountain If Alone

Marin City sheriff's deputies said today they believe the same man who attempted to rape a San Francisco woman on Mount Tamalpais Tuesday but was foiled was responsible for the rape of a Mill Valley woman the next day.

Officers said they are checking with other departments which may have reported similar cases recently to see if there is any connection and are also investigating other leads.

The man remained at large today and deputies warned women not to go onto the mountain alone.

They said the assailant, described as a thin, clean-shaven black man about 29 years old with short hair, is suspected of raping a Mill Valley woman about 1 p.m. Wednesday and then robbing her of $40 cash and a camera.

Deputies said the 29-year-old victim told them she was photographing cloud formations on a knoll near Panoramic Road when a man approached her, pulled her out of sight of the road and attacked her.

He then took her car keys, unlocked the vehicle and stole $40 from her purse and a camera, lens and case valued at $100 before fleeing, deputies said the woman told them.

On Tuesday a man matching the same general description attempted to rape a 29-year-old San Francisco woman, who was practicing her long-distance running on a fire road near Bootjack Camp, but she managed to escape, deputies reported.

Reserve Chief Schedules Talk

Maj. Gen. Homer I. Lewis, chief of the Air Force Reserve, will address the Air Force Sergeants Association at a luncheon tomorrow at the noncommissioned officers club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

"The role of the noncommissioned officer in today's air force" is the topic of his address.

After the luncheon, Lewis will confer with reserve commanders at the base. He will then be guest of honor at a dinner of the 349th Military Airlift Wing (reserve) at Travis Air Force Base.

Accident Treatment

Elva Peterson, 19, of 2213 Magnolia Avenue, Petaluma, was treated at Hillcrest Hospital for chest pains suffered in an accident at 9 a.m. yesterday at Stony Point Road and Petaluma Boulevard North, Petaluma. Police had no details of the accident.

Group Is Seeking Permit For Pier

The Silver Pavilion Association, 677 South Eliseo Drive, Larkspur, has applied to the Army Corps of Engineers for a permit revision to construct a pier, ramp, and 60-foot floating dock with fingers on Corte Madera Creek.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Hold International Shares At A Risk

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I bought 200 shares International Industries at $11 in March. I have lost half my investment. Should I sell? — L. J. Q. We have 200 International Industries which cost 12⅜. Is it worth holding? — R.E.

A. Management has recently announced that losses for the year ended Aug. 29, 1971 would be about $63 million. Discontinued operations contributed about $3 million of the 9-month deficit while operating losses amounted to $6.8 million. Extraordinary charges and nonrecurring write-off were responsible for the bulk of the loss.

This fast food franchiser has reached agreement with a lenders group to restructure its $89 million of debt. Some $32.2 million will be exchanged for a new preference stock. Company anticipates resumed profitability by next year. Hold only in high risk accounts.

Q. I have begun high school and would like to invest my summer earnings in a high yield, high grade short-term bond. Is this advisable? — L.Z.

A. Presumably you are interested in a 3-to-4 year investment to help with college expenses. Ford Motor Co. 8¼s of 1974, rated AAA, fit your specifications. However, this note is trading at a 5½-point premium and would cost $1,055 per bond, entailing a small capital loss at maturity. Yield to maturity would be less than 6 per cent and in addition there is a commission charge to pay. Other debt issues which fit your requirements also sell at similar premiums. A bank certificate of deposit would be a better investment for your purpose.

Q. Where is Envirotech listed? What is its business? Could you give the highs and lows and other facts? — F.E.

A. Although incorporated in 1969, this OTC company went public this September. Shares have traded between 35⅝ and 28 and are 14 per cent held by North American Rockwell. Envirotech designs and manufacturers equipment for liquid and solid waste treatment. Sales for the first six months ended Sept. 30, were up 37% to $63.7 million. A corresponding increase placed earnings at 55 cents a share.

"As the year progressed, several minor adjustments were made in our initial sales forecast."

DuPont Firm Is Making Public Offer

NEW YORK (BW) — An underwriting syndicate managed by DuPont, Glore Forgan Inc. is publicly offering $20 million of realty income trust 8 per cent convertible subordinated debentures due 1991 priced at 100 per cent.

The debentures are initially convertible into common shares at $16.50 per share. The debentures are subject to optional redemption at any time and, commencing 1978, will be subject to redemption through a sinking fund.

Early-Hour Prices Take A Tumble

Prices on the American Stock Exchange also were in a slide, with 453 declines and 196 advances among the 908 issues traded. Among the active issues were Bradford Computer, off 2 to 20 3-4 on 55,900 shares, and Rath Packing, off 1 to 11 7-8 on 17,300 shares.

Topping the active list on the Big Board was Kimberly Clark, off a fraction on more than 153,000 shares traded.

Weak spots popped up in most major categories. In the motors, Ford gave up 1 3-8, General Motors 1. Chrysler dipped 3-8.

Electronics dropped, led by IBM which gave up 3 1-4. Burroughs and Honeywell lost from 1 to 2 points. Xerox fell 1 3-4; American Telephone 1-8. Steels, chemicals, rails and aircrafts also weakened.

Travel Award To President Of Firm

SYDNEY (BW) — The travel industry's highest honor has been awarded to Chicago's Thomas J. Donovan. It came at the Travel Agents (ASTA) Convention.

Donovan, president of Cartan Travel, a worldwide tour operator and a division of Carte Blanche Corp., received the Joseph W. Rosenbluth Award "for his contribution to the travel industry and the professionalism of the travel agent."

POWERED BY GAS TURBINE ENGINES

This is an artist's sketch of the Navy's new Spruance-class destroyer which will use gas-turbine powered engines. Thirty of the vessels have been ordered and are to become operational with the fleet by 1975. Honeywell's Marine Systems Center at West Covina is providing antisubmarine warfare systems engineering under a contract with a potential of $36 million, largest of its kind in the firm's history.

WEEK IN BUSINESS

Paint Firm Reaches New Highs

New record highs in both sales and earnings were recorded for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30 by Standard Brands Paint Co. of Torrance, which will open a new retail store in the Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael, sometime after the first of the year.

Sales for fiscal 1971, which is said to have been the most successful year in the company's 31-year history, were $57.1 million, compared with $47.2 million a year ago. Earnings after taxes were $4.4 million or $1.74 per share compared with last year's $3.4 million or $1.36 per share.

Standard Brands manufactures and retails paints in its own stores and also markets a line of home decorator products. The company purchased the building formerly occupied by Purity Stores.

HOSPITAL CORP. OF AMERICA, parent company of Marin County's Ross Medical Corp. reported record operating revenues of $82.5 million for the nine months ended Sept. 30 — up 55 per cent over the $53.3 for the preceding year. Net income of $4.8 million compared with $3.4 million in 1970. The company has officially consummated its acquisition of Los Robles Medical Center Hospital in Southern California and has an agreement to acquire the McMinnville General Hospital in Oregon.

AMERICAN EXPRESS CO. has announced the formation of a new venture capital company in New York to be known as Amexco Venture Associates. It is initially capitalized at $16 million under a partnership agreement entered into by American Express subsidiaries Fireman's Fund American Insurance Companies and Rexport. American Express Investment Management Co. of San Francisco will be Amexco's investment advisor.

LEVERAGE FUNDINGS SYSTEMS, INC. of Oakland, principal owner and manager of the Howard Johnson motel complex in Southern Marin, has been granted a permit for a $500,000 debenture offering by the California corporation commissioner. Debentures will be made available to Leverage clients not to exceed $2,000 for each individual. Warrants will allow the purchase of Leverage common stock during the next three years.

CALIFORNIA FINANCIAL CORP of San Francisco will sell its title insurance operations to U.S. Financial Corp. for an undisclosed amount of cash and subject to existing underwriting agreements. The sale includes all of the stock of Marin Title Guaranty Co. and that of Financial Title Co. of Contra Costa County and 89.4 per cent of Pacific Land Title Co. of Alameda County. U. S. Financial is an integrated shelter company with title operations in 18 states.

WESTERN AIRLINES has been granted exemption authority by the Civil Aeronautics Board to provide scheduled service from San Francisco to the ski gateway cities of Twin Falls, Idaho and Grand Junction, Colo. The board approved a tour basing round trip fare of $99 including tax to Grand Junction and Western is seeking a round trip tour basing fare of $82 including tax between the Bay Area and Twin Falls. "Skibird" specials will be operated every Saturday during the ski season. No exact date for starting service has been announced.

BANK OF AMERICA will open a new international banking subsidiary in Houston next February or March. The bank, with initial capitalization of $2 million, will be known as Bank of America International of Texas.

ALLIS-CHALMERS is purchasing a minority interest in the Swedish firm of Svedala-Arbra, a leading European manufacturer of crushing and screening equipment for ore, stone and gravel. The transaction needs the approval of the Swedish government.

Insurance Companies Finding Campuses Big Sales Avenue

By LEROY POPE

NEW YORK (UPI)—People who worry about radicalism and bizarre life styles on college campuses can take comfort from the experience of life insurance companies with students.

Many life companies have special organizations to sell policies to students. Often a full-time professional agent runs an office on campus and uses students as part time agents. These companies rather uniformly have a favorable impression of today's undergraduates, according to the Institute of Life Insurance. On the basis of a recent survey, says the Institute, "It's not true that traditionalism has gone the way of the dinosaur on the campus."

Northwestern Mutual of Milwaukee has one of the largest college sales departments with offices on 66 campuses. College Life Insurance Co. of Indianapolis started in business selling policies to students. Equitable Life Assurance, Home Life of New York, Mutual of New York, Provident Mutual and Fidelity Mutual, both of Philadelphia, American National of Galveston and many others are active on the campuses.

David Reeder, the 32-year old head of Northwestern Mutual's college sales organization, says undergraduates haven't really changed tremendously since his student days. "Most of them will admit that, in the long run, they look forward to settling down to a conventional life style with a wife and kids," Roeder said. "They aren't too much interested in the main function of life insurance— protection right now—but they are sufficiently interested in setting up something for the future so that our company sold them $25 million worth of policies last year."

It's a fine market, Roeder said, because there now are eight million youngsters on the nation's campuses.

Roeder said his agents usually don't look on the longhaired hippy type undergraduates as good prospects, "but you never can tell. One such unlikely looking character recently bought a $100,000 policy."

Roeder said a campus life insurance manager has to be sensitive to changing moods. "A college campus can go from conservative to liberal and back again to conservative within a couple of years," he said. "Also the average middle sized campus — 7,500 to 15,000 students—is far from homogeneous. It has enclaves of all shades of political opinions and life styles."

While few students see life insurance agents as representatives of "The Establishment," says Roeder, agents will experience prejudice if they adopt high pressure tactics. He says today's students don't like sales gimmicks or fancy approaches. They prefer straight professionalism in an agent.

An Offer For El Paso Gas

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Western Sunset Transmission Co. has offered to purchase an El Paso Natural Gas Co. division which the Supreme Court has ordered sold.

Western Sunset Transmission, which offered Monday to buy El Paso's northwest division, is a combine formed by U.S. Natural Resources Inc., ACF Industries, Ralph M. Parsons Co. and Robert E. Maloney and Associates.

Maloney, who is chief executive officer, said the participants have combined resources of more than $600 million.

Terms of the offer were not made public.

TRANQUIL FLEET

As gulls soar above, fishing boats near the Army Corps of Engineers' dock in Sausalito rest at their berths. Fishing activity slackened yesterday in the face of the Bay Area's first major storm of the year. Crab fishermen have opened the season on a glum note, reporting minor catches. In some cases, crab boats haven't ventured from port because of rough seas. (Independent-Journal photo)

Huge Wheat Surplus Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Agriculture Department economists Wednesday predicted this year's record wheat crop, coupled with a drop in sales, will produce a substantial increase in surplus wheat stocks.

The U.S. surplus carryover stood at 731 million bushels in July of this year and may jump by nearly 250 million bushels to around 975 million bushels by July of 1972, economists said in a report.

As a result of the big 1971 crop, the report said farm prices have been below year-ago levels since August and season average prices for the current 11-72 marketing year will average below last year's $1.34 per bushel, the report said.

Arraigned On Felony Fraud

Herbert Cosme, 22, of 2130 Redwood Highway, a trailer court in Greenbrae, has been arraigned on a charge of felony fraud for allegedly getting $747 in welfare overpayment.

Cosme is to plead in Marin Municipal Court next Tuesday.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said Cosme, his wife Gail, and one child have been getting welfare aid, but Cosme failed to report his wife's earnings between January and May of this year. During that time, Mrs. Cosme worked for the telephone company in San Francisco, Bales said.

Story Of Disloyalty 'Irrelevant' Today?

Those of us who have been around a long time recall Edward Everett Hale's story, "The Man Without a Country." It was written during the Civil War, to promote loyalty to the United States. But it became a schoolroom classic, used in the public schools for at least three-quarters of a century and becoming part of what historian Henry Steele Commager has called Americans' no-longer-existent "common body of allusion."

Hale pulled out the stops skillfully in his story of Philip Nolan, an imaginary artillery lieutenant who became a follower of Aaron Burr in "Great Conspiracy" and was court-martialed as a result. On trial in New Orleans, young Nolan burst out:

"Damn the United States! I wish I may never hear of the United States again!"

AND THAT BECAME his sentence: to serve out his life aboard U.S. Navy ships, never setting foot on his native soil, and to be allowed to hear no mention of the United States — a "man without a country."

The rest of Hale's story traces the growth of Nolan's remorse as he served his unusual sentence for the remaining 57 years of his life, and of his unfulfilled longing to return to the country he had renounced. It closes with the finding in his Bible of a slip asking that someone "set up a stone for my memory" with the legend: "He loved his country as no other man has loved her; but no man deserved less at her hands."

"THE MAN WITHOUT a Country" is no longer read in the public schools. It has been squeezed out to make room for more "relevant" literature, such as "Siddartha" and "Catcher in the Rye."

But this week, the U.S. Supreme Court refused to overturn a lower court decision that Thomas G. Jolley, 27, of Tallahassee, Fla., is a "man without a country."

Jolley, like many other young men opposed to the Vietnam War, renounced his U.S. citizenship and fled to Canada to escape being drafted after Selective Service refused to classify him as a conscientious objector.

When he re-entered the U.S., he was arrested for illegal entry and ordered deported. He fought the order, but the federal court held his renunciation of citizenship was binding and he is illegally in the United States.

BY REFUSING to overturn this ruling, the Supreme Court made "men without a country" of all others who are in similar situation.

Young Jolley, when informed of the high court's action, said, "I guess it's up to the immigration authorities to place me somewhere, presumably Canada since that's the last country I was in."

Canada, however, might not want him. It is doubtful that he would be put aboard ship under sentence never to hear of the U.S. again. But his position is not unlike that of the fictional Philip Nolan.

Hale wrote "The Man Without a Country" because, during the Civil War, many young men found their loyalties confused by the internecine struggle and could not see why they should be true to a nation that had plunged them into such a war.

Maybe it is not so "irrelevant" today after all.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Lays Bond Defeat To Senior Citizens

Headlines of your paper were, "College Bond Loses," and in reading the article by David Dietz we find that this was the second time in a year this bond proposal has been defeated, the first try almost received the needed two thirds vote with 62 per cent.

Instead of trying to squeeze the last dime out of some senior citizen who has already done more than his share, how about a bit of lobbying to help the pensioner on a limited income to get off the taxpaying rolls?

With very little effort you will find that every little old man and lady faithfully goes to the polls to vote against bond issues or any other proposal that will nibble away at their already too small and limited incomes!

The 4 per cent lacking to pass this bond issue could very well have been the votes controlled by the senior citizens. (Worth considering isn't it?)

What Use Freeze With Labor Attitude?

I would like to know what good it can do to put a "freeze" on everything, and try to stabilize the country, when organized labor simply waits, chomping at the bit, to — start new strikes, and disruption tactics, the same as before.

Garbage Separation Would Aid Recycling

I fear that many people are unaware that our country is threatened to be overrun by garbage. Every day we are faced with the ever-increasing problem of what should be done with the literally hundreds of tons of refuse.

I am aware that scientists have found a limited number of fairly good ways to use some of it, such as in land fill, for artificial fertilizers, etc. These methods are helping to solve the problem, but I believe that by recycling all the waste paper, glass and metals, we could eliminate the problem of dumping almost completely.

The garbage disposal companies should require people to separate their refuse for recycling before it is collected. And in the meantime individuals should be recycling their refuse at recycling centers.

Many Banks Likely Proud Of Tellers

For some time I have watched the ad over the television, sponsored by a responsible bank claiming that they have the best tellers in town. From my experience the best tellers in many towns in California are those of the World's Largest Bank. I have been employed for nearly 40 years in that bank and I am sure that they have the best tellers. I am now retired and would like to pay tribute to those wonderful tellers in my bank.

Student Exchange Fund Drive Succeeds

Thank you for publicizing the Terra Linda High School International Student Exchange fund drives. Mr. Steve Swenson's reporting was complete and his "follow-up" of the two drives was appreciated.

Because of this and the outstanding support of the Terra Linda High School community the total amount collected was $1,667. This will enable us to send several Terra Linda High School Community Ambassadors abroad next summer as well as host foreign students in attendance at Terra Linda High School.

Advantages Told, But Measure Lost

Please accept our thanks, on behalf of the Citizens' Committee for Proposition A, for your editorial support. We appreciate the fact that you understood and helped us to carry our message —that of the advantages of bond financing and of the great need for college facilities — to your readers.

Although not having received the necessary 66⅔ per cent affirmative vote is naturally a disappointment, we are gratified by the extensive community support we received during the campaign.

Government Credibility Falsely Damaged In Tet Offensive Reports

WASHINGTON — The one thing a democratic nation cannot long survive is a widely held conviction that the government cannot be trusted to tell the truth.

The credibility of government has been seriously eroded in recent years.

Why? How? When did lack of credibility manifest itself in one of its most acute forms?

I think back to the sudden, massive, fierce Tet Offensive which the North Vietnamese Army and the Viet Cong launched against Saigon and a dozen other South Vietnamese cities in early 1968. It was a bold, daring, go-for-broke attack.

The morning after the onslaught which broke through the defenses of the American Embassy, Gen. William C. Westmoreland met the incredulous members of the press and calmly gave them this appraisal of what had happened: "The enemy's well-laid plans went afoul."

IN DESCRIBING this incident in his book, "Tet — the Story of the Battle and Its Historic Aftermath," just published by Doubleday, Don Oberdorfer, talented Washington Post reporter, writes:

"The reporters could hardly believe their ears. Westmoreland was standing in the ruins and saying everything was great."

S.L.A. Marshall, a leading writer on military affairs, in his review of "Tet" for the Book World notes that Oberdorfer "simply leaves the implication dangling, his reader thus getting the impression that Westmoreland was a dolt of a general and the newsmen were the realists."

But he doesn't leave it dangling for long. His firsthand study of the facts reverses this judgment.

HIS FINDINGS substantiate the conclusion that it was General Westmoreland who was telling the truth realistically. It was the U.S. press in Saigon which failed to discern the truth and instead spread a mushrooming myth.

History is beginning to correct one of the crucial falsities in the reporting of the Vietnamese war.

In order to measure the magnitude of this reverse-of-the-truth reporting of the Tet offensive and the consequences in the United States, let me cite Marshall's careful words:

"Out of desperation, due to dwindling resources, the Communists switched strategy and made their massive try. They were beaten in detail and their shock losses were compounded by the refusal of the South Vietnamese to rally to their side.

"What came of it? The correspondents almost unanimously held with the theme of a terrible American defeat. Retired Marine Gen. David Shoup told a committee of Congress that anyone who regarded Tet as a military victory was a fit candidate for a lunatic asylum.

"More than six months later, the New York Times acknowledged that the view of Tet as a military disaster had been all wrong. By then it was too late. The fever of panic, shaking the highest levels, had made of Tet an irreversible psychological defeat."

THE UNREALISTIC American correspondents in Saigon — or most of them — canceled out the realistic judgments of General Westmoreland, and instead reported their own opposite conclusions. Thus the American people were persuaded that the U.S. military leaders on the spot were not credible.

They should have been. Oberdorfer puts it this way in his book:

"The irony of the Tet offensive is that the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong suffered a battlefield setback in the war zone, but still won the political victory in the United States."

Why did the American people come to believe the opposite of what really happened during this pivotal battle of the Vietnamese war? Oberdorfer cites the inherent distortion of television reporting and refers to the "tower of modern electronics, which transmits experiences and emotions instantaneously and transmits perspective poorly."

One thing is clear: The American government was telling the truth. The military were telling the truth. But the American people were not getting the truth because TV and the press were not reporting the true picture.

BY NO MEANS NEUTRAL

Gov. George Wallace: Creature Of The Media

By ERNEST B. FURGURSON

ATLANTA, Ga. — It is well known by now that the "creatures" of the media are those people with hair and obscene placards who used to break up political rallies attended by law-abiding citizens. One of the personalities who helped instruct us in how to recognize this genus is George Wallace, who always has a tongue-tip a colorful glossary of terms to be used in their identification and classification, and is expert in directing camera crews what to photograph and reporters what to write in their notebooks as he and the creatures of the media compete for attention in public.

What Governor Wallace does not usually acknowledge in public is the fact that, despite his pointless head and comparably recent haircut, he himself is a creature of the media and always has been — ever since he got himself photographed standing in the schoolhouse door. It was never more obvious than here at the Southern Governors Conference, as he warmed up his reflexes again for the political months ahead.

AS AT MOST SUCH conferences, the formal business sessions were not exciting stuff. Clark Kerr, chairman of the Carnegie Commission on the Future of Higher Education, started by delivering a meaty talk about matters of high priority to all governors, not just those in the South. But nobody's attention span is unlimited. Soon one governor here and another there strayed away from the discussion. Yet Wallace sat through it all, slumped down in his chair, smoking long cigars in a conspicuous holder, doing his constitutional duty. Then when the chairman announced a coffee break, a high percentage of the assembled press converged on Wallace in a desperate effort to squeeze some kind of colorful footage, some kind of afternoon lead out of the day's schedule.

Wallace waved them away modestly at first, noting that he intended to talk at the Press Club the next day, but they would not go. So he shrugged, and they rushed happily into the next room to set up their lights and microphones and hold an instant press conference.

He stood before them looking, for the first time in my experience, middle-aged. He also was a little shaggy, a little overdue at the barber's. He played the same game he and they had played together for so many years, the cat-and-mouse exercise about will you run and if so in what states, and he enjoyed it as always. He shifted back and forth from "the party," meaning the Democrats to "our party," meaning the Wallace-oriented American Independent Party, as if he owned a substantial share in each — crossing party lines in conversation almost as conveniently as in campaigning.

WALLACE CLENCHED his left fist and groped at the air for the cameras, and each time he did he showed them his Masonic ring and his wedding ring together on the third finger. He zapped the Los Angeles Times reporter for daring to ask about the indictment of one of his aides in Montgomery. He talked about "sending a few shock waves and rattling some eyeteeth" in "the party" by winning some primaries, and refrained from saying anything nice about Wilbur Mills as a candidate on the grounds that doing so might do the gentleman some harm "in certain quarters" — which, of course, it would.

Somebody used the word "moderate" in a question, and that set Wallace off on a mini-tirade about the "so-called moderates" who have become governors in the south lately. He himself never said anything they had not said in their careers, he maintained. And if they are so different from him, he insisted, just go ask them if they want to criticize George Wallace.

With that the press conference tapered off and the reporters and cameramen trailed back into the main meeting room, where a series of gubernatorial reports on executive management and fiscal affairs was being presented.

In odd hours and in the corridors while the formal reports continued, the press game then was to brace the mostly tall and well-tailored new governors Wallace considers the "so-called moderates" and to see if they would indeed criticize him in their careful estimates of next year's presidential outlook. And to a man, from the head of Chesapeake Bay to the Mississippi Delta, they turned down the opportunity. For, as the Alabamian knew when he said it, all of them can envision Wallace in their own back yards next year, excoriating them with snappy 1972 variations on his theme — and with the media panting in attendance.

By RUS WALTON:

Medical Board Sabotages Physician Assistant Law

SACRAMENTO — Anyone who has sat in a doctor's waiting room reading last year's Field and Stream for three hours knows there is a shortage of physicians. Doctors are overworked. Their schedules are overloaded.

And the situation gets no better.

Each year this state loses more physicians to death than it gains through new graduates from our medical schools. In 1970, 611 physicians passed away; only 346 MDs were graduated from the eight schools within the state.

In recent years California counted on "importing" physicians from other states. Approximately 65 per cent of our annual supply of new doctors came from other nations and states. Now that is diminishing as other areas offer greater opportunities and better facilities.

The shortage is not only one of physicians. It is a shortage of the health care services physicians perform — services which physicians acknowledge could be performed by well-trained and supervised assistants.

WELL, THE ASSISTANTS are there, ready and waiting. Each year some 30,000 medical corpsmen are released from the military. Many have had years of experience and training and a large number of them live in California. They could help ease the shortage of health care services. But they are not permitted to assist.

Thus, a large reservoir of medical manpower is being wasted at a time when it is sorely needed.

In 1970, through the efforts of Assemblymen Gordon Duffy, Bill Campbell, Ken Stacey and others, California enacted the Physicians Assistants Law (AB 2109). It established a program of certification for physicians' assistants under guidance and supervision of the state Board of Medical Examiners.

The intent of the act was to establish a new field of training for the healing arts and to make it possible for the thousands of released medical corpsmen to put their skills to work under the supervision of certified physicians and surgeons. The California Medical and California Hospital Associations supported the measure.

AB 2109 BECAME law in November, 1970 and the program was to have been in operation by July, 1971. An advisory Committee on Manpower Innovation was appointed and helped establish guidelines These were referred to the Board of Medical Examiners for approval.

The board has been dragging its feet. A revised draft of guidelines and criteria for "health care assistants" (not physicians' assistants) was finally approved on Oct. 16, and may be adopted on Nov. 20.

If those guidelines are adopted as drafted, it will virtually eliminate most of the veteran corpsmen from the so-called mainstream of medicine. To participate in the program many of them would first have to go back to school. While their skills and training gathered rust, they would be required to wrestle with such subjects as cultural anthropology and sociology. Some, with 15-20 years of experience under military doctors, would be required to return to high school for their diplomas. Once that was done they could then begin courses in how to be a physician's assistant.

FURTHERMORE, IF THE guidelines are approved as drafted, students who have been studying to become physicians' assistants at such institutes as the UCLA-affiliated Charles Drew School would be out of luck. The guidelines would disqualify most of their studies just as they are about to graduate.

The embryonic physicians' assistant school at Stanford University would also be thrown out of kilter.

At last report, the Public Health Department had the names of 750 corpsmen who wanted to do something with their skills. There was no place to send them. And there won't be, until the Board of Medical Examiners implements the law.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Are Marin Sanitary Districts Going To Bust In A Barrow?

The song is ended but the malady lingers on — this "I'm going to run the county" thing. The chief satellite of the throne room out at Brasilia is proving daily my belief that he will make Alan Bruce look like an amateur. One would think that he wrote the Parkinson Law. Just have a listen for a bit.

That deep dread that folks will become aware that there isn't enough work involved to warrant the salaries and other expenses of the operation has him scrambling, even to the extent of going clear outside of his sphere of authority.

He is still pushing consolidation of the sanitary districts. He first wanted to have the two larger water districts take over the operations. The North Marin group said nix. Now his latest is to have all the sanitary districts form one big one to be governed by the mayors of each city and the board of supervisors.

He doesn't explain how he would untangle the obligations of all the districts involved. This is the maneuvering the taxpayers are pungling up over a third of a million bucks for.

BONNIE BARD, the gal who runs the I-J Petaluma bureau, wrote a darn good "I-J Reporter's Notebook" the other day. As it was headed "Petaluma Citizen Committees Not Cowed By Professionals," it's likely the folks down here may have not read it. Here are a few excerpts:

"Professional planners are lurking again in Petaluma, but perhaps this time the study will result in a 'people's plan'. Six study committees with as many as 10 members each are threshing out various sections of the proposed environmental design plan prepared by professional planners . . . instead of simply rubber stamping ideas presented by the professionals, the citizens appear to be doing some independent thinking and planning . . .

"Like some educators, planners can sometimes overwhelm ordinary citizens with fancy planning words and 10-word phrases that could be easily simplified. The self-confidence of planners has been known to buffalo citizen groups, but reports indicate the study committees have been thorough about looking at the planners recommendations and are not shy about criticism."

Miss Bard's column went on to describe the action that was being taken by the several groups of citizens involved. She finished with the following:

"If citizens can do enough original thinking and get through the plan they honestly want, the fancy document might do more for the city than simply gather dust on a shelf."

I wonder if they had spent $1,724,570 (net) in six years principally on study after study like we have down here? I'll just be they haven't.

Oregon Visit Warms Muskie

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (UPI) —Sen. Edmund Muskie, buoyed by responsive crowds and a visit with labor leaders, said Wednesday he was "tremendously warmed" by his Oregon reception.

The Maine Democrat made his comment as he relaxed on his plane before his return trip to Washington, D.C. The acknowledged front-runner for the Democratic presidential nomination said he would return to Oregon after the first of the year.

Muskie made a two day trip through Oregon to gauge voter response and line up possible support.

Price Fixing Charge Denied

NEW YORK (UPI)—The president of Chock Full O' Nuts Corp. denied Thursday charges by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) that the company illegally fixed prices charged by its franchised restaurants.

William Black, the company president, said where prices differ between the company owned stores and the 38 franchised restaurants in New York and New Jersey, the franchises charge higher prices.

Black said the FTC claim that Chock Full O' Nuts illegally restrained competition by requiring franchises to buy food from the parent firm was false.

Prison Library Financing Idea

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) —State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger says attorneys could help finance expanded prison law libraries by paying a fee to use them.

Younger made the suggestion Thursday in connection with the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling that California must provide more extensive legal libraries for convicts.

"They used to play baseball in prison for recreation," Younger said. "Now they file lawsuits."

MAMO'S A SURPRISE

This Baby Porpoise Isn't Suppose To Be

By RUTH YOUNGBLOOD

HONOLULU (UPI) —A baby porpoise named Mamo is the animal scientists said couldn't happen.

The baby, frolicking around in his tank, is a cross between two porpoises that are not of the same species, genus or even the same family.

Dr. Kenneth Norris, director of research for the Makapuu Oceanic Institute and a leading authority on porpoises, said the baby porpoise is as surprising as "cross-breeding a deer and a sheep and getting a living offspring."

"The mother and father porpoises are the most remote set of parents known to produce living young," Norris said. "Just like sheep and deer, they are two separate families which are right next to each other."

"As far as I know," Norris said, "no breeding of animals in different families in the animal kingdom has ever resulted in viable young before."

Norris said Mamo's genealogy ranks as a "near miracle." The father, an Atlantic bottlenose, is genus "tursiops," species "truncatus," and family "delphinidae." The mother, a rough-toothed porpoise, is genus "steno," species "bredanensis," and family "stenidae."

Since scientists at the Institute for the Advancement of Research and Education and Marine Sciences didn't try to mate the parents and didn't even know the mother was pregnant, the birth was a double surprise. In spite of the mother's weight gain and irregular appetite, trainers discounted the possibility of pregnancy since she had not mated with any porpoises of her own species. The only male mammal she had mated with was the Atlantic bottlenose.

Then, on Oct. 4, a worker preparing to feed the animals in the mother's tank noticed an extra small porpoise. Officials were notified and discovered the baby had portions of the umbilical cord still attached, indicating very recent birth.

"I was astounded and delighted," Norris said. "There is no doubt in my mind that Mamo is the result of porpoises who are of different species, different genus and different families. The baby is a perfect intermediate."

Mamo, who spends his days playing, feeding and growing in the large tank with his mother, shows all signs of being a healthy male porpoise. His antics delight scientists and visitors at Sea Life Park, the commercial arm of the Oceanic Institute.

"He has his father's snout and his mother's rounded stomach and dorsal fin," Norris said. "Since crosses can produce qualities in the offspring that are not in the parents, Mamo may be full of surprises."

The rough-toothed porpoise generally works hard, is very intelligent, inventive and is tops for training purposes, Norris said. The Atlantic bottlenose is also intelligent and easy to get along with, so scientists at the institute are hoping Mamo will turn out to be "a highly intelligent animal with a good disposition."

Norris is anxious to prove to other scientists that Mamo's rare geneology is genuine and said blood tests will be taken when he's older.

"What happened here has never been observed to happen before in history," Norris said, "and is not supposed to be possible."

He said it will be particularly interesting to see what kind of offspring stem from Mamo, if he is able to reproduce, "since the genetic mechanism may be so tangled up as to render him sterile."

"This whole incident has raised questions about what is possible and what isn't in genetics," Norris said.

Another problem bothering scientists at the Institute is what kind of scientific designation to give Mamo, an animal that supposedly couldn't be born.

Convicts Claim Bias Treatment

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) —Sixteen convicts at Folsom Prison filed a Superior Court suit Wednesday charging they were placed in segregation units because of their race and beliefs.

The suit said the prisoners — 15 blacks and one Chicano — were removed from the prison's general population on charges ranging from "conspiring to take over the institution" to being a Black Panther and associating with known radicals.

The prisoners' attorneys said the 16 have not had the usual prison disciplinary hearing and are kept in their cells 23 to 24 hours a day without regular prison privileges or programs.

No Light Shed On Complaint Letter

Two trustees of the San Anselmo School District reported yesterday that a three-hour session with teachers has shed no light on an ambiguous letter of complaint by teachers.

Trustees Eugene E. Jacks and Mary H. Olive said the specific gripes hinted at in the letter — given the district board in October — are still hidden. However, they may emerge when the trustees consider the matter Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Red Hill School library.

Jacks and Mrs. Olive were appointed to meet with teachers when the letter to trustees surfaced at the Nov. 2 trustee meeting, and did so without public notice.

The board took the position that the two could meet privately and without public notice with teachers under provisions of the Winton Act and were supported by Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino.

(The state Legislature's counsel, George H. Murphy, in October gave the opinion that committes of less than a quorum of a governing board remain subject to the Ralph M. Brown Act provisions requiring public notice of special meetings.)

At the closed meeting, Jacks said, the teachers did not say what specifically prompted the letter or what trustees it is aimed at.

However, Mrs. Olive said she believes she is a target. She said, "The staff felt not all my votes supported the superintendent and that requests for information from the district office affected the superintendent's morale adversely."

The letter, dated Oct. 18, claims Supt. W. Kenneth Lowry had talked of resigning because "some members of the board evidence lack of faith in his recommendations."

It further states, "We feel that there may be greater potential for growth in our district when the stresses that seem to exist between some members of the board and the superintendent are resolved, so that education in the district can move forward." It is signed by the Certificated Employees of the San Anselmo School District.

Lowry is praised for pushing through new programs which in the past were adopted, "then forgotten, perhaps because of lack of consistent interest on the part of the board." The letter does not specify the programs.

Mrs. Olive said the letter may have sprouted from confustion in the district about the relationship of Lowry to the board. Jacks said the teachers "know there are unhappy people around for one reason or another."

Wife Beating Count Dropped

A misdemeanor charge of wife beating against Lucien B. Vincilione, 63, of Forest Knolls, has been dismissed in Marin Municipal Court.

He was arrested June 20 on suspicion of a felony count of the same charge after his wife told Marin County sheriff's deputies that he had hit her about the head and face for no apparent reason.

Panel Is Selected For Parolee Study

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Att. Gen. Evelle J. Younger today appointed a commission to investigate whether dangerous convicts are being released on probation and parole too early.

He said the 10-member task force would seek to learn "whether probationers and parolees are, by virtue of being out of prison when they would have been incarcerated a decade ago, posing an excessive threat of criminal activity to society."

Younger told a news conference that the recent slaying of a Los Angeles police officer by an inmate released on a 27-hour pre-parole pass has "properly raised questions about the administration of our parole and probation programs."

He said the special commission would analyze existing statistical data and probably complete its report in three to six months.

Members of the task force include Los Angeles Chief of Police Edward Davis, who has been bitterly critical of the existing parole and probation system, and Herb Ellingwood, legal affairs secretary to Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The governor recently strongly defended the 27-hour pre-parole pass system in the wake of the shooting. He said it was the first of its type and that thousands of convicts had been issued such passes without incident.

Other members include California Youth Authority chairman Allen Breed; Associate Justice Lynn D. Campton of the state District Court of Appeal at Los Angeles; James Geary, Santa Clara County sheriff; Henry Kerr, state Adult Authority chairman; Raymond Procunier, state director of corrections; James Solomon, president of the California Probation Officers Association; District Attorney Edward Miller of San Diego County, and Robert Houghton of the state Department of Justice.

At a newsman's suggestion, Younger also agreed to appoint a public defender to the task force.

LSD Use Soars

MANILA (UPI)—The Manila police criminal intelligence division reports that an alarming number of students in at least 90 per cent of exclusive girls' schools in Greater Manila are using LSD.

A POPULAR HOSTESS

Her Background Is International

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mrs. William McDougal of Sausalito is well known as an international hostess who entertains constantly at luncheons, dinners and other events for which she prepares foods of many nations.

One of these is the gala "International Food and Drink Festival" she is having at her home tomorrow for the League of Women Voters of Southern Marin, of which she is a member.

Less well known is the international background in which she developed her talents.

Born and educated in Colomba, the capital of Ceylon, the former Padmini Jayawardena, was married in 1963 to William McDougal, a Scotsman who was in Ceylon with the Asia Foundation. He is now in the San Francisco office of the foundation working with its program development, but before they came to Sausalito in 1968, the McDougals also lived in Korea and East Pakistan.

Even before she was married, Padmini had spent considerable time in Red China, Japan, the United States and Canada in connection with her interests and social work.

AT HER HOME in Sausalito, where Padmini does her gourmet cooking and works on ceramics at her potter's wheel, she spoke of her life in Ceylon and other countries.

"I graduated from the Visakha Vidyalaya private girls' school," she said. "It was operated on the British system, where one goes straight through from kindergarten through high school. Then I attended a school of agriculture for girls two years and received a diploma.

"This school was started by the first prime minister for city girls so that they would be interested in the country and stay there because some had been leaving their husbands in the country to come to the city. I had to get used to milking, but I found it fun," she said.

It turned out that this training was very helpful in the social work the young Ceylonese woman did on a volunteer basis for a number of years in the field of community development with rural people.

Padmini explained that she was able to do all of her work on a volunteer basis because the parents of educated girls in Ceylon expect to support them until they are married.

"WOMEN ARE as free as men in Ceylon," she said proudly, "and they have always been so in our society. We have had the franchise since 1931, and women are active politically and socially. But we don't need the kind of liberation you want in this country," she added.

Attributing the status of women in her country in part to Buddhism, Padmini noted, "When Buddha accepted women as nuns over 2,000 years ago, women became equal with men."

In 1957 Padmini was one of the women from seven countries that recognized communist China who were invited on an individual basis to visit China.

"We visited nurseries, libraries, factories, old age homes and youth groups with their youth palaces for extra-curriclar activities. Everywhere we found women in all fields. I was present at the opening of a bridge, and the engineer in charge was a woman.

"IN PRESENT Chinese society, though salaries are low, men and women are paid equally according to the work they do.

"When you remember in the old China women were treated like animals and sold like horses if they didn't bear children, you find it amazing how a nation can change like this. I don't go with their politics, but I admire a nation where women are fully recognized."

It was at this time that Padmini met the famed Mme. Sun Yat Sen during a visit to her home in Peking and the wife of Chou En-lai at a state dinner given for the visiting women.

The young Ceylonese social worker also spent six months in Japan, where she took a course in case and group work offered by the World Assembly of Youth in Tokyo, and at the same time took lessons in flower arranging.

PADMINI FIRST visited the United States in 1955, when she received a scholarship from the World Assembly of Youth to visit U.S. homemakers' clubs and other groups like 4 H.

From there she went to Canada, where she was very much impressed with what women had accomplished.

"The first Women's Institute was started at Stony Castle in Ontario in 1897," she said, "and now there is a Federation of Women's Institutes in Canada which is associated with the international organization called Country Women of the World with headquarters in London. Organizations in the United States are associated with it too," she pointed out, "such as the farm home makers' clubs."

There is a rural training center for women in Ceylon today, she said, and at one time she was its honorary director.

Padmini continued to observe the status of women in other countries after she was married and while she and her husband were living in Korea and East Pakistan.

"IN KOREA," she said, "I felt that women are the country's most untapped resource — they lack confidence. In East Pakistan the situation is even worse. Except for a few upper class women, they are still backward and stay within their homes so that few are even seen on the streets."

When the McDougals were living in Korea from 1963 to 1965, Padmini, who had heard in Ceylon of League of Women Voters in the United States, wrote the League's office in Washington, D.C., asking if she could become a member.

She became a "member-at-large," and on coming to Sausalito in 1968 she immediately joined the Southern Marin unit.

The McDougals belong to the International Hospitality Center in San Francisco and entertain foreign visitors frequently in their home. They are also members of the Mill Valley Scottish Dance Club, which meets at the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley.

MRS. WILLIAM McDOUGAL of Sausalito, when she was the former Padmini Jayawardena of Ceylon, was greeted at a state dinner in Peking by the wife of communist China's premier, Chou En-lai. She was one of a group of women from seven countries invited on an individual basis to visit the People's Republic of China.

SEEING the Great Wall of China was a high point for Mrs. William McDougal during her visit to China in 1957 as a specially invited guest. With Mrs. McDougal (left), are two other prominent women from Ceylon, Mrs. Deraniyagala (center), a lawyer who was president of the International Alliance of Women, and Miss Muttukumuru, famous in her country as a gourmet cook who catered parties.

POWs Being Remembered On 2 Fronts

By LIZ LAGUE

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — As the holidays approach, California is remembering the nationa's hundreds of prisoners of war and missing men in Vietnam with practical as well as symbolic measures.

On the practical side, Sen. Clair W. Burgener, R-Rancho Santa Fe, and Assemblyman John Stull, R-Leucadia, have introduced a senate concurrent resolution aimed at allowing the dependent children of the POWs and missing to attend the University of California or state colleges tuition free.

They have announced they will introduce legislation to this effect when the senate and assembly reconvene in January.

Their proposal was backed by the National League of Families of American Prisoners and missing. The league hopes similar laws will be passed by the other 49 states.

WHILE CALIFORNIA has the largest contingent of men in the POW-missing categories, the bill will, so far, affect only about 300 children over the next 15 years or so — on an average less than 20 annually.

And while this relief measure is being planned inside the State Capitol Building, the nation's 317 known-by-name prisoners of war will be remembered on the park-like capitol grounds, thanks to the efforts to the league's northern California members.

A giant spruce tree will be decorated with 317 stars, and red, white and blue lights as well, reminding Californians of their sons and brothers who will be absent for at least one more Christmas.

"WE'RE DOING this to show that Californians care about all American servicemen and their families, and give their moral support and prayers for their safe return," says Mrs. Robert C. Fox, a Sacramentan who helped arrange the tree lighting ceremony.

"Four of us" Northern California members of the National League of Families of American Prisoners "attended the POW conference in Washington D.C. Two of the others thought of having a tree. We presented the idea to local league members and they liked it," she explains. There are eight on the committee who arranged use of the tree with state officials and organized the ceremony.

"We're very excited because Sonny and Cher Bono are attending," said Mrs. Fox. "They're going to talk and will be presented with a plaque for their POW work in California."

Mrs. Ronald Reagan will switch the tree lights on in evening ceremonies Dec. 6.

At Conference

Mrs. Faydelle Starkey, headmistress of Alpha Schools in San Rafael, is attending the Western Division Conference of the Private Nursery School Association, which is being held through Sunday in Palo Alto.

Klein's New Design Fuller Than Skinny

Tired of the skinny shapes, fashion designer Calvin Klein has come up with the topper tent, fuller than the skinny look but still very narrow through the shoulders and bosom.

Peking, Rome Plan Reciprocal Shows

China will hold its first overseas trade and fashion show next year in Italy, according to Women's Wear Daily, and Italy will reciprocate in 1973 with a show in Peking.

The ready-to-wear trade newspaper says the Peking show is expected to be held in April at the Milan International Sample Fair.

Infant Development Program Set Monday

A public program on early infant development will be presented Monday at 8 p.m. at the Marin Montessori School in Corte Madera.

The program will include a discussion and demonstration of sensory-motor work with infants, including techniques for stimulating visual and auditory perception. Emphasis will be placed on how parents may encourage perception and learning in their own children, and appropriate materials and toys will also be presented.

Speaker will be Mary Ann Newcomb, who developed the concept of the Atypical Infant Development Program for the Marin County Mental Health Service, and is now in charge of programs for blind and deaf children in Northern California. She holds a master of arts degree in special education and has lectured at San Francisco State College and the University of California on early child development.

An "Infant Kit" is also available through the school and contains material presented in previous discussions, workshops, and demonstrations.

Colorful glass cannisters brighten a kitchen.

Marin Women

Fur Manufacturers Will Counter Conservationists

The Associated Fur Manufacturers are planning to launch a broad educational and promotional campaign to offset the antifur campaign of recent years by conservationists and other groups.

Women's Wear Daily reports that the fur manufacturers have approved a self-taxing plan to raise some $500,000 the first year of the pro-fur campaign. The furriers expect to be joined by other manufacturers, jobbers and buyers to produce a million dollars to promote furs.

Furriers on the West Coast have organized the Fur Conservation Institute of California to fight against emotional campaigns that "threaten the whole fur industry", according to the women's apparel trade paper. The California group also has focused immediate attention on the new California law barring the use of seal fur.

Bay Area Skiers Party Set Dec. 1

"The Bay Area Skiers' Party" will be held Dec. 1 by the San Francisco Annex and the Far West Ski Association as a benefit for the United States Ski Team development program, prior to the Winter Olympics in February at Sapporo, Japan.

The party will be held at 2 Kansas Street in San Francisco, beginning at 7 p.m. It will feature ski stars, guests in apres ski wear, a fashion show of ski and after-ski clothes and a buffet dinner.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Racist Writer Heads The List For Responses During October

DEAR READERS:

If you'd like to know which letter inspired most reader replies last month — we've got an all time winner ("loser" is a better word) in "D," who spouted vitriol about "half-breed mongrels," and proclaimed he was for "God, my Country and the American Way of Life, and if God had meant blacks, browns, reds and yellows to mingle with us, He'd have made them all one color — white!"

"D" might stand for "Depressed," if he could read my mail, which was 100 per cent against him. Here are samples:

DEAR HELEN:

In my lifetime I have seen, heard and encountered a great deal of bigotry, but "D" deserves the A.B. award. Such junk from a sick mind could hardly be labeled the American Way of Life. And what gall to mention God in such a corrupt display of words! God's love does not come in race, creed or color, for it is divine love.

Poor "D" must be miserable harboring such ugly feelings. I won't try to change him as I learned when a child that ignorant turns a deaf ear to reason. I'll only say that since I am black and my husband is white, I pray all the "Ds" will look the other way when our "half-breed mongrels" are born. — TINA

DEAR HELEN:

My husband is Mexican. I am white. We have two lovely children who, as do many others of mixed marriages, will learn what it is like in both worlds and, hopefully, will grow up to end the hate between races. Perhaps in our next generation, there will be no "Ds" left. — MIXED MARRIAGE

DEAR HELEN:

This is for that bigoted "D" who is probably a male supremist also:

A man "died" and was brought back to life on the operating table. In those few moments, he told friends, he went to Heaven and remembered what he saw.

I even met God," he said. "And you know something? — SHE's black! — HAP

DEAR HELEN:

Why can't the "Ds" of this world grow up? What has the color of the skin to do with the person?

The sky is blue, the grass is green. Would the sky, if it were green, and the grass, if it were blue, be any less beautiful. Or would we feel threatened by them? — K.B.

DEAR K:

. . .Not when we became accustomed to the difference — which is the process we're somewhat painfully going through right now.

Judging from my mail, we've come a long, long way, but there's still a bumpy road ahead. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

An old saying goes, "Birds of a feather flock together." I don't approve of "D" and his rabid prejudice but, on the other hand, wild animals, birds, fish, don't interbreed. Maybe we weren't meant to either. — DUTCH

P.S. This is "Dutch's" wife speaking: Between us, we have French, German, English, Italian, Greek and Norwegian ancestors, so that makes our children pretty mixed! — HIS WIFE

DEAR DUTCH AND HIS WIFE:

Apropos of nothing at all (and I'm not trying to prove anything: let's leave that to the anthropologists), but a question just popped into my mind: Why is it wild animals don't crossbreed, but almost all domesticated animals — cats, dogs, cattle, horses, etc. —do? A Pekinese and an Airedale, for example, can cohabit and reproduce, though they certainly haven't as much in common as a coyote and a wolf. Or have they?

(Dear Margaret Mead: Have I asked a dumb question?) —

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

A BURNING ISSUE

The flammability of children's nightwear has been under study by consumer groups, the U.S. government and now the American Trial Lawyers Association, who are campaigning for legislation requiring all nightwear sold in the U.S. to be flame resistant. Here at a New York news conference a child's 100 per cent cotton gown ignited by attorney Herman B. Glaser (left) is totally consumed by flames while cotton pajamas treated to retard flammability show only a scorched surface when subjected to blow torch flame by Prof. James M. Church of Columbia University. The nightwear manufacturers, on the other hand, say new flammability standards are too stringent. (UPI Telephoto)

Labor Dept. Aide Will Talk At Redwood Tuesday

Pat Baker, public relations director for the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor, will present a lecture, "Women and Work in the '70s and '80s — Fact and Myth," Tuesday at 12:40 p.m. in the Little Theater at Redwood High School.

The program is the second in a series of public career-oriented presentations sponsored by Women on the Move, an organization of student, faculty and community men and women concerned with the woman's movement.

WOM members plan monthly talks on subjects relating to careers and the woman's movement.

Adults Need Milk

Adults require fewer calories as they grow older, but they never outgrow their need for milk, every day. Adults need two or more glasses of milk per day, say Dairy Council of California nutrition consultants.

Couple Will Be Married In St. Louis

The future bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cole of St. Louis, and the future bridegroom's parents are Col. (ret.) and Mrs. Matthew C. Harrison of San Anselmo.

Judith is the sister of Sally Cole of Los Angeles, Ronald L. Cole of Eugene, Ore., Dennis M. Cole of Bozeman, Mont., and David A. Cole of St. Louis. She was graduated from high school and Washington University, both in St. Louis. The future bride is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Former editor of "ETC.", an airline travel club magazine, she is a freelance writer in Washington, D.C.

Matthew is the brother of Vicki L., Anne L., Philip D. and Robert G. Harrison. He was graduated from high school in Arlington, Va. and from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. He is studying at the American University in Washington, D.C., and following the receipt of a master's degree in international relations in January will be stationed with the Army at Fort Belvoir, Va.

Marin Couples Will Attend Benefit Ball

By MOLLY MARIN

A number of Marin couples will be on hand tomorrow night for the Autumn Carousel dance of the San Francisco Auxiliary to the Florence Crittenton Home. The benefit ball will be held at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel's Garden Court.

Prior to the dance Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dahlgren of Mill Valley will entertain friends at a cocktail party. Mrs. Dahlgren is chairman of the Autumn Carousel.

Other Marinites who will be guests at the dance are Mr. and Mrs. John G. Eliot of Mill Valley (she is auxiliary president), Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kim of Belvedere, Messrs. and Mmes. Julian Apley, Jorgen With-Seidelin and Frederick J. Moller, all of Mill Valley; C. Vincent de Nevers of Greenbrae; Joseph C. Barton of Ross; Lee O. Snyder, Douglas Moore, Willis Silverthorne, Richard W. Canady and Gerald Elbert Jr., all of Tiburon, and William Van Horne of Kentfield.

LEAVING THIS week for Haiti is Mrs. Eleanor Snare of Novato. She plans to live with her daughter, Eleanor Snare, who is a school teacher there. Mrs. Snare, who has lived in Novato for the past 10 years, has been active there in senior citizens activities and St. Francis Episcopal Church.

SOME 250 guests are expected tomorrow night at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon for the 21st annual Tiburon Volunteer Firemen's Ball. Louis Baker is chairman. The guests will begin a social hour at 8 p.m. and dancing will follow at 9 p.m.

First Meeting Tomorrow Of Equity Action League

The first regular meeting of the California Chapter of the Women's Equity Action League will be held tomorrow in Los Angeles at the Airport Marina Hotel.

On the board of the new chapter is attorney Jettie Pierce Selvig of Mill Valley. Its state president is Doris Seward of Whittier, and national advisory board member is Ruth Church Gupta, San Francisco attorney and prominent member of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of California.

WEAL was formed nationally to promote greater economic progress on the part of American women and to work toward legal and economic equality for women.

Ruth Church Gupta will present a summary of problems and progress in the legal area at the meeting.

Fat Can Sub For Butter

In some recipes that call for butter, other fats may be substituted. For each cup of butter allow one cup margarine or 7/8 to one cup hydrogenated fat or lard plus ½ teaspoon salt.

To measure butter, press it firmly into a measuring cup or onto spoon and level with the straight edge of a spatula. Butter equivalents are one pound to two cups and four sticks to 32 tablespoons.

Blanching Is Preheating

Blanching is the process of preheating vegetables in boiling water or steam to inactivate enzymes for canning, freezing or drying. Fruits should be blanched (or pre-cooked) in boiling fruit juice, syrup, water or steam.

The process of removing skins from nuts, fruits and some vegetables is also known as blanching.

MRS. EARL MARSHALL
New worthy matron

Eastern Star Will Install On Saturday

Mrs. Earl G. Marshall of Novato will be installed as worthy matron and Mr. Marshall will be installed as worthy patron of the Novato Chapter 609, Order of Eastern Star, at 8 p.m., Saturday at the Druids Hall in Novato.

Mrs. Marshall has also served as Adah, Electa, associate conductress, conductress and associate matron and she was a charter member in 1955. Plans for the club year include a crab feed in January, a luncheon and card party in May and a rummage sale.

The new worthy matron was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., and has lived in Marin County 19 years. She and her husband, an engineer with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., are the parents of Christine, 21; William, 20; Kathleen, 19, and Earl Jr., 17.

Other officers to be installed are Mrs. Kenneth Jones, associate matron; Buford Gilliland, associate patron; Mrs. Stanford Warner, secretary; Mrs. Thomas Wiggin, treasurer; Mrs. Calvin Ball, conductress; Mrs. George MacDonald, associate conductress; Jerry Henderson, chaplain; Mmes. Stephen Shoemaker, marshal; Carroll Cruz, organist; Laird Stortz, Adah; Buford Gilliland, Ruth; Carl Rechsteiner; Esther; William Wharton, Martha; Lawrence Dacquisto, Electa; Murl Mahler, warder; Mr. Carroll Cruz, sentinel; Mrs. Kathryn Sheraw, prompter; Thomas Wiggin, flag bearer; Mrs. James Lewis, hostess; Murl Mahler, lights, and Mrs. Jefferson Conover, publicity.

Center At St. Paul's Is Expanding

The Creative Living Center, which began last year at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael, has expanded its program to include an encounter group and folk dancing, according to Mrs. Joyce Barnett, historian for the center and director of the expanded arts and crafts program.

The center continues on Mondays from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. in San Rafael and a similar program at the Novato Methodist Church on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. has been added, according to the coordinator, Doris Clark of the Community Mental Health Center, which sponsors the program.

The number of volunteers and participants has increased significantly, says Mrs. Clark, the only professional member of the volunteer staff.

"We are realizing our intent to create a grass roots program within the community," she says, "and are reaching persons who have a need for establishing relationships.

"People need people to further their self awareness and potential and for personal growth, positive growth, enrichment and friendship."

Some Hints On Butter Storage

To store butter, leave it in its original package and keep in the refrigerator or freezer. Place partially used portions of butter in a covered dish, refrigerate and use up within a few days.

Butter can be frozen for several months if it is wrapped in a moisture-vaporproof packaging material.

A New Babysitting Realm—The Groceries

By SANDRA HAGGERTY

"But I wasn't gone more than 10 minutes. And my turkey, too!" The woman was obviously exasperated as she talked to the police officer.

That 10 minutes was just long enough for two men to drive up to her car, break in and swiftly transfer the eight huge bagsful of groceries that the carry-out boy had placed on the back seat of her car minutes before, to their car and drive away in full view of several passing shoppers.

It was later discovered that this is a common MO (method of operation) for egg-men, food rip-off artists. They have increased in number and are particularly active in shopping areas where a shopper might browse around in other stores after placing his groceries in his car.

THE EGG-MEN do most of their work around the first of the month — considering your payday their payday. But the holidays are upon us and, of course, the rip-off season runs concurrent with Thanksgiving and Christmas.

While people in high crime rate areas are used to parting with their color television sets, small appliances and even their purses, the stealing of food is initially viewed with mixed emotions.

Compassion might be one's first reaction. After all, if a person is hungry and must resort to stealing food in order to eat, then he should have the food. No one should be forced to go hungry.

HOWEVER, IT'S a whole new ball game when one discovers that the stealing of groceries has increased in the inner city simply because rip-off artists have reassessed their market —that is, hot eggs (poached, fried or stolen) are selling more readily than hot television sets.

On a given corner, one can purchase — sight unseen —five bags of recently purchased groceries for $5. Or one can shop on an a la carte basis —a $5 pot roast for $1.50. And, would you believe, that's a crowded corner?

AND, LET'S face it, it's a lot harder for the egg-men to be caught red-handed carrying a bag of groceries than a color television set.

The thing to be remembered is that while a hot dozen of eggs, on one end of the "stick," is a bargain, one can also expect to be on the opposite end of that same stick. And purchasing groceries that never make it to your home is not a happy situation.

So rip-off season for Mr. and Mrs. Cleotis P. Jones, average, struggling shoppers, is a time for extra caution. Lock your groceries in the trunk of your car. Conceivably, it takes more time and greater elbow grease to crowbar open your trunk than to break your window.

Try to do all your shopping in one swoop. Or let one person remain in the car. It seems a shame to have to baby-sit your groceries, but it's one solution —especially if you've just purchased a month's supply of food.

Marinite Is Taking Part In Career Program

Linda LaVere, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. La Vere of San Rafael, is taking part in the secondary education careers program at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa.

She is one of 56 students who has begun the professional program, teaching away from campus for two months in preparation for a teaching career after graduation.

Linda is in Rochester, Minn., observing classrooms and doing some teaching. Her teaching responsibilities will increase as she continues the program before returning to her studies on campus on Dec. 10.

Scholarship For Barbara Caswell

Barbara E. Caswell, daughter of Mrs. Arthur B. Caswell of Ignacio and the late Mr. Caswell, is the recipient of a Beneficial Finance Scholarship for the 1971-72 term. She attends San Francisco State College and is a graduate of College of Marin.

Mr. Caswell was a manager with the Beneficial Finance System, which awards scholarships to children of employees based on the student's contributions to school and community, academic performance, economic requirements and chances for future success.

'AMUSEMENT PARK' — Aurelia Mullen (left), as the Busy Body, and Terri Ewell, as the Gentleman, are garbed in 1890 costume for a scene from "The Amusement Park," to be performed at Dominican College on Nov. 29 and Dec. 1, 3 and 4.

'Amusement Park' Ballet Dates Set

The School of Classic Ballet will perform "The Amusement Park," a two-act children's ballet by Paul F. Page, on Nov. 29 and Dec. 1, 3 and 4 in Angelico Hall on the Dominican College campus, San Rafael.

The ballet, featuring hero and villain scenes, will be danced by 77 girls. Joan Edgerton Gabert is director and Mark Jordan, set designer.

Performance times are 1:30 p.m. Nov. 29 and Dec. 1, 10:30 a.m. Dec. 3 and 8 p.m. Dec. 4. Tickets are available through the college or Mrs. Royale Radke of Larkspur.

No Reinecke Probe Planned

SACRAMENTO (UPI) —State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger says he has no plans to investigate a charge that Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke has spent thousands of taxpayer dollars to wage an election campaign for governor.

"If anybody presented any evidence to us that public funds were being misused by any public employe we would respond appropriately," Younger said Thursday, "but that has not been done."

The charge was made Wednesday by Hal D. Steward, a former Reinecke aide, who claimed the lieutenant governor was prosecuting a long-range election campaign and spending public funds to do so.

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies now being shown in Marin County. The council's findings are from California and National Parent-Teacher Assn.. Magazines and Parent's Magazine unless otherwise noted. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael Library.

FAMILY

"On Any Sunday" — The variety of motorcycle competitions across 100,000 miles of track around the world is presented in a documentary style with frequent touches of humor. Great photography.

"Soul to Soul" — A group of black American musicians help Ghana in this year's Independence celebration. This documentary is more than soul music, it is the interaction of the two cultures beautifully captured.

ADULTS AND TEENS

"Custer of the West" — The story of Gen. George Custer and his 226 soldiers and their battle in the Little Big Horn.

"Dr. Zhivago" — Lives of a handful of people in Russia before the war and after the revolution. Superb photography, acting and music.

"Hellstrom Chronicle" — Fascinating and incredibly detailed study of the insect world. It conveys a new awareness of the world we inhabit.

"Mad Dogs and Englishmen" — An artsy documentary of Joe Cocker, a hoarse-voiced hard rock English star. No depth of character revealed but rather a visual record album with cursing and nudity.

"Murphy's War" — British merchant seaman is obsessed with getting revenge against the submarine responsible for the loss of his shipmates. Well done.

"The Organization" — In this sequel, Sidney Poitier returns as Lt. Virgil Tibbs, a detective in San Francisco in search of a murderer after a $4 million heroin robbery. Fast moving thriller. (Boxoffice Magazine)

"The Reivers" — Warm, nostalgic, bawdy film about a 12-year-old boy's schooling in the facts of life during one week-end. Good human values presented but much of the action is in a brothel making it unsuitable for young children.

"Tokoloshe, The Evil Spirit" — A rather amateurish South African made melodrama about a small black boy, marked for death by a witch doctor is sent away from home by his mother. After a long journey he is befriended by a blind white man.

"2001: Space Odyssey" — An astounding science fiction tale about space travelers and the computer that causes a struggle for survival. Highly imaginative production.

BORDERLINE

(Most sources say Adults Only)

"Little Big Man" — A tragic-comic history of Indian-white relations as recalled by a 121-year-old gunfighter. Much violence and bloody fighting and some impudent sex scenes.

"Man Called Horse" — Accurate tribal rituals of Sioux Indians. Film dwells mainly on the violent rather than peaceful traditions. An English aristocrat captured by Sioux and brutally treated is determined to prove his manhood by their standards.

"Summer of '42" — Three 15-year-old boys wander through an island beach summer, obsessed with sex and its mysteries. Their explorations of the subject and their coming of age is frankly presented.

"They Shoot Horses, Don't They" — A powerful but depressing and unusual drama about a dance marathon in 1932 that functions as a parable of American life. Uniformly excellent cast. The ending is macabre and shocking.

ADULTS ONLY

"Carnal Knowledge" — The sex lives of two men from college days to middle age done in a two-dimensional, cynical, satirical style which becomes tiresome. Fine performances from cast. Language and sex are explicit.

"Goodbye Gemini" — Murder, gore and sexual perversion form the basis of this sordid film. When a man tries to come between twin sisters they unite to slaughter him in an exceeding bloody fashion. A tasteless film with nothing to recommend. Sex and nudity.

"No Blade of Grass" — British ecology drama contrived, nightmarish science fiction. A nasty portrait of people under panic conditions including a birth scene with nothing omitted. Pity it is a farce when an important statement might have been made.

"Shaft" — A tough black detective outwits white police and the Mafia in rescuing the daughter of an underworld gangster. Excessive use of violence, brutality, cursing, sex and nudity.

"The Stewardesses" — The crew of a Honolulu to L.A. flight find various sex diversions on their off time. Vignettes designed solely to undress everyone in the shortest possible time. Filmed in 3-D. (Boxoffice Magazine)

Conference Set In Pot Case

Morgan McVicker, 27, of Kentfield, has pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court to misdemeanor charges of possessing marijuana and reckless driving.

Pretrial conference was set Wednesday for Nov. 24.

McVicker was arrested last Friday after Larkspur police said they saw him speeding through the parking lot of the Bon Air Shopping Center and then chased the car at 65 to 70 miles an hour to Ash Avenue in Kentfield.

The suspected marijuana was found in the car police said.

Prison Libraries Plan By Younger

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Attorney General Evelle J. Younger believes that attorneys could help finance larger prison law libraries by paying a fee to use them.

Younger made the suggestion Thursday in connection with the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling that California must provide more extensive legal libraries for convicts.

"They used to play baseball in prison for recreation," he said. "Now they file lawsuits."

"The prison libraries now are already better than many lawyers can afford, so maybe we can figure out a way of allowing lawyers to use prison libraries and charge a fee for it," he said.

Festival General Meeting Is Monday

Marin Shakespeare Festival annual general meeting will be held Monday at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dahl in San Rafael, the festival board has announced.

Plans for the 1972 Marin Shakespeare Festival season will be discussed, new directors named, and officers for the coming year elected.

'College Night' At Drake High

Sir Francis Drake High School will hold its annual "college night" at 7:30 p.m. in the school's Little Theater.

Representatives of four colleges will be present. Irwin P. Diamond, College of Marin dean of students, will speak on community colleges; Lynda Nystrom of the University of California, Berkeley, will discuss the UC campuses; Terry Cole of Stanford University will talk about private colleges, and Ferd Reddell, San Francisco State College, will represent the state college system and serve as keynote speaker.

Berkeley Bach Choir Will Sing

A twilight concert by the Berkeley Bach Choir will be presented at 5 p.m. Sunday in the Community Congregational Church of Tiburon, 145 Rock Hill Drive.

The program will include the "Requiem", as well as other works by French composer Gabriel Faure. Admission will be charged, and refreshments are included.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

THIRD SECTION SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1971 21

ONE WILL BE QUEEN FOR A DAY

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

The former Nike missile site in Santa Venetia is being considered for an honor farm adjunct to the Marin County Jail.

If obtained, the site would be used for "a combination honor farm-work furlough center," according to Michael A. Chrystal, senior administrative analyst in the county administrator's office. Its primary purpose would be to eliminate "farming out" prisoners to Sonoma County as result of crowding of the 109-bed jail atop the Hall of Justice.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos said he thinks the site would be "just about ideal." He said the tight county jail security is not needed for prisoners on the work furlough program who report at the jail each evening after work, nor for those sentenced to serve weekends in jail.

The facility would be operated by the probation department, Mountanos said. James B. Soetart, chief deputy probation officer, is participating in the site study and expressed general agreement with the sheriff.

Chrystal said the property was quit-claimed back to the Mary Silveira family when the Army closed the Nike installation. Barracks and kitchen are mostly intact.

He said study is being made of the cost of converting the former military installation at the end of Smith Ranch Road into an honor farm. Whether its acquisition by the county is recommended will be based largely on how those costs compare with the amounts paid annually to Sonoma County for housing Marin's jail population surplus, he said.

Chrystal said he hoped to have a report for the county board of supervisors "late in December."

Need for an honor farm was emphasized recently when Marin "farmed out" 60 prisoners to Sonoma County. The number since has been reduced about half.

Mountanos has been urging an honor farm since before the jail was moved to the Hall of Justice. He said, however, that Lt. Newall B. Snyder, who is in charge of the jail, "didn't mean it" when he told a reporter recently that the Hall of Justice jail had never been intended "to house sentenced prisoners."

"What he meant was prisoners sentenced to serve weekends or on work furlough," Mountanos said. "We have prisoners in the jail under sentence for all the way from one day to one year, and we will continue to have them there regardless of whether we get an honor farm."

Mountanos said the honor farm proposal has been delayed because it was felt the new jail would have so much capacity it could handle all prisoners — which proved not to be true soon after it opened.

He cited a memorandum to him from County Administrator John F. Barrows (then assistant county administrator) on Feb. 16, 1970, saying:

"Your submittal (for inclusion in the 1970-71 capital improvements program) included a jail honor camp very simlar to a proposal submitted by your department in the 1969 program. Since the administrator recommended against this matter during the life of the six-year program and since the board of supervisors took no issue with the administrator's recommendation, we believe it would be of no value to reopen the issue in the 1970 capital program. Therefore, there will be no reference to the jail honor camp in the 1970 submittal from the administrator."

Defense Rests In Murder Case

WASHINGTON, Pa. (UPI)— The defense rested its case today in the murder trial of Aubran W. "Buddy" Martin after the defendant denied he told a former prison cellmate he killed three members of the Yablonski family.

Martin was the last witness called by defense Attorney Mark J. Goldberg to rebut the testimony of Charles Guyer, who said Thursday Martin admitted he had killed the Yablonskis while the two were being held in the Greensburg state prison.

When Goldberg asked Martin if he told Guyer he killed the Yablonskis, Martin said, "No sir, I did not, but I told him that this was what Claude Vealey said I did." Vealey, 27, has confessed to the murders.

Bus Fare Schedule On To Bridge Board

A bus fare structure giving both the commuter and the casual patron a cheaper ride than Greyhound was unanimously recommended yesterday by two committees of the Golden Gate Bridge District.

If the full board approves the proposed fares and other policies at its Nov. 23 meeting, the new rates will take effect when the district's Golden Gate Corridor bus fleet begins operation, hopefully in January.

A Petaluma commuter, under the proposed fare schedule, would pay $2 for a daily round trip. The occasional rider's round-trip fare would be $2.50. Greyhound presently charges the commuter $1.92 and the casual rider $2.40, but has been granted a 6.5 per cent rate increase effective with the end of the wage-price freeze, according to Dale W. Luehring, bridge district general manager.

Novato commuters would pay $1.50 daily, and occasional riders $2 for a round trip. The round-trip fare for the nonregular Novato rider is $2.30 on Greyhound, $1.68 for a commuter.

The Novato fare would apply to all Marin County riders from the Tiburon Wye north; south of that point, the commute fare would be $1 daily and the casual round trip $1.50.

The bridge district's transportation committee and finance-audit committee endorsed the fares recommended by district staff. Endorsement came only after a worried look at long range budget predictions that Luehring and the staff said were the result of hours of computing, but nonetheless were only estimates.

Over a full year's operation, the bus passengers should pay $3,565,656, according to the estimates of Robert D. Tough, deputy district auditor-controller. But the riders still will leave the bus fleet slightly more than $3 million in the red, to be made up by Golden Gate Bridge toll surpluses and payments by Marin Transit District for intracounty bus service by the bridge bus fleet.

The district buses will take over Marin feeder line service from Marin Transit System, Inc., on Dec. 13, Luehring announced yesterday. The private, Marin City-based bus firm's contract with the county will expire Dec. 10.

The two bridge board committees, chaired by director Michael Wornum of Mill Valley, yesterday also endorsed a five-zone fare plan in contrast to Greyhound's nine zones between San Francisco and Santa Rosa; favored an exact-fare plan in which drivers will reduce robbery risks by carrying no change, and approved the idea of "Golden Gate Currency."

Under the latter plan, the district would sell books of tickets, each worth 25 cents. A bus rider could drop as many of them as needed into the hopper to get where he wanted; a motorist could use two of the tickets for bridge fare, and a ferryboat passenger also could pay with two tickets. Luehring said the tickets initially would be printed in books of 20 to sell for $5.

At Wornum's suggestion, a request from the City of Tiburon that midday Sausalito Ferry runs make two extra stops at Tiburon was referred to the district staff for recommendations.

Golden Gate Bridge District Director Stephan C. Leonoudakis is yesterday unsuccessfully seized on Marin's apparent rejection of further population growth, to demand a halt in spending up to $2 million on plans for rapid transit across the Golden Gate.

He moved to strike $800,000 for a start on the planning, from next year's budget. He cited Marin voters' resounding defeat of the Sonoma-Marin aqueduct on Nov. 2 as an indication of the county's anti-growth philosophy.

At Wornum's suggestion, the committees shelved Leonoudakis's budget cut proposal for future discussion.

Petaluma Zone Plea Approved

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — The Sonoma County Board of Zoning Adjustments yesterday approved a trailer and boat storage operation for the Petaluma area.

Ray R. and Margaret Ainsworth were granted a permit for the storage operation at 4000 Petaluma Boulevard North. The permit also allows some repair work, signs and a home for the operator's living quarters.

The board considered four mobile home requests for Petaluma, denying the request of Nydia Brown to place a mobile home at 461 Corona Road, because the lot size was too small, and denying the request of Herbert Jay Ball for a mobile home at 2890 Middle Two Rock Road after neighbors protested.

The board also ordered Andy Rossen Jr. to abate his mobile home at 1111 Gossage Avenue because of continuing violations of ordinances and set a hearing for Nov. 24 for the request of Alvin Baldwin for a mobile home at 1565 I Street Extension.

Roth To Head Muskie Group

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — William Matson Roth of Ross, a University of California regent and a former U.S. ambassador, has been named Northern California chairman of Citizens for Muskie.

Roth, 55, led the U.S. delegation to the Geneva trade talks in 1968.

Extension Of School Year Eyed

The Rohnert Park Homeowners Association heard reports last night on a study to extend the school year and plans to annex land to Rohnert Park.

Association president James Steinberg said Harold Heth, a teacher and association director, reviewed several plans being considered to extend the school year.

Heth said most persons already understand the 45-15 plan in which students would be in class for 45 days followed by 15 days vacation on a year-round basis, but he noted that several other plans are also getting serious consideration by the Petaluma school district study committee.

MOST SUPPORT

Willing most support from the group was the plan for a normal 38-week school year followed by a voluntary 12-week summer session in which slow students can make up lost credits and bright students can do advanced work and accumulate credits to graduate early.

Heth said the committee was also studying a quarter session plan in which students would be divided into four groups with each spending three of four quarters in class.

Steinberg said representatives of the study committee would be invited next month after the study makes more progress.

ANNEX PLAN

Steinberg said Paul Golis and William White of Land Investors Research Inc. also presented plans to annex 75 acres near Sonoma State College to the city. Plans include housing for students and faculty homes in the $25,000 to $30,000 price range.

Golis told the group that a portion of the land would be dedicated to the college for expansion of the botanical gardens. He said plans also include a new roadway on the north side of the campus to relieve traffic problems on East Cotati Avenue.

Steinberg said the plan met with general approval from the association. The Rohnert Park City Council will consider the annexation request at its meeting Monday at 7 p.m.

Bomb Device Found In School

An unexploded pipe bomb was found yesterday in San Jose Junior High School in Novato, police reported.

A student, Joseph A. Kitchens, 15, of 137 East Kelly Drive, found the bomb on a window ledge in a boy's restroom at 2 p.m. He then told Roy Damas, dean of boys, who removed the bomb.

The bomb had a twisted paper fuse with black powder on it. The fuse had been lit, but had gone out, police reported. The bomb was cut open in a school shop and found to be filled with black powder, police said.

Session Does Not Violate Brown Act

The Marin County District attorney's office said yesterday that investigation of an unannounced meeting of the Marin County Housing Authority board found "no intent" to violate the state's law against secret meetings.

Under the law, the Ralph M. Brown Act, criminal violation exists only when "intent" to exclude the public from a meeting can be proven, according to Asst. Dist. Atty. Gary W. Thomas, who said his office's investigation could find no such intent in the early morning meeting Aug. 7 attended by a quorum of the housing authority board.

(Under the law, local agencies must give 24 hours public notice of special meetings. The Independent-Journal received no such notice)

The meeting was called by Executive Director Wallace K. Shepherd to brief board members on the status of negotiations to regain control of Marin City's undeveloped ridgelands.

The meeting followed a July meeting of the housing authority and redevelopment agency boards which mapped strategy for regaining control of the ridgelands.

At that meeting, an I-J reporter was asked not to publish portions of the discussion. The request was refused.

The unannounced August session was attended by directors Philip S. Ehrlich Jr., James G. McDonald and Arthur Miller Jr., as well as Keith Kelly, assistant to Shepherd, and Robert Pitts, a director of the Marin County Redevelopment Agency.

At the time of the meeting, director Norman Campbell told the I-J that he had refused to attend the meeting because he knew no public notice had been given.

The fifth director, Irving Perlman, said he hadn't been informed of the meeting, though the law requires notification of board members.

He later told a district attorney's investigator that he didn't expect to be told of such meeting since they were for members of the board's negotiating team. However, two of the three directors attending the meeting weren't members of the negotiating team.

The meeting brought an outcry from Marin City residents and the following week they picketed the housing authority's office in Marin City with signs reading "no more secret meetings."

Hearing Set Tonight On Bel Marin Keys Bond

The Bel Marin Keys Community Service District board will hold a public hearing at 8:30 p.m., today in the community center on its $700,000 bond issue.

The proposed bond issue, if approved by the voters at a special election Jan. 11, would finance a lock to the lagoon to prevent future silting, said board chairman James L. Zoeller.

In addition to the board, there will be a representative of the engineering firm of Blum and Associates of San Francisco who made the preliminary study and design of the lock and probably representatives from the county counsel's office and bond officials, Zoeller said.

Burglars Hit Larkspur Firm

Larkspur police today reported a business burglary and two thefts from construction projects in the city.

Police said they were told yesterday that a nailing gun, compressor and air hose valued at $686 were taken prior to Monday from a construction project of the James Menke Co. of Corte Madera on Via Holon.

A $400 post hole auger was reported stolen from a landscaping project on Skylark Drive in the week preceeding Wednesday, police said.

Burglars took $296 in jewelry equipment from the shop of Frederick F. Dowden ao 552½ Magnolia Avenue between Nov. 1 and Nov. 4, police said.

Board In Sausalito Slates Vote

The Sausalito School District board last night set a special election Feb. 1 to choose two replacements for board members who have resigned.

The board postponed a scheduled Jan. 11 election to fill the seat of Nathaniel Johnson in order to combine that election with one to replace Robert H. Thompson, who resigned Tuesday.

Supt. Lawrence A. Lindberg said the board accepted Thompson's resignation last night and named Warren Hansen vice president of the board, a post formerly filled by Thompson.

In other action, Lindberg said, the board approved a lease with the Sausalito Art Center, which occupies a portion of the old Bayside School, and sent the document to the federal government for its approval.

The board on Monday said it would evict the center Nov. 22 unless lease negotiations bear fruit by then.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Careful Attention Should Always Be Paid To The Opponents' Cards

If you pay careful attention to the cards played by the opponents, you will be a winner in the long run. Occasionally, an artful opponent will try to deceive you with a falsecard; and even if you are very shrewd you may be taken in. One way to avoid this fate is to discourage the falsecard. To be specific, let's examine a hand from a recent team match.

Opening lead — ♣ 10

SAME PLAY

The contract and the opening lead were the same at both tables. East took the ace of clubs and returned a club to the king. Now the two declarers parted company.

At the first table South led the king of spades. East casually played the nine of spades, and South paused for thought. There was no problem if the five missing trumps broke 3-2, but there might be a problem if they broke 4-1.

The fall of the nine made it appear that East might have been dealt either the J-9 or the singleton nine. To take care of both of these possibilities, South continued with the queen of spades.

This was just what East had hoped for. Now his jack of trumps was sure to win the setting trick. His falsecard had trapped South into the losing trump continuation.

DIFFERENT DIRECTION

At the second table South led the first round of trumps from a different direction. After taking the king of clubs, South led a diamond to dummy's king and returned the deuce of trumps from dummy.

East was afraid to put up the nine of spades since this might cost a sure trump trick if his partner had the singleton ten.

NO CHOICE

When East played the normal four of spades, South had no choice but to lead to dummy's ace for the second round of trumps.

West showed out, of course, and declarer led a trump from dummy to take the proven finesse through East's J-9.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one no-trump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ - J 9 6 4
♥ - 9 7 5
♦ - 9 5
♣ - A J 4 2.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass.

Even if partner has maximum value, the combined count will be only 24 points, which is not enough for game.

Israel Bond Bill On Reagan's Desk

SACRAMENTO (UPI) —A bill authorizing California savings and loans to invest immediately in Israel bonds reached Gov. Ronald Reagan's desk today. He was expected to sign it.

The measure by Assemblyman Walter Karabian, D-Monterey Park, was voted final approval by the Assembly Wednesday 54-7, the bare margin required for enactment of "urgency" legislation.

Peking Expert Assesses Role

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —A former U.S. intelligence expert on China predicts the Chinese delegation to the United Nations will practice traditional diplomacy.

"There will be no shoe banging on the podium with the Chinese," Ben Cashman said in a lecture at the University of San Francisco.

He said, however, that the Chinese probably will be impossible to budge on certain issues and that they may insist on full scale debate over the U.S. role in Vietnam.

American Motors Buyer Protection Plan

If anything goes wrong with one of our '72's and it's our fault, we'll fix it FREE
yes! . . . Anything!

A STRONG GUARANTEE IN PLAIN ENGLISH

HERE IT IS!

When you buy a new 1972 car from an American Motors dealer, American Motors Corporation guarantees to you that, except for tires, it will pay for the repair or replacement of any part it supplies that is defective in material of workmanship.

This guarantee is good for 12 months from the date the car is first used or 12,000 miles, whichever comes first.

All we require is that the car be properly maintained and cared for under normal use and service in the fifty United States or Canada and that guaranteed repairs or replacements be made by an American Motors dealer.

see Bianco's Marin American — who will do more for you after you buy a car than any other dealer in town.

NOTICE INVITING SEALED PROPOSALS OR BIDS
HAWTHORNE LANE ASSESSMENT DISTRICT

Pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 and the resolution directing this notice adopted on November 1, 1971 by the Town Council of the Town of Corte Madera, said Council invites sealed proposals or bids for the grading and construction of pavement, curbs, gutters, storm drainage facilities and appurtenances as more particularly described in Resolution of Intention No. 1242 adopted by said Council on April 19, 1971, as subsequently amended, which resolutions are on file in the office of the Clerk and to which reference is hereby expressly made for a more particular description of the work to be done.

All of said work is to be done at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes and dimensions and of the materials, and to the lines and grades and at the elevations as shown and delineated upon the plans, profiles and specifications made therefor and preliminarily approved by said Council on November 1, 1971.

Payments will be made in cash by said Town to the contractor in accordance with the provisions of the specifications and on itemized estimates duly certified and approved by the Town Engineer submitted in accordance therewith, based on labor and materials incorporated into said work during the preceding month by the contractor. However, notice is given that a period of 30 days is given to the property owners in which to pay their assessments, and if cash collections are insufficient to meet such monthly estimates, there will be a delay in making such payments until money is received from the sale of bonds issued upon the unpaid assessments.

Notice is hereby given that on November 1, 1971, the Council adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages to be paid to the various craftsmen and laborers required to construct said improvements, a copy of which wage sacle is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and also contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for further particulars.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by cash, cashier's or certified check payable to the order of the Town Clerk, amounting to ten percent (10%) of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to said Clerk signed by the bidder and a corporate surety, or by the bidder and two sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount and over and above all statutory exemptions. The amount so posted shall be forfeited to said Town in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within 15 days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the Town.

Contractor shall furnish to Town a faithful performance bond and labor and material bond as required in said specifications.

Said sealed proposals shall be delivered to the Town Clerk of said Town on or before 10:00 o'clock A.M. of the 3rd day of December, 1971, Town Hall, Corte Madera, California, said time being at least fourteen days from the time of first publication and posting of this notice. Bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on said day and hour, and referred to and considered by the Council at its meeting at 7:30 o'clock P.M. on December 6, 1971.

A copy of the plans and specifications may be obtained from the Town Engineer, Town Hall, Corte Madera, California, upon deposit therefor of $5.00, none of which will be refunded.

Dated: November 1, 1971.

NOTICE OF IMPROVEMENT
HAWTHORNE LANE
ASSESSMENT DISTRICT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 19th day of April, 1971, the Town Council of the Town of Corte Madera, California, adopted its Resolution of Intention No. 1242, as subsequently amended, wherein it did declare that in its opinion the public interest, convenience and necessity required, and that it was the intention of said Council to order the following acquisitions and improvements in and for said Town:

(a) The improvement of Hawthorne Lane from Meadowsweet Drive a distance of 700 feet, more or less, by grading and the installation of required subbase, base and pavement, the installation of Portland cement concrete curbs and gutters on the upslope side, redwood header on the downslope side, and the construction and installation of storm drainage pipes, culverts and catchbasin as may be required.

(b) The acquisition of rights of service and use in water distribution works and related facilities of the Marin Municipal Water District.

(c) The doing of all work and acquisition of all lands and easements necessary and rights auxiliary to the above and/or necessary to complete the same.

All of said work and improvements are to be constructed at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes, dimensions and materials, and at the lines, grades and elevations shown and delineated on the plans, profiles and specifications preliminarily approved therefor by the Council of said Town and on file for public inspection in the office of the Town Clerk.

Notice is hereby given of the fact that in many cases said work and improvements will bring the finished surface of the ground to a grade different from the surface as it now exists, and that to said extent said grades will be changed and that said work will be done to said changed grades.

Notice is hereby given that to the extent shown in the Engineer's Report it is the intention of the legislative body to enter into agreements with public agencies or public utilities, or both, relating to ownership, management and control of improvements subject to their jurisdiction.

Said contemplated acquisitions and improvements, in the opinion of said Council, are of more than local or ordinary public benefit, and the costs and expenses thereof are made chargeable upon an assessment district, the exterior boundaries of which district are the composite and consolidated area as more particularly shown on a map thereof on file in the office of the Town Clerk, to which reference is hereby made for further particulars. Said map indicates by a boundary line the extent of the territory included in the proposed district and shall govern for all details as to the extent of the assessment district.

The estimated cost of said project is $17,437, of which the Town will contribute the estimated amount of $4,473, leaving an estimated balance of $12,964 to be assessed.

Notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments and bear interest at the rate of not to exceed seven percent (7%) per annum, will be issued hereunder in the manner provided in the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 of the Streets and Highways Code), the last installment of which bonds shall mature not to exceed fourteen (14) years from the second day of July next succeeding ten months from their date.

The descriptions of the acquisitions and improvements and the termini of the work contained in the Resolution of Intention, as amended, are general in nature. All items of work do not necessarily extend for the full length of the description thereof. The plans and profiles of the work, and maps and descriptions, as contained in the Engineer's report, shall be controlling as to the correct and detailed description thereof.

Except as herein otherwise provided for the issuance of bonds, said work shall be done pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913.

Reference is hereby made to proceedings had pursuant to Division 4 of the Streets and Highways Code, all on file in the office of the Town Clerk.

Notice is further given that the Town Engineer pursuant to said Act and said Resolution of Intention, as amended, adopted pursuant thereto, did on the 1st day of November, 1971, file with the Town Clerk of said Town, his report in writing on said acquisitions and improvements, consisting of plans, profiles, specifications, estimate of costs and incidental expenses, diagram and assessment, maps and descriptions, and said Council did on said date consider and examine said report and by resolution preliminarily approved and confirmed same and ordered that said report shall stand as the report for the purposes of all subsequent proceedings had pursuant to said Resolution of Intention, as amended.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that Monday, the 6th day of December, 1971, at the hour of 7:30 o'clock P.M. of said day, in the regular meeting place of said Council, Council Chambers, Town Hall, Corte Madera, California, are the time and place appointed and fixed by said Council when and where it will consider and determine whether the public interest, convenience and necessity require said acquisitions and improvements, and when it will consider and determine whether the owners of a majority of the area of the property in the proposed assessment district have protested against said acquisitions and improvements or any portion thereof, and when and where it will consider and finally act upon the Engineer's report filed pursuant to said Resolution of Intention, as amended, and when and where it will hear all protests in relation to said proposed acquisitions and improvements, or to the grades at which said work will be done, or the extent of the assessment district, or to the Engineer's estimate of the costs and expenses thereof, or to the proposed diagram and assessment, or to the maps and descriptions, and that any person interested may file a written protest with the Clerk at or before the time set for the hearing referred to herein.

Reference is hereby made to said Resolution of intention, as amended, and said report, including plans, profiles, specifications, estimate of costs, diagram and assessment, and maps and descriptions for a more particular description of said acquisitions and improvements to be had and done, and for further particulars, all on file in the office of the Town Clerk.

SECTION A
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bid No. 347
(Advertisement)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the San Rafael School District of Marin County will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of Additions and Alterations to Santa Venetia Middle School

Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Richard C. Marshall, Chester Bowles, Jr., Architects, A.I.A., 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California where the same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after bids are opened.

Each bid shall be made on a form to be supplied by the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of 10% of the total contract price made payable to the order of the San Rafael Clerk of the Board whose address will be Third and E Streets, San Rafael, California, prior to Dec. 2, 1971, 3:00 P.M. at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

The above mentioned check will be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be retained by the District as agreed and liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price in accordance with the contract documents.

Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District has ascertained the prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, which will be awarded to the successful bidder.

Eight hours shall constitute a work day unless otherwise specified on the union scale. The hourly wage rate prescribed is the per diem rate divided by the aforementioned number of hours constituting a work day.

The wage scale referred to hereinabove is on file at the District office.

The Board of Education of the San Rafael School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids or any alternate or unit price and/or waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received.

There shall be no discrimination because of race, color, creed or political affiliation in the employment of persons for work under the contract.

Holiday Stamp Folder Offered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Stamp collectors will be able to buy a souvenir folder this year containing first-day cancellations of the two 1971 Christmas postage stamps for one dollar, the Postal Service announced Thursday.

On the cover of the folder will be a full-color reproduction of artist Jamie Wyeth's "partridge in a pear tree" design for one of the eight-cent stamps. The other is a detail from Giorgione's "Adoration of the Shepherds."

Each eight-cent stamp inside is cancelled, "First day of issue, Washington, D.C., November 10, 1971."

Comedian Skelton Wants A Divorce

INDIO, Calif. (UPI)—Red Skelton, 54, filed a petition for divorce Thursday from his second wife, Georgia Davis Skelton. The petition cited "irreconcilable differences which have caused a breakdown in the marriage." They were married 27 years.

Economist Says Nixon Getting His Results

NEW YORK (UPI) —Economist Milton Friedman said Wednesday that the Nixon administration's new economic policies have slowed the economic expansion the administration sought.

"Paradoxically, this slowing of the expansion has done more to reduce inflationary forces than have any direct effects of the freeze," said Friedman.

In a speech before the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, Friedman said expansion was under way before Nixon announced his plans Aug. 15, and is likely to resume once the uncertainties are resolved.

Birth Pill Mixup Lawsuit Settled

DETROIT (UPI)—A woman who became pregnant with her eighth child because the birth control pills she was taking turned out to be tranquilizers, has won a $12,000 settlement in her suit against the druggist who made the mistake.

Dorothy Troppi and her husband, John, who also have one grandchild, reached the out-of-court settlement with lawyers for Dearborn druggist Frank Scarf Wednesday, but did not reveal the outcome until Thursday.

The Troppis, from Plymouth, filed the suit in September, 1965, a month after the birth of their son, Marty, now 6. They asked $250,000 in damages to cover medical expenses, the cost of raising the child, the salary Mrs. Troppi lost when she had to quit her job and the anxiety involved in the mixup.

Goodman Attack

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jazzman Benny Goodman, 62, was taken to New York University Hospital Thursday night for treatment of actue intestinal virus. He was reported in satisfactory condition today.

Cooper On Terra Linda Rec Board

Directors of the Terra Linda Recreation-Park District have named Hubert F. Cooper to a vacancy on the board until the district officially goes out of business on Jan. 1.

Cooper, a state Division of Highways engineer, was one of five men elected last Tuesday to a new community services district board that will assume Terra Linda's park and recreation function.

In addition to the appointment, the board also began legal and administrative steps preparatory to the district going out of business, according to Gen. Mgr. Zonwice Mulhaupt.

Smallman Sentences Six Drivers

Six drivers have been sentenced in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Sentenced Tuesday by Judge Robert A. Smallman were:

Robert Charles O'Meara, 49, of 29 Carmel Drive, Novato, arrested Oct. 13 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year, fined $302, and ordered to spend two and one-half days in jail.

Homer Keith Smith, 44, of San Francisco, arrested Oct. 24 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year and fined $240.

George Moslet Washington, 65, of 2000 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, arrested Oct. 19 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year and ordered to work for 10 days for the Marin County Parks and Recreation Department.

Bruce Everett Sisco, 19, of 64 Montego Key, Novato, arrested Aug. 28 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year and fined $240.

Eric John Jones, 42, of 10 Skylark Drive, Larkspur, arrested Nov. 3 on Highway 101, placed on probation for one year and fined $250.

Neil Henry Silver, 27, of San Francisco, arrested Nov. 6 in Sausalito, placed on probation for one year and ordered to work 10 days for the Marin County Parks and Recreation Department.

An Open Hour

Terra Linda High School has again opened its lunch hour to speakers and music groups. Any organization interested in using this forum is welcomed to inquire at the school by asking for Barbara Nissen or Bob Fracchia. In the past, the school has hosted everything from speakers on the population explosion to rock bands, the two spokesmen said.

Management Under Fire

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A local longshore official said Thursday that management is to blame for any work delays caused by a lack of skilled heavy equipment operators on West Coast docks.

Robert Rohatch, president of Local 10 of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU), charged the Pacific Maritime Association has "repeatedly sat on" union requests for training programs, particularly those for crane operators.

A management spokesman said there are enough such skilled workers in Local 10, but that the union is assigning them to routine work rather than making them available for the heavy equipment work.

Rohatch denied the charge.

Report Says Slaying Was 'Excusable'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The District Attorney's office today studied an 800-page Police Department report that termed the controversial slaying of a black man by a police officer "excusable homicide."

District Attorney John J. Ferdon must eventually decide if the report is accurate. He could order more investigations or take the matter to the Grand Jury.

Chief of Inspectors Charles Barca said the report, handed to Ferdon Thursday, included statements from 81 witnesses.

Officers said Lewis stopped a car believed to have been involved in a burglary. The original police version was that Lewis ordered Johnson to put his hands on the car roof and spread his legs.

Lewis said Johnson suddenly turned and when he tried to block the suspect's elbow the officer's gun went off.

Barca declined to go beyond the statement that the shooting had been determined to come within the Penal Code classification of "excusable homicide."

Alex Pitcher, chairman of a black group that has been conducting its own probe of the shooting, said he was "shocked and disgusted."

He called for "an impartial investigation by the State Attorney General's office."

Girl Says Abductor Wept Before Release

CONCORD (UPI) — Debbie Devore, the pretty 15-year-old held captive for 44 hours by an armed kidnaper, said the gunman wept before releasing her and surrendering to police.

The blonde high school sophomore was taken early Sunday from a bedroom in the Pleasant Hill home of her friend, Susan Whitlow, 15, and held in a rented house in Concord. Police talked him into releasing the girl and surrendering early Tuesday.

Marvin Joseph Hauber, 29, an ex-convict, has been charged with the kidnaping and 14 other counts, including attempted murder since he is charged with shooting and wounding her friend's parents. He is being held under $250,000 bail and his arraignment has been continued until next Tuesday.

The composed teen-ager declined to discuss details of her ordeal Thursday, but said when he finally gave up, he was crying.

"But before he surrendered," she said, "he sent me into the bedroom to get some marijuana he had there and he flushed it down the toilet." She said he also emptied his gun of bullets before throwing it downstairs to police.

It was believed that the man saw both girls at a carnival and followed them to the Whitlow home.

"The man knocked Susie out when she fought with him," Miss DeVore said. Police said both girls were treated for scalp wounds inflicted by a gun.

"I'm so glad he didn't take Susie," she went on, "because I don't know if she could have been as cool as I was."

Authorities were unanimous that the girl's self-evaluation was a correct one.

Through most of her ordeal, she said, her wrists and ankles were bound and during the four hours the abductor bargained with police and Miss DeVore's father, he held a revolver at her temple.

"I knew he wouldn't shoot me because he said so," Debbie said. "But he said he would shoot my father if he came up the stairs."

Debbie said she felt certain her captor was going to release her when her father called up "your mom's in an ambulance. She's going to the hospital ... "

That's when Hauber began to cry.

Vandals Break Into Terra Linda School

Vandals broke into Bernard Hoffman school in Terra Linda, ransacked the principal's office and scrawled "You lost mad hatter, ha! ha!" on the nurse's office wall, the Marin County sheriff's office reported yesterday.

Deputies had no estimate of damage done to the school, at 1111 Las Gallinas Avenue, Monday night.

Capture Of Tuna Boats Confirmed

QUITO, Ecuador (UPI) — Ecuador has confirmed the capture of five foreign tuna fishing boats, four of them American, and admitted that its warship fired shots across their bow to keep them from escaping.

Two of the tunaboats, the Denise Marie and Atlantic Patton, were released after their capture when it was determined they carried fishing permits, the Ecuadorean Navy said Thursday.

The American tunaboats, whose home port was San Diego, had been identified in Washington earlier as the Venturess, Blue Meridian, Denise Marie, City of Panama and Trinidad. The Atlantic Patton, presumed to be the Canadian vessel, had not earlier been mentioned.

Novato, San Rafael Meet For MCAL Crown

Tomorrow is title day in Novato.

The resident Hornets face San Rafael High School at 1 p.m. for the Marin County Athletic League football championship. A Novato win would give the host team undisputed honors; a San Rafael Bulldog triumph causes a tie between the two.

In regards to deadlocks, Novato coach Al Scott has asserted that "we won't be settling for a tie. We want the win."

"We're going to find out just how well they can run," Scott said, referring to the vaunted San Rafael rushing unit composed of Scott Duncan, Mark Farrar, Dave Urquhart and Dirk Gansloser.

"Most teams have found they had to put the ball in the air against us, and we expect them to throw, if only to keep us honest. We also expect them to run at us at first. But we're happy to see them run against us, because we're confident they'll really have to work for their scores."

Novato might have to labor for its point production, too, if the Hornet quarterback situation remains unclear. A bad back has kept All-League signal caller Marty Moroski out of practice earlier in the week. At game time, he was a probable starter.

"He's got good football sense," Scott continued, "and I would have full confidence in him if Moroski is unable to go."

Moroski has a host of excellent receivers, including Joe Powell, Joe Robinson, Greg Straw, Leo Magers, Charley Chung and Greg Lash. To prevent defensive concentration on any one man, Moroski utilizes all six.

He also spreads the load in running sequences, but halfback Leo Magers remains the ground gaining hub. The quick cutting rusher has proven to be devastating in clutch situations, scoring twice in an important win over Redwood last week.

San Rafael also has its own come-through runner in All-League halfback Duncan. The senior breakaway sensation, who has 38 career touchdowns to his credit, is the key to the Bulldogs' run-oriented attack. With linemen Bill Lechner, Kevin Henderson and Mark St. Gaudens opening holes, Duncan has proved to be almost unstoppable.

When defenses gear to contain Duncan, coach Bob Muster's flexible running game plan shifts the brunt of the load to Farrar, another long distance threat. Farrar has nifty open field moves to complement his effective inside thrusts.

Regarding this pair, San Rafael coach Bob Muster said he will again rely on the pair against Novato "because you've got to go with what got you there.

"We can't make changes now, and we've been able to move well." Although the emphasis is on the run, San Rafael is able to pass. "We're going to have to mix it up some on them. We can't let them put up an 11 man front. They're strong enough with their eight man front.

"He can rightly be proud of his defense, but we are proud of our running attack. However, if it is proven we can't run against them, we will throw."

San Rafael has the arsenal to unleash a steady aerial attack with Gansloser tossing short passes to end Duke Bessee or the backs.

Because of the offensive might both clubs seemingly possess, a high scoring affair is anticipated. If such is the case, field goal kicking could prove to be the difference. Each has a gifted booter. San Rafael trots out Rick Klarkowski, while Novato counters with Bob Cooper. Both have proven to be fine extra point kickers and solid field goal producers.

The lineups:

San Rafael (Offense): LE Duke Bessee, LT Bill Lechner, LG Kevin Henderson, C Mark St. Gaudens, RG Dirk Correnti, RT Larry Simmelink, RE Mike Sinclair, QB Dirk Gansloser, LHB Scott Duncan, RHB Dave Urquhart, FB Mark Farrar, (Defense) LE Bessee, LT Bill Lechner, LG Bob Brown, RG Sinclair, RT Chris Valentino, RE Mike Cook, MLB Correnti, LHB Jim Grigg, RHB Urquhart, LS Duncan, RS Jeff White.

SPORT NOTES

Great Prep Football Finale Set In Novato

By RALPH CHATOIAN

That game in Novato tomorrow between the resident Hornets and San Rafael Bulldogs should really be the capper to one of the closest races seen in the Marin County Athletic League.

Through most of the season four schools — San Rafael, Novato, Redwood and Terra Linda — had a shot at the crown, but now it's down to just two. Novato already has a share of the title assured, but a win tomorrow for San Rafael will give the Bulldogs a co-championship.

San Rafael has such a high scoring machine this year (averaging about 40 points a game) that I'll have to go with the Bulldogs in this one. Both teams have good defenses, but that powerful running game San Rafael has makes me pick Bulldogs over the Hornets by 3.

REDWOOD HIGH School basketball coach Dick Hart becomes a television star tomorrow. Maybe not a star, but he will be on TV. Hart, a member of the Pacific-8 officials corps the past eight years, will be the back judge in tomorrow's regionally televised (ABC) Pac-8 game between Washington State and Oregon State, at Corvallis, Ore. Game time is 1:30.

And that No. 90 for Oregon State who will be making all those tackles is defensive end Jim Sherbert, a senior who did his all-league football playing at Terra Linda High School. Also on the Oregon State roster is defensive tackle Phil Simon (No. 45) from Redood High.

TWO FORMER Redwood High School basketball stars of a couple of years back, John Boro and Jerry Piro, have survived final cuts for positions on their basketball teams. Boro will be playing for the University of San Francisco Dons and Piro for the Santa Clara Broncos. Both are sophomores, and were main reasons Redwood won MCAL championships in 1969 and '70.

LAST REPORT from the San Francisco 49ers had offensive tackle Len Rohde the luncheon speaker next Monday for the Marin Chapter, 49er Goal Rushers boosters group at Holiday Inn. And according to word out of the 49ers' front office, AWOL Jim Johnson, who failed to show up at last Monday's luncheon, will accompany Doug Cunningham to the Nov. 22 meeting.

BARRY MAC KAY of Ross, Mr. Tennis of the Bay Area, is chairman of a new tournament, the California Open Championships, planned to be an annual Memorial Day event at the Meadow Club at Bear Valley. The tournament will be to determine a champion among resident California tennis pros, including Bobby Lutz of Tiburon. In addition to chairing the new tourney, MacKay will be director of tennis at the Sierra resort.

WHEN KSFO disc jockey Jim Lange of Kentfield needs pinch hitters he really gets them. Starting Monday, five San Francisco Giants will sub for Lange on his 7 to 10 a.m. show. The Monday through Friday schedule calls for catcher Russ Gibson, third baseman Allan Gallagher, first baseman Willie McCovey, pitchers Jerry Johnson and Gaylord Perry, in that order. Doing the "umpiring" will be KSFO's Gene Nelson of Sausalito.

JACKIE NEWSOM, newly appointed sergeant-at-arms of the Marin County 600 Club, is bowler of the month for October, winning the honors with a 640 series at Nave Lanes. Congrats, Jackie.

I WAS SADDENED this morning by a wire story on the death last night of W. R. "Bill" Collins, 55-year-old executive sports editor of the Sacramento Bee. I'm a Sacramento boy and Bill was my boss for a short time while I was "stringing" for Sacramento Junior College sports in 1956.

Collins died at Sacramento Medical Center where he had been hospitalized since suffering a choking spell during dinner, Oct. 27.

Muhammad Ali Reveals New Punch For Mathis

HOUSTON (UPI)—Muhammad Ali says he has a new punch for Buster Mathis in the Astrodome next Wednesday night. He calls it his "linger on" punch.

Ali said it was the punch responsible for the knockout of Jimmy Ellis in the 12th round last July 26.

"I discovered it by chance against Ellis," Ali said. "Now I've tried it on a couple of sparring partners during training for this fight and have just named it.

"I call it the 'linger on' punch because it don't knock you out. It just makes you linger on.

"It is a twisting chopping right hand," Ali said. "It dazes a fighter and he kind of staggers around, you know, lingers on."

Trojans, Drake Go Tonight

A pair of vanquished Marin County Athletic League football crown candidates lock horns tonight at 8 o'clock in a season finale at San Rafael High School.

Terra Linda and Drake high schools hope to end the year on a high note after the champion Novato Hornets ended both teams' title dreams.

With all championship aspirations dashed, both squads approach the curtain closer feeling there is nothing to lose; an all out war can be expected.

The arsenal matches Terra Linda's passing against the Drake running. The Trojans have possibly the league's top quarterback in Kevin Donohoe. The Napa transfer can throw long or short with equal skill, particularly to flankerback John Buckley. The acrobatic pass catcher has awed crowds with some of his receptions.

Audiences have also raised their collective eyebrows when watching the Drake rushing array, featuring backs Mark Euless, Dave Segale, Rick Bozzio and Rick Herbert. All have basked in ground-producing glory this season and would like nothing better than ending the schedule by winning against the Trojans.

Both aggregations expect a typical, hard-hitting encounter, which will match the wits of inlaws Don Lucas and Carl Brown. Brown, the Drake athletic director, is Lucas's father-in-law. Lucas, the Terra Linda

NICKLAUS SAYS

'Cup Course Toughest'

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (UPI)—Jack Nicklaus, low scorer after the first round, says the 19th World Cup golf tournament is being played on the toughest course in the world.

"You can't find a longer, tougher course than this one anywhere," said the blond resident of nearby Lost Tree Village, whose 68 Thursday was offset by teammate Lee Trevino's 75.

The twg Americans finished three strokes behind South Africa's Gary Player and Harold Henning in team competition, along with Bob Charles and John Lister of New Zealand.

Normally not a man for kidding around—unlike his partner—Nicklaus was in a mood for wisecracks.

And referring to Player's stomach trouble, which interrupted his play six times Thursday, Nicklaus said, "I see that stuff I put in Gary's food is finally working."

Player nevertheless shot a 69 Thursday to go with Henning's 71 for a 140 total. Charles posted a 71 and Lister a 72 to tie the South African in second place.

Henning, out of action for several months because of an injury, feels Player will pull his team through.

"I know Gary will keep playing well," he said. "If I can keep up my game, we'll do all right."

Trevino, winner of the U.S., Canadian and British Opens this year, said he's been having trouble putting and getting accustomed to the smaller golf ball being used in this international tournament.

"But I'm getting used to it now," he said. "I'm getting it closer to the pin."

The two Americans were heavy favorites in the field of 92 golfers from 46 countries.

Argentina's Roberto de Vicenzo, defender of the international trophy presented the individual with the lowest score, also shot a 69 Thursday, as did Peter Oosterhuis of England.

But the other Britisher, Tony Jacklin, had a 75 to put the team in third place at even-par 144.

49ers Vie With Rook Sensation

San Francisco 49ers' swift defensive ends Tommy Hart and Cedrick Hardman will have quite a chore stopping the New Orlean Saints' swift rollout quarterback Archie Manning.

The 49er flankmen anchor a defensive line which has sacked opposing signal callers more times than any other team this year in the National Football League. This type of aggressive defense enables the 49ers to lead the NFL in pass defense. Despite these impressive figures, the New Orlean's rookie field general is determined to unglue the tight 49er defense. It may prove to be a painful experience, so the Saints have added two new players to the taxi squad as final preparations get underway for Sunday's encounter with the San Francisco Forty Niners.

A team spokesman said Thursday the Saints had acquired 6-foot-2, 187-pound wide receiver Creston Whitaker as a free agent from the Los Angeles Rams.

The Saints also picked up former Tulane defensive end Mike Walker

Reagan Signs Hunt License Fee Measure

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Legislation requiring virtually everyone to buy a $4 hunting license before shooting any bird or mammal has been signed by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The bill, by Assemblyman William Ketchum, R-Paso Robles, was signed Thursday. It classifies a long list of formerly unprotected species as protected "nongame" creatures.

Among the newly protected animals and birds are crows, magpies, coyotes, weasels, English sparrows, jays, starlings, moles, rats, mice and gophers.

FACE ATLANTA TONIGHT

Warriors Smash Knicks For Third Straight Win

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Golden State Warriors are on a new kick — winning. They disposed of the New York Knicks last night, 112-103, and try for four victories in a row and nine of their last 10 against the Hawks here tonight.

Jeff Mullins scored 31 points and Nate Thurmond added 27 to help drop the Knicks into last place in the Atlanta Division of the National Basketball Association with a 6-9 record. The Warriors are 11-4 and half a game behind leader Los Angeles in the Pacific Division.

The Knicks closed to two points three times in the second half as Earl Monroe, obtained from Baltimore in a trade only hours earlier, clicked on three straight shots. But Thurmond and Mullins always seemed to reply with timely points.

"I was praying Monroe wouldn't get hot," said Warrior coach Al Attles. "When Monroe hit those three in a row, I got a little nervous because when he connects like that you're in trouble."

New York fought back from a seven-point deficit to tie the score at 48-48 with 3:50 remaining in the second quarter but Mullins then put the Warriors ahead for keeps with two foul shots and Golden State led 65-57 at the half.

Walt Frazier, who led New York with 30 points, hit on a three-point play at the halftime buzzer and then generated a Knick drive with five straight points in the third quarter.

Thurmond scored 11 of his points in the final period to blunt several New York drives. His two foul shots with two minutes remaining widened the Warriors' lead to 108-101.

Willis Reed, recovering from tendonitis, played the entire second half but did not score a point off Thurmond. Monroe, who did not start, played about half the game in his Knick debut.

SECTIONAL MEET NEXT

Redwood Harriers Romp

Redwood High School sloshed to victory in the Division III-cross-country meet yesterday in Vallejo and will look for new worlds to conquer next Wednesday in the North Coast Sectionals.

Novato's Don Hutton finished second and qualified for the sectionals as an individual. Freshman-sophomore teams from Redwood and San Rafael also qualified, as did individual Joey Biancalana of Tamalpais.

Redwood's varsity scored 29 points, a stunningly low figure. Petaluma was second at 54, Eureka third at 109 and Montgomery also qualified a team. San Rafael was 22nd. More than 80 runners started, and Redwood had five of the first eight finishers.

Jan-Erick Moller was third at 16:37, Ned Overend fifth at 16:39, Mike Killeen sixth at 16:40, Bryan Tracy seventh at 16:43 and Mike Sweeney eight at 16:44. That's five runners within seven seconds of each other, which in cross-country is known as "good grouping" and tends to make your opponents unhappy.

Hutton, who was upset by Moller and Killeen in Tuesday's Marin County Athletic League meet, gained his revenge. His 16:32 placed him second only to Petaluma's John Sisler, 16:26.

The times are not impressive for the three-mile distance because the grass course was wet and slick. "Killeen was making a move for the lead on one occasion," said Redwood coach Doug Basham, "and slipped and fell flat on his back. In fact, all our guys but one fell down at some point in the race."

The frosh-soph scores were more normal. Napa won it with 56 and Piner was second at 78. Redwood had 90 and San Rafael 109. Four teams qualify.

Biancalana finished fifth, which suits him fine since five individuals qualify. San Rafael placed a tight group right behind him, with Ray Green, Brian McCurdy and Tom Stibich finishing together in that order.

Redwood fell victim to another quirk of the course in the frosh-soph race. Kevin Glasner, who had won the MCAL, was inadvertently pushed into a pole, had the wind knocked out of him, and finished well back.

The North Coast Sectional will be held at 3:30 p.m. next Wednesday at Lake Elizabeth in Fremont. Antioch, which won the tough Division II handily, is the favorite.

FLATTEN SEALS

Esposito, Bailey Tally Twice In 5-2 Home Win

BOSTON (UPI)—There was no denying the Boston Bruins this time.

Phil Esposito and Garnet Bailey each tallied two goals to pace the Bruins to a 5-2 win over the California Golden Seals before the usual screaming sellout crowd of 14,995 in Boston Garden Thursday night. It was the first loss in four games on the road for the Seals this season.

A first-period goal by Stan Gilbertson propelled the Seals to a 1-0 lead. That gave rookie Seals goalie Gilles Meloche four consecutive scoreless periods against the Bruins including a 2-0 shutout Oct. 28.

But ole pro Esposito, the biggest single-season scorer in pro hockey, caught up to Meloche in the middle period. He scored his 10th goal of the season 2:15 into the period while the Bruins were shorthanded to tie it up.

Bailey tallied a minute and a half later to give Boston a 2-1 lead. But Walt McKechnie came back to score for California and knot it up until Esposito and Ken Hodge came at Meloche on a two-on-one rush climaxed by Esposito's game-winning 25-footer at an angle for the winner.

NFL ROUNDUP

Clean-Cut Eagles Revitalized Team

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

It's a good bet that Ed Khayat has never seen the rock musical, "Hair." In fact, you probably couldn't get him to see it even if you gave him free tickets.

The new head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles issued an "anti-hair" edict three weeks ago. His players —shorn of their moustaches and sideburns —have responded with their first two wins of the season — against the New York Giants and Denver and a 7-7 tie last week with powerful Washington.

The Eagles, losers of their first five games this season, will attempt to continue their trend from the ridiculous to the sublime Sunday when they travel to Dallas to face the Cowboys.

Dallas (5-3) has the weapons, however, to emphatically deflate the Eagles' ballooning hopes. The Cowboys have the league's most productive offense, one that has registered 220 points in eight games.

That fact makes the Philadelphia cause especially hazardous since the 187 points surrendered by the Eagles in eight games represents the fifth most porous defense in the NFL.

The Eagles match Dallas' offensive machine with a milquetoast attack that has manufactured all of 81 points, the fewest in the 26-team circuit.

The game appears to be a mismatch, with Dallas being installed as an 11-point favorite, but the Eagles are in an excellent position to spring a major upset.

The pressure will be on the Cowboys. They need the win to stay alive in the NFC East. With division-leading Washington facing the tough Chicago Bears, a Dallas victory and a Redskin loss would enable the Cowboys to pull within one-half game of the top. Washington is a four-point choice.

In other NFC contests, Minnesota is favored by seven over Green Bay, Detroit is seen as four better than Los Angeles, San Francisco is picked to romp by 17 over New Orleans and Atlanta is tabbed by seven over the Giants.

In the American Conference, the New York Jets, their four-linebacker defense leading to an upset of Kansas City last week, find themselves a 13-point underdog to Baltimore; the Chiefs spot Cleveland 13, New England is figured a touchdown better than Buffalo, Denver is a three-point choice over Cincinnati, Houston is down 14 to Oakland and Miami, leader of the AFC East, gets a 10-point nod over Pittsburgh.

The lone inter-conference game on the schedule finds St. Louis at San Diego in the nationally televised Monday night game that winds down the ninth week of the season. San Diego is a three-point pick.

The shorn players grumbled a lot, but the team has been jelling under the strict stewardship of the former first lieutenant in the Army Reserves.

The offense has perked up under veterans Pete Liske, quarter-back; Ronnie Bull, running back and wide receiver Ben Hawkins.

The defense, which has allowed only three touchdowns in the three-game unbeaten streak, has improved noticeably, especially at free safety where Bill Bradley has intercepted a conference-leading total of seven passes.

Curtis, Brumsey Await Suit Act

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Does the NCAA's 1.6 grade rule violate the 14th Amendment?

Isaac Curtis and Larry Brumsey of the University of California football team think it does and today they seek to find out for sure from a Federal Court judge.

The two were held in violation of the 1.6 rule by the NCAA and, when their school failed to make them ineligible for play on the football team, the NCAA slapped California with a probation.

The probation prohibits California from post-season competition such as the Rose Bowl and also deprives the school of future television dates.

The Curtis-Brumsey suit seeks to enjoin the NCAA from continuing enforcement of the 1.6 rule against them and to challenge the basis of the rule as a violation of the Due Process clause of the 14th Amendment.

Neither Curtis nor Brumsey was named specifically by the NCAA when it put California on probation but they are the only athletes remaining of six originally who were involved.

California was put on probation because it did not rule Curtis and Brumsey ineligible for not taking a scholastic aptitude test that would predict out a 1.6 grade at the specified time before they were admitted to the school.

Curtis currently is maintaining a 3.2 grade average and Brumsey has a 2.7 average.

The NCAA maintained right along that California could have escaped probation by making its "ineligible" players just that and then filing for their reinstatement.

Curtis and Brumsey maintain that the 1.6 rule as it applies now would leave them ineligible for an undetermined period with no appeal process from which they could seek reinstatement.

In their suit the two athletes contend the NCAA ruling is "purely arbitrary and capricious and designed especially to penalize" them.

Judge A. C. Wollenberg will hear the case in Federal Court and has the power to grant an injunction. If he does the move could in effect strip the NCAA of its governing power.

Curtis, Brumsey and California coach and acting Athletic Director Ray Willsey will be in court. In fact, Willsey has been subpenaed by Judge Wollenberg.

Fred Rosenfeld and J. Stanley Sanders will represent Curtis and Brumsey. It was not known who will represent the NCAA.

Berkeley To Host Top Ice Skaters

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The 1972 Pacific Coast figure skating championships, featuring top ice skaters from seven western states, will be held at the Berkeley Iceland Dec. 9-11.

The 1972 competition has been moved up to December because of the approaching Winter Olympics, scheduled in February at Sapporo, Japan. Winners from the Pacific Coast championship will move on to the national championships in Long Beach in January, and compete for berths on the 1972 United States Olympic team.

Tickets may be obtained from the St. Moritz Ice Skating Club in Berkeley. Prices are $2.50, adults; children, $1.50.

Yachting

LONG BEACH — The fleet of 33 boats participating in the fourth biennial Long Beach-to-La Paz yacht race were within 200 miles of their destination today under good sailing conditions despite moderate winds. Ragtime and Counterpoint were the fleet leaders in the last roll call with Counterpoint holding the corrected time advantage and Ragpoint the elapsed time leader.

Cross-Country

LOS ANGELES — Oregon and Washington State are expected to battle for the team championship tomorrow when 56 runners from Pacific-8 schools compete in the conference cross country championships at UCLA.

Oregon's Steve Prefontaine is favored in the six-mile race but Washington State is expected to take the team championship.

Boxing

PHILADELPHIA — Joe Frazier may face Terry Daniels Jan. 15 in New Orleans for his first official bout since he won the heavyweight championship last March, his managers said yesterday.

NEWARK, N.J. — Veteran Newark promoter Willie Gilzenburg said yesterday he has been authorized to put up a $100,000 guarantee for a bout between light heavyweights Vicente Rondon of Venezuela and Bob Foster of Albuquerque, N.M. The winner would become undisputed world light heavyweight champion.

Baseball

EVANSVILLE, Ind. — The financially troubled Evansville Triplets of the American Association were sold yesterday to Don Labbruzzo of Buffalo, N.Y. The Triplets will not move, at least for next year, Labbruzzo said.

PORTLAND — Owner Bill Cutler of the Portland club in the Pacific Coast League announced that the parent Minnesota Twins have cancelled their player working agreement with the Beavers.. He said the Twins will switch their Triple A farm team operation to Tacoma.

Football

DENVER — Denver Bronco coach Lou Saban says he is "terribly concerned" about the knee condition of starting defense end Rich Jackson. Saban said there was a "bone problem" in addition to the cartilage that was removed from the All-Conference player last week.

AT BAY MEADOWS

Shoemaker Shoots For Mark Of Most Stake Wins In Year

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UPI)— Bill Shoemaker shoots for one of racing's coveted records— most stakes victories in a year — Saturday when he makes his first start of the season at Bay Meadows in the $20,000 added Junipero Serra Stakes.

Shoemaker rode Cougar II to victory on the closing day of the recent Oak Tree meeting for his 43rd stakes victory and Saturday he rides JK Stable's Royal Owl in the Junipero Serra, a mile test for juveniles.

When Shoemaker won the Oak Tree Invitational he tied Bill Hartack with 43 stakes victories each in one year. Hartack set his mark in 1957.

The Oak Tree Invitational was Shoemaker's last start and pushed his career victory total to 6262, an all-time record to which he adds every time he hits the winner's circle.

Don Pierce and Bill Mahorney are two other Southland jockeys making their first start of 1971 at Bay Meadows. A total of 12 juveniles are in the Junipero Serra with Pierce, top jockey at the recent Pomona meeting, slated to ride Knightlander and Mahorney engaged to handle Master Ribot, winner of his most recent start at Santa Anita and second in a division of the rich Del Mar Futurity.

Under the allowance conditions of the Junipero Serra—a stepping stone to the $100,000 added California Juvenile Stakes on Dec. 18 — Royal Owl will carry 120 pounds. That's based on the horse's triumph in the $100,000 addd Hollywood Juvenile on July 24.

Bay Meadows got a good dousing Thursday in the first rain of the season and conditions for Saturday's race are a bit uncertain.

Shoemaker also rides two horses Saturday for trainer Johnny Longden, the man he succeeded as the world's top jockey in point of victories, to round out his day at Bay Meadows. He will be aboard Right On in the fourth and Diplomatic Agent in the seventh.

Shoemaker's career stakes victory total stands at 545. He needs nine more to tie the all-time record held by Eddie Arcaro. After Saturday it could be only eight.

Redwood Teams Host 2 Bowls In Pop Warner

The Redwood Junior Giants and Redwood Gremlins will host Pop Warner League post-season bowl games Saturday at 1 p.m. at College of Marin.

The Junior Giants, co-champions of the senior midgets division with a 4-0-2 record, entertain the Golden Saints from Paradise, Calif. The Gremlins, 3-2-1 in senior peewee competition, face the Black Olives from Corning, Calif.

This marks the first time Marin County Pop Warner teams have hosted post-season bowls.

Tam Girls Score Volleyball Upset

Tamalpais High School's girls volleyball team upset previously unbeaten Marin Catholic, 15-9, 15-12, yesterday in a Marin County Athletic League game at Tam. Marin Catholic had not lost in nine previous games this year.

NBA Board Ponders Cage Merger Plans

PHOENIX (UPI) —Proposed merger plans of the National and American basketball associations go before the NBA board of governors today in the final session of their two-day meeting.

NBA Commissioner Walter Kennedy will brief directors on progress of the merger talks between the two pro cage leagues. Kennedy noted that he and ABA Commissioner Jack Dolph are to testify next week in a second round of hearings before the U.S. Senate's Anti-trust Committee.

Also on today's agenda is a report of a committee of NBA owners and club officials regarding possible changes in the playoff system for post-season games. Directors will discuss recommendations on future playoffs.

In addition, governors will meet with Roone Arledge, president of the sports division of the American Broadcasting Co., to discuss television coverage of NBA games this season.

On Thursday, Kennedy ruled the Phoenix Suns won't have to surrender a player immediately to the Detroit Pistons for Otto Moore until the disputed trade is cleared up in court.

Phoenix was advised to expedite the court litigation in Tucson which involves a claim by the Virginia Squires of the ABA that Moore signed a contract with them before he was dealt from Detroit to Phoenix.

The Pistons were to receive an unnamed Phoenix player, believed to be center Mel Counts, in exchange for Moore. Counts still is on the Phoenix roster.

Kennedy ruled that no further movement of players be made until the case was cleared up in the courts.

The Suns and Pistons had agreed to submit the matter to Kennedy for settlement. Detroit originally wanted the case placed on the agenda for arbitration but withdrew that request when Phoenix agreed to abide by Kennedy's decision.

The commissioner ruled that three conditions stated in the contract that brought Moore to Phoenix last spring had not been fully implemented. One of them was the court litigation.

Kennedy also announced the 1975 NBA All Star game would be switched from Milwaukee to Phoenix. The 1972 mid-season contest will be in Los Angeles, 1973 in Chicago and 1974 in Seattle.

BIG NEW YORK TRADE

Knicks Acquire Earl Monroe For Dave Stallworth, Riordan

NEW YORK (UPI) —Did the need for another crowd-pleaser motivate the New York Knicks to trade for Earl Monroe?

The Knicks got rid of their last two super-subs of the 1970 National Basketball Association championship team Thursday when they traded Mike Riordan, a guard, and forward Dave Stallworth to the Baltimore Bullets for Monroe.

There was some cash going to Baltimore, too, in the deal that gave the Knicks an experienced third guard but left them without an experienced big man to stand-in for injured center Willis Reed.

"We needed a man with the ability to penetrate, someone who had good moves and a guy with a great shooting eye," Holzman said. "Monroe fit all three qualifications."

Holzman said the Knicks did not instigate the trade and that Baltimore called almost every team in the NBA asking if they were interested in a trade for Monroe.

"I'm sorry to see Riordan and Stallworth go," the Knick coach said wistfully, "but they're pros. I'm sure they weren't happy about leaving New York, especially Mike, who comes from around here. But maybe they'll get an opportunity to play more with Baltimore."

Walt Frazier said he was surprised about the Monroe trade and admitted it could cause some concern about the starting jobs he and Dick Barnett hold right now.

"Somebody has to lose," he philosophized, "that's the name of the game. One thing I'll tell you, I'd rather be playing with him than against him. He knocked us out of the playoffs last season. But maybe this is just the kind of change we need."

Monroe, who comes to New York with a salary estimated at $125,000, said he was home in Philadelphia Thursday morning when he was notified of the trade.

"I left for New York immediately, not knowing if I would even get into the game tonight," Monroe said. He played 20 minutes in Thursday night's 112-103 loss to the Golden State Warriors and scored nine points."

FISH AND GAME

Pheasant Prospects Rated Fair To Good

By AL GIDDINGS

According to the Department of Fish and Game, the pheasant season opening tomorrow should be from fair to good. The pheasant population is up 30 to 40 per cent in the Sacramento Valley; the San Joaquin population is down except in Stanislaus County where it is about equal to last year's population, and 19,500 pheasants will be planted in Southern California counties.

The Tule Lake and Honey Lake areas are reported as average. Last year, 253,800 hunters bagged an estimated 750,200 birds. If you get three, you're average.

No tags are needed, but the pheasant stamp is again required. Affix it to your hunting license. Hens are permitted in the bag limit in San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino, Inyo and Mono counties. Shooting hours are from 8 a.m. to sunset throughout the 23-day season.

STATE

Honey Lake, Lassen County, 4,100 acres, north edge of Honey Lake off Highway 395. Pheasant hunting allowed only on waterfowl shoot days (Saturday, Sundays, Wednesdays) during the pheasant season, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day or $15 per season, first-come, first-served basis. Hunter Quota, 225.

Gray Lodge, Butte County, 5,700 acres, 5 miles west and 3 miles south of Gridley. Pheasant hunting allowed on Nov. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 27, & 28; Dec. 1, 4, & 5, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day.

Grizzly Island, Solano County, one mile east and 11 miles south of Fairfield. Five-thousand acres open for both pheasant and waterfowl on Nov. 13, 14, 17, 20, 21, 24, 27, 28; Dec. 1, 4 & 5. The open area contains 1,000 acres of pond edge and levees which provides limited pheasant hunting. On Nov. 15, 16, 18, 19, 3,600 acres of unflooded land is open to pheasant hunting only. Shooting hours, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day.

Los Banos, Merced County, 2,700 acres, 4 miles north and ½ mile east of Los Banos. Pheasant hunting allowed on Nov. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 27, 28; Dec. 1, 4, & 5, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day. Hunter Quota, 100.

Mendota, Fresno County, 8,000 acres, 3 miles south of Mendota. Pheasant hunting allowed on Nov. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 27, 28; Dec. 1, 4, & 5, 8 a.m. to sunset. Fee $3.50 per day. Hunter Quota, 400.

NATIONAL

Pheasant hunting will be permitted 8 a.m. to sunset on Saturdays, Sundays, and Wednesdays, Nov. 13-Dec. 5, for those holding regular waterfowl hunting permits on the following areas:

Colusa, Colusa County, 1,230 acres, 5 miles east of Williams, Fee $3.50 per day; Delevan, Colusa County, 2,250 acres, 4 miles east of Maxwell, Fee $3.50 per day; Merced, Merced County, 1,160 acres, 6 miles south and 5 miles west of Merced, Fee $3.50 per day; Sutter, Sutter County, 1,100 acres, 12 miles southwest of Yuba City, Fee $3.50 per day; Sacramento, Glenn and Colusa Counties, 4,000 acres, 7 miles south of Willows on Highway 99W, Fee $3.50 per day.

Tule Lake and Lower Klamath National Wildlife Refuges will have certain areas open to pheasant hunting. Hunters should obtain details at the Tule Lake Refuge Headquarters located 7 miles west of the town of Tulelake.

Tamalpais Hosts Redwood Giants

In what appears to be a Biblical recreation of the David and Goliath confrontation, Redwood's Giants invade Mill Valley tomorrow at 1 p.m. to face Tamalpais High School.

Coach Phil Roark's Larkspur products have smashed six of its eight rivals, while the green Mill Valley Indians have yet to taste sweet victory.

Hoping to swipe Tam's scalp, the Giants will march in with a talented hord of running backs, such as Mike Connor, Mark Asiano, Daryl Edralin and Jay Lehman. At first glance, it would appear the hosts could match this array with Don Parker, Craig Marshall, Alvin Price and Clifford Hall. However, the Giant quartet operates behind a seasoned front line anchored by center Bob Fulton and guard Dan Young.

If Tam has an edge, it is in the quantity of proven quarterbacks. The Indians start with scrambling Pat Locey. They often end up with Tim Nowell coming off the bench to uncoil a snappy aerial assault. Neither has produced a triumph, but both have kept Tamalpais competitive.

Defensively, Redwood again has the edge, particularly with such massive linemen as Bob Stubbs, Fulton, and Joel Johnson.

Tam has a few hard hitters, also. They include halfback Price and middle guard Herb Wade. The junior lineman was an All-League pick last year and has been reverting back to that form in recent outings after a slow start. Hall is another key defensive cog, working admirably against the pass.

The lineups:

J.V. Grid Showdown In Novato

Officially, there is no junior varisty championship in Marin County Athletic League football, but don't tell that to the Novato and San Rafael powerhouses which will collide at Novato tomorrow at 10:45 a.m.

Each team has a 7-1 over-all record and a 5-0 league mark, and their comparative scores offer little clue as to who will win. Novato has scored 138 points against league foes and surrendered 32, posting three shutouts. San Rafael has scored 151, yielded 35 and shut out two foes. Neither has played a really close league game.

Both teams feature balanced offenses. For Novato, quarterback Chris Derecat will throw to end Chuck DePre or hand off to fullback Mark Lipe or setbacks Jeff Pond and Mark Magers. For San Rafael, the pitching of Craig Saunders and running of Mike McClean highlight the attack.

Defensive standouts for Novato include middle linebacker Scott Harrington, tackle Greg Zollner, safety Bruce Jervik and wingback Mike Martin. San Rafael boasts tackles Dick Paulson and Alan Garbarino and linebacker Kip Tonking. All three of those Bulldogs also anchor the offensive line. Top linemen for Novato are center Leonard Miller, guard Ron Dunlap, and tackles Ken McKenzie and Doug Goldsmith.

COAST FOOTBALL

Still Some Titles To Be Determined

By RON SUPINSKI
U.P. INTERNATIONAL

While the battle for second place goes on in the Pacific-8 Conference, there are still football champions to be named in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association and Far Western Conference.

Long Beach State (4-1) can wrap up its second straight PCAA championship by beating San Diego State (2-2) Saturday night and earn a spot in the Dec. 18 Pasadena Bowl. Breathing on the 49ers necks are San Jose State and Fresno State who are tied for second with 3-1 marks. But the Spartans and Bulldogs have only one PCAA game remaining.

In the Far Western Conference, UC Davis (3-1), which eliminated Hayward State from contention last week by scoring 16 points in the final minute for a 30-29 upset, entertains Sacramento State (1-2-1) Saturday night. Chico State (4-1), which hosts USF (0-8) in a nonconference affair Saturday night, and the Aggies have the best shot at the FWC title.

In the Pacific-8, champion Stanford (7-2) is at home in a non-conference game with neighboring San Jose State (3-4-1); USC (1-2) travels to Washington (2-2), California is at Oregon (2-2) and Oregon State (1-2) hosts Washington State (2-2) in a regionally televised game. UCLA is idle.

Fresh from an upset win over Florida A&M, Santa Clara (5-3) plays its final home game of the season against Cal Poly of Pomona Saturday night.

Washington and USC each have three-game winning streaks going but the Huskies have been unable to beat the Trojans in their last six games. Washington quarterback Sonny Sixkiller saw limited action in last week's romp over California and slipped into second place behind Stanford's Don Bunce in passing.

"Defensively, you never want to let him know what you are going to do. You rush at times, lay off at others and change up. You don't shut him off completely, you just hope to slow him down."

USC leads the Pac-8 in pass interceptions with 21 and the Trojans own the conference's second best defense against the pass. The Huskies, meanwhile, have the best rushing defense, limiting opponents to 121 yards rushing a game.

Sam Cunningham, the No. 1 rusher for USC, is out for the season with a knee injury. Lou Harris, Manfred Moore and Ray Washmera will tote the mail for the Trojans.

California, having troubles on its offensive line with two straight losses, runs into a hot Oregon team which has won four of its last five games. Dan Fouts, the Oregon quarterback, may have Leland Glass, his premier receiver, back from a leg injury.

Marin Catholic In Finale

Marin Catholic High School climaxes its most successful season in an anti-climactic way when it entertains John O'Connell of San Francisco tomorrow at 2 p.m. at its Kentfield stadium.

A Marin Catholic victory would give the revitalized Wildcats a 7-2 season record under first-year head coach Bruno Banducci. A win is expected because O'Connell, decimated by graduation and transfers, has not won a game all year.

This season is the best within memory of anybody on the Marin Catholic scene. Nobody is quite sure — "we burned all the old records," jokes athletic director Gary Hughes — but the best previous season anyone can recall is five victories. The school is 22 years old.

Two-way starter Gino Pamilia is out with a broken left hand for Marin Catholic, so Randy Cheda will take over at offensive right guard and Tim huber at left linebacker. Other than that, the Wildcats are healthy, having had a bye last week.

Marin Catholic has a balanced attack. Quarterback Steve Sherry can throw, mainly to end John Shallich, and the running attack offers the outside-inside threat of Rick Cervisi and Mark Ferrua.

O'Connell is mainly a ground team, shifting from the I-formation to the wing-T. Its passing is not feared.

"The main problem is to prevent complacency on our team," said Banducci, "because any team can beat you if it gets a few early breaks and gets fired up."

Marin Catholic's lineups:

TIBURON NETTER

Bob Lutz Advances In Italy

BOLOGNA, ITALY (UPI) — Bob Lutz of Tiburon and Marty Riessen of Chicago Thursday moved into the quarter finals of the Bologna Open, the 20th and last World Championship Tennis qualifying tournament.

Riessen, seeded sixth, defeated Britain's Roger Taylor 6-3, 6-7, 6-4 in an exciting match.

Eight-seeding Lutz beat Australia's John Alexander 7-5, 7-5 in another quartar-final. Play went with service for the first 10 games in each set, then Lutz broke the opponent's serve in the 11th and took his own to win.

In a doubles quarter-final, Australians Ray Ruffels and Bob Carmichael defeated Denmark's Torben Ulrich and America's Roy Barth, 7-5, 7-6.

JACK HANLEY

Joe Amalfitano's Return To Giants

John Joseph Amalfitano was a bonus rookie with the Giants in 1954, their last world championship season when they beat the Cleveland Indians four straight in the World Series. Now Amalfitano is back with the Giants as their first base coach.

Wes Westrum, the man Amalfitano succeeds, has this to say about the Giants' new coach: "Joey is a class guy, always has been. He was a whiz kid out of San Pedro when he came up in 1954. We had to protect him from the baseball draft rules as they existed at that time. The only way to do it then was to make him a member of the roster."

A COUPLE of seasons later the Giants forgot to protect Amalfitano from the minor league draft after he had been sent down for experience. So Amalfitano was playing for Toronto in the International League in 1959 when the Giants sorely needed an infield utility glove, especially after Jim Davenport's knee crumpled in an August plate collision with Ed Bailey in Cincinnati.

"If we had Joe to fill in at third base after Davenport got hurt, we'd have won it," said Bill Rigney, then manager of the Giants, who vowed he never again would be caught short without a backup infield glove.

FIRST THING Rigney did in 1960 was to draft Amalfitano off the Toronto roster. The following year when a 1961 players pool was stocked by National League clubs for the 1962 expansion of the league, Houston made Amalfitano their No. 1 pick at $125,000. In 1963 the Giants reacquired him from Houston in a trade for Manny Mota. By this time Amalfitano was slowing up a bit and he finished the 1963 season at Tacoma, then the Pacific Coast League farm club of the Giants.

Amalfitano intended to join his brother in business in San Pedro in 1964 if a major league berth didn't open for him. Chub Feeney, then vice president of the Giants, made it possible for Amalfitano to find that berth. Feeney brought Amalfitano to the Giants' spring training camp in 1964, strictly for show case purposes.

THE CUBS liked the way Amalfitano still hustled. They signed him and he played 167 games for them over the 1964-65 seasons. When Leo Durocher became manager of the Cubs at the start of the '66 season, it was a foregone conclusion that Amalfitano would be one of The Lip's coaches.

Durocher was manager of the 1954 Giants and he liked Amalfitano right from the first day the young man from San Pedro reported to the Giants.

EVERYBODY ELSE in baseball calls Amalfitano Joe or Joey. Not Mays. Mays dubbed Amalfitano Louie first time he met him.

"If we had Louie in 1959 to play third after Peanut got hurt, we'd have won it," said Mays.

That's precisely what Rigney said.

Ex-San Jose State Star Fined By NFL

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Mel Tom, defensive end for the Philadelphia Eagles, former San Jose State star, has learned the high price of "too much aggressiveness in the National Football League.

Tom said Thursday that NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle fined him a "four figure sum" after Rozelle reviewed films of the Sept. 26 game in which Tom knocked Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach unconscious.

"I guess it has a little too much aggressiveness for Rozelle's thinking," Tom said. "It's more or less an unwritten law in the league that you're not supposed to hit the quarterback hard."

Staubach was hit hard. His attempted pass to tight end Mike Ditka was intercepted, and, as the flow of action changed, Tom grounded the Cowboys' passer with an elbow to the head. He denied it was a "cheap shot."

"The only thing Roger did wrong was just standing there," Tom said. "I just ran past him. . .and tried to block him out the best I could."

The commissioner indicated "I was being used as an example for the rest of the ballplayers in the league," and said the block was "pretty detrimental to the caliber of ballplaying in the league," Tom said.

Tom said he was fined a week after the game, which Dallas won, 42-7, but he asked Rozelle for a hearing. After a meeting this week, Rozelle told him to "mail him a check," Tom said.

Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL and a top Rozelle aide, denied the existence of an "unwritten law" about being easy on the quarterback.

"It doesn't make any difference if it's a quarterback or not," Kensil said. "It would have been the same thing if this happened to Tom.

Seattle Sonics Top Cleveland Cavaliers

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — The Seattle Sonics put down a third-quarter Cleveland surge and went on to top the Cavaliers 110-91 in a National Basketball Association game Thursday night.

Seattle led throughout the first half behind Don Kojis' 11 first-quarter points. At one point, Seattle had a 10-point second period lead, 33-23.

The Cavaliers trailed by only three at halftime, 53-50. Bingo Smith led Cleveland into its only lead midway in the third. He meshed nine points in that quarter and gave Cleveland its only lead in the game at 65-64 on a drive up the middle.

Then Seattle ripped off 14 points to Cleveland's five to lead 78-70 at the three-quarter mark.

Smith led all scorers with 21 points while Rick Roberson had 13.

For Seattle, Spencer Haywood tallied 20 and Don Smith 15.

Jim McDaniels Paces Carolina Cougars Win

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

McDaniels, the seven-foot All American from Western Kentucky, turned in one of his finest games of his rookie season Thursday night as he scored 39 points and took down 18 rebounds to lead the Cougars to a 127-109 victory over the Pittsburgh Condors.

McDaniels erupted for 22 points in the second half and sparked an 11-2 burst in the third quarter that lifted Carolina ahead to stay.

In the only other American Basketball Association game Thursday night, Willie Wise scored 34 points and Glen Combs added 26 as the Utah Stars beat the Denver Rockets 112-106. Combs scored a three-point field goal at the start of the last period to snap a tie and put the Stars ahead for good.

Former Ike Aide Named To Agricultural Post

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Earl L. Butz, a Purdue University dean who served in the Eisenhower administration, has joined President Nixon's cabinet as agriculture secretary, a post made a political arena by record grain yields that have driven down farm prices.

Nixon announced Thursday the appointment of Butz, 62. Butz succeeded Clifford M. Hardin, who will join Ralston Purina Co. of St. Louis as vice chairman in charge of the company's research and development.

Nixon said Hardin had decided to leave because he had had an "exceptionally attractive offer" in private business. Ronald L. Ziegler, the White House press secretary, said the appointment did not signify any change in administration farm policy.

But Butz, who served as an assistant agriculture secretary under Ezra Taft Benson during the Eisenhower years, immediately came under fire from Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien. O'Brien said Butz was an architect of Benson's policies and would bring them back.

To cabinet post

O'Brien described Butz as a "prominent consultant and board member of ... corporations that 'farm the farmers.'"

Rep. William Scherle, R-Iowa, a critic of Hardin's policies, said when told of Butz' appointment, "Oh, hell, not another professor."

"I was hoping we'd have a man of the soil, but I don't know about the man and am going to reserve judgment," Scherle said.

The chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, Rep. W.R. Poage, D-Tex., remembered working with Butz when Butz served under Benson in the 1950s.

"Obviously, we had many differences, but I respect him as an honorable and sincere man working for what he thinks to be best for agriculture," Poage said.

Butz, introduced by Nixon at a news conference, promised to seek help for hard-pressed farmers. Nixon predicted Butz would be a "vigorous advocate of the interests of farmers, just as Secretary Hardin was."

After serving in Benson's department, Butz returned to Purdue where he was dean of agriculture for 10 years. He has been Purdue's dean of continuing education since 1968.

Butz was known during his previous stint in federal service as an advocate of reduced government involvement in agriculture. An official who served with him during the Eisenhower years said Butz "never has been a strong proponent of big commodity programs."

Butz told reporters he felt "the price of corn is too low."

"I am delighted we will have the full support of the President and the White House staff in working on this problem," Butz said.

There have been demands for stronger action from the administration because of low grain prices this year.

Nixon also announced Thursday he had given up his plan to abolish the Agriculture Department as part of his government reorganization plan. He said he would submit a new plan which would provide for a scaled down version of the department concerning itself only with farm affairs.

A Good-Humored Castro Making Rounds In Chile

SANTIAGO (UPI) — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro flew today to northern Chile for talks with Chilean copper and salt mine workers whose support of President Salvadore Allende helped bring his Marxist government to power.

Castro flew aboard a Cuban airlines plane to Antofagasta today and planned to continue on later to Iquique in the extreme north of the country.

In a statement Thursday Castro said Cuba would not rejoin the Organization of American States (OAS) because "it doesn't interest" his government.

The Cuban premier, here on a wide ranging tour of Chile, said his country would not consider such a move—"neither by invitation nor by unanimous agreement of all the OAS members"—in spite of diplomatic overtures in that direction around the continent.

All OAS nations except Mexico broke off relations with Castro's regime in 1964, two years after it was suspended because of "incompatibility" between communism and the inter-American system.

Chile reestablished diplomatic relations with Cuba last November after the election of President Salvador Allende. Peru also has been quietly exploring Cuba's possible return to the hemispheric body.

The bearded revolutionary was in good humor Thursday as he wound up protocol chores that include two wreath-laying ceremonies, hosting a party for diplomats at the Cuban ambassador's residence and attending a reception in his honor at the presidential palace.

Berkeley's 'Sanctuary' Offer Is Called Academic

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—An assistant city manager says the city council's unprecedented resolution offering "sanctuary" to war resisters is "academic" because it provided no funds to house anyone seeking asylum.

Charles McCormack said any deserters from the Navy carrier Coral Sea, which leaves today for Vietnam, cannot "roll out sleeping bags" in city offices in spite of the council resolution.

The 63,000-ton carrier with a crew of 4,300 has been picketed by a small number of sailors the past few weeks. They said they represented a much larger proportion of the crew which opposes the war.

The council, by a vote of 6 to 1 Wednesday, adopted the asylum resolution offering city facilities and help for 10 Bay Area churches which earlier in the week opened their doors to war resisters.

"We want to dramatize our opposition to this war and our belief that the war has a direct adverse effect on all the cities of the country," said Councilman Edward E. Kallgren.

But McCormack said city facilities would not be available for now because the resolution carried no clause providing for the expenditure of space or money for anyone seeking asylum.

While not directly encouraging desertion, the sponsors of the church sanctuary program invited "anyone struggling with a decision of conscience" to move into the church.

Gilbert Wilkerson, 21, just transferred from the Coral Sea, said "It seems to me that to stay at this church would be a direct bust. The majority of people (who desert) will go underground—they will not come to this church."

The council resolution also banned city employes, including policemen, from helping in "any investigation, public or clandestine" of deserters or joining in their arrest.

But City Manager William Hanley said police are bound by their oath of office to uphold the laws and would be committing illegal acts if they refused to take part in arrests of AWOL sailors.

However, McCormack said city police rarely join federal authorities in the apprehension of deserters. "The federal government merely notifies the police department about arrests," he said.

In Sacramento, State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger said the federal government has plenty of "muscle" to require Berkeley police to serve federal court warrants if necessary.

Old Meters Back In Price Freeze

OLYMPIA, Wash. (UPI)—City officials have replaced a number of new nickel and dime parking meters with older models that take pennies — because of President Nixon's wage-price freeze.

City Supervisor Eldon Marshall was advised by the Internal Revenue Service that a complaint had been filed by an unnamed citizen, who noted the price of parking had jumped from 5 to 10 cents an hour on the new meters.

The old meters, put back in place Wednesday, give motorists the option of renting the space at the rate of 12 minutes for a penny.
